The Holloman Building, Raleigh, July 25.

Governor Glenn this morning disposed of a very interesting case, that of a white man, D. D. Williams, of this city, about 50 years old, who was sent to the roads for a year and who was pardoned by the Governor some time ago, upon condition that he remain sober, be industrious and treat his wife properly, maintaining her and their daughter. The Governor found that last Friday Williams was drunk in company with bad women and beat his wife. He ordered the sheriff to rearrest the man; and sent him back to the roads to serve until October 1th, and told the sheriff to keep him hard at work and give him no liberty.

A charter is granted the State Bank at Laurinburg, $40,000 capital stock, John F. McNair being the principal stockholder.

A commission is issued to Z. P. Smith, first lieutenant, Company B, Third Regiment, Raleigh.

There were four runaways on the principal streets here, all due to the starting of one horse, and as a result a negro lad, Dick Rogers, was badly hurt, while bravely hanging on to his own horse.

All the matters have been settled regarding the extension of the street railway, nearly four miles, and the contract has been signed by the company and the city, the city renewing the lighting contract for five years at the old terms, the chamber of commerce has worked very hard to bring about this, being the prime mover in it. The work done by the chamber this year has been most gratifying to that organization, and all of the reports of the Raleigh City Board, this brought about the extension of the city limits.

Next Monday the survey of the boundary of Greater Raleigh will begin. The engineer in charge is Gaston Wilder Rogers and he will be assisted by two assistants, one from the State University and two from the Agriculture and Mechanical College. The survey will be sufficiently completed within 30 days to enable the authorities to know who are inside the new boundary in order that the election on prohibition or dispensary may be held.

A very interesting arrest was made at Beaufort this week. The chief of police found that a man who has a whiskey distillery in that section was bringing liquor to that town artfully hidden in a boat, and the men galloping of the staff. This the mayor held under orders from State Solicitor Abernathy, who notified Deputy Revenue Collector Cameron, who took the liquor. The co-operation is very gratifying to the revenue authorities and Mr. Cameron spoke of it in very handsome terms, saying it was the first case of the kind in the State.

The report for this State of the weather in June shows that the mean temperature was 4 degrees below normal, and that the rainfall was seven inches, which is two and a half inches above normal. The temperature was the lowest in 21 years except in 1903, while the rainfall was the highest except last year. The monthly mean temperature was 70-1-2 degrees, the highest being 99 at Settle, and the lowest 37, at Sapphire. The greatest amount of rain was 12 inches at Washington, and the lowest 3 inches at Asheville. The monthly percentage of possible sunshine was 70 at Asheville, 59 at Raleigh, 66 at Wilmington and 53 at Elizabeth City.

The State board of health reports that smallpox was much less prevalent than the past year, there being only 1537 cases, with 6 deaths, while the previous year there were 6,049 cases and 17 deaths, the number in 1905 being 7,375, with 31 deaths.

The Selma people are certainly in earnest about the memorial to Henry A. Wyatt, the first Confederate soldier killed in battle, to be placed in the capital square. With the assistance of a number of the national guards it is proposed by Captain Paul Jones, of the Tarboro Company, of which Wyatt used to be a member, to reproduce the battle of Bethel here at Raleigh during the State fair. He will again visit the battleground so as to be prepared to give a fine reproduction. There will be temporary buildings, like those on the battlefield, notably the one which Wyatt and several comrades were killed to burn and on which they were advancing when Wyatt was shot.

Dr. Gerald McCarthy, the State director of hygiene, will go to Europe in the spring, and while he is away his place is to be taken by C. A. Shore, of Winston-Salem, a graduate of Johns Hopkins University, and who has worked in the United States laboratory at Beaufort.

The finishing touches are being put on the exterior of the large printing house of Edwards & Broughton, state printer. It is now fully occupying his new and spacious building and finds it most convenient in every way. It will obviate to a very great extent very annoying delays which have often occurred in turning out work for the State.

The Seaboard Air Line has been most successful this year in bringing great Sunday school excursions to Raleigh, and yesterday broke the record, bringing 1,147 persons from Weidon and intermediate points. Several weeks ago the secretary of the chamber of commerce sent to all the Sunday schools within a hundred miles of Raleigh a leaflet telling about the many attractions of Raleigh and these leaflets have been widely read.

Wake county is taking great interest in the location of the new county high schools and these are to be handsome buildings. The town of Cary has the honor of being the first in the State to get such a school and the people are very proud of this fact.

The street railway company has a large force still engaged in putting down 70-pound rails. The work of double-tracking Fayetteville street is to be finished within 40 days. Great quantities of rails have been ordered. The extension will bring the city into such good touch with the system that in very few cases will residents have to go more than two blocks to reach a car. The new southern addition to the city will be opened. It is to be quite largely a manufacturing suburb, and the American Box and Veneer Company, which makes a patent box for plug tobacco, is erecting a considerable plant there.

AGENT AT ELLIS ISLAND

South Carolina Likely to Have a Man to Represent Immigration Department at Ellis Island.

1009 Main Street, Columbia, S. C., July 24.

The likelihood is that South Carolina will be the first State in the Union to have a representative on Ellis Island, Commissioner Watson goes on to Washington next week to take the subject up with the authorities, and he said to-day that he would likely appoint a man to be stationed on the island temporarily at least.

The new Federal law allowing the States having an immigration department to have a representative at Ellis Island in order to present in person the claims of the State to the immigrants landing there went into effect this month. A copy of the law has just reached Commissioner Watson, along with Federal immigration department's request for full data as to the claims of South Carolina.

CURTAIN ABOUT TO FALL

HAYWOOD SOON TO KNOW FATE

In the Case of the State of Idaho Against William D. Haywood, Charged With Complicity in the Assassination of Governor Frank Stuenkel, December 29, 1905, the Evidence is All In the Arguments Have Been Concluded and To-day the Jury Will Pass on the Guilt or Innocence of the Accused Man—Jury Crossed Present Subject Speech of Senator Borah.

Boise, Idaho, July 25.—Evidence and argument are at an end, and tomorrow the jury will be left to decide whether William D. Haywood, secretary of the Western Federation of Miners, is guilty of participation in a criminal conspiracy to assassinate former Governor Frank Stuenkel, who was murdered with a bomb at his home in Caldwell December 29, 1905.

United States Senator William E. Borah, engaged by the State of Idaho, as special counsel for the prosecution, spoke the last word to-night.

To-morrow morning Judge Fremont Wood will charge and instruct the jury, which is expected to retire to consider the verdict about 11 o'clock. The crowd seeking admission to the court room to-night broke all records in a murder trial in Idaho. Two hundred persons remained in the grounds when the doors were closed after the morning session, and hours before they opened again all approaches were blocked. When every inch of space within the court room was filled, several hundred stood on the lawn near the windows, and the might catch some from the impassioned pleading of the young Senator.

ANALYSIS OF EVIDENCE.

Senator Borah laid the foundation for his argument last night. This morning he began an analysis of the evidence, but he confined himself to the murder of Stuenkel himself and Haywood. He linked Orchard to Simpkins, Simpkins to Moyer and Moyer to Pettibone. Then selecting only the evidence of witnesses for the defense and leaving Orchard's movements of the five men together. Without departing from the records incidentally clearing up situations left somewhat clouded, he brought these offenders and members of the Western Federation of Miners away from Denver he took Orchard again to Denver to the headquarters of the Western Federation of Miners. This was done carefully and almost monotonously. He voice again and again, "I have not sprung into action. His voice quivering, hand upraised, fingers outstretched, he shouted:

"Watch them now. Watch the five conspirators. Stuenkel is to die in 30 days and they are moving on the scene."

HEARERS SPELLBOUND.

The dramatic utterance and tense figure of the pleader sent a thrill through the court room. For the space of ten seconds there was silence, then relaxing, Borah went on with a vigor which was not to be brought down by Davis, Copley, Adams and Easterly, all officers or members of the Western Federation of Miners, into touch with Orchard. Without a pause, he drew pictures and scenes of the men associating together at various points. From each place and fresh from every crime he brought Orchard back "home to Denver," and then smiling, leaned toward the jury to ask:

"Why, why, always back to Denver unless it was to find there the protection and the pay of his employers?"

All those things denounced or sneered at by counsel for the defense found a bold and brilliant paragraph of defense in Senator Borah's later-cludes, and counsel for the defense were driven into a murmur of protest, now under the lash of pointed sarcasm and again when under the fire of indignant reproach, culture and christianity, law and order, the home and the country, found a ready champion. The State of Idaho, its people and its chief executive, each in turn were lauded.

HAYWOOD PALED.

Under it all Haywood was perhaps the one man in the room who showed the least emotion. At times his face flushed, and more than once he paled under the attack of Borah, reaching the climax of the conspiracy pointing an accusing finger at the man who he said "was the criminal force behind the Western Federation of Miners."

Mrs. Stuenkel, widow of the murdered Governor, attended the morning session, but left early almost prostrated by emotion awakened by Borah's vivid oratory. Haywood's mother also left the court room in tears, but soon returned to take her accustomed place beside the invalid wife of the defendant.

Senator Borah's peroration was delivered in quiet, almost pleading tones, in strong contrast to the harsher voice in which he spoke of Clarence Darrow's argument of justification.

"If," he said, "the State has pointed out to you the men who were concerned in and executed this awful crime, in the name of the Idaho, do your duty without fear of any man or any favor to your gain."

MEMORY OF ANOTHER SCENE.

"As I listened to the eloquent voice of counsel pleading for their client there came to me the memory of another scene and another time. I remembered again the fight in dark December in 1905, a night that added ten years to the lives of some now here in this room. I felt again the icy chill and faced the drifting sleet and stood again beside the body of my dead friend whose life blood stained the snow."

"I felt again the disgrace that had come to Idaho. I saw in the murdered man that meant more than murder, for it meant the first blow that anarchy had aimed at my State, and on that night I said to myself, can time unteach the lesson of this hour?"

"Let us then be brave in this supreme moment. If the defendant is innocent, let him go free; but if not, let him take the punishment that the law prescribes. You have a higher duty to perform than ever was asked of a jury in Idaho. Some of you men have stood the test in the past in protection of your homes and your flag, but you have never faced a duty that required a higher courage than now. In every home in Idaho the thoughts of our people are with you, mingling with thoughts of things that made these THE FIRST REQUIREMENT OF BEAUTY.

The first requisite of beauty is a clear complexion. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup causes a sallow blotched complexion as it stimulates the liver and the bowels, and the eyes become bright and clear. You see it to your friends to take it if your complexion is sallow. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or griped, is very pleasant to take. Beware substitutes. R. H. Jordan & Co.
