After riding over the city, the journey ended at Letts Park at 7 o'clock, where the best of watermelon was served. Commencing at 10 o'clock, the most pleasant time of the day, the affair was much enjoyed.

At the same hour as that of the Trinity trolley ride, the East Avenue Tabernacle Sunday school gave one of its own, winding up with a watermelon feast at the park. It was a curious coincidence that neither school knew of the intentions of the other when making its plans, but they merged and had a good time together.

Alleged Committee on City Slaughter House Will Not Recommend Acceptance of Crematory Feature of Butchers' Proposition, if Sanitary Considerations Forbid—Matter to be Investigated.

The consensus of opinion of the board of aldermen seems to be heartily in favor of accepting the proposition to erect an abattoir to be used by the city butchers instead of individual slaughter houses. The proposal made by the 13 butchers is that the city use the crematory tract of eight acres and build a two-story structure, the second story to be used for slaughtering. The slaughter house is to be erected at a cost of $7,000, the company to take a ten-year lease on the property. The committee appointed by the aldermen Monday night to confer with the board of health, which recommends this action, Messrs. Shelor, Scott, Griffin, Klouse, E. E. Williams and Severs, Klouse, E. S. Williams and Severs, will not report until it has been carefully investigated. It will look into local conditions, while Dr. E. C. Register will go to other cities and report. If it be found that such an institution would be likely to be objectionable to the nearby residents, the crematory proposition will not be accepted. Nearly everybody feels that the interests of health demand the establishment of a city slaughter house.

The aldermen will meet to-night to consider the street proposition made by the board of public service.

STRONG BUT DELICATE. This may seem unusual and it is, but Elsie Ribben Lemon possesses both delicacy and strength.

BRIEFS

The rain came as a blessing last night. It cooled off the earth and improved the atmosphere. The contract for the First National Bank Building will be let within the next few days.

Mr. John J. Oment has gone to the Jamestown Exposition. Mr. C. G. Auten is taking care of his shop. Mr. Allen Milliron, who was operated on for appendicitis at St. Peter's Hospital yesterday, is doing well.

At the picnic to be held at the Perry C. Hunter place, two and one half miles east of Croft, on the 27th, there will be a sham battle and the veterans will do a dress parade. The board of directors of the Young Women's Christian Association will meet in monthly session this morning at 11 o'clock at the association building on North Church street.

The cotton receipts at the platform in Charlotte yesterday amounted to 23 bales and the prevailing price was 13 1/2 cents. Last year on the same date 37 bales were sold at an average price of 10 1/2 cents.

Mr. C. C. West is having his vacant lot on West Trade street, between Tryon and Church, cleared of rubbish. It is said that he will build a market there. When asked by an Observer man what he was going to do he said he had not made up his mind.

The books for the county bond election, which will be held September 19th, the issue being the issuance of non-issuance of $300,000 of road bonds by Mecklenburg, will open next Saturday and continue open for 30 days. A new registration is required.

There will be an ice cream supper to-night at O'Donoghue Hall, corner of South Tryon and Stonewall streets, under the auspices of the Children of Mary for a charitable purpose. The W. O. W. Band will furnish music for the occasion from 8 to 10 p. m.

Dr. W. D. Witherbee, secretary of the Mecklenburg Medical Association, has called a meeting of the members to gather at the city hall this afternoon at 4:30, that they may attend in a body the funeral of the late Dr. Joseph Graham.

Lonnie Davis, the negro boy who struck Miss Spratt with a baseball some time ago, is in the police station. He will have a hearing before Recorder Smith this morning. George Abenethy, who was playing ball with Davis at the time, was fined $15 for his part in the offense.

A will of a negro man, which was a curiosity in its way, was put on record yesterday in the clerk of the court's office. The entire value of the property concerned, as stated in the opening paragraph was $50. There were twenty separate bequests and over 600 words were consumed in the transferring of this vast amount of property.

The square belongs to the people. An ordinance, the purpose of which was to keep it clear of people, was passed as a joke several years ago. The new administration is enforcing it, much to the disgust of the folks who like to assemble there and see the multitude. A man would rather get run over occasionally than to have to move off of Independence Square.

The feature of the game was the batting of Panella, for the stock company, and a running catch of Irwin, one of the actors. The game was well attended. Another game will be played one day next week.

Failed. All efforts have failed to find a better remedy for coughs, colds and lung troubles. Dr. J. N. Fetterman, of Nashua, N. H., writes: "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lung and tried at least half a dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two-thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world." R. H. Jordan & Co.

Enlarged Glands of the Neck Cured. For five or six years I suffered from enlarged glands of my neck, which troubled me greatly, especially when I was exposed to cold, damp air. Whenever I took any cold the glands of my neck would swell and enlarge in lumps from under the ear to the collar bone. This affected my general health and my system became run down from it, and I remained in that condition for five years. After trying other things without benefit, I went on Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and one dozen bottles cured me and restored me to perfect health, and I am now a walking advertisement of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.
