Flames Imperil Lives of Sixty Strike-Breakers Employed at Erie Ma-chine Shops at Susquehanna, Pa., Asleep in the Building—Damage Amounts to $185,000.

Binghamton, N. Y., Aug. 14.—The lives of sixty strike-breakers in the Erie Machine Shops at Susquehanna, Pa, were imperiled and the mammoths sote house of the company was destroyed by fire at an early hour to-day. The strike-breakers had been unable to obtain board in the village and were quartered in the upper portion of the big wooden building in which is stored all the supplies used on the Erie division between New York and Buffalo. The are was discongregation and already a large sum covered in the upper portion of the building shortly after 3 o'clock and it was with difficulty that the men made their escape. The flames spread rapidly, and the building was destroyed, but the adjacent shops were saved.

The loss is $185,000.

MARRIAGE LAWS TOO LOOSE.

This is the Statement of a Couple From Spartanburg Who Came to Charlotte Yesterday and Were Married—Rev. H. K. Boyer Performed the Ceremony at Tryon Street Church Parsonage.

It is not unusual for lovers to elope on account of parental objecusual for lovers in North Carolina to order to be maried where the law demands no license, but it is somewhat unusual for a couple to come from South Carolina to this State in order to be married under a law! that does repuire a license. Such a course adopted by Mr. Joseph 18mmons and Miss Effie Clayton, of Spartanburg, who were married in this city yesterday. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage of Tryon Street Methodist church yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Hugh K. Boyer officiating, These young peeople have been ento be deserving of opposition to their marriage on account oof their be ing too young. The marriage was witnessed by several persons, and the young people explained fully that their reason for coming to Charlotte to be married was on account of their objection to the law in South Carolina. They stated that they desired to have their marriage recorded in a license and in a marriage certificate, Mr. Booyer furnishing Tryon Street Church to Be Improved. Plans have been adopted for the remodeling of the Tryon Street Methodist church, and these will be submitted to an architect at an early date, For sometime past there has been a desire on the part of the leading members of the Tryon Street congregation to have such improvements made, and a committee was appointed to consider the matter. This committee has been actively at work and they hope this improvement may be begun within a short time.
