THE NINTH EXCITING.

The ninth inning furnished the gen- tailing, brought in a verdict of guilty. uine excitement of the evening. Lin-colnton, urged on by Captain Love Wednesday and for more than two and Manager Morrison, went up with whole days and three nights, the blood in her eyes. Montgomery, a members had wrestled with the case. Charlotte boy, singled past third. This was the one during the trial of nasty fly to deft, that dropped safe between Lindsey and McLaurin. Smith, the real hero of the day, lined to deep right for three bases. Wideman made the hearts of the Lincolnton rooters rejoice by a single to cases, wherein negroes are charged right, on which Smith romped home. The next three batters were easy outs. Sumter tied up the game again in of in two or three days and adjournher half and for a few moments looked exceedingly dangerous, indeed. Welsh and McLaurin singled in succession. Phelps fanned, trying to advance them. Fulienwider threw wild to second in an effort to catch Welch napping. This served to let Welch score and McLaurin reach third. Lindsey hit to short, who held Mc-Laurin on third, but threw to first too late to catch Lindsey. Lindsey immediately stole second. Murrow hit a short fly to left field and Price pulled out of a tight hole nicely.
