

WORKED WITH HARRY FOOT.

Deaky Dashed Touchdown... The following from The Oklahoma...

"E. E. Benbow came to Oklahoma City from North Carolina several weeks ago to buy horses. He got horses and also a large bunch of experience."

"Benbow had two car loads of horses on the tracks at the Frisco stock yards yesterday afternoon while he was waiting for the train to pull out, he met Rosie Williams, very colored, and Benbow's story is to be believed, not very honest."

"Benbow says that after a short conversation with the lady in black, she in some strange and mysterious manner, without his consent, attempted to explain, succeeded in taking from his inside pocket a wallet containing $90 in hard cash, his bills of lading for the horses and his return ticket to his North Carolina home."

"Miss Williams admitted to Judge Zwick that she had spent a few minutes in pleasant conversation with Benbow, but indignantly denied that she knew anything about the whereabouts of his missing valuables."

"HUNTERVILLE'S GREAT DAY. Annual Picnic and Tournament Will Take Place To-Morrow. The annual picnic at Huntersville, the biggest event of the kind in Mecklenburg county, and the grand tournament, will take place to-morrow."

"The tournament is open to all, and prizes will be offered to successful knights as follows: (1) $15, set of harness; (2) $10 saddle; (3) $5 whip and bridle; (4) $5 whitebone whip."

"Introduction—Col. William C. Maxwell. Address—Hon. L. W. Overman. Introduction—Dr. H. M. Wilder. Address—Mr. D. A. Tompkins."

"RESIGNATION OF MISS GATTIS. She Resigns as City Missionary of Tryon Street Methodist Church to Resume Her Studies in Nashville—Her Work Has Been Successful Here This Summer."

"The principal item of business before the Woman's Home Mission Society of Tryon Street Methodist church yesterday afternoon was the resignation of Miss Minnie Gattis as city missionary. Since June, Miss Gattis has been acting in this capacity for Tryon Street church, and her work has been discharged faithfully and successfully."

"IN THE CITY POLICE COURT. Several Fights and a Few Drunks Handled by Recorder Smith. It is an unusual prelude to a baptizing of one colored sister to snatch the shirt waist off of another colored sister, but this is what Cynthia Barnett did for Nettie Burleson Sunday afternoon."

"THE LIBRARY A RESTFUL PLACE. Always Cool and At Present a 'Cozy Corner' is Easily Available—'The Trait' is the Most Popular Book—Attractive Bulletin Boards on Display."

"Burst His Ear Drum. Sam Brown, a Postal messenger boy, fell from a training pole which he was climbing in front of the Postal telegraph office yesterday and burst his ear drum. The boy died profusely. He was picked up and carried to his home where doctors were called in to find a hard time was being had in the head time when the blow of blood from the ear."

"Pale, Delicate Women and Girls. The 'Old Standard GROVES' TASTELESS CHILL TONIC drives out malaria and builds up the system. For grown people and children, 50c."

DR. WALKER'S LITTLE JOKE.

James L. Brown, of Cabarrus county, correspondent of The Observer, Mooreville, Aug. 17.—Mrs. James L. Brown, of Cabarrus county, died at the home of her son, Mr. J. E. Brown, near Bethpage, Thursday night about 10 o'clock. Mr. Brown was taken suddenly ill Thursday morning about 2 o'clock, and about his son's reaching his side, he found his father in an almost semi-conscious state. A physician was at once summoned and it was soon learned that Mr. Brown was suffering from epileptic convulsions, and he died before he could regain consciousness before he died."

"Mr. Brown moved to Cabarrus county in 1868 after serving a full term in the Confederate army. He was married in 1871 to Miss Mary P. Freeze, who preceded him to the grave in 1881. He has since made his home with his son, who lives at the old homestead near Bethpage, and at the time of his death was 84 years of age. He leaves only two children, Mr. J. E. Brown, of Cabarrus; and Mr. Andy E. Brown, of Waverly. He has two brothers, Mr. J. F. Brown, of Prospect; and Mr. J. F. Brown, of Back Creek; and one sister, Mrs. Maggie C. Ken, of Texas. He was a member of the Bethpage church from which the services were conducted Friday by Rev. Mr. Mathews, the pastor and the interment was made in the burying ground by the side of his wife."

"Sudden Death From Heart Disease. Special to The Observer. Mount Airy, Aug. 19.—The sudden death from heart disease of Mr. Cabaniss, the proprietor of the Central Hotel, Friday night, is still talked on the streets. It is learned that his wife is in bad health, and that the shock may prove more than she can hold up under. Mr. Cabaniss was a new man here and was not generally known to Mount Airy citizens. He was perhaps 65 years old and seemed in perfect health the day he died. Just before death claimed him after 9 o'clock at night he was in his office, talking interestingly, and, without a moment's warning, fell forward, and in a few seconds life was extinct."

"F. Oates, of Chester, S. C. Special to The Observer. Chester, S. C., Aug. 19.—Mr. F. Oates, of the late John F. Oates, whose death was chronicled in this correspondence two weeks ago, died this afternoon after a protracted illness. Pulmonary trouble was the cause of his death. Mr. Oates was 23 years of age. He was a young man of much promise. For the last several years he had been with Gresham & Jamison, the proprietor of numerous eating houses along the Seaboard Air Line Railway at various points, and was making a fine reputation as a hotel man. Mr. Oates leaves a mother, a brother and three sisters. The funeral services will be held at the home to-morrow and the remains laid to rest in Evergreen Cemetery."

"J. T. Reeves, of Surry County. Mount Airy, Aug. 19.—Mr. J. T. Reeves, one of the most influential farmers and best-known citizens of Surry county, fell dead Sunday morning at his home near this city. He complained of feeling sick and sent for a doctor. Soon after the doctor came he stepped out, and, falling, return as soon as expected by his family, search was made and his dead body was found. It is thought he died of heart failure. Few men in his section had more friends or could possibly be missed more than will Mr. Reeves."

"HENRY BROADWAY, OF DAVIDSON COUNTY. Spence, Aug. 19.—Henry Broadway aged 68 years a well-known farmer of Davidson county, suffered an attack of heart failure while in a melon patch at his home Saturday and died yesterday from the effects. He was a Confederate veteran and leaves a large family of grown children."

"THE FIRST REQUISITE OF BEAUTY. The first requisite of beauty is a clear complexion. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup clears a sallow blotched complexion as it stimulates the liver and bowels, and the eyes become bright and clear. You owe it to your friends to take it if your complexion is bad. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or grip and is very pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes."

"SEE IT TO-DAY, ONE OF THE BEST EVER AT THEATRE. Wilmington, Aug. 19.—Seventy-five Italian laborers in charge of one of their own countrymen, Antonio Ross, a contractor for construction work have arrived from Pennsylvania to begin work on a 12-mile railway which the Waccamaw Land & Lumber Co. will extend through the southern part of the state, near Bolton, 25 miles south of Wilmington. The laborers were brought from the North in large numbers and are camped at Bolton, where the contractor has begun the installation of a very large and complete mill plant. The Sea-Shell Beach at Waverlyville Beach closed to transient guests to-day, though 15 or 20 regular boarders will be kept a week or two longer."

"Do Rich Men Need Life Insurance? No. 3. (Continued) It is the rich men of the country who are in debt. A poor man cannot borrow $100,000; a rich man can. Credit, while the best asset and the greatest opportunity of the rich man, is often his greatest peril. Life insurance will safeguard it. With the individual credit ceases at death. Estates can rarely be sold. Credit is not always a matter of interest and collateral. Fear and favor exercise their influence in the making of loans. Both cease when a man is dead. Every banker and man of affairs know cases, not only where death during acute financial conditions has ruined a otherwise prosperous estate, but where estates would have been ruined had death occurred before the plans of their owners had matured. Adequate Life Insurance gives peace of mind to the man who is conscious that his estate would ruin prospects eventually resulting in enormous gains. There are times when a man will pay anything for ready money necessary to his financial life. If this is true of a man when living, how necessary is it to provide ready money at his death! If rich men are worried in arranging for money during their lives, why should they impose such burdens on their widows and orphans, who are unfamiliar with business affairs? Surely it is wise for a man to insure his life. See enough to meet his debts. Moral—Insure in The Equitable Life. No company in the world offers greater certainty of payment than The Equitable. This is the first consideration in Life Insurance. No company can furnish safe Life Insurance at a permanently lower cost than The Equitable. THE CHARMING WOMAN.

Is not necessarily one of perfect form and features. Many a plain woman who could never serve as an artist's model, possesses those rare qualities that all the world admires: neatness, clear eyes, clean smooth skin and that sprightliness of step and action that accompany good health. A physically weak woman is never attractive, not even to herself. Electric Bitters restore weak women, give strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, beautiful complexion. Guaranteed at all druggists, 50c.
