Vaughn-Watkins, at Mount Airy.

All advertisements inserted in this

WANTED-A good soher printer. State experience and wages expected. Give reference. J. C. Hardy, Warrenton, N. C.

WANTED-Sales girls for notion depart-ment. Apply in person. Efird's Dept.

WANTED-By lady, position as stene-grapher. Address Miss X. Y., Etowah, N. C.

WANTED-Young man stenographer with experience Address P. O. Box

W. W. KITOHIN AT DIXIE

the same of the control fall in the control fa

"In a former speech I said: 'Every paper in this State so far as I recall that sided with the railroads and columns of these papers and others that follow them encouraged that political slander, originating in the Republican State organ, usually called fifth district combine, after myself and others had denounced it as utterly false, indicates both the determination of their opposition and the character of the contest they are willing to wage against me.'

"The Messenger and The Times

candidacy or denies that its columns porations fairly. criticised me for opposing the subsidy, each I understand has questioned my right to name it as against me. I have world such an article, for its manisuggestion was against such candidacy.
"The Evening Times on the 23d of July said that if I had had more patience I might have seen some-thing nice about me in its columns, perhaps. The 'perhaps' is the most waiving its hostile criticisms of me, therefore, as late as May 10th of this year, 1907, in a long editorial upon the situation in which my name is mentioned twice, the editor says, 'We think it is the turn of the extreme west this time, and we want to see the name of the extreme that section fair to its reader the nominee a man from that section of the State, across the great moun-tains. If I lived in Cherokee and my competitors in Currituck, that edi-torial would not have been written. It is remarkable that an eastern paper should take such a position now, when by our custom the nomi-nation would go east. It is re-says that if Glenn is a western man, then Kitchin is an eastern man, then Glenn is an eastern man, then Glenn is an eastern man, for, says he, they are from the same congressional district. That they live far apart is not to be considered in his ten my work for the people of the Chapter of apart is not to be considered in his logic. By his simple process, if Charlotte is this side of the mountains, so is Marshall, or if Marshall vent the overthrow of their will—nor is 'across the great mountains,' so is Charlotte, for they are in 'the same congressional district.' By the same simple process seven years ago Wilmington was either a western town or Charlotte was a scaport, for they are in 'the same congres-sional district.' I assert that The Times could not use such sophistry, unless hostility clouded its intelli-

"The Charlotte Observer charged my Union speech with inaccuracy. In my next speech I defied that paper to specify a single inaccuracy. In its issue of August 4th it accepted the challenge and showed a surprising weakness by copying much derogatory matter from The Asheville Gazette-News. The able editor of The Observer is hard put when he resorts to irrelevant matter in other In its issue of August th it accepted the challenge and showed a surplising weakness by copying much derogatory matter from The Asheville Gasette-News. The able editor of The Observer is hard put when he resorts to irrelevant matter in other columns in support of a clear-current of the control of the control of the companies of the consecution. The Observer of its own responsibility specified only two insecuracies in my speech, and then referred to the complaints of The Wilmington Messenger and The Evenling Times, which I have already mentioned. The two specifications were, first, that I was inaccurate in saying that it had published as a purpose of the conservatives he refinement of Josephus Banlels from the national committee. In support of my statement I cite that it published in its issue of March 7th. 1907, a leiter from its correspondent, Mr. Wil D. Adams. writing from Raleigh, in which in the answer of an unnamed leader who was asked the question. What do you intent to do should you succeed in gaining control of the next State convention? appeared the following words. Observer from his position as nature of the convention of the next State convention? appeared the following words. Observer from his position as nature of the convention of the next State convention? appeared the following words. Observer from his position as nature countries for the modifices of the convention of the next State convention? appeared the following words. Observer from his position as nature control of the next State convention? appeared the following words. Observer appears that the convention of the cut State convention? Appeared the following words. Observer from his position as nature control to the next State convention? Appeared the following words. Observer from his position as nature control to the next State convention? Appeared the following words. Observer from his position as nature control of the next State convention? Appeared the following words. Observer from his position as nature control of the next State co

.C.

the versatile reporter undertook to improve the statement. When I challenged my assallants to name a criticised me for opposing the railroad man not over forty-one years of age, subsidy is to-day against my nomination for, Governor. If I am correctly informed, The Wilmington Messenger, Charlotte Observer, The Asheville Gazette-News and The Raleigh Evening Times are fail against me.

"The unanimity with which the religion of these apares and others of two. I cannot, of course, allude of two. I cannot, of course, allude me in that matter, to all the 'inaccuracies' even in The "In concluding I Observer, to say nothing of those papers that make no point of accu-

"The Asheville papeer charged me with being unsafe, noted the fact that I had appeared for plaintiffs against rgilroads, and thought the differences between my views and those of the Southern Railway and the American The Messenger and The Times Southern Railway and the Shaker have taken exception to my remarks. Tobacco Company so serious that if Though neither pretends to favor my Governor I could not treat these cor-

"Though for many years my life has been an open book, I never became done them no injustice. I named no unfair, unsafe, or dangerous until afpaper that had not shown opposition to my candidacy. The Messenger the month of March it said: If Mr.

WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

WANTED.

WANTED.

WANTED.

WANTED.

WANTED.

WANTED.

FOR SALE—Well equipped job and decrive the people of North Carolina newspaper office. Job department has street.

WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

Clarence Kuester, ii7 North College street.

WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

FOR SALE—Well equipped job and newspaper office. Job department has street.

WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

Semi-weekly news
WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

Semi-weekly news
WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

Semi-weekly news
WEDDING AT MAXBOX.

WEDDING AT MAXBO ter my candidacy was announced, and Kitchin makes such a good Con-gressman that Democrats have elected when the greatest district in the State him six times, it looks like that is the has given me five unanimous nominaplace he ought to stay.' It would tions, when most of its best bankers, not have said this as my friend. A preachers, merchants, manufacturers, o'clock yesterday evening Miss Sarah friend might tell me that he thought farmers, lawyers, doctors, and men of McLeon was united in marriage to Mr. ought to stay in Congress, but no every honorable and useful calling Eugene Morrison, of Moryen, The supporter of my candidacy for the have loyally stood by me and never governorship would publish to the supported that I was unsafe, my critics to specify a single vote, or officiating, speech, or act, or position of mine safe, unfair, dangerous, or contrary to striking were in its editorial. It also not undertake to produce the evisions were in its editorial. It also not undertake to produce the evisions sang in charming manner expresses the desire that I give the dence. They prefer to spread abroad same sang in charming manner evidence of its opposition to me. an untrue and unsupported charge, "Love Me and the World Is Mine," Walving its hostile criticisms of me, hoping in their anxiety to wrong me and at the close of this beautiful that some good citizen will be de-

"When The Observer published a Mendelssohn's march which ushered challenge to my services as Representative, it was neither just to itself nor First came the ushers, Messrs. fair to its readers. It knew that since my career began in Congress, we had not had a Democratic House, or adcrats, nor even all the Democrats combined, had been able to accomplish any general legislation during that time. The intimation that I ought to markable that such position is taken, not in reference to the positions of under such circumstances is a complished such legislation under such circumstances is a complished such circumstance in the circumstance in the circumstance is a complished such circumstance in the circumstance is a complished such circumstance in the circumstance in the circumstance is a complished such circumstance in the circumstance is a complished such circumstance in the circumstance in the circumstance is a complex circumstance in the circumstance have accomplished such legislation ment far greater than I deserve.

secretary of State, Auditor, or Treasurer, but only in reference to the position I seek.

"The Times may think its editorial consistent with friendship to me, for its process of reaching consciusions as appears from that editorial is an unusual one. Its editor or could know by consulting the records or inquiring of any Senator or National Island and Miss Margaret Barnes.

"Minority members can vote their of Maxton, all beautifully attired in white and carrying bodquets of green and white. The maid of honor, Miss that I have in these respects performed my full duty, the Observer knows or could know by consulting the records or inquiring of any Senator or National Island Constitution of Maxton, all beautifully attired in white and carrying bodquets of green and white. The maid of honor, Miss dargaret Barnes. vent the overthrow of their will-nor my defense of our constitutional amendment—nor the many other oceasions upon which I engaged in debate with Republicans upon matters affecting our State, or the cause of

In this campaign in which the people of the district.

In this campaign in which the people opposition. A greater mistake cannot be made. I respect open, fair opposition is made. I respect open, fair opposition, though of course I would prater for all to agree with me. If one were running, who was in thorough accord with the wishes of the railroads. I would in the interest of the people oppose him and expect him to respect me for so doing. And I can not condemn the opposition of these who differ with me on important propositions of vital interest to the name.

ttor on July 4th at Lincolnton in which what the speaker said in regard their home. The bride is a daughter to the rate law controversy and the of Mr. Reuben Pope, of Winston, and stand Judge Pritchard was taking was here with other members of the omitted in The Observer entirely. So family in a visit to the family of Mr. it is guilty of sins of omission as well Fulbright. as sins of commission.

"Now a to the mail ubsidy, I just want to say that Yates Wehb, your own faithful and diligent Representa-Waughn, of the Southern Railway, was united in marriage Sunday evening to Miss Fannie Watkins, at the home of the bride in this city. The tive, stood shoulder to shoulder with

"In concluding I want to say that I don't justify my candidacy. I ask the young couple left Wednesday morning people to do that. I am not begging on a bridal trip to a number of cities. for this nomination, though I do want Their many friends extend congratu-it mighty bad. You bet I want it. lations and best wishes. it mighty bad. You bet I want it.

"The news has come to me that needn't expect anything in Mecklenburg, because the leaders of the two factions in Charlotte have gotten to-gether, but I want you all to remember this day. I have no great corpor ations behind me-and I can't nominate myself."

Mr. Kitchin brought his speech t a close by quoting Philliplans 4:5.

Young Merchant of Morven,

Special to The Observer. Maxton, Aug. 29 .- At . exactly WANTED-First-class gingham weavers on Crompton & Knowles Looms. Price 25 cents per cut. 14 picks. Work 62 hours a week. Apply Huguenot Mills, Green-ville, S. C. ceremony was performed in the Pressuspected that I was unsafe, ceremony was performed in the Pres-unfair, or dangerous? I again defy byterian church here, Dr. H. G. Hill

The church was profusely decoratwhich they will dare charge was un- ed in white and green, the pulpit besafe, unfair, dangerous, or contrara to the interest of the people. They dare not try to specify the facts—they dare not undertake to produce the evithe hour appointed Mrs. R. M. Wilthe hour appointed Mrs. R. M. Wil-"Love Me and the World Is Mine," WANTED-Registered pharmacist. Apsole Miss Be. Weatherly struck up Mendelssohn's march which ushered

Goodman and Hardison, of Morven: and Drs. D. C. McIver and J. D. ministration. It knew that not even the distinguished leader of the Demo-Miss Bessie LeGwin and Miss Charlotte Styson, of Wilmington; Miss Mc-Daniels, of Latum, S. C.; Miss Bessie McNan, Miss Mattle Williams Mc-Leon, Miss Kate Thompson, Miss Salment far greater than I deserve. He Austin and Miss Margaret Barnes, "Minority members can vote their of Maxton, all beautifully attired in > Support of the Charlotte WANTED-Half dozen hat makers for millingry department. Apply at once at millingry department, Trade street store. The Little-Long Co. Carnegie Library for White bate with Republicans upon matters affecting our State, or the cause of Democracy.

"No man can say that our Democratic delegation has ever failed to repel avery assault made upon our State or party, and it would not be candid to ask what has the delegation accomplished merely because important general legislation affecting the whole country cannot be claimed by it under Republican majority.

"I heretofore said that if the rail-roads and trusts can hold the balance to the State of North Carolina, ratified and adopted during the session of 1907, and an ordinance of the Board of Aldermen of the City of Charlotte passed in accordance therewise the north 1907, polls to open at sunrise and close at sunset, on the question whether a special tax of real and personal property liable for taxation by the City of Charlotte 538 38th street, directly on car line to the Jamestown Exposition. Logging $1. Special rates to parties of four or more. Address G. M. Cake. they will go to Winston and make FURNISHED rooms with bath privilege for rent. Apply 810 South Tryon St.

THE CHARLOTTE Sanatorium Co.
wishes to sell the house now on the Crystal Palace lot for removal about
Nov. lat. Apply to Dr. W. D. Witherbee,
Sec. and Treus Special to The Observer.
Mount Airy, Aug. 29.—Capt. Frank

AT HALF PRICE white they last. Job lot feit mattresses, slightly damaged. Hoth one and two piece, $7.50 kind, full size at $5.75 $6 kind, for single beds at $3. Tuesse are genuine bargains and will go quick. Lawing-Robbins Furniture Co., "Complete Home Furnishers."

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE-Second-hand surrey. Apply Wadsworth's stable.

FOR SALEAF O. B. Barber's Junction, 900 cedar posts, cut last winter. E. R. Overman, Balisbury, N. C. column at rate of ten cents per line of six words. No ad taken for less than 20 cents. Cash in advance.

Cash in advance.

R. Russell, City.

FOR SALE-Residence in Dilworth. For price and terms apply to O. A. Rob-

Pheral patronage. Semi-weekly news-paper more than paying expenses. If you want a good thing write to The Lurham Recorder, Durham, N. C.

FOR SALE—One or two small lots of cotton mill stock. Good investment. Address P. O. Box 273, Greensboro, N. C. FOR SALE-Mules, cows. hogs, sheep, household goods, farm impliments, cotton gins, saw mills, grist mills, etc., etc., at the late residence of Leander Query, dead, near Newells, N. C., Sept. 2i, 1997. W. M. Smith, Admr.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT-One apartment in Norma: Flats. Five rooms, hot and cold baths pply Chas. W. Norman, Stone & Bar

FOR RENT 5-room flat with use of range, modern conveniences. 300 N Tryon St. C. H. Robinson & Co.

LOST-A haby pin, light blue enamel set with pearls. Return to Observer office for reward.

StatesvilleFemaleCollege

WANTED-Men to learn barber trade, few weeks completes, 60 chairs continually busy, licensed instructors, tools given, diplomas granted, wages Saturdays, positions waiting, wonderful demand for graduates. Write for catalogue, Moler-Barber College, Atlanta, Modern equipment, able faculty. WANTED—For U. S. Army, abla-bodied, unmarried men, between ages of 21 and 25, citizens of United States, of good character and temperate babits, who can speak, read and write English. Men wanted now for service in Cuba. For information apply to Recruiting Officer, If West Trade St., Chi-lotte, N. C.; 264; South Main St., Asheville, N. C.; Bank Building, Hickory, N. C.; 4174, Liberty St., Winston-Salem, N. C.; 1264; North Main St., Salisbury, N. C.; Kandall Building, Columbia, S. C.; Haynesworth and Conyer's Building, Greenville, S. C.; or Glenn Building, Spartanburg, S. C. fluences. Moderate prices for such excellent advantages. Only good and studious girls are wanted. Board and tuition for session, $147.00. Other prices as impderate. Send for catalogue. J. A. SCOTT, D. D., Pres. INSTITUTE AND CONSERVATORY. A high grade college for women. Tweive departments under specialists. Excellent brick buildings and spacious grounds. Every precaution against fire and dis-case. Takes a limited number and gives individual attention. Founded half a century ago and run solely on its merits.

For catalogue apply to
HENRY JEROME STOCKARD.

$75.00

A reward of $75,00 is offered by the Governor of North Carolina for the arrest and delivery to the Sheriff of Iredell County of

John Moore, Colored

Who is charged with the killing of Jim Kerr, colored, and the wounding of two daughters of Jim Kerr, in Tredell County.

DESCRIPTION:

Height about 5 feet 10 inches; weight about 180 to 190 pounds; age about 22 years; has large face with very thick lips; is a kind of dudish negro. Generally wears good clothes, but when last seen he had on overalls and brown shirt, patent leather above—a No. 8.

Any information as to the where-abouts or the arrest of the above party will be appreciated.

W. A. Summers

August 15th; 1907. e

"Old Dominion" and "Phoenix" Brands

The best Portland Cements. "Gager's" White Lime and "Red Cross" Virginia Lime, the hest Building and Plastering Lime made; "Texas" Hard Wall Plaster and "Virginia" Wood Fibre

Stocks at Norfolk, Wilmington, Charleston and our Interior Mills for prompt and economical shipment to North Carolina points. Get our prices delivered at your railroad station in ear lots and less.

CAROLINA PORTLAND CEMENT CO., Southern Distributors, Charleston, S. C.

SCHOOLS AND COLTEGES.

Elizabeth College and Conservatory of Music

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

A HIGH-GRADE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN Beautiful suburban location. Modern buildings and equipment. Able and experienced teachers. Classical, Music, Art, Expression, Elective

The illustrated catalogue will give a correct idea of the courses of study, and the superior advantages offered.

CHARLES B. KING, President.

Due West Female College

Strengthened faculty. New Carnegie Hall, with elegant accommodations for 100 boarders. Electric light. Steam heat. Complete water-works and sewerage. Attendance last year the largest in our history. A large number of rooms already reserved, College fully and exclusively equipped with the celebrated Stieff plano. Beautiful catalogue. Until September 1st the president's

REV. JAMES BOYCE, MONTREAT, N. C.

CLOVERSIDE BOARDING SCHOOL

YOUNG LADIES AND

Non-secturian, but der Episcopal influence English, Music, Art.

Near enough to New York to get all advantages, but far enough away ocean. Non-denominational but under Episcopal influences.

Unsurpassed location and educational facilities for girls and young ladles from the South who wish so be near New York but not in the city.

MISS ELIZABETH TIMLOW, Principal, MONTOLAIR, N. J.

(INCORPORATED)

This is the largest, finest equipped business college in North Carolinapositive provable fact.
Fall Opening September 3d, 1907. We have a Special Offer to all who ater by September 3d. Write at once for our Offers and the finest Catalogue ever published in his State. They are Free. Address King's Business College, Charlotte, N. C., or Raleigh, N. C.

Presbyterian College For Women

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Opens September 5th, 1907. Catalogue furnished upon application.

Rev. J. R. Bridges, D. D., President.

Thorough regular courses in English, Music and Art. Special Business Course. Located in Piedmont region, climate equable and salubrious. School opens Thursday morning, September 12th. SISTERS OF MERCY: SACRED HEART ACADEMY, BELMONT, N. C.

CONVERSE . COLLEGE

Spartanburg, S. C.

A High-Grade College For Women

Conservatory of Music School of Art

Address for Catalogue

ROB'T P. PELL, Litt. D., PRESIDENT