BRIEFS

A Few Minor Happenings in and About the City.

Mr. Alex Ritch, of Monroe, is working at Ivey's.

Mrs. J. C. Tate, who is at St. Peter's Hospital, is improving.

Mr. Edgar B. Moore, proprietor of the Selwyn Hotel, is ill at his home at Asheville. His condition is not serious but he is under the treatment of a physician.

Mr. R. E. Mason, who had his leg broken some time ago, was able to be out yesterday.

Miss Connie Berryhill has accepted a position in the Tryon street side of the Little-Long store.

Captain Ransick says he will have a new player in the outfield to-day, Oscar Fite, of the Charlotte team.

The Selwyn Hotel is beginning to pick up. The register has presented a fine list of guests the last few days.

Miss Carrie O'Connor underwent a serious operation at St. Peter's Hospital yesterday and is doing very well.

Rev. Dr. P. R. Law was on the streets yesterday after an illness of some days with asthma. He has not fully recovered yet.

The location of the abattoir and union stockyard is yet undecided. The committees of the board of health and the aldermen having the matter in charge will make a trip around the city and report.

Mr. J. H. Bruns, of Columbia, S. C., has accepted a position as prescription clerk at Jordan's and will begin work within a few days. He is a brother of Mr. William L. Bruns, of the firm of Garibaldi, Bruns & Dixon.

Dr. S. M. Crowell, who is now living on his farm in Crab Orchard township, was in the city yesterday looking as well and happy as one could aspire to look. He has more lives than a cat and his friends are delighted to see him so improved.

Baseball will again be the feature of the afternoon at the park this afternoon. Only two more games, one this afternoon and the other Saturday, will be played and these games present the last opportunity Charlotte people will have in a long time to see the national game played by the men who know how to play it.

Mr. Frank McCombs, assistant secretary and treasurer of the American Machinery and Manufacturing Company, left yesterday morning for the Jamestown Exposition and Washington.

J. A. JONES GETS CONTRACT. He Will Build the New Y. M. C. A. Which is to Cost About $100,000—The Bids Were Opened and the Contract Let Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock the building committee of the Young Men's Christian Association met for the purpose of opening bids submitted by contractors with all changes ordered by the committee at the Tuesday afternoon meeting.

After careful deliberation the contract was awarded to Mr. J. A. Jones, the lowest bidder. The entire building committee was present and the choice was unanimous. Immediately after the contract was awarded to the successful bidder the choice was announced to the contractors in waiting, and the several bids were announced.

The cost of the building will be somewhat in excess of $100,000, but an effort will be made to make slight changes sufficient to bring the cost down to the figure at the disposal of the building committee.

A special meeting of the board of directors was called at 8 o'clock to receive the report of the building committee and the directors formally ratified the action of their committee.

It is understood that work will begin within the next two weeks and be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. There is no doubt but that the Young Men's Christian Association will occupy the new building not later than September 1st, 1907.

The contract for construction only was awarded yesterday. The contracts for plumbing, lighting and heating will be awarded later.

FUNERAL OF MRS. WILLIAMS. Service Conducted From St. Peter's Catholic Church By Father Joseph—Interment at Elmwood—High Praise For the Departed One.

In the presence of a large assemblage of friends the funeral services of Mrs. L. F. Williams, who died Wednesday at her home, No. 11 West Vance street, were conducted yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from St. Peter's Catholic church, Father Joseph being in charge. The interment was at Elmwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Williams was born in New Albany, Ind., 35 years ago, and was before her marriage Miss Demorest. She had been for eight years a resident of Charlotte, and during all this time had been a most faithful and devoted member of the Catholic church. Father Joseph spoke eloquently of the beneficent influence which she wielded over all with whom she came in contact. She was a woman of consecrated character and unselfish disposition. Her husband, a baggage master on the Southern Railway, survives.

Mr. W. W. McCord Enters a Denial. Mr. W. W. McCord, brother of Miss Bright McCord, whose name appeared in a special dispatch in yesterday's Observer from Winston-Salem, says that Conductor J. W. Joyner was not engaged to his sister, as stated in the dispatch. He came to see her only two or three times, and after it was discovered that he was a married man he was ordered not to come to the house again. Miss McCord never had any confidence whatever in Joyner, says her brother, and did not believe him when he told her that he was not married.
