Five Very Fine Melons.

Mr. Lawrence Sloan, of Berryhill, was in the city yesterday to sell a load of watermelons. In his buggy he had five melons that attracted considerable attention. The melons averaged about 73 pounds and were long, smooth and fresh looking. He sold the lot for adollar apiece.

In talking with an Observer man Mr. Sloan said that he had sold between $300 and $400 worth of melons

About Mrs. Joe

Mrs. Ed. Reinhardt, of Lincoln

For a good many years I suffered from Indigestion of which nothing even relieved me until two years ago commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and I cannot say too much in its praise, for I can eat about everything I want, and things I never expected to be able to eat. It has strengthened my system and built up my general health until I can do a great many things I never expected to

I find it a fine family medicine to keep in the house for complaints the children are subject to.
