well and others are stockholders. The Lexington graded schools have opened with better prospects than ever before. The total enrollment now numbers 600, and Superintendent W. M. Professor Brown is ably assisted by the following teachers: First grada, Miss Elizabeth MacCall, of Statesville; second Miss Annie Johnson, of Greensboro; third Miss Ora Huckabee, of Albemarle, and Miss Roxie Sheets, of Lexington; fourth, Miss Mary Bell, of Matthews; fifth, Mrs. H. An interesting deal in real estate numbers 600, and Superintend-

An interesting deal in real estate was consummated yesterday, when the Davidson Development Company sold to Mr. Baxter Shemwell, for the Lexington Manufacturing & Develop-ment Co., a two-thirds interest in the three-story office building on the public square in front of the county court house, the price being $18,000.

The assessed value of property in the town of Lexington this year amounts to $1,777,857, on which the town will collect about $24,000 taxes. The removal of the biggest tax-payer of the town, Mr. W. E. Holt, to Washington, D. C., will result in a considerable loss to the value of the town, but this is more than made up by increased values and improvements Davidson county farmers are well pleased with the equinoctial rains which were much needed. Through most of the county a drought has lasted up until the last few days, to the damage of growing crops.

Judge Bunn issued the writ, which is made returnable October 5th, and the papers were served on the railroad officials to-day.

LOAN DEPARTMENT

Our Company desires to call the attention of the money-lending public to the desirable features and guarantees offered by us in the placing of funds on Real Estate Mortgages, both on city property and farming lands in this county. The lender not only secures the benefit of our experience as to values in placing his loans, but we accompany each mortgage with a guarantee contract from our Company covering the following points:

I.—The title of the property upon which the loan is made is gauranteed.

II.—The security is guaranteed. For example, case of foreclosure, the above-named Company would have to make the property bring the amount due under the mortgage.

III.—The interest is guaranteed. The Company collects the interest on loans made, and guarantees the payment of the interest within three days after it is due.

IV .- The property will be kept insured, where insurable, for the benefit of the lender, in some reliable Insurance Company. V.—That the property will be properly listed for taxation from year to year.

VI.—The loans net the lender 6 per cent. With the above liberal advantages we feel that we can make it to your interest to place your loans through this Company and invite a full investigation of our methods and promptness in placing funds on gilt edge real estate security. -
