Miss Ellen Grady, of Morganton, is visiting here brother, Mr. J. F. Grady.

Picture at the Odette and Mystic.

The subjects at the Odette for the latter part of this week are "No Children" and "The Magic Drawing Room." The latter especially is extremely interesting, showing how two men create the most wonderful things, sets of furniture, pictures and ballet dancers, out of two hamper, and then make them finally disappear into those same hamper, and go up in smoke themselves. The song reproduced is entitled "The Land of the Buffalo" and is truly beautiful in the slides and the music of this cowboy intermezzo.

At the Mystic "The Life of a Boot-black" is shown. This is the story of a boy who, maltreated by his father, has run away from home and found employment at a boot-black stand. This life is rather hard on the boy, and he finds consolation only in the friendship of a little girl which he meets and which proves to be an orphan.

Miss Esther Owen to Take Part in Programme.

Miss E. Esther Owen, elocutionist, will recite at the sacred concert of Richardson Orchestra at the Selwyn Hotel Sunday night. With much pleasure it is learned that Miss Owen has consented to assist Mr. Richardson and his orchestra in their worthy efforts for the Day Nursery. "Miss Owen's interpretations reveal unsuspected beauties in language, her reading is natural and expressive" are the comments of a renowned Chicago critic, and Charlotte people are indeed fortunate to have a chance of hearing this elocutionist of international repute. Miss Owen's programme next Sunday will be the following: "Tennyson's 'Victim,'" "Illustration of Mother Love," and Balfour "Cuddle Doom."

Mr. Ransom Goes to Seaboard.

Mr. Robert E. Ransom, who has been with the Evening Times, of McKeeseport, Pa., for two months, will go to Seaboard, this State, where he will be principal of the high school. Mr. Ransom worked for The Observer during the summer. He begins his new work Monday.

BRIEFS

A Few Minor Happenings in and About the City.

The rosters for Chicago are ubiquitous.

The condition of Mrs. L. W. Sanders was improved yesterday.

Mrs. Anna Dixon is out again after having been confined to her home by illness.

The Cranford Book Club will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. Ed. S. Burwell.

The choir rehearsal of the First Presbyterian church is called for tonight at 8 o'clock.

The Virginia Dare Book Club will meet with Mrs. John Van Landingham this afternoon at 4:30.

The Children Book Club will hold a business meeting with Miss Mary Irwin at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Story hour will be observed at the Carnegie Library this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The story of "The White Doe" will be told.

With five big shows at the Academy next week and the Fall Festival to fill blank, there will be nothing rural about Charlotte next week.

The monthly meeting of the board of water commissioners was not held last night, but was postponed, subject to the call of the mayor.

There will be a call meeting of the Charlotte Day Nursery at the Carnegie Library this morning at 11 o'clock. Important business will be transacted.

Five car loads of the water mains to be installed have arrived and the work of laying them will begin soon. In all there will be 12 or 15 car loads.

Marriage license was issued yesterday to Mr. J. M. McKelvey, of Mountain Island, and Miss Delora Hope of Huntersville. They will be wedded next Sunday.

Miss Sneed, the assistant matron at the Crittenton Home, will conduct the prayer meeting for women at Trion Street Methodist church this afternoon. Mrs. R. K. Boyer will assist.

The hour of noon on Wednesday has been secured by the mayor for a weekly meeting of the Finance Committee. Bills and other phases of the city's financial problems will be gone over.

The case of Mr. LeRoy Davidson, charged with retailing whiskey to the thirsty, was not tried in the recorder's court yesterday. His lawyer was not present when the time came for the trial. It will be tried this morning.

The examination of teachers began yesterday and the office of County Superintendent Cochran was a scene of beauty. Called in all varieties was much in evidence, though not to an alarming degree. The examinations end Saturday.

The earnest workers of Tenth Avenue Presbyterian church will give "The Old Maid's Convention" at St. Paul's Presbyterian church Monday night, beginning at 8:30 o'clock. An admission fee of 15 cents will be charged.

The Leopards will contest with the Panthers in a match game of basketball at the Young Men's Christian Association this afternoon at 4 o'clock. This is the second game scheduled on the Class B boys' basketball league.

The receipts at the Charlotte cotton planters yesterday amounted to 185 bales of cotton. The prevailing price paid was 11 1/2 cents a pound. On the corresponding date in 1905 cotton to the amount of 171 bales was marketed, the price being 10 1/2 cents.

"Oh, Ingratitude, thou marble-hearted fiend," exclaimed a Charlotte negro yesterday when he discovered, as he doth allege, that John Lankford, a Richmond negro to whom he had given lodging, had robbed him of $10. Lankford lodged last night in the police station.

The entire time of Superior Court yesterday was consumed in the trial of the suit of Souter against the Life Insurance Company of Virginia. Another speech must yet be made ere the case is submitted to the jury. It will probably reach an end before noon.

Mr. W. D. Fats, vice president and general manager of the Evelyn Amusement Works, is spending to-day in the city. He is in conference with Mr. R. J. Walker, Southern representative of the company, and Messrs. Charles A. Watson and Hal V. Worth, Atlanta and Greensboro salesmen, respectively.

"Some of the others have blazer names and are more talked about," remarked a plain-spoken man yesterday, as he laid down the Fall Festival programme, "but to my way of thinking, Ralph Bingham is the best of the crowd. You heard him three times, and the last time with as much interest as the first."

A funeral party accompanying the remains of Mr. W. H. Tyler from New York to Anniston, Ala., passed through the city last night en route from New York on train No. 16. It consisted of his wife, his son, W. H. Tyler, Jr., and several daughters. They occupied a private Pullman car, Rocket.

Big Meeting of Masons in Raleigh.

On the 16th about 5,000 Masons will gather in Raleigh to attend the laying of the corner-stone of the Masonic Temple. The Charlotte commandery will leave here next Tuesday, about 89 strong. The trip will be made over the Southern in private cars. The Saturday and Greensboro commanderies will join that of Charlotte. Those who expect to attend are asked to notify Dr. E. M. Winchester. All told 100 Masons will go from here.

PERSONAL

The Movement of a Number of People, Visitors and Others.

Mr. Emile Clarke, of Salisbury, was a Charlotte visitor yesterday.

Mr. A. R. Lasenby, a Salisbury contractor, spent yesterday in the city.

Mr. J. C. Mayfield, of Philadelphia, is at the Selwyn.

Mr. Cunningham, who had been visiting relatives in this county, has returned to his home in Arkansas.

Mr. Erwin Hellen, of New York, is in the city.

Mr. Frank R. Harty has returned to the city after making an extended business trip in the old world.

HEALTH BOARD MEETS.

Monthly Session Held, But No Business of Importance Transacted.—Will Ask for Yearly Appropriation.

The board of health met in monthly session last night with Mayor Franklin at the helm. Routine business was transacted and a number of matters pertaining to the sanitary condition of the city were discussed. Every member of the board was present. Chief Sanitary Inspector Porter asked for information regarding his rights, powers and duties in certain cases and this was given him. The secretary was instructed to draw up a budget of the probable expenses of the board for the coming year that it may be presented to the aldermen at their next regular meeting. The amount will probably range between $15,000 and $20,000.

It was decided to ask the aldermen to appoint a committee to decide on the definite date for the proposed union stockyard and abattoir. The board of health will recommend no specific place.

REV. DR. ORR AT BELMONT.

Preached on Lepers' Question—One Profession of Conversion.—Rev. Harold Turner to Preach To-Night.

At the Belmont Methodist church last night, Rev. W. W. Orr, D. D., pastor of the East Avenue Tabernacle, preached an able sermon on the subject of the importance of choosing life through the power of Jesus' blood rather than to die in sin. His text was the question of the lepers recorded in II Kings 7:3, "Why sit we here until we die?"

There was a large congregation present and a deep religious feeling was evident. One person professed conversion.

Rev. Harold Turner, pastor of Harvard Street Methodist church, will preach to-night. No afternoon services are being held this week. There will be preaching to-morrow night and Sunday also.

WILL MAKE A CANVASS.

Ladies of Crittenton Circle to Try For Prize.—The Magazine Valuable to Housekeepers.

Several money prizes of value have been offered by the publishing company of the magazine "Good Housekeeping" for lists of subscriptions secured during the month of November. In this city the ladies who compose the Crittenton Circle will make a careful canvass of the city in the interest of this prize offer. The work is worth the while, even if the premium is not won, for there is a good per cent. to be secured from such subscription. The money will be used at the Crittenton Home. The magazine is a clean, valuable monthly publication. It is especially valuable to housekeepers, being devoted largely to household helps and hints.

Mr. Matthews Wins the Heater.

Mr. J. Calvin Matthews drew the number that called for the Buck hot blast heater given away by the Allen Hardware Company yesterday. The card drawn from the bag bore "533" and Mr. Matthews had the match for it. Miss Lottie Phelan, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Phelan, drew the numbers from the bag. The only condition was that the holder of the number be on hand when it was called out. A large crowd gathered to take part in the contest.

An Immense Suit Business

Our Suit business has already so far doubled last season. In but few instances where customers have looked at our line have we missed sales. "Belk's suits are the prettiest," is the unsolicited criticism we often hear. Well earned, though we feel, for into this popular growing department we have invested an immense amount of money and energy. The immensity of our purchase borders almost on to speculation; so determined are we that every popular style shall have popular representation.
