MORGANTON.

Tuesday evening Miss Annie Moran tertained w number of her girl ends at a sewing party in honor of back by Washington, where Mrs. Peargon will be the guest for several weeks of her sister, Mrs. W. E. Holt, at the New Willard.—Miss Mary Hildebrand spent a few days at home this week.

—Mrs. D. R. Tillinghast returned on Monday from a visit to Spartanburg.—
Miss Lizzie Perkins is visiting in Camden, S. C.—Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hildebrand, of Omaha, Neb., are visiting at the home of Mr. Hildebrand's parents.—Mr. L. B. Bristol, of Statesville. rents.—Mr. L. B. Bristol, of Statesville, spent a few days here last week.—Mr. F. O. Gee spent Sunday in town.—Mrs. E. S. Clayton, of Asheville, is the guest E. S. Clayton, of Asheville, is the guest of Mrs. J. L. Laxton.—Mrs. G. P. Erwin arrived home on Thursday.—Mr. J. D. Boger and Dr. W. A. Leslie spent a day in Charlotte last week.—Mr. T. C. Guthrie and Master Charley Parks Guthrie spent Sunday with Mrs. G. H. Moran.—Mr. Edward Gilliam, of Gastonia, was in town Wednesday.

LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Oct. 18 .- With the advent of these delightfully cool and beautiful October days, Lexington so-ciety is again brought into ac-tivity by its various social and literary clubs, fall weddings, etc. The "Club of the Twelve," "Sorosis" and "Round Dozen," are now preparing interest-ing programme for the winter's work.

The most important social event of

Saturday evening Miss Edith Green will entertain at a linen shower in honor of her cousin, Miss Thompson, at her home on Centre street.

On last Friday evening Mrs. George W. Montcastle was hostess to the Pleasure Club in her charmingly characteristic manner. Mrs. A. E. Hutchison won the club prize, a silver card receiver, and Miss Elizabeth Mc-Call, the visitors' prize, a comporte of Bohemian glass. Delightful refreshment's were served at the conclusion of the game. Beside the club mem-bers, Mrs. Montcastle had as her guests: Mesdames Joel Hill, J. F. Deadrick, Z. I. Walser, H. S. Radcliffe, James Heilig, of Salisbury; Elma Pfhol, of Winston-Salem; H. H. old cedars encircle the graveled driveway, flanked on all sides by and dotted with evergreens, shrubbery, etc. The guests spent the afternoon most pleasantly playing progressive nations. In the contest for the visitors' prize, a tie resulted between Mes-dames Noell and Radcliffe and Miss Edith Greer, the latter fortunately winning a cut glass bon-bon dish; the club prize fell to Mrs. Zeb V. Waiser. The hostess served delicious frozen cream with walnuts. Her guests on this occasion were: Mesdames Elma Pfhol, of Winston-Salem; Kemp Alex-ander, J. F. Deadrick, Joe Walser, Z. V. Walser, Z. I. Walser, Robert Burkhead, H. S. Radcliffe, J. W. Noell, J. M. Rlley, G. W. Montcustle, Dermont Shemwell, Roy Rankin, W. E. Holt, Jr., H. H. Springs, E. E. Raper, C. A. Hunt, Jr., W. G. Penry, A. E. Hutchi-son, S. W. Finch and Misses Edith Greer, Noma Leonard and W. H. Men-denhall, C. C. Hargrave, Ray McCrary.

Mr. Roy Rankin and his charming young bride, who was Miss Elizabeth Sicele, of Statesville, have returned from their bridal tour, and are stopping for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Dermont Shemwell. Later they will board with Mrs. J. H. Greer. Rankin has gone into business in Lex-ington and the city gives both Mr. and Mrs. Rankin a most hearty welcome.

Judge H. T. Phillips is in Charlotte as week attending the Fall Festival.

July and Mrs. H. L. Propst are in Greensboro this week.—Misses Fannie Wheeler, of Asheville, and Linda Clement, of Micksville, are in town and will remain until after the Thompson-Moffitt wedding.—Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Mendenhali and Mrs. M. B. Brown have returned from Waynes. Mrs. Ö. E. Mendenhall and Mrs. M. B. Brown have returned from Waynesville, where they attended the funeral of Mr. Arthur M., Payne, of Washington City, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Brown.—Messrs. E. E. Raper and S. W. Finch went to Greensboro to hear W. J. Bryan.-Mrs. W. G. Ragsdale and children, who have been visiting Mrs. Joel Hill, have returned to their home at Jamestown.—Miss Mamie Springs, of Washington, N. C. is expected this week to visit relatives here and in Charlotte.—Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Yates and Master William Yates were the guests of Mrs. S. W. Finch one day hat week.—Mrs. Elma Pfhel, of Sa-

Invitations have been received here to the wedding of Miss Lucis Chiton Goddard, of Griffin, Ga., to Mr. Edward Howard Hallyburton, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hallyburton, of this phee. Mr. Hallyburton has become a very successful business man in Griffin and his his many friends here will give him and his bride a hearty welcome when they arrive for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hallyburton on the 24th.

Much interest has been felt too in the marriage on last Wednesday of Miss Fredericka Rurk and Mr. W. H. Wagner. Miss Burr was one of our pretitest and most attractive girls and has been greatly missed since she left two years ago to make her home will be risster. Mrs. Miller Hallows, in Small Nous, Ky, where the marriage took place.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Pearson left on Monday for Raleigh. From there they will go to Jamestown, New York, and back by Washington, where Mrs. P. A. Gorrell and Dr and Mrs. E. B. A. Jones entirely and most observable of the guest on the suests who composed the house party at Bramlette, the home of the suests who composed the house party at Bramlette, the home of the suests who composed the house party at Bramlette, the home of the suests who composed the house party at Bramlette, the home of the suests who composed the house party at Bramlette, the home of the suests who composed the house party at Bramlette, the home of the suests. The literative gives there was no break nor flaw in the pleasures of those present. The literative gives there was no break nor flaw in the pleasures of those present. The literative gives there was no break nor flaw in the pleasures of those present. The literative gives there was no break nor flaw in the pleasures of those present. The literative gives there was no break nor flaw in the pleasures of those present. The literative gives there was no break nor flaw in the pleasures of those present. The literative gives there was no break nor flaw in the pleasures of the guest on the place card of the guest next on the place card of the guest next on the next Sunday morning Bramlette was the seene of another of those most agreeable gatherings. On this occasion a dejenner a la fourchatte was given in honor of Mr. Myers, the curater of the Pennsylvaia exhibit in the Historical Building at the Jamestown Exposition. A lovely breakfast was served on the south norch of the spacious colonial home, a flood of sunshine filling the air with warmth and brightness and making this morning meal doubly delightful. The guests were Meadames D. H. McCollough, E. B. Jones, W. E. Shipp, Misses Ida Hinshaw and J. P. Buford, Messrs. Myers, J. P. Caldwell and Clarence Poe.

The entertainment of the Whist Club by Mrs. J. A. Betting last Friday after-noon was a most enjoyable occasion. In addition to the membership the following guests shared Mrs. Bitting's gracious hos-pitality: Mesdames E. B. Jones, J. L. Ludlow, O. H. P. Cornell, John Nutt, of Mount Airy; D. D. Shelton, of Mount Airy; Mrs. Charles E. Shelton, Miss Ev-erett, of Macon, Ga., and Miss Ida Farish.

Last Friday evening a very gracious welcome was accorded the Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Stempfel at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Clewell, when over two hundred friends called to welcome the young minister and his bonnie bride. Refreshments were served and the evening rendered still more delightful by several musical numbers from Mrs. B. J. Pfohl and Miss Amy Van Viecz.

the month is the marriage of Miss Saturday forencon Mrs. Charles L. Sum-Male Thompson and Mr. Joe V. Mof-fit on Wednesday evening, the 23d Mrs. Hardin Hairston, of Chatmas, Va. Mrs. Summer's guests were Mesdames inst., followed by a reception to the immediate members of both families W. T. Brown, William N. Rsynolds, F. H. Fries, E. C. Clinard, O. H. P. Cornell, and intimate friends, at the home of J. L. Ludiow, Thomas Mashif, H. L. Rigthe bride-elect's sister, Mrs. Joseph Walser.

> Miss Mary Benton, whose marriage to Mr. Walter Dans, of Gastonis, will be solemnized October 17th, was the re-ciplent of another very graceful social courtesy last Saturday at 1 o'clock, when courtesy last Saturday at 1 o'clock, when Miss Mary Mederis gave a very charming luncheon in her honor. The effective decorations were desturtieums, golden rod and ferns. The souvenirs of this happy occasion were little yellow baskets filled with green and yellow mints. The bride elect was presented with a dainty little reminder of her wedding trip in the form of a cute little trunk tied with yellow ribbons. The trunk was filled with rice and good wishes, the latter being inscribed on the cards of the guests, were read and enjoyed on the auspicious occasion. The guests were Miss Benton, Misses Mary Ogburn, Marion Revelle, Julia Wilson, Alice Rose, Edna Teague and Pearl Medearis.

Tuesday afternoon a new club was organized at the home of Mrs. J. L. Ludlow. This is the Bridge Club and will meet every Tuesday at the homes of the members in alphabetic order. A refreshing feature of this new organization is the absence of refreshments. This departure will be a distinct gain in many ways. The charter members are Mesdames J. A. Bitting, J. C. Buxton, W. T. Hrown, D. N. Dalton, A. H. Eller, John L. Gilimer, W. A. Lendy, W. J. Lilplert, J. L. Ludlow, Clement Manly, W. A. Whitaker, William N. Reynolds, Misses Caro Buxton, Mary Cornell, Ida Farish, Annie Ludlow.

Mrs. Charles Norfleett entertained very agreeably last Saturday evening in honor of her own guests, Misses Ethel Bryant and Hattle Jones, and of Miss Reasie Shreiner, who is the guest of Mrs. George Norfleet. In pleasing anticipation of Hallowe'en and Thanksgiving pumpkins played a conspicuous and attractive part in the decorations for this lovely dinner. The centre piece was a pumpkin bowl filled with fruit, the place cards were abucks on which the names of the guests were painted. The guests were Misses Hattle Jones, Fithel Bryant, Bessle Shreiner and Ellen Norfleet, Messrs. Fred Balmson, Peter Wilson, Jim Ashby, W. M. Norfleet, Mr. and Mrs. George Norfleet.

At 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon Miss Ellen Norficet entertained very delight-fully in honor of Misses Hattle Jones and Ethel Bryant, of Washington, N. C., and of Miss Bessie Shreiner, of Washington, D. C. The decorations were highly sug-gestive of Hallowe'en and Thanksgiving in the number of numbries and the gestive of Hallowe'en and Thanksgiving in the number of pumpkins and the unique uses to which they were put. Progressive dominoes furnished the evening's pastime. The hostess prosented to each of the guests of honor an attractive gold pin with date. The other guests received as souvenirs of the charming occasion boxes of hon bons. Refreshments in two courses were served after the games were over.

Mrs. J. Lindsay Patterson is spending a few days in Raleigh.—Mrs. Clement Manly left Thursday for a visit of several weeks to Baltimore, Richmond and the Jamestown Exposition.—Mr. and Mrs. William Reynolds left this week for a Northern trip. They will visit friends in East Orrange, New Jersey, and in New York City.—Mrs. Jehn L. Glimer has returned from a visit to relatives in Danville, Va.—Mrs. A. F. Young and daughters, Mrs. Leo Vaughn and Miss Birdle Vickers, attended on Tuesday the marriage of Mrs. Young's sister, Miss Lucile Harrison, of Reidsville, to Mr. Clower, of Charlotte.

J. P. B.

Correspondence of The Observer.

ests become peopled with a chorus of well-known musiclans interpreting a symphony of nature that surpasses even Schubert or Beethoven. Twould be good if those who, during these glorious autumn days, are free the second second

HIGH POINT.

High Point, Oct. 18 .- To go into the glory of the autumn woods a day like to-day when the richest dyes have been poured over the softly swaying trees then go back to our books even though we have spent whole lives among them, how little we know, how blind we are unless we have lived that call forth exclamations of delight and we discover that we have been blindly walking in fairy land. We hered, High Point; Miss Emma Sherrod, High Poin Pfhol, of Winston-Salem; H. H. Springs and S. W. Finch; Misses Male Thompson, Camille Hunt, Edith Greer, E. MacCall.

The Monday Afternoon Book Club has a condition of the season with Mrs. W. W. Smoak. The hold this club has on its first meeting of the season with Mrs. W. W. Smoak The hold this club has on its membership was emphasized by the full attendance. France and Austria have been selected as the subjects for the year's study, beginning with France. Roll call was answered by items of interest concerning noted French clies. The paper which was greatly enjoyed was from the long been of Mrs. C. G. Lanler and dealt with home. The off was answered by items of interest concerning noted French clies. The paper which was greatly enjoyed was from the long them in classes to explain the pages of nature and organize their intelligent love of all created indulged in during the serving of dainty refreshments turned upon current events, the plan of exchanging books and critically and the provided provided the club has on its first meeting of the season with Mrs. W. W. Smoak The hold this club has on its first meeting of the season with Mrs. W. W. Smoak The hold this club has on its first meeting of the season with Mrs. W. W. Smoak The hold this club has on its first meeting of the season with Mrs. W. W. Smoak The hold this club has on its first meeting of the season with Mrs. W. W. Smoak The hold this club has on its first meeting of the season with Mrs. W. W. Smoak The hold this club has on its first meeting of the season with Mrs. W. W. Smoak The hold has on the clity where the physical eye and ear can develop, mental powers, could take with them the physical eye and ear can develop, mental powers, could take with the physical eye and ear can develop, mental powers, could take wit

Nuncy, the 3-Year-Old Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Tyree, of Wit

words

Be in their flowing cups freshly remembered.

And Crispin, Crispian shall ne'er go by From this day to the ending of the

But we in it shall be remembered."

The brother saints Crispin and Crispian and the patrons of the shoe-making craft, and in the eld Runic calendars this day is marked by a pair of shoes. The twenty-eighth, dedicated to the Saints Simon and Jude, bears the symbol of their calling a little, "solvens."

With the U. D. C. cenvention of last week and the county fairs of this week the private social functions have been the private social functions have been on the wane, for so many of the prominent members are out of town, nevertheless, with its many public places for amusement, High Point is too much of a city to ever be really dull. Besides the coming and going attractions there are three good moving picture shows within a block of each other while the beautiful rink is to some a never ending pleasure; so each other while the beautiful rink is to some a never ending pleasure; so notwithstanding the rise of everything, but salaries, it is hard for a young man to spend any nights, the average man's day's wages. Two nights out of last week the Crystal Theato gave the soldier boys, the benefit of the proceeds. As is always the case at the Crystal there was the best of order. ceeds. As is always the case at the Crystal there was the best of order kept by the polite managers. The music is always good, especially the lilustrated songs sung by Mr. Sam Barbee, whose voice of much depth and feeling has so impartially added to the town's music world till they feel like calling this his adopted home, his very own. The life of the boot-black, the first picture shown last night was especially good revealing the pathetic especially good revealing the pathetic scenes in the little fellow's life all along from the the time he left home on account of a brutal stepfather till his adoption by the rich man who was drawn toward him by his honesty and dilligence about returning the five doliar gold piece given nim through mis-take. His devotion to his mother, the good bye kiss, and the love that lingered through all the years and was at last rewarded by being reunited with her was as beautiful as the affection for the little girl walf he befriended was tender, or the kiss he gave her with the Teddy bear, innocent. There is a world of good such a picture might do.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gheen are expected next week. They have been spending the long warm months at their summer home in Pennsylvania.

Lelia Denny, Greensboro, with Mrs. Briggs; Miss Mary Gary Henderson, with Mrs. Charles Ragan; Miss Mary Jones, Greensboro, with the Misses Moody: Miss Anna Jones, Lexington, with Misses Burkhead and Banner in the rooms over London's store; Miss Bessle J. Sterrett, Charlotte at Mr. John D. Paylors; Miss Clara Boyd, Edgefield, S. C., yocal music at Dr William J. Bradshaws.

Miss Blanche L. Bradshaw is spending the week with her cousin, Miss Louise Bradshaw, at Greensboro; later she will go North with her parents.

Mrs. William H. Ragan and daughter, Miss Berta Ragan, left last week for New York, where they will spend some weeks.—Mrs. Will Armfield and children, of Asheboro, are on a visit to Mrs. Armfield's father, Mr. J. F. Millis, on South Main street.—Mr. and Mrs. James Joseph Farriss have returned from a pleasant trip to New

SILER CITY.

Correspondence of The Observer. Siler City, Oct. 18.—The wedding of Miss Eulalia Jordan and Mr. C. N. Bray, which took place at the Baptist church here Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, was a charming event, witnessed by a large gathering of admiring friends, including many out-of-town visitors. Under the skillful hand of Mrs. D.
L. Webster, assisted by Mrs. R. H.
Herring and others, the interior of the church had been transformed into a verttable bower of palms and ferns and fragrant flowers. The church baying been darkened for the eccasion, the illumination was furnished by white and green candles, which shed a soft, mellow light upon coterie of women and girls, but that the appointed hour the church was crowded, many failing to gain entrance. Promptly at 1:30 Miss Macy Coble, of Pittsboro, came forward and sang very sweetly "Always." accompanied on the piano by Miss Alma Bland, of Dobson, and on the violin by Miss Lula Brooks, of Greensboro. As the notes of the sweet tones of the wedding march, played with brautiful expression by the same accomplished performers, floated out over the vast audience, filing the old church with melodies divine, and the bridal party entered in the following order: Pirst came the ushers, P. H. Elkins, F. R. Wrenn, G. G. Dark and E. H. Jordan, who took their places on either side and in front of the altar. Next came Miss Fannie Bray, sister of the groom, and J. George Hannah, Jr., followed by Miss Davie Heuston and L. S. (Continued On Page Elsven) pealed forth, and the bridal party retired and drove at once to the station, leaving on train No. 130 for an extended trip to the Jamestown Exposition, Washington and other places of interest. The bride wore a lovely suit of brown chiffon broadcloth, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of maiden hair ferns and bride's roses. The maid of honor was very attractive in a beautiful gown of white sik and white picture hat. She carried an armful of bride's roses. The bridesmaids wore dresses of white net and maids were dresses of white net and black picture hats and carried a wreath of white carnations. Willie Jordan and Grace Boling, the flower girls, and Joyce and Ruth Edwards, the ribbon girls, were very pretty in their costumes of white silk and white slippers. The bride is a talented young woman and very popular, and the groom is a successful young busi-ness man here, who has a host of friends. He is the present mayor of Siler City. The many beautiful presents betoken the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held.

GOLDSBORO.

Correspondence of The Observer,
Goldsboro, Oct. 17.—Mrs. Arnold Borden has returned home from Danville, N. Y., and Richmond, Va.—Mrs. Sol Welli, who has been sojourning in the White mountains and Canada for several weeks, is at home again.—Mr. C. Gordon Smith has left Goldsboro for Rocky Mount, where he will make his home and associate himself with the Rocky Mount Insurance & Realty Company. His many friends regret his departure from our midst.—Dr. A. H.
Zealey is in Charlotte attending the meeting of the State board of esteopathic examiners of which he is a member.—Mrs.
J. W. Aycock, who has been visiting relatives in this city, has returned home.
—Mrs. W. B. Crawford, of Raleigh, is visiting her mother, Mrs. G. L. Kirby.— Mrs. W. E. Porden spent Wednesday in Raleigh.—Dr. and Mrs. Robert B. Miller visited Hon. R. H. Battle in Raleigh this week.—Mrs. Smoot, of Spencer, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D.
Geddens.—Mrs. Herbert Finlayson, of Norfolk, Va., is in the city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee.—Mrs. E. B.
Borden and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, Miss Georgie Lee, Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Michaux and children, Mrs. E. B. Borden, Jr.,
Mr. and Mrs. O'Berry and daughter, Miss Estelle and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stanley have all returned from the Exposition. Correspondence of The Observer.

Mrs. James B. Richardson, Mrs. Gordan Bennett and Miss Ida Alexander, the delegates from the High Point chapter of the U. D. C., are full of praise of the convention at Greensboro, which they attended.

Mrs. William Thomas Parker will leave next week for a month's stay at her old home in Alabama.

The attendance at the State Fair this week from Goldsboro is not so numerous as in former years. A goodly number of the Masonic fraternity made the trip on Wednesday to participate in the ceremonies incident to the laying of the corner-stone of thoir new temple, and there was a moderate crowd on Thursday Colonel Robinson, of The Argus, remarks that as the attendance at the State Fair this week from Goldsboro is not so numerous as in former years. A goodly number of the Masonic fraternity made the trip on well-residue to the Laying of the corner-stone of thoir new temple, and there was a moderate crowd on Thursday Colonel Robinson, of The Argus, remarks that the Robinson of the Bryan spirit, it is hoped that the Raleigh newspaper reporters will give unbiased reports.

MONROE.

Correspondence of The Observer. Monroe, Oct. 18 .- The "Van Dyke"

The high school and the city school, of the town have greatly added to the social world, by bringing such a faculty of talented men and women to Stewart as usual proved herself. wart as usual proved herself a be one of us. The well-equipped en-structors are, Dr. George H. Crowell, superintendent; Prof. Will Francis, of Waynesville, and Prof. W. Davis Bran-non, of Greensboro, principals; Miss non, of Greensboro, principals; Miss of Gibraltar." Mrs. Stewart served a "Gibraltar." Mrs. Stewart served a non, of Greensboro, principals; also a reading by Miss Pat Adams on Amy Stevens, Goldsboro; with Mr. and Mrs. Dunbars; Miss Elizabeth Carver. Raleigh, with Mrs. L. J. Ingram; Miss Emma King, High Foint; Miss Notre Johnson, Summerfield, with Dr. D. A. Staunton; Miss Mary Fentrell James- a dealing by Miss Pat Adams on "Gibraltar." Mrs. Stewart served a delightful salad course followed by the first meeting for this season and the club members look forward to the meetings this year with a season and the club members look forward to the meetings this year with a Green; Misses Pat Adams, Emma Lee Nisbet, Alice Scales. The next meeting will be with Mrs. John C. Sikes,

> Miss Mary Stewart is visiting riends in Richmond, Va.-Mrs. Eselle Stewart leaves Mondap for Lexington to attend the Moffit-Thomp-son wedding.

STATESVILLE.

Correspondence of The Observer. Statesville, Oct. 17.-Mr. John Temple Graves in his eloquent address in Charlotte on the 15th, on the subject of "The Twentieth Century Woman." said: "She has come to be a force with which we have to grapple or surrender. We may as well recognize the gact that her will and her hand must be confronted in every forum of discussion and every field of tride.' It is a ewll-known fact that among inimals, males fight only with males, and females with females. Surely man can be no less guliant! He must recede and give place to the rising tide of demand from the woman for 'a square deal."

Time was, when a woman who had the care and support of a shiftless husband upon her hands, often in ad-dition to the care of a growing family, that but two or three occupations were open to her-she could "take in washing" or she could "take board-ers," or she could "take in sewing," or she could "take pupils in her home"—as it was considered that wo-man's place was strictly in her home, and she must remain in it.

which shed a soft, mellow light upon a seene of exquisite beauty and loveliness. On either side of the altar were tall candlesticks burning white tapers. The decorations were all in white and green. Long before the appointed hour the church was crowded, many failing to gain entrance. Promptly at 1:20 Miss Macy Coble, of Pittsboro, came forward gave rise to the man's club. He was a question as to what gave rise to the man's club. He was a cotterie of women and girls, but that was for the purpose of instructing them in verse and song. The noted salons of the French women were gatherings of both sexes. The woman's club, ipso facto, is a modern innovation. The man's club has been a well-established fact for many centuries. It a question as to what and I didn't pay any attention to their ads-I maked the pecple who had used it. That is generally the way to find out I asked twenty people at least and it was wonderful wha they told me about cures. They were just as enthus over it as they could be, and said they wouldn't be without it at all. I am glad you used it and glad it cured buby of the croup because that is a dangerous thing. But Gowan's Pusumonia Cure, as I said in the beginning, cures anything where there is Inflammation and it is external, so no harm can co from using it. Don't forget to tell Will's people about it sure. They can buy it of any of the druggists for fifty cents

A Sealed Box

Of Nunnally's Candy is dainty and attractive in appearance.

The Bond paper in which it is wrapped makes the package practically airtight, thereby preserving the candy.

Its shape is also convenient.

WOODALL & SHEPPARD AGENTS

Charlotte, N. C.

RHEUMATISM

NEURALGIA ANDKIDNEY TROUBLE

CURED

Swanson's "5-Drops" is an internal and External Remedy

Applied externally it gives qu lief to sufferers. Taken internally it removes the poisopous matter and purifies the blood, thus effecting a permanent cure.

"5-DROPS" is not a new, untried remedy. It has been before the public for years and is prescribed by many doctors in cases of Rheumatism and kindred diseases. "8-DROPS" is a cure for Rheumati Lumbago, Sciatica, Gout, Neuralgia, Kidne Trouble and all similar cilments.

here is the proof.