BRIEFS

A Few Minor Happenings in and About the City.

Mr. U. G. Dellinger has moved from 1000 South Mint street to 306 Post street.

Florence Davis will be at the Academy of Music again to-night and to-morrow, matinee and night.

Belk Bros. has had to employ another hat trimmer and they telephoned to Baltimore for one. Miss B. Osenberg is on the way here as a result. She will arrive to-day.

The Virginia-Carolina football game, according to the University schedule, will be played to-morrow, and not to-day, as stated elsewhere. The game had been erroneously advertised, apparently, by the railroads.

Rev. W. Y. Love will arrive in the city to-morrow from Statesville en route to Edgemore, S. C., to attend the meeting of the First Presbyterian of the A. B. Church. He will fill the pulpit at Sardis church Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Dr. R. G. Miller.

The Lady Aeronaut's Nerve Impresses William.

William Gorrell went to the Fair yesterday afternoon to see his Ignorite cousins and the other attractions, but the balloon ascensions impressed him most.

"Dey generally talks about woman not havin' much manhood," said William last night, "but I noticed at the lady cat went up in the balloon went a heap further before she cut loose than the man did. That led, as far as her nerve is concerned, represents just about 12 black men—and about 3 white men," he added after a thoughtful pause.

Another Basketball Game to-Morrow Night.

The blues and the Whites will contest in another game of basketball at the Young Men's Christian Association to-morrow night at 8:30 o'clock. There will be very little change in the lineup and a most interesting game is predicted. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged at all of the games during the season.

The regular basketball league will be organized in a few weeks, there being four teams to contest for the trophy cup.

Dr. J. S. Clifford Locates in Charlotte.

Dr. John S. Clifford is the latest addition to Charlotte's superb corps of skilled physicians. He comes to the city from New York, where he has been practicing his profession in a hospital. He was formerly postoffice inspector for the government and while holding that office visited Charlotte more than once. He is receiving a warm welcome from his friends.

Rev. J. A. Baldwin to Speak at Y. M. C. A. Sunday.

The B. G. M. at the Young Men's Christian Association Sunday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock will be of special interest to all boys. Rev. J. A. Baldwin, of the Piedmont Industrial School, will speak on the popular subject, "Get Busy."

The feature of the meeting will be a vocal solo by Miss Olga Irwin. All boys of the city are extended an invitation to attend.

INTER-STATE COMMITTEE MEETS

Various Officials of Young Men's Christian Association Meet and Discuss Questions Relating to the Work.

The quarterly meeting of the Inter-State committee of the Carolina Young Men's Christian Association was held at the Selwyn Hotel last night.

There were present in addition to the ten local members of the committee, members from Spartanburg, Spencer and Asheville, and a number of city and traveling association secretaries.

After taking supper together, addresses were made by General Secretary Abbott, of Spartanburg; the international student secretary, W. D. Weatherford, of Atlanta, and the international industrial secretary, Charles R. Tawson, of Philadelphia, on the different departments of association work under their supervision.

These addresses were followed by the regular business meeting of the committee and a thorough discussion of many problems connected with the supervision and extension of the movement.

The reports indicated that the work is showing very gratifying development and presenting an outlook which is full of promise.

Officers and Directors of Blue Ridge Association Meet.

An important meeting of the officers and committeemen of the Blue Ridge Association was held in the city yesterday. Those present were Messrs. J. D. Murphy, vice president, of Asheville; W. D. Weatherford, of the international committee; W. E. Abbott, general secretary, of Spartanburg, S. C.; G. C. Huntington, State secretary of the Carolinas, and F. C. Abbott, treasurer. This association is planning the development of a permanent conference resort at Black Mountain near Montreal, on the 1,000 acre tract purchased by the association for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. Y. W. C. and Young People's Missionary Society of the South. It will be similar in scope to the place at Lake Geneva and Lake George in the North.

Very many humorous and amusing incidents occurred in the so-called potato race which took place last night at the Latta Park skating rink. The contestants had to race around the course with a little two-wheeled wagon, loaded with a potato which they obtained from an improvised shelf on the floor. This proceeding had to be repeated three times and each time the potato had to be replaced in the shelf and exchanged for a fresh one. The affair was an absolutely original and was greatly enjoyed by the spectators. The standing of the different candidates in the race is as follows: Frank Martin 38, Fay Albright 28, Egbert Hunter 20, and S. R. McCall 14.

Conductor Ormond Badly Hurt in Street Car Accident.

Mr. D. M. Ormond, a freight conductor on the Southern Railway between Charlotte and Spartanburg, S. C., was painfully hurt by being thrown from his frightened horse against the front of a moving street car on Morehead street last night about 11 o'clock. Captain Ormond was riding horseback when his steed became frightened and ran, throwing him. He sustained a number of gashes in his head, but beyond scalp wounds appears to be uninjured. He was immediately placed on a special street car and taken to the Presbyterian Hospital. He was operated on there soon and at midnight was resting comfortably. None of the wounds are believed to be serious.
