INQUIRY INTO WRECK MONDAY. Coroner Turner Summons Witness For Purpose of Fixing Responsibility—Ben Jones Believed to Have Operated at Greenshoro—Elks Soon to Occupy New Lodge House—News in Brief Shape.

Special to The Observer. Greensboro, Oct. 25.-Dr. J. Turner, the coroner, has sent out notices summoning the witnesses to appear at his office here next Monday at 11 a. m., when the inquest will be held to fix the responsibility for the terrible wreck at Rudd last Thursday night, when northbound train No. crashed into a freight train and killed five people and wounded nineteen. Of this number all save six have recovered and gone home. These six are gradually improving at St. Leo's Hospital, where they were taken on the night of the wreck.

Mr. J. S. Kuykendall, secretary of the Greenshoro chamber of commerce, is back from Norfolk, Va., where he attended a meeting of the Southern Immigration Association, Mr. Kuy-kendall was elected vice president of the association for North Carolina.

The police are certain that Ben Jones, the man who passed a check at Gibsonville purporting to be signed by J. M. Reece, of this city, is the same man who swindled Mr. C. O. Forbis, a furniture dealer of this city, and also the Herring Furniture Company. His method is to buy goods, endering a check for a greater sum and getting the difference in cash. Messrs. Wade Stockard and S. M. Askins, Jr., were intiated at Wednesday night's meeting of Greensboro Lodge, No. 602, B. P. O. Elks. General Situation, Which is Interesting—A Number of Favorable! Fentures Mark the Day—Clearing House Certificates to Be Issued Probably To-Day—Financial Skies Expected to Clear Before Another Week Beringer

New York, Oct. 25 .- Another perve racking day has passed but the financial institutions of New York have shown extraordinary power of resistance to the pressure put upon them. amount involved was not so great as to exert any marked influen trust companies are entirely solvent and their difficulties will-prove to be only temporary and due entirely to inability to secure ready cash on the gilt-edged securities in their vaults. WITHDRAWAL RULE ENFORCED.

In the light of the general excitement the savings banks thought it wise to put into effect the rule requiring thirty to sixty days' notice for the withdrawal of deposits, and this will prevent the withdrawal of money which would otherwise be put in safeing an additional strain on the general banking institution. There was not the institutions were in anything but the soundest condition and it was pointed out that the savings banks of this State are so restricted by law in investing their money that there can be no question that all of the securities in their possession are of good value and readily salable in normal times. The institutions which coised their doors to-day, with the sums due depositors, were: THE BANKS AFFECTED. The United States Exchange Bank, Harlem, $600,000. International Trust Company, about $100,000. The Borough Bank of Brooklyn, $4. 000,000.

The Brooklyn Bank, $2,300,000.
Williamsburg Trust Company,
Brooklyn, $7,500,000.

The First National Bank of Brook-lyn, $3,500,000. The First National Bank of Brooklyn, the Williamsburg Trust Company and the International Trust Company were allied institutions. None of these companies had any important business connections with the larger banks which are representatives of the city's
