High Point, Nov. 12.—Col. George T. Leach and son, Thos., have gone to Moore county, where they will remain several days hunting the wolf in his lair.

A young man by the name of Stewart, who lives in this locality, is made out of the stuff that goes to make great characters. For the past two years he has been paying his way through Guilford College by selling pocket knives with the buyer's name thereon.

The fine bay horse of the North Side Fire Company died yesterday after being down a week or more. While the animal was being driven to a fire recently he gave way and grew worse until the end came.

Mr. J. C. Welch, one of High Point's prominent citizens, is able to be out again after a confinement of several weeks. A part of High Point's bond issue will be advertised for sale within a few days, to make needed improvements on the streets and water-works.

TO HANG JANUARY 17TH.

Lawson Addison, Colored, Murderer of Two Negro Women, Under Sentence of Death. Special to The Observer. Chester, S. C., Nov. 12.—Lawson Addison, the slayer of two negro women, Matilda McMaster and Mamie Halseil, in the Lowryville section of this county about fifteen months ago, was convicted of murder in the first degree Saturday and sentenced to hang Friday, January 17th.

Dr. E. W. Fryer is at Raleigh, N. C., this week as an expert witness in several important railroad cases. Joe Beatty, colored, was before the mayor Saturday morning on the charge of refusing to pay his street tax. Beatty had been arraigned on the same charge about one week previous, and on agreeing to settle up was allowed to go. He failed to carry out his promise, however, and was re-arrested. His excuse was that he is blind in one eye and had a doctor's certificate to establish the fact. The fact was proven, however, that Beatty is able to perform manual labor, and under the provisions of the street law in South Carolina, it was adjudged that he is liable to pay road tax, and in further default of the required amount he was sent to the chain-gang for 30 days to meditate on the folly of refusing to comply with the mandates of the law.

THE RANDOLPH TEACHERS.

They Are United and Progressive in Spirit—Interesting Meeting Saturday. Special to The Observer. Asheboro, Nov. 12.—The Randolph County Teachers' Association met here Saturday with a goodly number of teachers in attendance. The following officers were elected: president, C. J. Superintendant J. E. Cole; first vice president, Mr. D. M. Weatherly; second vice president, Mr. Charles Laster; secretary and treasurer, Miss Agnes Moring. An interesting report from the primary teachers' meeting, recently held in Asheboro, was made by Misses Edwin and Richardson. The association then listened to an inspiring address on "The Spirit of the Modern Teacher," by Prof. Lee Whites, of Jamestown. Miss Violet Bodette, of the State Normal College, was present and made a most practical and pleasing talk on the "Betterment of Public School Houses." A woman's betterment association was organized for the improvement and beautifying of the rural school houses. The past year has seen a great forward movement educationally in Randolph county, and the spirit prevailing among the teachers bespeaks great things yet to come.

Votes Special School Tax of 30 Cents. Rockingham, Nov. 12.—Prospect district, Beavertown township, Richmond county, has just voted a special tax of 30 cents on the $100 for school purposes. This is the second district in that township that has voted a special tax this fall. No Case of Pneumonia on Record. We do not know of a single instance where a cough or cold resulted in pneumonia or consumption when Foley's Honey and Tar had been taken. It cures coughs and colds perfectly, so do not take chances with some unknown preparation, which may contain opiates, which cause constipation, a condition that retards recovery from a cold. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute.

Party of 100 Men, 100 Women from Expedition — From a Mountain Expedition — Mr. and Mrs. Fuller Malone Visiting in Town. Special to The Observer. Salisbury, Nov. 12.—A number of the college girls chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Fuller Malone, have returned from the Jamestown Expedition. Their arrival was accompanied with the screech of whistles, cheers and laughter that betokened a glorious time.

Among the more important events recently in educational circles are the calling of special tax elections in Dunn and Sandy Creek townships. They will be undoubtedly carried in favor of the tax. It is noticeable that wherever special good schools are located in the county, a rise in property values always follows.

The farmers are marketing their products, although not as heavily as usual at this season of the year and the grain mostly are accepting the cash and part "scrip" very philosophically. It is the subject of many jokes and much laughter on the part of our country friends among the more intelligent who those not so well informed are to some extent uneasy at the "scrip" and prefer Uncle Samuel's good hard cash. On the whole everybody is taking the situation good humoredly and quietly waiting the time when cash is more plentiful.

Mr. and Mrs. Fuller Malone are spending part of their honeymoon here as the guests of the groom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Malone. Mr. Malone is a nephew of the late Edwin W. Fuller, and is at present holding a responsible position at Havana with the American Cigar Company. He speaks Spanish fluently and in office and factory uses that language exclusively. He states that in Havana there is such a large American colony that the social conditions are very pleasant and not as one would imagine in a foreign country. Yesterday afternoon a reception was held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Malone from 4 to 6 o'clock, and our people in response to invitations had the pleasure of meeting the charming bride, who is a native of Texas.

Ramsey-Bowles Company Receives Letter From Mrs. W. A. McQueen Asking That Rugs Be Sent to Cheraw, S. C. Special to The Observer. Stateville, Nov. 12.—Yesterday the Ramsey-Bowles Company received a letter from Mrs. W. A. McQueen, one of the alleged sharpers who visited Stateville recently, asking that the rugs which they selected while here be shipped to Cheraw, S. C. The letter was dated at Cheraw Saturday and Mrs. McQueen asked that the rugs be shipped at once. She said that she could not send the money just now but that her husband would give his note for the amount of the price of the rugs, which is something over $30. She also wanted a number of other articles shipped along with the rugs. She gave as reference for her husband's reliability the "Cheraw Bank." The Ramsey-Bowles people have written in regard to Mr. McQueen's standing with the bank, but have not shipped the rugs.

Wilmington, Nov. 12.—David Laboy, member of a repertory theatrical company, who accidentally shot and seriously wounded Francis Marion, a member of the same organization at a boarding house here Friday morning, was yesterday released from custody upon an affidavit from the injured man that the shooting was entirely accidental and Laboy was in no way blamable in connection with the affair. He had been held in custody in default of $500. The condition of Marion at the hospital is so much improved that the physicians say he will recover unless complications set in. His mother from

SEVENTY-FOUR MILES LAID.

Halls on Seaboard Between Wilmington and Hamlet Being Re-Laid—Red Men Institute Branch in Wallace. Special to The Observer. Wilmington, Nov. 12.—Members of the Howard Relief Company turned out in a body this afternoon to attend the funeral of Martin Rathjen, Jr., son of Alderman and Mr. Martin Rathjen, who passed away yesterday morning after an illness of two months with an abscess of the liver. The services were conducted from St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church and the remains were laid to rest in Oakdale cemetery. A team of between 40 and 50 Red Men from the three tribes in Wilmington went up to Wallace last night and met Great Chief of Records W. E. Goodwin, of Elizabeth City, who instituted a very thriving branch of the order in that town. The degree work was put on by a Wilmington team and was pronounced as good as was ever seen in the State. This party went up on a special coach attached to the north-bound train and returned this morning. Seventy-four miles of the Carolina Central division of the Seaboard Air Line between Wilmington and Hamlet have now been re-laid with the heavier rail and the work is going on. From Hamlet the rail has been laid to a point between Moss Neck and Lumberton and on this end the improvement has been carried as far as Council's Station. The old depot which gave place to the new station at Lumberton has been removed and is being re-erected at Elkton. While heavier rails are being laid on the track between here and Hamlet it is said that comparatively nothing is being done in the way of placing new ties.

James Stevenson Hooper, of Wilmington, has received an invitation from the New York Historical Society to attend a meeting in New York City November 17th, and listen to the reading of a paper on the "Signers of the Declaration of Independence," of which he is one of the lineal descendants.

EVENTS IN STATEVILLE

Miss Mebane, of Newton, who has been in the sanatorium here for treatment for some days, is rapidly regaining her strength and it is thought that she can be taken home by the last of the week. Mrs. Mebane, who has been here with her daughter, returned to Newton yesterday, accompanied by her husband, Mr. C. H. Mebane, who spent Sunday here.

Mr. Sam R. Brown, of Shepherd's, has accepted a position with the Stateville Realty and Investment Company as manager of the insurance department. Mr. Brown is an experienced insurance man and came here from Charlotte, where he has numbers of friends who speak highly of him. He is a very pleasant and agreeable gentleman and Stateville will be glad to welcome him as a citizen. Mr. Brown will move his family to Stateville in the near future.

Miss Jennie Morrison, who has been here for three months nursing her sister, Mrs. W. J. Johnson, who suffered a severe attack of typhoid fever, went to Scotts yesterday to spend awhile at the home of her father. She will return to Washington about December 1st to resume her duties as a nurse in the George Washington University Hospital.
