

Tanglewood A TON OF FOOD ALREADY DIGESTED

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ of the seed and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a pale malt, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances renders it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

"Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y."

Advertisement for Amulet Corn Whiskey, featuring an illustration of a bottle and text: 'AMULET CORN WHISKEY AN OLD MELLOW NORTH CAROLINA COPPER DISTILLED WHISKEY. Satisfaction Guaranteed or your MONEY REFUNDED. 4 QUARTS SHIPPED IN PLAIN, NEAT PACKAGES EXPRESS $2.65 PREPAID $2.00 THE COUSINS SUPPLY CO. RICHMOND, VA. DPT. 8'

Advertisement for Straight Whiskies, featuring a list of products and prices: 'All goods guaranteed under the Pure Food Law and Drug Act. Do not spend your money for compounded or rectified goods, when for the same money you can get the straight article. Look for the Pure Food Guarantee which you will find on all our goods, it means much to you. You buy direct when you order from us. We are wholesale distributors to the customer, and guarantee satisfaction, or money refunded. Goods shipped in neat plain packages, express charges prepaid at prices named. Write for special wholesale prices in bulk lots. Booklet, complete list and full information mailed on request. On list named below, we make good losses and breakage. (ALL FULL QUARTS) Newover (best the world over) $3.10 8 qts. $5.95 12 qts. $9.00... Kelly's Royal Corn (the finest) 1.25 Kelly's Copper Distilled (bottled in bond) 3.25 Kelly's Medicinal Malt (bottled in bond) 3.00 Miss Tempting (finest Maryland rye) 4.50... PUT UP IN STONE JUGS, SAFELY PACKED IN PLAIN CASE, ALL CHARGES PREPAID... The Phil. G. Kelly Co., Inc. Importers, Distributors and Bottlers of Fine Liquors MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED 419 E. Main Local and Long Distance Phone 1233 Richmond, Va.

Advertisement for Some Exceptional Offers, featuring a bottle of liquor and text: 'From the low-priced article for family use, to that which gratifies the most refined taste, I am offering the very best values at the lowest prices. In order to supply an increased demand, I am putting up a case containing four full quarts of Yadin River, North Carolina, 6-year old Corn Whiskey, for $2.50. This whiskey is absolutely pure, aged in wood and the best ever offered at the price. Other Exceptional Offers are: Albermarle Rye, 4 full quarts, $3.00 Mountain Rye, - per gallon, $2.50 Lazarus Club, - per gallon, $4.00 These Prices include Express Charges Write for Price List of Other Brands Largest Mail Order House in the South L. LAZARUS, LYNCHBURG, VA.'

Advertisement for Hotel Life and Hotel Clegg, featuring text: 'HOTEL LIFE Hotel life is exactly what you make it, pleasant or unpleasant, according to where you stop, regardless of what you pay; money won't provide a warm, genial atmosphere, genuine hospitality and cozy, inviting corners unless the right spirit exists. You have encountered the conditions we describe, but you won't encounter them at this hotel. Try this house on your next visit to Greensboro and see. Comfort is the keynote of all that is provided and offered here. HOTEL CLEGG Just a step beyond the station. GREENSBORO, N. C.'

father's will was never expressed, but in only one's happiness with the constant care for whom he would make any possible self-denial or sacrifice, who brought returned his love with deepest devotion. Towards his younger brother he was most helpful and kind, also giving much thought to the future and well being of the little brother he so tenderly loved.

In the outer world among friends and associates he concealed the prominence of a heart that went out in love to mankind, especially for the poor and the suffering. One instance I must relate. He found in a remote and humble home upon a mountain side a child of tender years, so afflicted that it would probably never walk. That child became to him a thought and a care. He was leaving home for a time and making preparations therefor—but before saying good-bye to loved ones at home, he excused himself to go down town, without stating his purpose. He went to a store, bought juvenile books and other things for comfort for the stricken child—a box full, and sent the box to the child by ready messenger, and it is not known that he ever spoke of the matter to any one. The writer by chance heard of the incident, and records it here, in testimony that there are many scattered seeds of kindness, of which the world will never know. May his loved ones find comfort in their grief, and his friends consolation in their sorrow in the reflection that God's will is best. J. G. HALL.

THE DEATH RECORD.

SUCCUMBS TO APPENDICITIS. KNIGHT'S TOUR. Mr. W. N. Womack, a Prominent Man of Reidsville, Dies in the General Hospital at Danville, Va. Special to The Observer. Reidsville, Nov. 15.—Mr. W. N. Womack died this morning about 4 o'clock in the General Hospital in Danville, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Womack was taken sick at Youngsville about a week ago and his condition was alarming from the beginning. The remains were brought to Reidsville this afternoon. The internment will be at Greenwood cemetery to-morrow afternoon beside his wife. He is survived by three daughters. Mr. Womack was assistant postmaster under Cleveland's administration and since his retirement from that position he has been a tobacco broker, representing some of the largest concerns in the country. Henry J. Berrier, of Lexington. Correspondence of The Observer. Lexington, Nov. 15.—The funeral of Mr. Henry J. Berrier, who passed away at his home at this place yesterday, was held this afternoon from the residence. Mr. Berrier was about 70 years of age and had been a sufferer for some time past with kidney trouble. He was unable to be out on the street until a few days ago. Mr. Berrier was one of Lexington's oldest and most respected citizens and the news of his death was learned with much regret. He formerly was engaged in the saw-mill business, but for the past few years had been in no active business. He is survived by his wife and one son.

AGENT URGES CURTAILMENT. Sends Letter to Fall River Factor Suggesting Concerted Close-Down. New York Commercial, 14th. Edward E. Poor, who holds a prominent place in the wholesale dry goods trade and who has views are highly regarded by mill men, believes that curtailment is the course for print cloth mills to pursue. In a letter to a prominent Fall River factor he sets forth his views as follows: "I think it would be exceedingly desirable if the Fall River mills could either concertedly or individually close down for two or three weeks or else reduce their production one-half for a longer period. There is no question but what they could get the consent of the principal buyers, with an agreement that contracts should hold over for the reason that it is just as difficult for the buyers to find money to pay for the cloth as it is for the Fall River mills to pay for cotton and make up their pay rolls. "As I look at the situation, if the cloth mills will reduce their production, and printers and converters do likewise, the mills will save themselves financially, but will save accumulating goods which will inevitably bear on the market heavily later. "If such a policy could be pursued and the manufacturers and commission merchants hold their prices firm, and wait for the resumption of business, which will certainly come, there is no question but what a large spring business will be done at remunerative prices."

IN MEMORIAM. Augustus Lewis Jones. Augustus Lewis Jones, eldest son of Edmund and Eugenia L. Jones, was born at the home of his paternal grandfather, the late Edmund W. Jones, at Clover Hill, Yadkin Valley, Caldwell county, November 7, 1874, and died at the home of his father, Lenoir, N. C., on the 9th day of November, 1907, aged 33 years and 2 days. He had secured the foundation of a liberal education in local schools, and afterwards at the University of North Carolina. Then taking upon himself, in the year 1895, at the age of 21, the serious responsibilities of an active business life, he left the parental roof, and engaged in occupations in Pittsburgh, and afterwards in that broad field of business activity, Chicago, so attractive to the hopes and aspirations of a young man when beginning to lay plans for a useful and successful life. Having made a specialty of the process of enameling, he organized the County Manufacturing Co., of which he was general manager, and located its plant at Clyde, a suburb of Chicago. In the year 1906 he returned to his native State determined to cast his lot with her, in the development of her abundant resources, and here to keep abreast with her steady progress, as possibly the most inviting field for the permanent location of a young man whose native impulses continually drove him nearer to the home of his childhood, and the land of his love. Here he engaged in such work as presented itself, never remaining idle, until in Hickory, N. C., there opened to him an opportunity to engage in the real estate business, and he had, when failing health began, but just organized in partnership with Mr. J. E. Mattocks, a realty business that gave promises of success. But the fell sleuth of heart trouble all too early cut short a career that none can doubt would have eventuated in a successful life, for "Gus," as he was familiarly known, had within him the capacity and the will, to work out the problem of how best to succeed. At an hour when family and friends, yet entertained hope of his final recovery, the unexpected but peaceful death came.

He was buried from the Chapel of Rest, in the Yadkin Valley, on Sunday, November 10th with the beautiful service of the Episcopal Church, of which he was long a faithful and consistent member—attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends. Unhappily he had but "to cross the river" from the place of his birth, and the home of his earlier years and "rest under the shade of the trees." As has been previously stated, he was hopeful of life, self-reliant and brave, possibly like too many young men all too visionary of the rewards that the years should bring. His predominant characteristic was love, which, in its various settings, is the crown jewel of living, in that it never faltereth whilst the trophies which are but evanescent dreams. We cannot ignore his home life, for there love is sacred, shrinking ever from the pen of the eulogist, and forbidding to the eye of the curious. But it was there that he manifested that love to which I would most tenderly refer. His mother having preceded him by more than ten years to the grave, his

John T. Weaver, of Orange County. Special to The Observer. Durham, Nov. 15.—News has reached here of the death in Orange county of John T. Weaver, a well-known citizen and prominent planter. He died Wednesday and the funeral and burial took place yesterday. He was about 66 years of age, and left a wife and a number of children, one of whom being Mr. R. H. Weaver, chief engineer for the Durham Traction Company. Mrs. George Powell, of Fayetteville. Correspondence of The Observer. Fayetteville, Nov. 15.—The funeral services took place to-day over the remains of Mrs. George Powell, who died yesterday at her home on Massie's Hill. She was before marriage Miss Baxley, of Robeson county, and she leaves a husband and one child, Monroe Lowman, of Connelly Springs. Special to The Observer. Connelly Springs, Nov. 15.—Monroe Lowman died in the country near here yesterday morning after an illness of fifteen weeks. He was a farmer of note, was widely known over his county and was one of the leading citizens and his section.

Brutal Robber Gets 15 Months on Chaining. Correspondence of The Observer. Asheville, Nov. 15.—Horace Melton, who was charged with assaulting and robbing a man named James McKay here some time ago, was yesterday afternoon convicted in Superior Court and sentenced to 15 months on the chain for the crime. Judge Gulon in passing sentence took occasion to pay his respects to Melton, declaring that the robbery was brutal. It seems that Melton had McKay, who was under the influence of liquor, driven to a secluded spot in Victoria and there beat him over the head, robbed him of $40 and left him to wander around in the cold, half-dazed. Melton's two companions, who were convicted of aiding and abetting, were sentenced to four months each on the gang. It's some of the things children learn in school that they get punished for.

HOW TO CURE A COLD. Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world-wide reputation, its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, opens the chest, soothes the inflamed membrane, loosens the phlegm, and restores the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which conclusively shows that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium, and is perfectly safe when given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by W. L. Hand & Co.

Curious Crowd Disappointed. Those Who Expected the McCannless-Harker Case to Be Aired Not Satisfied—Much Talk Over the Fight—High Postell to Be Tried on Trial For Rape Thursday. Correspondence of The Observer. Asheville, Nov. 15.—A good-sized crowd presented itself in the city police court this morning expecting to hear aired, the McCannless-Harker case of yesterday afternoon. A bunch of curious ones, however, was disappointed. Mr. McCannless, who assaulted the organist at Vanderbilt's church, entered court and made a plea of former conviction. It seems that after the scrap he went to a magistrate's court, and submitted, paying costs and a small fine. Professor Harker was adjudged not guilty. There was no evidence that he struck or attempted to strike Mr. McCannless. The affair has resulted in much street gossip. It is said that Rev. Dr. Swope, of All Souls', was surprised that there were any differences between the choir and the choir-master. Members of the choir manifested keen pleasure over the outcome of the scrap. Professor Harker is not at all popular with the members of his choir, and it would occasion no surprise if there were shortly several resignations. The All Souls' choir, over which Professor Harker presides, is composed of many of Asheville's young society women, and also prominent young men. The trial of Hugh Postell, slayer of Ed Edwards, of High Point, has been set for next Thursday. Postell will be tried for his life. A special venire of 100 men will be drawn to-morrow, from which a jury will be selected to try the accused. The case is attracting much interest and it is probable that large crowds will be in attendance when the trial is gone into. Moor & Rollins, of Asheville, will represent the private prosecution, assisting Solicitor Brown, while Mr. Locke Craig and Frank Carter will appear for the defense. It is understood that several witnesses who will give testimony will be brought here from other places. The trial will probably consume three days.

Curious Crowd Disappointed. Those Who Expected the McCannless-Harker Case to Be Aired Not Satisfied—Much Talk Over the Fight—High Postell to Be Tried on Trial For Rape Thursday. Correspondence of The Observer. Asheville, Nov. 15.—A good-sized crowd presented itself in the city police court this morning expecting to hear aired, the McCannless-Harker case of yesterday afternoon. A bunch of curious ones, however, was disappointed. Mr. McCannless, who assaulted the organist at Vanderbilt's church, entered court and made a plea of former conviction. It seems that after the scrap he went to a magistrate's court, and submitted, paying costs and a small fine. Professor Harker was adjudged not guilty. There was no evidence that he struck or attempted to strike Mr. McCannless. The affair has resulted in much street gossip. It is said that Rev. Dr. Swope, of All Souls', was surprised that there were any differences between the choir and the choir-master. Members of the choir manifested keen pleasure over the outcome of the scrap. Professor Harker is not at all popular with the members of his choir, and it would occasion no surprise if there were shortly several resignations. The All Souls' choir, over which Professor Harker presides, is composed of many of Asheville's young society women, and also prominent young men. The trial of Hugh Postell, slayer of Ed Edwards, of High Point, has been set for next Thursday. Postell will be tried for his life. A special venire of 100 men will be drawn to-morrow, from which a jury will be selected to try the accused. The case is attracting much interest and it is probable that large crowds will be in attendance when the trial is gone into. Moor & Rollins, of Asheville, will represent the private prosecution, assisting Solicitor Brown, while Mr. Locke Craig and Frank Carter will appear for the defense. It is understood that several witnesses who will give testimony will be brought here from other places. The trial will probably consume three days.

Curious Crowd Disappointed. Those Who Expected the McCannless-Harker Case to Be Aired Not Satisfied—Much Talk Over the Fight—High Postell to Be Tried on Trial For Rape Thursday. Correspondence of The Observer. Asheville, Nov. 15.—A good-sized crowd presented itself in the city police court this morning expecting to hear aired, the McCannless-Harker case of yesterday afternoon. A bunch of curious ones, however, was disappointed. Mr. McCannless, who assaulted the organist at Vanderbilt's church, entered court and made a plea of former conviction. It seems that after the scrap he went to a magistrate's court, and submitted, paying costs and a small fine. Professor Harker was adjudged not guilty. There was no evidence that he struck or attempted to strike Mr. McCannless. The affair has resulted in much street gossip. It is said that Rev. Dr. Swope, of All Souls', was surprised that there were any differences between the choir and the choir-master. Members of the choir manifested keen pleasure over the outcome of the scrap. Professor Harker is not at all popular with the members of his choir, and it would occasion no surprise if there were shortly several resignations. The All Souls' choir, over which Professor Harker presides, is composed of many of Asheville's young society women, and also prominent young men. The trial of Hugh Postell, slayer of Ed Edwards, of High Point, has been set for next Thursday. Postell will be tried for his life. A special venire of 100 men will be drawn to-morrow, from which a jury will be selected to try the accused. The case is attracting much interest and it is probable that large crowds will be in attendance when the trial is gone into. Moor & Rollins, of Asheville, will represent the private prosecution, assisting Solicitor Brown, while Mr. Locke Craig and Frank Carter will appear for the defense. It is understood that several witnesses who will give testimony will be brought here from other places. The trial will probably consume three days.

Curious Crowd Disappointed. Those Who Expected the McCannless-Harker Case to Be Aired Not Satisfied—Much Talk Over the Fight—High Postell to Be Tried on Trial For Rape Thursday. Correspondence of The Observer. Asheville, Nov. 15.—A good-sized crowd presented itself in the city police court this morning expecting to hear aired, the McCannless-Harker case of yesterday afternoon. A bunch of curious ones, however, was disappointed. Mr. McCannless, who assaulted the organist at Vanderbilt's church, entered court and made a plea of former conviction. It seems that after the scrap he went to a magistrate's court, and submitted, paying costs and a small fine. Professor Harker was adjudged not guilty. There was no evidence that he struck or attempted to strike Mr. McCannless. The affair has resulted in much street gossip. It is said that Rev. Dr. Swope, of All Souls', was surprised that there were any differences between the choir and the choir-master. Members of the choir manifested keen pleasure over the outcome of the scrap. Professor Harker is not at all popular with the members of his choir, and it would occasion no surprise if there were shortly several resignations. The All Souls' choir, over which Professor Harker presides, is composed of many of Asheville's young society women, and also prominent young men. The trial of Hugh Postell, slayer of Ed Edwards, of High Point, has been set for next Thursday. Postell will be tried for his life. A special venire of 100 men will be drawn to-morrow, from which a jury will be selected to try the accused. The case is attracting much interest and it is probable that large crowds will be in attendance when the trial is gone into. Moor & Rollins, of Asheville, will represent the private prosecution, assisting Solicitor Brown, while Mr. Locke Craig and Frank Carter will appear for the defense. It is understood that several witnesses who will give testimony will be brought here from other places. The trial will probably consume three days.

Curious Crowd Disappointed. Those Who Expected the McCannless-Harker Case to Be Aired Not Satisfied—Much Talk Over the Fight—High Postell to Be Tried on Trial For Rape Thursday. Correspondence of The Observer. Asheville, Nov. 15.—A good-sized crowd presented itself in the city police court this morning expecting to hear aired, the McCannless-Harker case of yesterday afternoon. A bunch of curious ones, however, was disappointed. Mr. McCannless, who assaulted the organist at Vanderbilt's church, entered court and made a plea of former conviction. It seems that after the scrap he went to a magistrate's court, and submitted, paying costs and a small fine. Professor Harker was adjudged not guilty. There was no evidence that he struck or attempted to strike Mr. McCannless. The affair has resulted in much street gossip. It is said that Rev. Dr. Swope, of All Souls', was surprised that there were any differences between the choir and the choir-master. Members of the choir manifested keen pleasure over the outcome of the scrap. Professor Harker is not at all popular with the members of his choir, and it would occasion no surprise if there were shortly several resignations. The All Souls' choir, over which Professor Harker presides, is composed of many of Asheville's young society women, and also prominent young men. The trial of Hugh Postell, slayer of Ed Edwards, of High Point, has been set for next Thursday. Postell will be tried for his life. A special venire of 100 men will be drawn to-morrow, from which a jury will be selected to try the accused. The case is attracting much interest and it is probable that large crowds will be in attendance when the trial is gone into. Moor & Rollins, of Asheville, will represent the private prosecution, assisting Solicitor Brown, while Mr. Locke Craig and Frank Carter will appear for the defense. It is understood that several witnesses who will give testimony will be brought here from other places. The trial will probably consume three days.

Curious Crowd Disappointed. Those Who Expected the McCannless-Harker Case to Be Aired Not Satisfied—Much Talk Over the Fight—High Postell to Be Tried on Trial For Rape Thursday. Correspondence of The Observer. Asheville, Nov. 15.—A good-sized crowd presented itself in the city police court this morning expecting to hear aired, the McCannless-Harker case of yesterday afternoon. A bunch of curious ones, however, was disappointed. Mr. McCannless, who assaulted the organist at Vanderbilt's church, entered court and made a plea of former conviction. It seems that after the scrap he went to a magistrate's court, and submitted, paying costs and a small fine. Professor Harker was adjudged not guilty. There was no evidence that he struck or attempted to strike Mr. McCannless. The affair has resulted in much street gossip. It is said that Rev. Dr. Swope, of All Souls', was surprised that there were any differences between the choir and the choir-master. Members of the choir manifested keen pleasure over the outcome of the scrap. Professor Harker is not at all popular with the members of his choir, and it would occasion no surprise if there were shortly several resignations. The All Souls' choir, over which Professor Harker presides, is composed of many of Asheville's young society women, and also prominent young men. The trial of Hugh Postell, slayer of Ed Edwards, of High Point, has been set for next Thursday. Postell will be tried for his life. A special venire of 100 men will be drawn to-morrow, from which a jury will be selected to try the accused. The case is attracting much interest and it is probable that large crowds will be in attendance when the trial is gone into. Moor & Rollins, of Asheville, will represent the private prosecution, assisting Solicitor Brown, while Mr. Locke Craig and Frank Carter will appear for the defense. It is understood that several witnesses who will give testimony will be brought here from other places. The trial will probably consume three days.

Curious Crowd Disappointed. Those Who Expected the McCannless-Harker Case to Be Aired Not Satisfied—Much Talk Over the Fight—High Postell to Be Tried on Trial For Rape Thursday. Correspondence of The Observer. Asheville, Nov. 15.—A good-sized crowd presented itself in the city police court this morning expecting to hear aired, the McCannless-Harker case of yesterday afternoon. A bunch of curious ones, however, was disappointed. Mr. McCannless, who assaulted the organist at Vanderbilt's church, entered court and made a plea of former conviction. It seems that after the scrap he went to a magistrate's court, and submitted, paying costs and a small fine. Professor Harker was adjudged not guilty. There was no evidence that he struck or attempted to strike Mr. McCannless. The affair has resulted in much street gossip. It is said that Rev. Dr. Swope, of All Souls', was surprised that there were any differences between the choir and the choir-master. Members of the choir manifested keen pleasure over the outcome of the scrap. Professor Harker is not at all popular with the members of his choir, and it would occasion no surprise if there were shortly several resignations. The All Souls' choir, over which Professor Harker presides, is composed of many of Asheville's young society women, and also prominent young men. The trial of Hugh Postell, slayer of Ed Edwards, of High Point, has been set for next Thursday. Postell will be tried for his life. A special venire of 100 men will be drawn to-morrow, from which a jury will be selected to try the accused. The case is attracting much interest and it is probable that large crowds will be in attendance when the trial is gone into. Moor & Rollins, of Asheville, will represent the private prosecution, assisting Solicitor Brown, while Mr. Locke Craig and Frank Carter will appear for the defense. It is understood that several witnesses who will give testimony will be brought here from other places. The trial will probably consume three days.

Curious Crowd Disappointed. Those Who Expected the McCannless-Harker Case to Be Aired Not Satisfied—Much Talk Over the Fight—High Postell to Be Tried on Trial For Rape Thursday. Correspondence of The Observer. Asheville, Nov. 15.—A good-sized crowd presented itself in the city police court this morning expecting to hear aired, the McCannless-Harker case of yesterday afternoon. A bunch of curious ones, however, was disappointed. Mr. McCannless, who assaulted the organist at Vanderbilt's church, entered court and made a plea of former conviction. It seems that after the scrap he went to a magistrate's court, and submitted, paying costs and a small fine. Professor Harker was adjudged not guilty. There was no evidence that he struck or attempted to strike Mr. McCannless. The affair has resulted in much street gossip. It is said that Rev. Dr. Swope, of All Souls', was surprised that there were any differences between the choir and the choir-master. Members of the choir manifested keen pleasure over the outcome of the scrap. Professor Harker is not at all popular with the members of his choir, and it would occasion no surprise if there were shortly several resignations. The All Souls' choir, over which Professor Harker presides, is composed of many of Asheville's young society women, and also prominent young men. The trial of Hugh Postell, slayer of Ed Edwards, of High Point, has been set for next Thursday. Postell will be tried for his life. A special venire of 100 men will be drawn to-morrow, from which a jury will be selected to try the accused. The case is attracting much interest and it is probable that large crowds will be in attendance when the trial is gone into. Moor & Rollins, of Asheville, will represent the private prosecution, assisting Solicitor Brown, while Mr. Locke Craig and Frank Carter will appear for the defense. It is understood that several witnesses who will give testimony will be brought here from other places. The trial will probably consume three days.

Curious Crowd Disappointed. Those Who Expected the McCannless-Harker Case to Be Aired Not Satisfied—Much Talk Over the Fight—High Postell to Be Tried on Trial For Rape Thursday. Correspondence of The Observer. Asheville, Nov. 15.—A good-sized crowd presented itself in the city police court this morning expecting to hear aired, the McCannless-Harker case of yesterday afternoon. A bunch of curious ones, however, was disappointed. Mr. McCannless, who assaulted the organist at Vanderbilt's church, entered court and made a plea of former conviction. It seems that after the scrap he went to a magistrate's court, and submitted, paying costs and a small fine. Professor Harker was adjudged not guilty. There was no evidence that he struck or attempted to strike Mr. McCannless. The affair has resulted in much street gossip. It is said that Rev. Dr. Swope, of All Souls', was surprised that there were any differences between the choir and the choir-master. Members of the choir manifested keen pleasure over the outcome of the scrap. Professor Harker is not at all popular with the members of his choir, and it would occasion no surprise if there were shortly several resignations. The All Souls' choir, over which Professor Harker presides, is composed of many of Asheville's young society women, and also prominent young men. The trial of Hugh Postell, slayer of Ed Edwards, of High Point, has been set for next Thursday. Postell will be tried for his life. A special venire of 100 men will be drawn to-morrow, from which a jury will be selected to try the accused. The case is attracting much interest and it is probable that large crowds will be in attendance when the trial is gone into. Moor & Rollins, of Asheville, will represent the private prosecution, assisting Solicitor Brown, while Mr. Locke Craig and Frank Carter will appear for the defense. It is understood that several witnesses who will give testimony will be brought here from other places. The trial will probably consume three days.

Curious Crowd Disappointed. Those Who Expected the McCannless-Harker Case to Be Aired Not Satisfied—Much Talk Over the Fight—High Postell to Be Tried on Trial For Rape Thursday. Correspondence of The Observer. Asheville, Nov. 15.—A good-sized crowd presented itself in the city police court this morning expecting to hear aired, the McCannless-Harker case of yesterday afternoon. A bunch of curious ones, however, was disappointed. Mr. McCannless, who assaulted the organist at Vanderbilt's church, entered court and made a plea of former conviction. It seems that after the scrap he went to a magistrate's court, and submitted, paying costs and a small fine. Professor Harker was adjudged not guilty. There was no evidence that he struck or attempted to strike Mr. McCannless. The affair has resulted in much street gossip. It is said that Rev. Dr. Swope, of All Souls', was surprised that there were any differences between the choir and the choir-master. Members of the choir manifested keen pleasure over the outcome of the scrap. Professor Harker is not at all popular with the members of his choir, and it would occasion no surprise if there were shortly several resignations. The All Souls' choir, over which Professor Harker presides, is composed of many of Asheville's young society women, and also prominent young men. The trial of Hugh Postell, slayer of Ed Edwards, of High Point, has been set for next Thursday. Postell will be tried for his life. A special venire of 100 men will be drawn to-morrow, from which a jury will be selected to try the accused. The case is attracting much interest and it is probable that large crowds will be in attendance when the trial is gone into. Moor & Rollins, of Asheville, will represent the private prosecution, assisting Solicitor Brown, while Mr. Locke Craig and Frank Carter will appear for the defense. It is understood that several witnesses who will give testimony will be brought here from other places. The trial will probably consume three days.

Curious Crowd Disappointed. Those Who Expected the McCannless-Harker Case to Be Aired Not Satisfied—Much Talk Over the Fight—High Postell to Be Tried on Trial For Rape Thursday. Correspondence of The Observer. Asheville, Nov. 15.—A good-sized crowd presented itself in the city police court this morning expecting to hear aired, the McCannless-Harker case of yesterday afternoon. A bunch of curious ones, however, was disappointed. Mr. McCannless, who assaulted the organist at Vanderbilt's church, entered court and made a plea of former conviction. It seems that after the scrap he went to a magistrate's court, and submitted, paying costs and a small fine. Professor Harker was adjudged not guilty. There was no evidence that he struck or attempted to strike Mr. McCannless. The affair has resulted in much street gossip. It is said that Rev. Dr. Swope, of All Souls', was surprised that there were any differences between the choir and the choir-master. Members of the choir manifested keen pleasure over the outcome of the scrap. Professor Harker is not at all popular with the members of his choir, and it would occasion no surprise if there were shortly several resignations. The All Souls' choir, over which Professor Harker presides, is composed of many of Asheville's young society women, and also prominent young men. The trial of Hugh Postell, slayer of Ed Edwards, of High Point, has been set for next Thursday. Postell will be tried for his life. A special venire of 100 men will be drawn to-morrow, from which a jury will be selected to try the accused. The case is attracting much interest and it is probable that large crowds will be in attendance when the trial is gone into. Moor & Rollins, of Asheville, will represent the private prosecution, assisting Solicitor Brown, while Mr. Locke Craig and Frank Carter will appear for the defense. It is understood that several witnesses who will give testimony will be brought here from other places. The trial will probably consume three days.

Curious Crowd Disappointed. Those Who Expected the McCannless-Harker Case to Be Aired Not Satisfied—Much Talk Over the Fight—High Postell to Be Tried on Trial For Rape Thursday. Correspondence of The Observer. Asheville, Nov. 15.—A good-sized crowd presented itself in the city police court this morning expecting to hear aired, the McCannless-Harker case of yesterday afternoon. A bunch of curious ones, however, was disappointed. Mr. McCannless, who assaulted the organist at Vanderbilt's church, entered court and made a plea of former conviction. It seems that after the scrap he went to a magistrate's court, and submitted, paying costs and a small fine. Professor Harker was adjudged not guilty. There was no evidence that he struck or attempted to strike Mr. McCannless. The affair has resulted in much street gossip. It is said that Rev. Dr. Swope, of All Souls', was surprised that there were any differences between the choir and the choir-master. Members of the choir manifested keen pleasure over the outcome of the scrap. Professor Harker is not at all popular with the members of his choir, and it would occasion no surprise if there were shortly several resignations. The All Souls' choir, over which Professor Harker presides, is composed of many of Asheville's young society women, and also prominent young men. The trial of Hugh Postell, slayer of Ed Edwards, of High Point, has been set for next Thursday. Postell will be tried for his life. A special venire of 100 men will be drawn to-morrow, from which a jury will be selected to try the accused. The case is attracting much interest and it is probable that large crowds will be in attendance when the trial is gone into. Moor & Rollins, of Asheville, will represent the private prosecution, assisting Solicitor Brown, while Mr. Locke Craig and Frank Carter will appear for the defense. It is understood that several witnesses who will give testimony will be brought here from other places. The trial will probably consume three days.