ICIAL AND PERSONAL

One of the most brilliant events Charlotte's social season was the reception given by Mrs. R. M. Oates, reception given by Mrs. R. M. Oates, Mrs. W. H. Twitty and Miss Lucy Oates, yesterday, at the home of Mrs. Oates, on North Tryon, in Honor of Mrs. John Binckwood Oates, of Bir-mingham, Als. From 4 till 5 o'clock the residence which, althfully decorated, with roses, chrysanthemums, carnations, paims and farms, presented a scene of beauty throughout, was througed with visitors. In the hall Miss Lucy Oates received, assisted by Mrs. Thomas S. Franklin, Mrs. L. A. Dodsworth, Mrs. E. T. Cansler, Mrs. W. O. Nisbet, and Mrs. J. A. Yarbrough. In the parlor were Mrs. R. M. Oates, Mrs. John B. Oates, Miss Sarah Hargrave, Mrs. George W. Blanton, of Shelby; Mrs. E. L. Keesler, Mrs. George W. Bath-el, of Norfelk, Va.; Mrs. Bessie A. Patterson, Mrs. John M. Scott, Mrs. E. B. Dickson, Mrs. E. L. Bussey, Mrs. R. A. Dunn, Mrs. A. L. Smith, Mas. Martin D. Hardin and Mist A. Mrs. Martin D. Hardin, and Miss Acton Latta.

Receiving in the living-room waere Receiving in the living-room where the punch was served, were Mrs. R. M. Brannon, Mrs. H. L. Adams. Mrs. H. E. C. Bryant, Mrs. M. G. Hun-ter, Misses Johnsie Dickson, and Mare Brockenbrough. In the dining room Mrs. W. H. Twitty, Mrs. E. S. Steele, Mrs. J. A. Bell, Mrs. H. B. Fowler, Mrs. R. S. Bushee, Mrs. S. O. Brooks, Miss An-nie Rankin, Miss Margaret Rankin preseived Miss Sarah Elizabeth Mil-

Miss Sarah Elizabeth Miltook the cards at the door. The bride looked very beautiful The bride looked very beautiful in her wedding gown, which was a Parisian robe of princess and point lace over messaline satin. She car-ried American Beauty roses, ly. spent Wednesday and yesterlay in the city with her brother, Mr. C. C. Rankin. She returned verter to C. Miss Annie Rankin, of Mount Hol-

Mrs. Mary Prentiss Smith, of Cleveland, O., is the guests of Mrs. L. Brown, at No. 807 East avenue.

Mrss J. H. Craig, of Gastonia, is the guest of Mrs. E. W. Mellon at her home on North Poplar street.

The Cranford Book Club will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. Alexander Martin at her Dliworth

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Alexander, Jr., are in New York, where they will spend several weeks.

Miss Louise Orr leaves to-day for Gastonia to spend a week with her cousins, Misses Lida and Rosebul Adams.

A number of Charlotte people will be interested in the announcement of the marriage yesterday afternoon at Statesville of Miss Julia Poston and Rev. C. T. Bryson, of Chicota, Texas. Miss Poston was formerly music-teacher at the Due West Female Col-lege, and Mr. Bryson was a student theme both in the collarge and the there, both in the college and the seminary. He is now pastor of the A. R. P. church at Chicota, Texas,

Mrs. I. W. Faison and Mrs. R.

k avenue, Wednesday alte little Mattje Walker, aged 1 fell, sustaining a fracture Railway nore. Etc.

-The thumb of Mr. J. F. Burk-hart, a machinist in the foundry of the American Machine and Manufac-

The American Machine in the foundry of the American Machine and Manufacturing Company, was cut bady showe in the first joint. Amputation may be interesting that the speaker who is to be tried at the April term of Davie court at Mockaville has not been taken to that town but lieth of the speakers who were to have appared on the programme were Governor Ansel of South Carolina, and no chances will be taken of the three speakers who did appared on the speakers who did appared on the programme. Rev. W. A. Lumaford, pastor of the First Baptist church, of Asheville in the shall on South Tryoe, are to be and interesting in the shall on South Tryoe, street over the Southorn Express Company's office. Quite a number of people attended and a delightful time was had.
The funeral services over little

-The funeral services over little Minnie Cornell, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cornell, who died suddenly at their home Wednes-Jay morning, will be conducted this afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. Harris Mallinckrodt, and Dr. E. E. Bomar. Interment will be at Elm-wood. Inclement weather had interfered with the attendance, yet the convention had been successful. He expressed the attendance, yet the convention had been successful. He expressed the attendance, yet the convention had been successful. He expressed the attendance, will be conducted this afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. Harris Mallinckrodt, and Dr. E. E. Bomar. Interment will be at Elm-

The Sabbath in its connections with Ramsay spiritual life was the subject of the piano, address of Rev. J. M. Rose, of Lau-THE A. M. E. ZION CONFERENCE. Many Visitors Present-Rev. rinburg. Dr

Marable Reports For Salisbury Dis-trict and Rev. Dr. Watkins For the Charlotte District—$3,500 Raised in the Two Districts—Rev. Dr. Madison, of Asheville, Preaches Stirring Samman Stirring Sermon. Written for The Observer.

and he spoke of several of the bless-The Conference now in session at ings which were promised as a re-Clinton chapel is making splendid ward to those who faithfully keep the Sabbath day holy, and he stated in the groom with his best man, Mr. Z. progress in its work. The first hour this connection that every blessing J. Scott, of Winston-Salem, brother of that comes to the individual is inof the second day's session was spent in the introduction of general ofdissolubly connected with his observficers, fraternal delegates and visiance of the Sabbath. "God is the author of two books," said he, "the book of Revelation, which is the Bible, and the book of Durham, who said the words that tors, among whom were the Hon. J. C. Dancy, recorder of deeds in the District of Columbia; Dr. J. H. nature, and the two books are close-Manly, presiding elder of the Spartanly allied, and the one book responds burg district, in South Carolina; Dr. to the other. W. H. Chambers, of Indianapolis, physical nature needs it, his mental carried a shower bouquet of bride's Ind., and presiding elder of that nature needs it, and his spiritual be- roses and asparagus ferns, gorgeous district; Rev. D. C. Baum, presiding ing needs it." elder of the Charleston, S. C., district; Rev. E. L. Madison, of Asheaddress to the relation of the Sabbath to the spiritual nature. His first black picture hat, carnying a handville; Rev. J. C. Black, of Lancaster, argument in this connection was that some bouquet of white carnations. S. C., and Rev. R. C. Collins, of first, the Sabbath day is a real ne-

Chester, S. C. Short speeches were cessity to the spiritual nature in ormade by these visitors. The remainder of the day was spent in collecting Conference claims and money for the general departments of the Church. The reports from the various of man which he gave was that the home of the bride Tuesday from the charges in the aggregate showed a premarkable increase over all previous der to have a special time for prayer that prevailed was pink and green.

and meditation on spiritual things. The presents, tastily arranged in the Dr. M. R. Franklin, the financial In this connection he deplored the sitting room, were costly and numersecretary of the Conference, re-ported that $3,400 general fund had been raised this year, $1,100 mora fact that too many people spend the ous attesting to some extent the wide Sabbath day by devoting themselves esteem in which the popular pair is to secular pastimes instead of spend- held. than was raised three years ago, ing it in a purely spiritual way. At Immediately after the ceremony this point in his address, the speaker Mr. and Mrs. Scott left on the northwhen Bishop George W. Clinton as-sumed the Episcopal supervision of said that he felt like asking his hear- bound train for a bridal tour to the work of the Western North Carolina Conference.

ers this question: "Which do you Washington, Baltimore and other hold in your hand the longest and points North. There was a corresponding in-Lockwood Jones have returned from Norfolk, Va., where they attended the meeting of the Daughters of the Con-federacy. Not only had there been an in-Not only had there been an in-crease in the contributions for the educational work, but aside from this, the churches of this Conference made a voluntary contribution of more than $1,200 this year toward the erection of a memorial building on the campus of Livingstone Colstruction and then showed that growth in grace is dependent upon lege, in honor of the late Dr. J. C. that individual's observance of the Price, the founder of the college. At the close of the afternoon ses-Sabbath, and that all the attributes sion the presiding elders of the Charlotte and Salisbury districts of the divine nature are promised to all who observe the sanctity of the Sabbath. His closing words were a plea for the observance of the Sabbath in or-der to secure happiness, usefulness and blessing to every individual ob-

UCCESSFUL SPEEDS HELD.

Dumman deploted the amount of Sab-bath desectation which is caused by travel and secular work on the Lord's day. Referring to the thousands of employes who are compelled to work on the Sabhath, are employed by pro-fessing Christian, men who are offi-cers in the churches, he urged that these men realise their double obligation p-4 no longer cause others to violate the Sabbath law. -Resolutions of Thanks to the Clitzens and to the Press of tha City-Rain Interfered With Attend-ance, But the Convention a Suc-

presiding at and at the the brkle, leaning on the arm of her

The bride wore a going-away co

tume of leather brown chiffon cloth an beautiful. The dame of honor kansdown with black lace bands and

The maid of honor wore a lovely creation of pink silk and point disprit

An elaborate and much enjoyed father, Rev. Dr. W. I. Herndon.

made the pair one.

"Man needs the Sabbath day; his with gloves and hat to match, and

Dr. Rose confined himself in his wore a lovely costume of cream der to give that nature rest-rest lace and black picture hat, carrying from all toil and from all worldly an elaborate bouquet of pink carnations

The next reason why the Sabbath ante-nuptual reception was given a is a necessity to the spiritual nature few invited friends and relatives at

at ley at Atlantic Velw Hotel on Wrightsville Sound. She was 64 years of age and had been in poor health a long time. The funeral was conduct-ed from the residence on the sound at 2 o'clock this afternoon and the remains were brought up to Wil-mington and laid to rest in Oakdale Cemetery.

At

CHERAW MILLS INCORPORATED

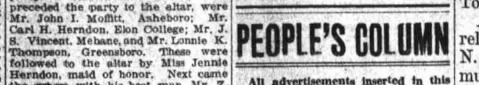

THE DEATH RECORD.

mington.

pecial to The Observer.

Cotton Concern to Have Capital Stock of $150,000 and Will Establish $10,000-Spindle Cloth Plant.

Columbia, S. C., dispatch, 19th. The establishment of a cotton goods mill at Cheraw has been decided upon, and the Cheraw Cotton Mills have been incorporated for this Promptly as the hour appointed Miss Mary Lou Pitt sang, "Because God Made Me Thine," Miss Ellise purpose. The incorporators are A. G. Kollock, H. D. Malloy and R. the Gaston, and the capital stock is con-$150,000, to be increased as needed. clusion of the vocal solo, Lohen-It is intended to build a plant of 10, grin's "Wedding March" was played, 000 spindles and 200 looms, and electricity will probably be used. They

All advertisements inserted in this column at rate of ten cents per line of six words. No ad. taken for less than 20 cents. Cash in advance.

WANTED. WANTED-Party to invest two to four thousand dollars in new up-to-date manufacturing plant. Office of presi-dent or general manager goes with deal at fair salary. Address "Investor," care Observer.

WANTED-To Luy one car of good, young, well-broke mules. Would be glad to have quotations from Virginia or the West. Apply to M. K. Lee Mercan-tile Co., Marshville, N. C. WANTED-A lady to help with house-keeping and do cooking for small family. Address Box 108, Bennettsville, WANTED-For U. S. Army, able-bodied, unmarried men, between ages of 21 and 5, citizens of United States, of good character and temperate habits, who can speak, read and write English. Men wanted now for service in Cuba. For information apply to Recruiting Officer, 15 West Trade St., Charlotte, N. C.; 25% South Main St., Asheville, N. C.; Bank Building, Hickory, N. C.; 417% Liberty St., Winston-Salem, N. C.; 120% North Main St., Salisbury, N. C.; Kandall Building, Columbia, B. C.; Haynesworth and Conygr's Building, Greenville, S. C.; Dinner and Conver's Building, Greenville, S. C.; or Gienn Building, Spartanburg, S. C.

WANTED-A practical printer to take charge of country newspaper and job office in town 2.000 people. Income now $1,000 year. Married man preferred. Ob-server, Blacksburg, S. C.

WANTED-Position by experienced grad-uate pharmacist. To begin work imme-diately. Address Graduate, care Ob-

Branfton's

Delicious

Ice Creams

home. At all book stores. Price 85c; by mail 97c. Or from the publishers direct.

Miss Matt Reinhardt, of Lincolnton, returned to her home yesterday after visiting Miss Laurie Spong in Dilworth

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Vernon, and daughter, Miss Estella Vernon, will leave this morning for a two weeks' pleasure trip to New York and Bos-

Mrs. W. H. Payne, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Con-way, on North Tryon street, returned to her home at Montgomery, Ala., North Tryon street, returned

Mrs. S. J. Fitch. of Rutherfordton. is the guest of Mrs. W. B. Bradford on North McDowell street.

The exceedingly inclement weather The exceedingly inclement weather yesterday afternoon and night pre-vented a large attendance on the re-ception given at the home of Mrs. O. A. Robbins. Consequently the re-ception will be repeated this after-noon. The affair is for the benefit of Mercy General Hospital. The hours will be longer to-night. Those who braved the storm last plebt had who braved the storm last night had a grand time. Mr. and Mrs. Robins are royal hosts and those who go to-night will be given a cordial re-ception. Carriages will meet the cars at the curve.

Miss Florence Thomas will enter-tain the Chelidon Book Club at her residence on Elizabeth avenue this afternoon at 4 o'clock

Mrs. Minnie Benton is visiting Mr. Howard Winchester at Columbia.

Miss Nell Pickard will spend Sunday with friends in Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Watt will leave the Selwyn to-day and go to their home on Ninth street.

PERSONAL.

The Movements of a Number of People, Visitors and Others.

Mr. George O. Tenney, president of the Atlantic Bitulithic Company, of Richmond, Va., spent yesterday in the city at the Selwyn. Rev. W.V. Honeycutt, of Bessemer spent yesterday in Charlotte with friends

Dr. Albert Durham, who visited his brother, Mr. J. A. Durham, has re-turned to his home in White Plains,

T. Mr. W. E. Murr, of Orlando, Fla. is in the city.

Mr. Joe Meyer, who has been in Richmond and Baltimore for the last six months, has returned to the city. Mr. A. S. Cheek is expected home from the West, where he spent ten weeks. He will arrive to-morsow. Dr. Tait Butler and Mr. J. A. Kler-nan of Raleigh, are at the Selwyn. Mr. R. L. Buhus, of Baltimore, is spending a few days in the city on business.

Conference ever since it was set apart seventeen years ago, made the best report he has ever made, and grows continually in the favor and esteem of his brethren. Rev. S. D. Watkins, of the Char-

its keeping. lotte district, who was elevated to this office last year, more than vindicated the judgment of the hishon cated the judgment of the bishop in appointing him by the excellent report from his district. The reports showed that $10,107 had been raised in these two dis-tricts on pastors' salaries. The pre-siding elders of these districts re-ceived $1,500, making a total of $11,607 paid the ministers of these districts. convention.

districts. The total collection from these districts for all purposes was more than $3,600. There are three presiding elders' districts to be heard from, and the indications are that more than $100,000 for all purposes will be reported at this Conference. At 8 o'clock last evening Rev. E. L. Madison, of Asheville, preached to a large and enthusiastic audience.

He preached from Luke 10:29. "Who is our neighbor?" Subject: "Hu-manity's Neighborhood as Viewed by the Savior."

He spoke of the condition of the He spoke of the condition of the world at the time of the coming of Christ, the tendency on the part of men toward luxury. Individualism and selfishness; that the world had everything then that it has now but the spirit of Christianity, and this was necessary to fix the bounds of humanity's neighborhood. He said that the greatest need of the world to-day is lowe: not the low which to-day is love; not the love which leads us to help the fellow who can help himself, and who can in turn help us, but the fellow who cannot help help himself and has nothing to give in return for what we do for him. He said that too frequently to-day lawyer of the marrative of the text was probably of this class and tried to justify his position by asking who his neighbor was. He said that the world has no sympathy for sufferers. He illustrated this condition by vividiy portraying the condition of the man who had fallen among thieves and the attitude of the first two passers to ward this sufferers.

vividiy portraying the condition of the man who had fallen among thieves and the altitude of the first two passersby toward this sufferer. To illustrate the true attitude of man to man and who our neighbors are, he described the attention and heip given the sufferer by the action and the change of condition of the Sabbath day by indulgance in favorite among a wide circle of acany secular reading and thought on quaintances. Mr. Scott is secretary the Sabbath.

en to them. This a law, he said, which cannot be repealed or changed,

DAY NEEDED FOR PRAYER.

serving this day according to the law which God gave centuries ago concerning its sanctity and the duty of all generations to observe carefully distraction.

and treasurer of the Burlington Iron The next point, he touched upon Bridge Works, and a most estimable was that the spiritual nature of man and popular young man. needs the Sabbath as a time for in-

Two Weddings in Raleigh.

Observer Bureau, The Holleman Building, Raleigh, Nov. 20.

Two weddings here to-day brought society folk out in force. The first was that of Miss Mary Barbee, the FOR SALE-Improved Victor tapering arm talking machine and a splendld se-lection of records-about 60. All in first-class condition, as good as new. Bardaughter of Mr. Edward B. Barbee, who became the bride of Mr. Alfred gain to cash purchaser. Address Victor, care The Observer. Harvey Ball, a native of Portsmouth, Va., but for a year a resident of server.

Hotel.

Observer.

dame of honor. Little Adeline An-Charlotte.

Before the second address, Rev. F. M. Osborne spoke to the audience drews Barbee, a sister of the bride, was flower girl, the maids of honor with reference to the expense of the being Misses Henrietta Hancock, of convention, and with reference to the Newbern, and Kate Barbee, of Ralrequirements for mmbership in the North Carolina Sabbath observance eigh.

In the evening at Christ Church

Miss Sadie Smedes Root, the daugh-ter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Root, MR. DUNCAN SPEAKS. The second speaker was Rev. Wil-liam Duncan, of this city. He spoke Dr. Albert Smedes; for so many on this subject: 'Do modern condiyears the rector of St. Mary's Fe tions change the obligations resting upon us for keeping the Sabbath day. male School here, became the bride of Mr. Watkins Robards, who is a nephew of Col. A. B. Andrews, first holy?' Dr. Duncan, in the beginning of his vice president of the Southern Rail-address, stated that in one of the af- way, and who has since boyhood way, and who has since boyhood ternoon papers, the statement made held a position in the Citizens Nationwith reference to the address which al Bank in Raleigh. Miss Annie he delivered this morning that he Root, sister of the bride, was maid said at times that modern conditions must be recognized and that these changed man's obligation to observe Milton A. Barbour, the rector. the original Sabbath. This statement he said was not true and the re-Martin-Little, at Hickory. porter must have gotten it from hearcial to The Observer.

say. "That implies that an all-wise God Hickory, Nov. 21.-Miss Annie Lit-tle and Mr. John C. Martin were could not legislate for all ages, and if that be granted, it is a questioning married yesterday at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. J. P. Little, on

Morganton street, Hickory, and went CHURCH ON DANGER LINE. away on the evening train to visit Wasnington and probably Philadel-In this question of Sabbath desecra phia and New York. Rev. J. S. Moody, of the Episcopal church of-ficiated. tion, not only does society seem to court its ruin, but the Church of God itself is found on the danger line also, and may God save her from the Miss Little is a grand daughter of the late Dr. Black and niece of Mr. R. K. Black, of Concor. She is a destruction which must and will come as a result of the desecration of the Sabbath. young lady of beauty and distingushed appearance. Mr. Martin is one of the best and most popular citizens "God created the Sabbath day for of Hickory, senior member of the firm of Martin & Clark. As a son, brother, neighbor and friend he

He said that too frequently to-day the spirit prevails that our neigh-bor is the fellow who lives in the same house or street and moves in the same social circle and enjoys the same iuxuries we enjoy: The speaker said that the young same luxuries we enjoy: The speaker said that the young the Sabbath day and made it to be lawyer of the narrative of the text come a blessing to all who will ob-

Married Life. ulal to The Observer. Reldsville, Nov. 21.-At 7:45 o'clock

Raleigh. Mr. George Threadcraft, of Portsmouth, Va., was best man, and Mr. Ball's married sister was Jas. Sugar, Box 19 B, R. F. D. No. 5, of Portsmouth, Va., was best man, FOR RENT.

FOR RENT-Residence in Dilworth. For terms apply to O. A. Robbins. FOR RENT-Floor space for manufac-turing purposes in the Tompkins build-ing. Heat, light and power. Apply to The D. A. Tompkins Co. FOR RENT-One furnished room. Apply

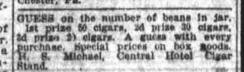

FOR SALE.

401 North Grabam street. FOR RENT-Part of store room oc-cupied by Motrow Greery Co., 224 South College street, Jno. B. Ross.

LOST LOST DOG-If party who has my lemon and white pointer, ten months old, will return to me I will reward him. E. F. Creswell, Gem Restaurant.

LOST-On South Tryon, between Buford Hotel and 60 East 4th, pair of long black kid gloves. Reward for return to Observer.

MISCELLANEOUS. WEAVERS WANTED-Fine and dress goods. Narrow Crompton & Knowles Looms. Abertoyle Mig. Co., Chester, Pa.

MOTHERS-Try Barlum Springs Water for the baby. It sooths and regulates the bowels, cures every form of skin discuss. Woodall & Sheppard, Agents. but few equals and no superiors. take TYPEWRITER REPAIRING-Largest and best equipped shop in the State. Best work and prompt service. J. E. Crayton & Co., 217 S. Tryon street. Phone 304. Kindness and willingness to take trouble for others, sympathy and inerest in the joys or sorrows of his ellow beings, have always been distinguishing traits of his character, Fond wishes for the happiness and weifare of Mr. and Mrs. Martin fol-fo them on their bridal tour, BOOK-KEEPPER experienced in cotton mill accounting, and who has held present position as secretary-treasurer of a successful mill for the past eight years, desires to make engagement with wood cotton mill. Good reason for want-ing to change location. Good references. If you have an opening address "Tarn Mill," care Observer. Two Reidsville Couples Enter Upon

 BRIEFS.
The second at the children's hour at the described the strength and the sufference with this generative.
The second at the children's hour.
The second the strength or second his strength.
The second at the children's hour.
The bishop will delive his failer.
The second at the scale of the second at the state of the second at t A FINE opportunity for two hustling young men. For sale, a well-establish-od up-to-date clothins and gent's fur-nishing business in one of the leading Fee Dee S. C. towns. Brand new stock Party has other business interest and can't devote sufficient time to both. Ad-dress Clothing, P. O. Box B, Darling-ton, S. C.

of honor. Bishop Joseph Blount Cheshire officiated, assisted by Rev.