"It Pays to Trade at Ivey's"

AMUSEMENTS

One characteristic of "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway," George M. Cohan's wonderfully successful musical drama which Klaw & Erlanger present at the Academy of Music next Monday night is the careful attention to detail throughout. Not only has an admirable pair of players been secured for the more important roles, as proven by the presence of Miss Emma Carus and Scott Welch at the head of the company, but an excellent dancing and singing chorus backs them up. Then too, the scenic phase has been made of more than secondary importance. The three sets used are massive and rich, being convincing in their correctness and adding materially to the impressiveness and appeal of the play. New scenery has been especially made for this year's tour so that it will be a virtually new production in the matter of scenery and costumes, and not, as so often happens with a touring company, the worn-out, bedraggled and decrepit accessories that should long since have been cast in the discard. The role of "Kil" Burns will be portrayed by Scott Welch.

Mahara's color minstrels will be the attraction at the Academy of Music Saturday matinee and night. During this engagement the entire balcony and gallery will be reserved for colored people.

COMING THRU THE RYE

From all accounts it would seem impossible to overestimate the high character of the production of "Coming Thru the Rye," which will be seen for the first time here at the Academy of Music Friday night. It is a musical comedy in the presentation of which the limit of extravagance appears to have been reached. There are eighty people employed in the performance, made up of comedians, singers and dancers, who have the distinction in their respective lines of work, and the scenic and costume display is described as massive and beautiful. Two sixty-foot cars are required to transport the equipment, from which some idea of its immensity may be gathered. That we have the original company and production here is assured by the fact that there is only one "Coming Thru the Rye" organization in existence. The comedy of the piece and of the kind of things which the audience constantly convulsed with laughter, while the musical score is described as unusually melodious, jingling and "catchy." Outside of the choruses, the programme specifies upwards of twenty numbers which are said to be especially popular. This is the kind of entertainment which commands the attention of all who enjoy the best in stage performances, and if it receives the patronage here which it deserves, and which has been bestowed upon it elsewhere, it will be witnessed by an audience limited in size only by the capacity of the theatre. The sale of seats begins this morning at Hawley's.

HENRY GOT OFF

Hahn's Attended Court as Witness Because He Hadn't Been Told to Come—A Large Number and a Wide Variety of Cases Tried Yesterday.
"I had some warrants sworn out, but nobody summoned me to come to court," said Henry Hayden, a negro who was arrested charged with contempt of court because of his failure to answer to his name as a witness in Monday morning's court.
"That is correct, your honor," corroborated Chief Christenbury, after hearing the man's story and the warrant was dismissed, with an injunction to the general public that witnesses must attend.
Jim McDaniels and Charlie Goings were fined $15 and costs each for an affray. Tom Pearson and John Kelly, white men, were fined $25 and costs for tearing off the weatherboarding from an empty house in North Charlotte in whose ruddy warmth they basked contentedly. They could not raise the money and went to jail.
Mary Lou Powell was fined $10 and costs for disorderly conduct. Charles Brown forfeited his bond of $10 for appearing for trial on a warrant requiring his appearance on the 13th of August.
Drunk and disorderly conduct cost J. W. Patterson $10 and the costs. W. M. Morgan forfeited an appearance bond of $10 for cruelty to his horse. Morgan was arrested once before on a similar charge, but was let go on the condition that the offense be not repeated.
Bonds of $5 were forfeited by Neil Alexander and Chester Benton for being drunk. Bedford Jolly was fined $5 and costs for simple assault.

BABY MIXED UP

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors told me I was mixed up, but I had a heart disease, and I was told I had kidney trouble, but I was told I had a stomach and liver trouble, but none of them helped me; so my wife advised me to try Dr. J. C. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I was restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood, nervous weakness and all stomach and kidney complaints, by all druggists, 50c.

THAT BAZAAR.

Ladies Working Hard to Make It a Success—Object Entirely Unselfish.
As the day of the opening of the charity bazaar draweth near and yet nearer, the ladies who are backing this enterprise are bestirring themselves to assure its unbounded success. Nothing but the most unselfish of motives prompts them—the making easier of the lot of those poverty-stricken sufferers who are to find rest and care in the charity ward of the Presbyterian Hospital. The object is not to preach theological dogma to the Chinese or to reform the Hottentots. It is in the essence of practical Christianity at which they are aiming, and the cause is one which should enlist the cordial assistance of everyone.
Thursday and Friday, December 12th and 13th, are the days set apart for this event, which promises to be most enjoyable in every way. The program for the two days is as follows: Thursday, December 12th, 10 o'clock, the band will furnish music. The baby show, which will be the event of the season in the infantile social set, will take place and a warm time is predicted. The judges have taken out extra life insurance for the occasion and will award prizes to the winners. The Woodmen's Band will furnish the lung power which will bring the music to transient being. In addition to the baby show in the afternoon a special musical programme, with numbers to be rendered by the best known musicians of the city, has been arranged. To-morrow night the Hornets' Nest Riflemen will give a drill for a prize.
Again throughout Friday music will be a feature, especially in the afternoon. Reinforcing this will be a walk for the children in the afternoon, followed at night by a Confederate singing.
Not least among the attractions is the bird supper to be given at the Auditorium to-morrow night, under the direction of Mrs. J. H. Wadsworth. The prices will be reasonable and the fare reasonable and edible.

FIRST IN 30 YEARS.

Hailstorm Visits Charlotte and Continues For Four Minutes—First December Thunderstorm in 13 Years.
The first December hailstorm in the history of the local weather observatory, which is 30 years of age, visited Charlotte yesterday afternoon at 11 minutes after 2 o'clock, continuing for four minutes. Accompanying it was the first December thunderstorm since December 12th, 1894, a period of 13 years. The storm arrived in the city at the time stated above and continued for about 20 minutes. During this period there were several flashes of lightning and several peals of thunder.
The precipitation of rain was very light, measuring only 15-100ths of an inch in depth. The hail stones which fell in plenty for four minutes were of reasonably large size, about the average. There were none observed so far as known as large as water buckets or even goose eggs. Charlotte has not given to seeing the visitors which sometimes visit her sister towns, taking the shape of air ships and similar phenomena. Consequently, a bare, plain, unembellished statement of the facts satisfies. But the fact that a record of at least 13 years has been broken yesterday afternoon, along with the monotony, is something worthy of attention and weather observers here, who may be considered responsible, since the blame is his for four weather, has a right to be proud of the feat which he engineered yesterday.

Shop Windows Like Scenes From Wonderland.

Reference has been made previously to the artistic work of the window decorators of the Charlotte stores. It is more evident every day. Many of the windows have been transformed into veritable scenes from fairyland. Some wares of course lend themselves to the decorator's art with greater readiness and in a greater degree than others, hence there is a difference in the appearance of the window stores, however, from hardware to book store, an attempt is being made or will be made to attract special attention and to typify the holiday season.
Among the windows which are attracting attention are those of the Little-Long Company on North Tryon, the Kross store, Thompson's, Berryhill-Suther Company's, Stone-Barringer Company's, Van Ness' and many others.

To Celebrate North Carolina Day.

North Carolina Day will be celebrated interestingly and appropriately by the schools of the State December 20th, which falls on Friday week. Heretofore these exercises have been held on October 13th, which is also University Day, when that institution celebrates the momentous incident which marks the beginning of its life, when the fathers gathered near the spreading limbs of the Davis poplar and decided on the location of the institution. This year, however, the date was deemed too early for the majority of the schools, especially for those in the country, many of which had not opened, and so December 20th has been fixed instead.

THE COMMITTEE DIVIDED.

Majority Report of Aldermanic Committee Opposes Slaughter Houses of Any Character in the City—Minority Report Favors Substitute.
The report which was asked by the board of aldermen at its last meeting from the special committee appointed by Mayor Franklin to investigate the proposition of the proposed union stockyard and city slaughter house will be made by that committee at the next meeting. It will be in the shape of a double report—the majority favoring the enforcement of the present ordinance prohibiting slaughtering within the city limits; the minority favoring the repeal of this ordinance and the enactment of a substitute, which will permit the building and operation of a modern, sanitary establishment to be run under the supervision of a government inspector in the city.
This decision was reached last night at a meeting of the committee, consisting of Aldermen W. W. Hayward, A. Bunn, P. S. Williams, H. C. Severs and W. S. Shelor. Squire Severs was absent. Messrs. Hayward, Bunn and Williams made up the majority, opposing the existence of slaughter houses of any kind within the city, while Mr. W. S. Shelor composed the minority.
The city aldermen will take the final whack at the matter at their coming meeting. It has been under discussion a long time and is one of great importance. The offer to build the establishment is under government inspection was made by local butchers, who realized that the work had to be done somewhere, though the city ordinance forbids it. It is impossible to forecast what the aldermen will do with these reports, but those especially who are engaged in the meat business will await the result of their deliberations with painful interest.

TWO MORE TRAINS GOING.

Southern to Drop Trains No. 35 and 36 Between Charlotte and Washington—What May Emerge.
There is a well authenticated rumor afloat to the effect that the Southern will drop trains Nos. 35 and 36 between Charlotte and Washington on Sunday, December 12th, in connection with the change in the schedule of the Southern Railway. A Charlotte traveling man, who was discussing this rumored change with an Observer reporter last night, stated that if the Southern continued its retrenching policy much further than North Carolina and Virginia would not have a better service than the charter of the Southern calls for, namely, "one train each way every day."
"Edelweiss" Is Dedicated to Mr. John Charles McNeill.
Miss Corrie Fore, of the management of the Presbyterian College annual, and her corps of assistants, have been soliciting advertisements for that publication for the past few weeks. Marked success has rewarded their efforts. The annual, which bears the name of "Edelweiss," is dedicated this year by the senior class. At a meeting of the seniors a few days ago it was decided to dedicate this year's book to the memory of Mr. John Charles McNeill, who was an honorary member of one of the literary societies at the college.
The "Edelweiss" last year was a high-class production of the first rank, and judging from the personnel of its staff, this year's will rise to the mark of the best, if it does not pass it.

Board of Directors to Meet.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Young Women's Christian Association will be held in the association rooms this morning at 11 o'clock. The membership committee will meet at 10 o'clock and the campaign committee at 10:30 o'clock. It is desired that all these committees meet promptly in order that they may be able to transact what business they may have on hand before the board meeting.
No Official Meeting of Health Board.
No official meeting of the board of health was held last night, owing to the absence from the city of several members whose opinion it was desired to have before definite or final action is taken on any of the matters taken up. A number of questions pertaining to the welfare of the city's health conditions were discussed. These consisted mainly in devising and planning the best ways to keep the city clean, being matters of detail wholly.

Salary and Prohibition.

"Is there anything in the nature of a fight on liquor brewing in Salisbury?" asked an Observer man of a prominent Salisbury last night.
"Not before next spring at the earliest," was the reply. "And then it depends. If the prospects for State prohibition continue good, a local fight may not be needed."

REV. R. P. SMITH RE-ELECTED.

Superintendent of Synodical Home Missions to Remain in Full Charge of the Work in the State—Mr. W. H. Belk's Splendid Offer.
The meeting yesterday in the parlors of the Central Hotel of the executive committee on synodical home missions is said by those who were present to have been the most enthusiastic ever held in the city. Such a degree of interest was manifested that not only was Rev. R. P. Smith, of Asheville, re-elected superintendent of the home mission work, but Mr. W. H. Belk, of this city, offered to be one of thirteen men to support thirteen missionaries within the bounds of the Synod. The pressing need was never before so strikingly presented and the spirit displayed on the part of laymen as well as the ministers present augurs great things for the cause in the State.
The meeting was held in the parlors of the Central Hotel with the following named present: Rev. Colin Munroe, of Lenoir; Rev. R. P. Smith, of Asheville; Rev. W. R. Winter, of Lincolnton; Rev. W. D. Merton, of Rocky Mount; Dr. B. F. Campbell, of Asheville; Rev. William Black, of Davidson; Rev. S. M. Rankin, of Greensboro; Rev. Dr. A. D. McLure, of Wilmington; Rev. Dr. H. G. Hill, of Maxton; Mr. W. Henry Belk, of Charlotte, and Mr. T. E. Bailey, of Mooresville. The session was called for the purpose of considering the resignation of Superintendent R. P. Smith, who desired to devote his entire time to the work in the bounds of the Asheville Presbytery.
After a full and free discussion of the whole situation it was decided not to accept Rev. Mr. Smith's resignation, but to re-elect him for another year, it being convincingly shown that the work would suffer if he gave it up and that the need was never more urgent. The climax of the meeting was Mr. W. H. Belk's offer to be one of thirteen men, each to maintain a missionary within the bounds of the Synod. One of the features of the meeting was the stirring address of Rev. William Black, synodical evangelist. The session was a most harmonious and enthusiastic one.

Chief Porter Serves Notice on Slaughter House Men.

Chief Sanitary Inspector Porter has served notices on the proprietors of the butchering establishments which are being conducted in the city in violation of the city ordinance and unless action authorizing other conduct on his part by a repeal of the ordinance or a modification thereof is taken by the aldermen by the time the 10-day notice expires, warrants will be issued for the proprietors. A heavy fine is provided for and the ordinance has been technically in force for a good while, but the chief has been acting under instructions from the city government in waiting.

GOOD COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The risk Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. Starbuck, of Ripley, Va., says, "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given me great satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by W. L. Hand & Co.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.
Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.
Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.
The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.
"The Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, banishes local weaknesses and excitements, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—ass general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well.
