WINSTON SALEM

Convergendence of The Observer. Winston-Statem, Dec. 15.---"Hard inces" may be "knockin' at our loot," but the "centuries old Christ-ness spirit" has not been quenched y it in our "twin cities," as evinced y the sease hurry in good mnured rowds of shoppers on the streets, and in the gaily and most attractive-y decorated shops. Added to the aliedoscope, of movement and color, ave been the hugs country wagons, list high with burnished leaved oliy with its ruddy berries gleaming rightly in chairming contrast to the iver green of the mistietoe, with erries of pearl. Then, too, such esps of Christmas trees for sale! I ways think with a pang how I wish always think with a pang how I wish I could send a goodly number down on the prairies of southern Kansas, for # was there a wistful-eyed little boy asked me in the most pathetic way. "You came from where the Christmas trees grow, did you not?"

Christmus day, and even before, Christmas day, and even before, as made the occasion for many fam-y reunions, or to cetebrate the ome-coming of the students in the mily. One of the prettiest of these dinners was the one given on the 19th by Mrs. Philip Balley to Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Hamilton Bailey, of Troy, Ala. This diner was served in perfectly appointed, courses, the fragant narcissus used in Hanes, decoration of the table added to leasure of the guests. Besider onor guests, Mr. and Mrs. ter Balley, Mrs. Balley entertained Mrs. J. K. Bailey, Misses Eva. Teague and Mary Bailey, Messra Calvin Grainger, Nrowood Ballon and Eugene Balley. Hall, Mrs.

Handsome engraved invitations have been issued in the city reading es follows:

Mrs. Richard Joshua Reynolds will be at home on Tuesday afternoon, December the thirty-first, from — to — o'clock, 656 West Fifth street, Mrs. James Stamper Dunn.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Richard Joshua Reynolds will be at home on Tuesday evening. December the thinty-first. from - to - o'clock, 666 West Fifth street, Mr. and Mrs. James Stamper Dunn.

On Tuesday evening a congenial company gathered at the hospitable of Mr. Frank Stockton, Main street, Salem, where a Dutch supper was enjoyed in honor of the return from the North of Dr. Frank Shaffner, Jr., where he has been attending lectures. Much fun and wit wed over the after dinner cigars, and all voted Mr. Stockton a charming host.

There have been several really autiful church entertainments, and Centenary Methodist Sunday school has come in for a liberal supply of praise for their attractive programm rendered in the church Friday night. There was an immense crowd present and the church had been elaborately guests of relatives.

Balley, having as its object, pleasure and profit. The ma are to be held at the various and Dri Whitaker. Chaperones: A and Mrs. M. T. Norris, Mr. and M. A. H. Ball, and Mesdames Paul L are to be held at the various homes of the members, and are to be tak-en siphabetically. Mrs. George Pat-derson is president. The members are: Mrs. R. L. Reynolds, Misses Erma Balley, Mary Carter, Ethel and May Follin, Lenar Critz, Margaret and Frank Hanes, Louise Bahuson, Nellie Fries, Mary Shepard, Lucy Lybrook and Grace Wintaxer. Boylan, C. B. Wright, James, nd Walters,

The Capitol Ciub will give one ts delightful receptions and dance fuesday evening. December 31st.

Miss Albert Anderson spent Christ-mas in Goldsboro with her sister, Mrs. C. B. Aycock.—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stone and daughter, Miss Florence, spent Christmas in Greens-boro with Mrs. Stone's mother, Mirs, R. P. Dick.—Mrs. James N. William-son and Miss Mary Foster, of Gra-ham, are spending sthe holidays with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williamson. Mr. and Mrs. Turner Farish, of Grantly, Canada, have arrived in the city to spend several weeks, the Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Crawford and family are guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cheathom, in Oxford.

Miss Anna Buxton has returned from avisit to New York and several months' stay at Jamestown.

Mr. George Pell is visiting his brother, Dr. Robert Pell, of Rich-mond, the well-known author of mond, the w "Pell's Notes." Mrs. John F. Hanes, Miss Lucy Hanes, Misses Luah Critz, and Frankle Hanes, have returned from Elizabeth City, where they attended the Hanes-Robinson wedding.— Miss Ruth Hanes is home ing to order in her characteristically gracious way and the members re-sponded to the roll call with items of for the holidays from Gunston Washington City.-Mr. and Frederick Marquaand and current interest. The literary pro-gramme began with a charming read-James Riley, of New York, are at ing on "Folklore of Spain," by Mrs. W. D. Carmichael. Mrs. Robert L. the Zinzendorf for Christmas week. ---Miss Edwina Lockeet, who has been a student at Hollins Institute, is home for holidays.---Miss Janie Graham, of Hopkinsville, Ky., is the guest of Miss Nellie Fries.-Messrs, Lyman and John Whitaker, students at Gullford College, and Mr. Wil-liam Whitaker, assistant professor of chemistry in Columbia College, New York, where he has achieved considerable distinction in his chosen is visiting Miss Emily Durham in Charlotte.-Miss Eva Whanton will spend the holidays with Mrs. Junius Grimes, in Washington, N. C .-- Miss Gertrude McLaughlin, the guest of Miss Maude Bohannon, has returned to Lynchburg .- Mrs. Lindsay Patterson has returned from Warrenton, Va .- Miss Sadle Walker is the guest of Miss Rountree, in Newbern.-Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, who have been in Baltimore visiting, have returned home .- Mrs. M. E. Mot-singer has gone to Elkin to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Chat-ham.-Mias Nell Griffith, of Clemmons who has been visiting the Misses Hinshaw, has returned home.—Su-perintendent Snipes, or the Winston city schools is visiting in Siler.—Miss Jennie P. Buford, the charming social correspondent of The Charlotte

by J. H. Filmore; anthem, "Sing, O

Daughters of Zion," by N. 8. Wilde: closing anthem, "Beneath the Stars on Bethlehem's Plain," by W. R.

mediately atter the yows were mid the couple were driven to the Union station and left for a trip South They will take in Jacksonville, Tamps and other places. They will on re-turning make their home in Durbam. Mr. Les is the son of Mr. John L. Les, and is a prominent young to-bacconist. He has lived in this clip most of his life. The bride is a very charming young woman and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. & Watts, and she too has always made Durham her home. Wednesday avaning from 9 to 12 died away.

OXFORD.

1. 21 ...

DUPTORING
 DUPTORING

day evening. Many games were played during the evening followed by a contest in which Master Edwin Mims wo nihe prize given to the smaller children and Miss May Bowlthey were entertained in the opera house by a show of moving pictures. Mr. Simeon Cmith has purchased the interest of Mr. Hughes, in the Dainty refreshments were served There were about fifty children pres-ent and report having spent a pleasthe interest of Mr. Hughes, in the Taylor, Cannady Buggy Company, and is now vice president of the company, this office having been filled hereto-fore by Mr. Hughes, of Lynchburg, Va. The people of this community are much pleased to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Smith in Oxford, where they will mail occurre the residence own happy mannet, responded, with ing for each of her guests a joyou at the granest a joyou at merry christman. Mr. J. A. Proce and Mine Stheld Gray rendered many beautiful elections during the affect of the guests. Mines State State and the guests were the serving. About thirty-six guests were the wood won the "boody" a cut-giam decanter. Wood won the "boody" a cut-giam to show her, "he remarked, the serving to show her, "he rema W. E. Stone and daughter, Miss Florence, spent Christmas in Greens-boro with Mrs. Stone's mother, Mrs. R. P. Dick.—Mrs. James N. William son and Miss Mary Foster, of Gra-ham, are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williamson. DURHAM. Correspondence of The Observer. Durham, Dec. 27.—Thursday after-noon of iast week The Tourists en-joyed one of the most delightful meet-ings of the year, at the heautiful co-lonial home of Mrs. William A. Gra-ham, on Chapel Hill street. Christ-mas decorrations prevailed in the 'armine' and mailens dameed around in the subfig to order in her characteristically grackous way and the members re-sponded to the real call with items of

HIGH POINT.

Correspondence of The Observer.

TRACEPUNITO VITO PER

a Desta

with this play.

Friday evening Miss May Carter en-tertained most hospitably quite a number of young people, who thor-onghly enjoyed the occasion.

Saturday evening a favored number of young ladies received the following invitation, which was beautifully hand-painted: The Misses Walker will be at home And will give a welcome to all who

And will give a welcome to all who come; So put on your bonnet and calles frock. And come to the party at eight o'clock. The young men received in utations to correspond with the above, so on the eventful Saturday evening youths and maidens, bedeoked in childhood's attire of variagated hues, hied them-selves forth to enjoy the hospitality of the Misses Walker. The costumes were charming and interesting and Miss Anna Thylor received the indies' prize for the best costume, and Mr. Walker Willner the gentieman's Youthful games were participated in with much enthusiasm, which showed the gay revelers had not long since passed that happy stage of life.

Mrs. C. Miller Hughes gave a de-lightful bridge party Tuesday after-noon at her home on Dick street, in compliment to Miss Mooring, of Ra-leigh, and her sister Miss Ophelia Howell, of Goldsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Martin Cooke, and little son, Howard Martin, Jr., are spending the holidays with Dr. and Mrs. T. D. Haigh, on Haycorated for the occasion. Adorning the altar rail were branched canbra made of feathery pine and ned with white tapers, while cewas used profusely in the decoration of the public. Placed at intering a red or white star on the balcony rail. It would be hard to discriminate as to which number elicited most interest, but a flag recitain which thirteen boys participated, representing different nation-alities, a bell recitation in which too slow but charming Christmas music, many little girls made their red Christmas bells speak eloquently; a Christmas bells sneak eloquently; a Christmas Bells antomine gracefully led by Miss Eleanor Albea, were all oroughly artistic and much enjoyed. In one of the recitations, which a great many wee tots recited. little Miss Frances McNleve, the winsome little 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNieve, made her debut. Little Miss Mary Sue Henly sang a most attractive lullaby. At the close of the service holly decorated boxes of candy were distributed to the children.

Tuesday evening the Leaksville Bap-

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wright are spending the Christmas holidays in Charlotte with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McMillan. Before returning they will visit Columbia, where her sister, Mrs. A. A. Smith, resides.

The following invitations have been insued in the city: Miss Edna Wilson

At Home,

Saturday, December 28, 1907. Miss Burton, Miss Powers, Miss Vanollet.

Miss Burton is from Lynchburg. Va., and is the guest of Miss Edna lison; Misses Powers and Vanolie are from Waterville, Canada, and are visiting Miss Julia Wilson.

Mr. Higdon, of Franklin, a promient young barrister of that place, is the guest of Mr. William Wilson, Mrs. J. A. Bitting entertained at a licious Christmas dinner last Sunday, en famille. The years have dealt very leniently with Mrs. Bitting and ne is assured of a charming reception when the guest of this faiented gracious woman, whose delight it is to give pleasure to others.

Miss Lora Ferrell has issued inviions to a large number of her ands to meet her house guests, mes Wills, Norris, of Raleigh, and Mayme Walker, of Richmond, Va., on Friday, from 4 to 5.

ng the large number of acad-udents who have left for their homes, during the past sik are:

Les Broughton, who went to South arolina; Miss Laurie Jones, to Ma-on Ga.; Miss Nicewonger, to Char-otte; Missen Jeanne Farrier and fyrile Robbins, to Asheville; Miss nois Atwater, to Florida; Miss Sa-le Robbins, to Raisign, and Miss leitman, to Mocksville.

many guests' in the Menry Taylor and ma-robeth Taylor, of Rich-ho are with their sunt. ylor; Mr. Corneille, of T, with Mr. and Mrs. ar, at Southside; Mr. sw, of "Hiller Observer, from our city, is spending a while North.-Messrs. John and Clerence Clevell, are here from Le high University .- The following students of the State Normal are at home for the holidays: Misses Mat-the James, Anna and Delphine Brown, Lucretia Wilson, Helen Mc-Arthur, Margaret Dalton and Kate ing the one given to the older one Shepard .- Miss Ruth Sevier is visiting in New York .-- Miss Garrison, a member of the Salem Academy faculty, is spending her holidays in Boston.—Mrs. J. P. Fearrington, Misses Elizabeth and Faith Fearant evening. Sunday night there was a choral rington, Master Pass Fearrington, are visiting in Falson .-- Mr. Clint Hin-shaw, of the A. & M. College is service at the Methodist church which was enjoyed so much by all who were fortunate to have heard the music. The programme was as follows: Organ voluntary: grand home for the holidays .- Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Jenkins (nee Miss Ida Farish) are back from an extended Southern wedding trip, and are at the Zinzendorf.—Misses Nina and Lulu as follows: Organ voluntary; grand chorus by Dubois; hymn No. 107; an-them, "Behold I Bring You Good Tidings," by J. B. Herbert; prayer; hymn No. 115; anthem, "And There were Shepherds," by L. E. Solly. Scripture reading; anthem, "God is Our Hope and Strength," by F. H. Young; responsive reading 24th Cooper, or Raleigh, are visiting Mrs. Percy Masten .- Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Colbert, whose marriage was cele-brated about ten days ago, have returned from Louisiana, where the bride is a resident.

RALEIGH.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Raleigh, Dec. 26. — Wednesday afternoon Mrs. A. H. Ball enter-tained the Young Ladies' Bridge Whist Club. After several rubbers of Whist Club. After several rubbers of bridge had been played the prize, a lovely gold pin, was awarded to Miss Louise Linton. Mrs. Ball's guests were: Mrs. W. N. Holt, Mrs. W. N. H. Smith, Mrs. A. H. Arrington, Mrs. Herbert Buell, Mrs. Charles Fish, Mrs. Arthur Cobb, Mrs. George Blacknall, Mrs. Murray Allen, Mrs. Walters, of Washington, D. C.; Miss dell Hinsdale, Miss Irene Lacy, Miss

All Hinsdale, Miss Irene Lacy, Miss Annie Hinsdale, Miss Louise Linton, Miss Margaret Lee, Miss Mary Latta, Miss Katie Barbee and Miss Annie Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williamson delightfully entertained the Evening Bridge Whist Club Friday, December 20th.

friends for not one suspected any-thing of the kind. It seems that Mr. Albert Stockard and bride, who was formerly Miss Margaret Ashe, of Wilmington, are visiting Mr. Stockard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jerome Stockard. there were objections to the marriage on the part of the bride's parents so they came to Durham.

Friday night a delightful supper Christmas Eve the Sunday school of was given the young couple at Giersch's Cafe by Messrs. Henry Her-82 vey, Will Briggs and Louis Smith, three of Mr. Stockard's groomsmen. There were present also Misses Margaret Mackay, Josephine Ashe and Elsie Stockard.

There were marked, Josephine the source of the source o will reside, occupying the residence of Mr. Smith on Main street.

Rev. Mr. Walton, who was called to the Oxford Presbyterian, church, about a month ago, has accepted a later call to the Presbyterian church in Suffolk, Va. The church here will be filled by young ministers from the Seminary until a call is given for a pastor. Young; responsive reading, 34th Psalm; quartette, "Sweet Zion Bells," closing anthem, "Beneath the Stars on Bethlehem's Plain," by W. R. Spence. There was a qulet marriage solemn-ized at the Hopkins House a few days ago, which was a surprise to the friends of the couple. The contract-ing parties were Mr. John Moore and Miss Annie Jones. They came from Roxboro to Durham. They arrive in the city on the Norfolk & Western train and went immediately to the Hopkins House. The icense was soon obtained and the arrangements for the wedding made. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Thomp-son, pastor of Mount Tirzah circuit. It was a prety event and those presby Misses Grace Nawkin, Gertr Melchor and Mrs. DeWitt Mills. It was a prety event and those pres-Gertrude ent were very intimate friends that ent were very intimate friends that live in Durham. The bride was a very attractive looking young lady, and the groom is a prominent young business man in Roxboro. The mar-riage came as a surprise to all their friends for not one and Mrs. Wilson mere at here.

MOORESVILLEN

Correspondence of The Observer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were at home to the members of the Presbyterian church Monday afternoon. The guests were welcomed in the parlor by Mr. and Mrs. Wilson. In the dining room and hall the guests were received by different ladies of the Christmas Eve the Sunday school of congregation. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson St. Philip's had their celebration. The were the recipients of many beauti-Rev. Mr. Thomas Trot made the ad-ful gifts from their entire congrega-

Rev. Mr. Thomas Trot made the ad-dress. It was splendid, not only did he make the Hitle ones understand, but for the grown people to enjoy also. The Christmas tree was beauti-fully dressed and brilliantly lighted this w and when the electric lights were furned off it showed in all its giory. Each little tot's heart beat with joy when they saw old Banta Claus appear fo give them their presents. They re-nent dismissed with prayer by the Rev. S. of "goodles." After all the presents S. Bost. all left as happy as could be The carols were: "Holy Night, Feaceful Night." Parleh hymmal; Miss Pauline Gwaliney. of Hickory, is the guest of Miss Zoua Brawloy this week.—Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Braw-ley, of Durham, spent several days in town this week visiting friends.— Miss Julia Johnston, of Davidson and Mr. Marion Johnston, a very promi-nent lawyer of Norfolk, spent Thurs-day and Friday in town with friends, —Mrs. F. H. Walters and Gaughter, Miss Julia, went to Savannah. Ga., Friday to spend several weeks.

GASTONIA.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Gastonia, Dec. 26 .--- Mrs. Jolseph

Gastonia, Dec. 26.—Mrs. Jolseph Spark delignifully entertained the Friendly Matrons on Thursday after-noon, when Mrs. J. Lander Gray was suest of honor. The spirit of Christ was appropriately carried out in the decorations of this sver beautiful home—in the entertainments of guests. Garlands and wreathe of evergreens suspended from doorways and windows. Programive trail was played, the scores being kept with small red silk stockings into which were dropped bon bons and nuts for end! game won.

guests to the president, Mrs. Charles Merrimon Hauser, who stood at the head of the receiving line just inside Mrs. W. J. Bradley and Mrs. J. G. Fletcher, of New Haven, Conn., are spending the winter with Mrs. J. the reception room. The receiving line was composed of the club's bride, Mrs. William Clay Jones, the bride-elect, Miss Winifred Alice Snow,

Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor Bowers delightfully entertained at a beautiful Christmas dance at the LaFayette the president, Mrs. Charles Merrimon Hauser, and the two former presi-dents, Mrs. James Joseph Farris and Miss Berta Louise Ragan. The punch bowl, the ingredients of which and it's decorations carrying out the col-ors of the club, green and white, was presided over by Miss Charles and Mrs. Alfred Shorter Caldwell, second. All of the members wore beautiful the president, Mrs. Charles Merrimon presided over by Miss Charles and Mrs. Alfred Shorter Caldwell, second. All of the members wore beautiful reception tollettes, those in the re-ceiving line especially beautiful and handsome. The block cream and cake served was in the club's colors of green and white.

vidson Alexander, second, whose en-gagement was announced some weeks ago. The shower was conducted in the dining room, and was in the form of a Christmas tree, which was in the centre of the long table and was lit-erally laden with useful and orna-mental gifts for the bride and groom-to-be. After refrashments were served and specta-tors were present and enjoyed the unrivaled hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Bowen.

mental gifts for the bride and groom-to-be. After refreshments were serv-ed the floor was cleared and a merry dance, led by the future groom and his youtaful promised bride, was in-dulged in till near the midnight hour. The beautiful, well-designed home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Snow, on South Main street, with its broad, far-tratebias how porch and its novel stretching low, porch and its novel shingled exterior was, Wednesday af-Mr. and Mrs. John C. Garham and Mr. Waldo F. Anderson are spending the holidays with Mrs. Lucy E. Anderson, at Fair Bluff. ternoon, concededly inviting enough to the suggestions of the pleasing rec-reation which had been arranged to SALISBURY.

enter the comfortable place in com-pliment to Miss Winifred Alice Snow, the young and popular sister of Correspondence of The Observer. Salisbury, Dec. 26 .- The first dance week, when she will become the bride of Mr. Alvis Decatur Barnes. This home, which is so well adapted to entertaining on either a small or large scale, was especially inviting with its additional plants, which hovered near the circular bends in the ball

The dance given Christmas night was a very delightful one and the at-tendance was unusually large. The invitations were sent by "The Drag-ons," a new and secret order of pleasure-loving brotherhood, and al-though curiosity was rife to discover their identity the mystery has not yet been solved. doors to the handsome dining room, with its elegant appointments were rolled back and the hostess, with the Creston Clarke, bride-to-be led the way. The table, with its dozen-laid covers, was very pretty. From the chandeller to the ast week, gave a delightful lecture to a most interested and appreciative audience at the Old Hickory Club. audience at the Old Hickory Club. In a series of vivid word-paintings Mr. Clarks gave fascinating sketches of Mackin. Forrest. Edward Kean, Nell Gwyn, Edwin Booth and Sir Henry Irving. Mr. Clarke's near relationship to the two famous Booths made all he said of them doubly in-teresting.

with its dozen-laid covers, was very pretty. From the chandeller to the four corners fell the pink crepé rib-bon. Starting at the same place and falling till it almost touched the ex-quisite flower centre plece of pink and white chrysanthemums was an artis-tic arrangement of white and pink hosiery, which suggested the nature of the shower, which was arranged in a novel manner across the wall be-hind the table. From a real clothes pins, dangled the many pairs of silk and liste, embredsred and face hose. The two-course collation was pretty dainty, and delicious. Each place was favored with a tiny white or pink with alipper filled, with rice. The russ of honor never looked prettier than when in clanamon and ecru thet she mat at the head of the table. Dr. and Mrs. Charence Klutiz sull on Christmas day from New York to Galveston, Tex., from where they go to El Paso, Tox., their fu-ture home.—Dr. and Mrs. Archibald Henderson, of Chapel Hill, are visit-ing Dr. Henderson's parents. Mr. and Mrs. John S. Henderson.—Miss Ionnic Colleged of Statements ing Dr. Henderson's parents. Mr. and Mrs. John S. Renderson — Miss Jennis Caldwell, of Statesville, is spending Christmas with her sizes. Mrs. Theodore F. Klutts. - Mr. Ed-win C. Gissgory, who is visiting rela-tives in Halffax county, is quite ill in the ribbon-marked chair and while chatting gaily with her bridesmaker

LENOIR.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Correspondence of The Observer. Lenoir, Dec. 27.—On Christmas Day, at 6 o'clock p. m., Mr. and Mrs. James T. Jones entertained at a course dinner at their home on College avenue the follow-ing guests: Misses Helen Celosie Henkel, Jeasie Eveleyn Courthey, Mattie Mae Ballew and Mina Atkinson; Prof. J. R. Conley, Messrs. Harry Courtney Jack Tuttle, Clarence Courtney and Carroll Moore.

Tuttle, Clarence Courtney and Carroll Moore.
Miss Gertrude Hall, the accomplished of the popular daughter of Ool, and Mrs. J. G. Hall, entertained in a most gravious manner a large number of friends at their Lospitable home Thursday even for the construction of the second of the second

A party of young people were deli-fully entertained at the palatial home Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Courtney Thurs evening in honor of their sona. Mari-H. and Jeff B. Couriney. Their space dining room, always as inviting pl for the opleure, was prettily and tag decorated. Delicious retreshments w served and games of absorbing inter-were played.

The weather here has been ideal for Christmas and it has been almost as quiet and peaceful as a Sabbath.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Weaver are spend-ing the holidays with "Pather and Moth-er Weaver," of Hickory. Mr. George Wilson and Prof. Ed Wilson, of Haver-ford Pa., are visiting their parents here.

Santa Claus' visit at the Prest hurch on Saturday afternoon a bristmes tree at the Methodist huraday night were greatly en

Prof. Wolis and family, of Goldat re spending the holidays here and tranite Falls, the home of Mrs. Wol

GOOD COUGH

Invise

show, the young and popular sister of the hostess' husband, as a fore run-ner to the beautiful marriage pert week, when she will become the bride of Mr. Alvis Decatur Barnes. This home, which is so well adapted to entertaining on either a small or large the circular bends in the hall, and the beautifully wrought pillars that supported the delicate grill work, while the mahogany tables and hard wood floors made each vase of the late roses seem like two. While en-joying music filled with sentiment from the handeome Victor machine the