

MARRIAGES.

COOPER-REINHARDT NUPTIALS.

Miss Matt Reinhardt, a beautiful and popular young lady of Lincoln County, wedded yesterday afternoon to Mr. Frank Cooper, of Fayetteville. The ceremony a lovely home affair will spend their honeymoon in Florida.

Iron Station, Jan. 15.—A wedding of State-wide interest was that at "Woodland," the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Reinhardt, two miles from this place, today at 3:30 p. m., when Miss Matt Reinhardt became the bride of Mr. Frank Cooper, formerly of Charlotte but now of Fayetteville. The home was beautifully and artistically decorated for this important occasion and presented a lovely appearance. The parlor, where the ceremony was performed by the bride's brother-in-law, Rev. J. A. Arnold, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church at Newton, was decorated in violets and white, while in the dining room cream was the color scheme, with the hall and sitting room in red. Many prominent people from a distance, friends and relatives of the contracting parties, were present, adding importance to the event.

Immediately preceding the ceremony Miss Ethel Foll, of Newton, sang most charmingly "The Dawn," and then Miss Ada Cooper, sister of the groom, played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," during which the bride party descended the staircase and took places in the parlor. First came the ribbon girls, Miss Hattie Cooper and Miss Foll. The couples in their order were: Miss Louise Reinhardt, of Stanley, with Tom Hunter, of Fayetteville; Miss Lucile Shuford, of Hickory, with Dick Reinhardt, of the A. & M. College; Miss Josephine Murphy, of Hickory, with John McDonald, of Raleigh; Miss Edna Reinhardt, of Charlotte, with Jake Smith, of Charlotte; the groom came in on the arm of his best man, Mr. Clarence Smith, of Charlotte, and the bride with her cousin and maid of honor, Miss Lena Reinhardt, of Lincolnville. The couple met under a beautiful arch and bell and the words were spoken that united them as man and wife. The ritual was that of the Lutheran Church and the ring ceremony was employed.

The bride party made a scene of much splendor, due to the striking beauty of the bride, maid of honor and bridesmaids. Mrs. Cooper is conceded to be one of Lincoln county's most beautiful and lovely young women and in her bridal trousseau her beauty was greatly heightened. She was gowned in hand-embroidered liberty silk and real lace and carried a huge shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her veil was caught up with a magnificent crescent of pearls and diamonds, the gift of the groom. The maid of honor wore a white lace robe over lavender taffeta and carried violets. The bridesmaids were attired in beautiful red dresses over silk and carried palma violets and ferns.

The marriages were preceded by the wedding feast, which was a most sumptuous one, in the old-fashioned Southern style of hospitality, and was greatly enjoyed by the guests. Last night the cutting of the bride's cake took place and was the occasion of much merriment. The lucky or unlucky persons to this event were: Clarence Smith, ring; Kemp B. Nixon, of Lincolnville, button; Miss Lena Reinhardt, dime; Tom Sadler, thimble; John McDonald, key.

Mrs. Cooper is a member of two of the best families of this part of the State—the Reinhardts, of this county, and the Wilsons, of Catawba. Her grandfather, Mr. Franklin Reinhardt, was a large manufacturer of iron and achieved a great reputation in this business. Her father, Mr. J. E. Reinhardt, is a large farmer and is also largely interested in cotton manufacturing, being president of the Elm Grove Cotton Manufacturing Company, of Lincolnville. Mr. Jacob Reinhardt, State Senator, and Mr. R. S. Reinhardt, a cotton mill man of Lincolnville, are the bride's uncles. Mr. Cooper is a prominent young business man in the employ of Swift & Co. His headquarters are at Fayetteville. He was until recently a citizen of Charlotte, where he has many friends. He has won a young lady who is worthy of his life partner, and the many congratulations he has received are well bestowed. The many presents received by the couple attest the popularity of both. Mr. and Mrs. Cooper left on this afternoon's Seaboard train for a bridal tour to Jacksonville, St. Augustine and other points of interest in Florida. Returning from this, they will make their home at Fayetteville.

Among the guests at the wedding were: Mrs. Anna McBee, Miss Mary Shipp, William Shipp, Rev. R. Z. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson, Mrs. R. S. Reinhardt and Miss Ida Smith, of Lincolnville; Mrs. Mary Boyd and Mrs. Lattimore, of Maiden; Mrs. S. H. Youngblood, J. W. Sadler and the Misses Smith, of Charlotte; Major and Mrs. and Miss Carrie Graham, of Macphail; Messrs. J. F. and John Reinhardt, and Mrs. J. M. Reinhardt, of Stanley; Mrs. Elizabeth Cooper, of Charlotte, U. N. H.

Special to The Observer.—Rock Hill, S. C., Jan. 15.—Rock Hill will begin the new year by ushering in several new enterprises to her already large list. Among the new plants will be two bottling plants. Capt. William A. Graham, one of the most popular conductors on the Rock Hill division of the Southern, has a plant under construction on East Moore street, which will be in operation inside of thirty days.
