By the request of these gentlemen Dr. McKanna has decided to remain in Raleigh one week longer, all of next week, and will continue to treat all men, free of cost, that are unable to pay for the treatment, receiving patients up to six o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, at the Armory on East Hargett Street.

A VOTE OF THANKS TO DR. MCKANNA.

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 18th, 1908.

Dr. J. J. McKanna, Dear Sir:

We hereby tender to you our thanks for your kindness in complying with our request to remain a few days longer in our city, and treat our citizens who had become addicted to the liquor habit. This act on your part has resulted in curing and greatly benefiting a large number of our citizens. Homes have been restored. Hope and happiness by your agency now exists, where before your coming these families were without either. We feel that the entire community is indebted to you, and by this means we desire to tender to you our sincere thanks.
