“Banking by Mail”

And quickly, safely and conveniently unite thousands of depositors over the entire country with this institution. This simplified system of "Banking by Mail" offers every advantage made possible by our enormous sums of money and unlimited facilities. Location—in this instance—is of small consequence. Active accounts are being carried with depositors in almost every State in the Union. Numbers in Cuba, Philippine Islands, Hawaiian Islands and other foreign countries. During the financial stringency new commercial and savings accounts were opened daily. Furthermore, currency was paid out on demand during the entire duration of the stringency, no scrip being issued whatsoever. Thousands of other banking institutions failed to do this, and the consequence is millions of dollars worth of scrip was given when actual money was demanded. Mail accounts are opened with sums of one dollar upwards, bearing 3 per cent. interest, compounded semi-annually, and bearing interest from date of deposit. Money is easily sent by registered mail, check, drafts or money-orders. Inquiries most cheerfully answered.

AMUSEMENTS

"THE LION AND THE MOUSE."
 Within the past twelve years there have been produced in this country many plays that have had long runs and are even running at the present time, but in "The Lion and the Mouse," Charles Klein, who has gained recognition as one of the leading dramatists of America, believes that he has written a drama that will live for a generation. Produced in the fall of 1905 at the Park Theatre, Boston, "The Lion and the Mouse" attained immediate popularity. Later when it was brought to the Lyceum

Marie Shotwell, Oliver Doud Byron, Herbert Mackenzie, Mabel Mortimer, P. S. Farrest, Edith Shayne, Frances Jackson, Ada Curry and Fred Strong. So well known is the theme of "The Lion and the Mouse" to the theatre-goers of this city that it seems almost superfluous to go into details at this time. The story of the fight between the great king of finance and the daughter of a humble Supreme Court judge is one that will linger long in the memory of all those who have seen the play. Seats will go on sale Thursday morning at Hawley's.

ing care of two people twenty-four hours out of twenty-four, and now they want to let her go." The physician explains that the continued services of a trained nurse are not necessary. "She's on to her job, ain't she?" demanded Dave. "Oh, yes, one of the best." "Then she stays, see? and we hire another one to help. Miss Johnson can be boss, and the other one can be the helper, and they can work eight-hour shifts." The doctor: "Oh, if you're going to run this baby as you would a mine—" "Operate is a better word, Doc," concluded Dave with a twinkle in his eye. "THE COUNTY CHAIRMAN." The many people on the stage dur-

of the West himself and knows just what he was talking about. Seats will be on sale at Hawley's Friday morning. HAPPENINGS AT HIGH POINT. Negro Man Pounces Down on a Woman, Charging Her With Stealing $10—Mr. Jess Harrison Moves to Greensboro—Brief Items. Special to The Observer. High Point, Jan. 18.—Yesterday afternoon a negro came over from Greensboro and proceeded to pounce down on a colored damsel as he if he were going to tear her to pieces. He gave his reason that the woman had stolen $10 from him and he afterwards had her arrested. The case came up before Magistrate Sechrest, but the evidence was slim and the court gave the woman her liberty.

The Southern Live Stock Insurance Company held its first annual meeting here yesterday. The secretary and treasurer's report was very gratifying. Mrs. Cressy, of Mount Airy, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. W. Hazard, who is ill, returned to her home to-day. Mrs. Joseph Mullen, of St. Louis, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Alexander Galt, has gone to Winston for a short visit to her brother, Rev. Henry T. Cooke. Mitchell Home Burned. Lenoir Topie, 15th. A phone message this morning brings the news that the Mitchell Home, a school situated about six miles from Hudson on the Cedar Valley road, was burned this morning about 2 o'clock. The school is under the auspices of some Northern people, and it was accomplishing much good in the vicinity. DYSPEPSIA-PROOF. How Any Meal Can Be Thoroughly Enjoyed by Any Stomach. Men, as a rule, are first discovered by their enemies. Their antagonists turn on the searchlight, and the proof of merit will lie in being able to stand the flash. It was only in this way that Mr. White ever knew that dyspepsia was one of Mr. Black's worst enemies. Sitting face to face at a two-by-four table, he handed his afflicted friend a bill of fare: Oyster Cocktail. Stuffed Olives. Boston Clam Chowder. Strained Gumbo. Sirloin Steak with Mushrooms. Roast Beef Hash. Boiled Ox Tongue with Sauerkraut. Lobster a la Newburg. Baked Pork and Beans. Combination Crab Salad. Hot Mince Pie. Pineapple Fritters. "Mr. White ordered a 'little of each,'" Mr. Dyspepsia Black ordered crackers and a glass of milk. "I had such a big breakfast this morning," he said, "that I'll just take a bite to keep you company. But Mr. White could not be deceived; "I am afraid you can't stand the gleam, Mr. Black. Why don't you say you have dyspepsia and be done with it? You'll always have that hungry look anyhow as long as you have dyspepsia. Now listen. My stomach was in just as bad condition as yours at one time. But now I can eat anything, at any time. For instance, this clam chowder or sirloin steak or even the lobster would be just as welcome to my stomach as your crackers and milk. You don't realize how this dyspepsia business is robbing you of your spirit, of your energy and ability to think quickly. I can't help notice it. You haven't the cheer and sociability you had three months ago. Now I'll tell you what to do," and thereat the cheerful Mr. White took a vial from his pocket and extracted a wee tablet. "There, there is a tablet that contains an ingredient, one grain of which digests 3,000 grains of food. For even the worst dyspeptic it's the only thing that really gives relief. The reason is it relieves the stomach of nearly everything it has to do, digests everything in the stomach and stimulates the gastric juice. I can't get along without them. They are Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. You can get them anywhere on earth for 50c a package. Yes, it is true, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets absolutely stop heartburn, nausea, indigestion, dyspepsia of the worst type, sour stomach, bloated feeling and all crustations and irritation, and freshen and invigorate the stomach. Scenes From The Lion and the Mouse.

then the public began to take notice: its merits and its timely subject were the talk of the metropolis and at the end of the third week it was playing to capacity audiences. Then Manager Henry B. Harris organized three companies for the road and they all met with the same success, this success being extraordinary when it is taken into consideration that there were more successful plays produced in New York last season than ever before. But "The Lion and the Mouse," outlived its contemporaries and ran in New York for more than two years. This city saw "The Lion and the Mouse" last season. The return engagement will be played here Saturday matinee and night. Mr. Harris will bring here to the Academy of Music the same notable organization that presented this piece in Boston, Chicago, and last spring at the Hudson Theatre, New York. In the cast that will be seen here are

"THE HEIR TO THE HOORAH." "The Heir to the Hoohrah," which comes to the Academy of Music in the near future and in the third act a scene of fifteen minutes dialogue that furnishes joy and festive glee pure and unadulterated to the ladies in the audience. The situation is that of a proud father and equally proud uncle, with one or two enthusiastic friends to help out, who are discussing the outfitting of a newly born infant. They have already ordered six prize Jersey cows to supply the babe with provender against the predicted want, and are discussing the nurse question. The attending physician has just said that Miss Johnson, the special trained nurse, will not be required after the next week. Also that Miss Johnson alone has been taking care of both the infant and its mother. The scorn in Dave Lacy's voice is bitter, as he remarks: "Well, what do you think of that? One woman taking the performance of George Ade's notable drama, "The County Chairman," which comes here on Monday evening, January 27th, under the management of Mr. S. A. Schloss do not merely form a background. You will recognize the village smart clerk, the fellows who hang around the depot, those always in front of the post-office and never get any mail, the oldest inhabitant, the village milliner who is a flirt, the man who keeps the general store, the station agent, the noisy fellow who is always talking about subjects that he only understands vaguely, the touselled hair boy who has been in swimming, the village orphan who waits on the table in the boarding house, and many others, some playing leading parts, some have not a word to say, but all are part of the picture. George Ade has been able to write a play like "The County Chairman," because he was brought up in a little village taxing the men with the costs. Mr. Jess Harrison, of this city, will move to Greensboro, where he will manage a skating rink in which he is interested. Mr. Martin Bennett has purchased the transfer business of Mr. Harrison and will continue it. High Point will send a good delegation to the temperance rally at Raleigh the 21st. The temperance forces here believe the time is ripe for State prohibition and will use their best efforts in securing it. The Cuban exposition car is here and will remain all next week. Quite a large number of the citizens saw the interesting exhibit yesterday. The People's Building and Loan Association is busy paying off shareholders in the third series of that association. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Earnhart and children, who have been at Jacksonville, Fla., have returned to High Point.
