CHARLOTTE DAILY OBSERVER, FEBRUARY 2, 1908.

IN THE REALM OF NORTH CAROLINA SOCIET

HIGH POINT.

Correspondence of The Observor.

12

High Point, Jan. 21 .- The ward tal and benefit used together is always an incentive to a community, and when, with another stroke of the pen, we add Daughters of Confederacy it seems that there could not be any alternative but the grand word suc-CESS.

The social event of the current week, which was such a decided triumph for all the participants and rare, supreme satisfaction permeated with pure, innocent pleasure to every one fortunate enough to gain a seat, was the splendid minstrels given un-der the auspices of the U. D. C. by home talent for the benefit of the hospital. "Twas given under the direc-tion of Messrs. Fred L. Rochon and J. B. Laughlin, of lyceum reputation and managers of experience and unusual ability. As the city school auditoriwhich is seldom allowed to be used for other entertainments than the lyceum course was refused, the home talent secured the little opera house and at the week end, after the expediture of several hundreds, the stage for the home talent who sang for the sick, the poor, and the old lost cause was made very attractive. So promptly at 8 o'clock Thursday evening when the curtains went up seat was taken and most of every them for the next night marked off. The walls around the audience had een beautifully draped with bunting in red, white and blue. The pillars were wound round with the same colwhite floating and arranged artistically from every conceivable place were flags of the dear old stars and stripes. The angled corner, where sat Miss Leona Woody, the planist of the evening, who is a performer of sterling quality, was very beautifully draped with college flags. All about Ferrell. the foot of the stage were the same brilliant colors. Just as Miss Woody louched the keys was heard from a distance the subdued voices of the main part of the house was only dim-by lighted, to bring out the beautiful lawn party effect which the slow ris-ing of the curtain revealed. A ris-rell, Charles L, Summers, T. P. White and the slow ris-rell managers brought their own scenery Senah Critz, Swift and Margaret and Frank Hanes. The three table prizes was lovely. In addition to its Japanese hangings, overhead was hung with many Jap lanterns that cast that swaying bewildering light of many colors on the happy throng of the grand chorus who in the lovellest of stylish and delicately tinted evening gowns and large picture hats sat round individual tables chatting with their handsome escorts, enjoying the refreshments served on the beautifully abandoned tables by the "Walter Quartette" and joining in the "Grand Toast." On an elevated seat at the rear of the stage sat Mr. Carl Raper, the interiocutor, and at either end in front were Al Fields' rivals, Mr. Robert W. Morrow and Dr. Frank Perkins, who, dressed as regular endmade even cranky critics cast aside their customary dignity and burg, and Miss Casler, who is organ-laugh indulgently. The first solo was izing the local chapter of the Y. W. by Miss Hazel Irene Harmon and as C. A., were present. her full rich young voice gave "Some

When Dreams Come True," the 'dreamer'' settled back in his chair, remembering that "atl things come to him who waits" while others realized ; sixteen for which the club- was orception tendered them by Miss Lucy Lybrook and Miss Mary Critz at the home of Miss Critz, This was effectively decorated in Christmas colors, the rich red of carnations with the green of fere, palm and smilax. Mrs. T. T. Stedman greeted the guests in the hall and directed them into the parlor, where in the receiving line with Mrs. Critz, Miss Critz and Miss Lybrook were the following ladies: Mesdames Ralph Sewers, Alexander Hanes, R. J. Reynolds, Everett Locket and E. W. O'Hanlon, Under the guidance of Mrs. W. H. Morler the guests passed to the dining room, where Mrs. D. N. Dalton presided at the elegantly appointed table. Here Mrs. J. A. Betting and Mrs. W. T. Farish poured coffee and tea, respectively, which with other dainties were served to the guests by Misses Lora Fer-rell, Senah Critz, Erma Balley' and Ruth Critz. Over a hundred guests were in attendance upon this charming function.

Last Saturday forenoon Mrs. Robert Lassiter was hostess at an elegant eight-course luncheon given in honor of her sister, Mrs. Alexander Stephen Hanes. Mrs. Lassiter having but recently moved into her lovely new returned to Burlington on Wedneshome was nevertheless the most graceful and facile of hostesses. The day. table with its lace set, its wealth of yellow tulips lit up by yellow capped candles and its rich array of cutglass and silver presented a charming picture. Mrs. Lassiter's guests were: Mrs. Alexander Stephen Hanes, the guest of honor; Mrs. Edward Randall, of Galveston, Tex.; Mesdames Henry Edgar Jenkins, R. J. Reynolds, Misses Caro Buxton, Eleanor Fries, Louise Bahnson, Swift, Elizabeth Pittman, of Henderson; Margaret Hanes and Lora Tuesday forenoon Miss Lora Ferrell entertained in honor of Mrs. Alexander S. Hanes. A charming bridge party was followed by an elegant seven-course luncheon, at which the following ladies were the guests: Mrs. Leo Heartt, Mrs. J. J. Thomas, Mrs. Senah Critz, Swift and Margaret and Joliff, of Haymarket, Va.; Mrs. Join the bridge contest were won by Mrs. J. A. Betting, Mrs. James Dunn George McGehee, Mrs. Alexander and Miss Elizabeth Pittman. The hostess, Miss Ferrell, presented the guest of honor with a lovely bodkin set in solid silver.

The Monday Afternoon Book Club was pleasantly entertained by Miss Delphine Carter at its last meeting. Roll call was answered by several interesting current events. A clever and interesting paper written by Mrs. William N. Reynolds was read in her absence by Mrs. Henry Toan. This paper dealt with "The Gypsies of Austria and Hungary." In addition to the membership attendance, which was fine, Mrs. Horace Miller, of Pittsburg, and Miss Caster, who is organ-

The Bridge Club met Tuesday afternoon with Miss Caro Buxton. This is the last meeting but one of the Waiters' Novelty Song" was given by the four waiters: Messrs, George Van was organized each member paid weekly dues and all tardies were fined. With the handsome sum thus acquired sixteen beautiful prizes have been bought and these will be awarded after the following manner. The lady who has made the highest score will have first choice of all the prizes, she having the next highest will have second choice and so on. This feature has no doubt added much zest to this always interesting game. Misses Margaret and Frank Hanes enterttained the Tuscarora Club Tues-day afternoon. As the meeting was purely of a business nature, the literary programme was postponed till the next meeting, though the delicious refreshments were served on schedule time.

Miss Corneille, of New York, will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. D. Schouler, for some time .--- Mrs. Thomas Pittman, of Henderson, will spend the month of February with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lassiter, Mrs. L. E. Poindexter, of Greenville, S. C. Is the guest of Mrs. W. L. Ferrell.-Miss Margaret Norwood, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. E. E. Gray,

J. P. B.

RALEIGH.

Correspondence of The Observer. Raleigh, Jan. 31 .--- Monday afteroon Mrs. Charles McKimmon gave another of her charming afternoon teas to about thirty of her friends. Mrs. McKimmon was assisted in serving her dainty refreshments by her daughter, Miss Anne McKimmon. Mrs. James McKimmon presided over the attractive tea table. There were present: Mrs. Albert Anderson, Mrs. Henry Eagley, Mrs. Milton Barber, Mrs. Carl Woodruff, Miss Fenner, Miss Dowd, Mrs, Charlotte M. Willlamson, Mrs. Frank Stronach, Mrs. George Snow, Miss Adelaide Boylan, Mrs. Hodges, of Atlanta; Miss Kate McKimmon, Mrs. Joseph E. Pogue, Mrs. Iredell Johnson, Mrs. Richard Lewis, Mrs. Frank M. Stronach, Miss sephus Daniels, Mrs. E. R. Preston, of Charlotte; Mrs. Lab Busbee, Mrs. Field, Mrs. Kemp Battle, Mrs. C. O. Haines, Mrs. Lambert, Mrs. R. D. W. Connor, Miss Mary Lauren Hinton.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met this week with Mrs. Carey J. Hunter. The programme was a most entertaining one and the afternoon was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were Interesting papers were read-"Dick-Edith Royster. There were also two well-selected readings, one from "Infant Gardens," by Mrs. RMdick, and and Josle Person, Halford's tribute "To Charles Dickens on His Oliver Twist." by Miss Burt. Miss Denson gave in a charming manner a synopsis and discussion of "Oliver Twist." After the programme was completed delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Hunter's guests Royster, Mrs. Riddick, Miss Elizabeth Burt, Miss Dalsy Denson, Mrs. Albert

Hunter and John Moore, have returned from a visit to relatives in Hyatt, Mr. Hartman-all were good. Oxford.-Mrs. George P. Shackleford, A large audience enjoyed the peror Richmond, Va., is visiting Mrs. J. William Hunter .- Mr. and Mrs. Joshua B. Hill have returned from their bridal tour .- Mrs. Arthur Glenn Corpening, of Greensboro, is in the city visiting her parents, Capt, and Mrs. S. E. Linfon.—Mr. and Mrs. R. D. W. Connor have returned from. Wilson, where they have been visiting Mr.

Connor's parents, Judge and Mrs. H. G. Connor.-Mrs. S. L. Gilmer and Miss Virginia Brown. of Greensboro, are visiting Mrs. R. M. Albright, HICKORY.

Correspondence of The Observer. Hickory, Jan. 31 .- The meeting of the Travelers' Club last Thursday af-ternoon, Jan. 23d, was with the president, Mrs. C. C. Bost. Buotations were given from "Irish Ballads" Mrs. C. M. Shuford gave a short, lucid paper on Enis Kellan; Mrs. Ed-wina Chadwick then read a carefully prepared paper on Irish music, which Mrs. A. B. Hutton Interspers-ed with Irish airs—playing the "Song of O'Ruark, Prince of Breffni," "The Valley Lay Swirling Before Me," and other airs, while "The Harp That Once Through Tara's Halls," with variations, was especially beautiful. Mrs. J. H. Patrick's interesting paper on Mrs. Alexander, and her sym-pathetic reading of Mrs. Alexander's grand poem, "The Burial of Moses," ended the literary part of the pro-gramme. The last number was also very much enjoyed, when Mrs. J. H. Shuford sang the beautiful hymn, also by Mrs. Alexander, "There is a Green Hill Far Away." Mrs. Shuford's voice is especially beautiful in tender plaintive music, and this selection suited it exactly. The members presthoroughly enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to be present. Two Interesting papers were read—"Dick-ens, the Champion of the Rights of Childhood," by Mrs. R. B. John; and "His Twenty-eight Schools," by Miss Childhood, The memory of the Rights of Childhood, "by Mrs. R. B. John; and "His Twenty-eight Schools," by Miss Childhood, "Disk of the Rights of the Royster, C. M. Shuford, J. U. Murphy, J. A. Martin, J. H. Patrick, O. M. Royster, C. M. Shuford, J. H. Shuford and L. R. Whitener, and Misses Mary Geitner, Amelia McComb and Miss Helen Chadwick, of Ashland, Ky., who was a welcome visitor.

Some one else, in reporting Traveler's Club meeting of Jan. 16th. for a town paper, made special mention of the Irish bogwood pig, and were: Mrs. R. B John, Miss Edith into dogwood-whereat this writer the intelligent compositor changed it R.

Eason, W. H. Pace, B. S. Jirman and was rendered. The cast of characters ier, Susan Saunders and Adelins Dr. Joel Whitaker. "Was as follows: "Walter Hastings," J. Mayo

the Executive Mansion, have returned as seen during the war between the Simmons on Seconi street. to their homes in Winston-Salem .--- States; Miss Derrick as "Aunt Judy"

-In fact all deserve mention-Mr. Smith, Miss Plonk, Mr. Isenhour, Mr. A large audience enjoyed the per-formance, more reserved seats having been sold for this entertainment than for any previous one given at the Academy of Music. The Oak View Orchestra furnished music for the oceasion, playing "Sounds From Sunny South;" "Mendelssohn's the From Wat March," "The Stars and Stripes Forever," by Sousa, and other selections that were all enjoyed.

bits of information, the programme was rendered: Mr. Leopold Little, of Lincointon, Friday night in Lincolnton.—Miss Ma-mie Wilcox, of Washington, D. C., is visiting Mrs. W. A. Hall.—Miss Cart-land, of Statesville, is visiting Miss Rose Shuford.—Misses Jennie and Belle Miller. —Rev. C. H. Squires is visiting Dr. W. H. Ramsey. —Mr. George Lippard, of Catawba College, spent last Sunday in Hickory. —Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Blackburn, of will occupy the Baker cottage, on Flfteenth street.

WASHINGTON.

Correspondence of The Observer

Washington, N. C., Feb. 1.-The first February german of the Halcyon German Club of this city was given in the parlors of the Elks' Club, in the Baughm Building on riven in the parlors of the Elks?

riven in the Baughm Building on Main street, Thursday evening and was an unusually enjoyable mid-win-bank, Jr., led with Miss Elizabeth Hill, and the figures were intricate as well as both graceful and beautiful. The large numbers of dancers render-ed the ball room full of animation and brilliancy. Music was furnished by the Washington Concert Band. A mong the dancers were: F. H. Beaton and Miss McMulan, of Eden-ton; J. M. Robinson and Miss Katte Modre; Walter, Windley and Miss Eva Hassel; R. S. Keal and Miss Eva Hassel; R. S. Keal and Miss Mary C. Hassel; J. G. Bragaw and Miss Wood: of Edentor, C. H. Bright and Miss Campile Short;
V Walser and F. N. Patterson. At her attractive home on First avenue Mrs. W: G. Penry was the agreeable hostses of the "Pleasure club" on last Thursday afternoon. This was easily one of the most de-lightful of the series of social gath-rings, of which Lexington is famous heid guring the winter months. After beston and Miss McMulan, of Eden-ton; J. M. Robinson and Miss Katte Modre; Walter, Windley and Miss Eva Hassel; R. S. Keal and Miss Mary C. Hassell; J. G. Bragaw and Misse Wulle Hargrove; Harry McMul-t Ian and Miss Wood; of Edentor, C. H. Bright and Miss Campile Short;
V Neels wille Hangrove; Harry McMul-t Ian and Miss Campile Short;
V Neels wille Hangrove; Harry McMul-t Ian and Miss Campile Short;
V Neels wille Hangrove; Harry McMul-t Ian and Miss Campile Short;
V Short and Miss Campile Short;
V Marker, H. Short and Miss Campile Short;
V Marker, H. Short and Miss Campile Short;
V Short and Miss Campile Short;
V Short

lan and Miss Wood; of Edenton; C. Misses Camille R. Bright and Miss Emily Brown: Lois Williams. E. M. Short and Miss Cammle Short; M. Worthington and Miss Annie Monday afternoon quite a

Where did you get those certains exercised as with the blue of Italian striker.
Where did you get those cost red lass the painted those cyres of user?
Where did you get those rost red lass the baner. As the postion with the Jeffer form a coral grover.
Where did you get all that matchles, of possen and faced the inverse of forms and feature, of possen and faced the inverse of this scheduler. And that, Joseph Lass links, who shows been their parts so well.
Marking and face the inverse is provided to the provide the second street.
Marking and the inverse of this scheduler. And the scheduler is provided to the provide the second street.
Marking and the second petite and dainty bride, on the arm of her father, Mr. S. W. Stimson. After the impressive ceromony completed to the music of Lohengrin's Correspondence of The Observer. Lexington, Jan. 30 .- Mrs. R.

Wedding March" the wedding party C passed out into the room, where the

Lexington, Jan. 30.—Mrs. R. C. Springs charmingly entertained the members of the "Club of the Tweive" on last Friday afternoon. In the absence of the president, Mrs. C. A. Hunt, Sr., and also the vice president, Mrs. H. S. Radcliffe, the meeting was presided over by Mrs. Dr. Joel Hill, who performed her dutes with char-acteristic grace and dignity. After timely responses from each member garnet and carried pink carnations. timely responses from each member, consisting of quotations on interesting delightful dinner Mr. and Carnations. delightful dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Richfollowing ardson left on the evening train for Mrs. W. Goldsboro, and after spending several Goldsboro, and after spending several spent Monday night with his mother. -Miss Aida Costner, of Lincolnton, is visiting friends here.—Messrs. Frank Henderson and Ted Sides spent last Friday night in Lincolnton.—Miss Ma-mie Wilcoz, of Washington, D. C., is which were very interesting and de-which were very interesting and de-scribed minutely the awful suffering Market here will go on to Newbern to visit relatives of the groom. They will be at Spencer for several months, but will probably make their home in Asheville. Mr. Richardson, who is more than drand drandful plyntheme who the more the several months, but will probably make their home in Asheville. Mr. Richardson, who is more than the market will suffer the several months, but will probably make their home in Asheville. Mr. Richardson, who is the several months, but will prove the several months, but will probably make their home in Asheville. Mr. Richardson, who is the several months, but will prove the several months, but will probably make their home in Asheville. Mr. Richardson, who is the several months, but will probably make the several months, but will be at several months, but will probably make the several months, but will probably make the several months, but will be at several months, but will probably make the several months, but will be at sev

> ed the literary feature and inaugu-rated the social. During the pleasant tained Wednesday evening by Miss Louise Siddall at the home of Mrs. intercourse which followed, the hos-tess served a tempting three-course Charles A. Turner on West End avecollation. Mrs. Springs' especially nue. After an hour or two spent in invited guests on this occasion were: the fascinating art of embroidery, Mesdames Joseph T. Watts, Brantley H. Finch, Ray McCrary, W. H. Wal-ker, W. E. Holt, George P. Shackel-ford, Richmond; H. H. Springs, J. W. Noell, John Nacil, Roxboro; Zeb. V Walser and F. N. Patterson.

on Broad street. The programme was continuation of a study of English

Mellichampe, Every, James James Dibbrell and Hall Tate, who wore the walter's regulation suits, carried the walter "high" and with their white teeth and eyes rolling caused great laughter and the audience cried out for more. Between each song Messrs. Morrow and Perkins' clean rich jokes kept the audience in a roar of laugh-The next solo was by Mrs. ter. Claude C. Barbee and her deep, rich voice had never had broader breadth or sympathy than when with "Heart of My Heart" she sang right into the hearts of the audience who showed a great appreciation. The grand chorus folned in the chorus of all these solos. of the special vocal hits of the first part was the duct. "See-Saw," by Messrs, George Van Every and Roy Atwood, who were dressed as a dusky country school girl and boy, who by their make-believe "shyness" toward each other brought down the house, who like happy school children themselves clamored for more and the en-core they gave was delicious. One of the finest numbers of the evening was given by Miss Clara Locke Boyd in "Good-hye Sweetheart, Good-bye." Miss Boyd has a sweet volce of great flexibility and power and in this number she used it with great effect. Miss Woody never sing better than when In the sweetest and most pleasing of volces she rendered "I'm Waiting in Loveland For You." Mr. Sam Barbee, who is one of High Point's favorite singers, gave "Dreaming" and as the rich, warm tones of melodic breath made one forget almost everything and give fancy to a quickened sense of Joy. This was followed by one of the J. L. Gilmer as chaperon -- Mrs. J. A. greatest hits of the evening. The McDowell and Miss Lillian Jenkins. black-face monologue and buck dance by Marshall Freeman, who kept the house in roars of laughter. At this part of the entertainment Mr. Bochon Barger, of Shawsville, Va., have resunounce that Mr. Laughlin now perform his wonderful illusion in escaping from a casket. After it had been securely nailed and screwed down by disinterested parties on the stage Mr. Rochon held the audience speltbound as to how Mr. Laughlin would escape. After he had been nalled and screwed in. With his hands tied behind he was put in the box and in fourteen minutes he caped. 0.8-

WINSTON-SALEM

Correspondence of The Observer.

Winston-Salem, Jan. 30 .- The past week has been diversified by many varied social events.

Last Wednesday afternoon Mrs. O. H. P. Cornell and her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Goodspeed, entertained most charmingly in honor of Mirs. G. W. Ranck and her daughters, Mrs. George P. Ross and Miss Helen Ranck, who are spending the winter at the Hotel Frances. That most ab- | charming event, Miss Margaret Beausorbing of all games, bridge, was the pastime of the afternoon and was the cherubs and their proud mammas. thoroughly enjoyed by all partici-pants. After the game elegant re-enjoyed themselves quite as much as freshments were served.

On Friday evening Mrs. John L. Gilmer entertained a charming party of young folks in her apartments in the Zinzendorf in compliment to Miss Marian Cunningham, of Chattanooga, Tenn. Ten couples of young ladies and young geutlemen played bridge, after which tempting refreshments were served.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Henry Ed-ser Jenklins and Mrs. Turner Farish, f Granby, Canada, were the guests Theory at the state of the state hor at a very charming

The Daughters of the American Revolution are busy planning for a very funny and interesting session of 'Ye Deestrict Schule," to be held in the paim room of the Zinzendorf the Arthur Cobb, Miss Blanche Heartt, latter part of next week. Those who will take part are busy doing sums, having spelling bees and doing other stunts that will make the session one of the most enjoyable events of the

Mrs. Horace Miller and little daughter, Miss Margaret Beaufort There were three tables of enthusias-Miller, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. tic bridge players and three lovely Lindsay Patterson at Bramlette .- Miss prizes were awarded to the persons at Marian Cunningham, of Chattanooga, is a guest at the Zinzendorf with Mrs. who were guests last week of Goverwould turned home after a visit to their sister, Mrs. Henry Roan .--- Miss Bessie Grey, of Fayeffeville, who was the Jr., Miss Virginia Brown, of Greens-guest for several days of Miss Maude Jr., Miss Virginia Brown, of Greens-boro; Mrs. W. J. Warren, Mrs. Joshua Grey, of Fayetteville, who was Mrs. George Lee Irwin left Tuesday for Reldsville after a brief visit to Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Galloway.-Mrs. John H. Clemett is statistic of Greensboro, and Mrs. George P. Folk,

John H. Clewell is visiting friends and relatives in Bethlehem, Pa. Before returning Mrs. Clewell will visit New York, Philadelphia and Chicago .-Mrs. W. T. Brem is visiting friends in Buitimore .- Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Reynolds and little son, Dick, will sail early in February in the Korea for Japan for a stay of several months in the "Island Empire." They will be there at the great festal season, the time of the cherry blossoms,

Thursday afternoon at 2:30 little Margaret Beaufort Miller, the attrac-tive niece of Mrs. Lindsay Patterson, felebrated her first birthday annivercompassing this sary. In very fort was assisted by many lovely littheir elders, and the afternoon, like all the times spent at "Bramlette," was most delightful. Among other flattering and delightful gifts and attentions, fair, Margaret Beaufort, the belle of the occasion, received nothing she will appreciate more in after years than the following little poem, written by J. P. H., and read by Mrs. J. Lindsay Patterson on the happy occasion:

Did Halles half of his radiance shed . To gild the halo that garlands your head?

Anderson. Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Mrs. E. R. Preston, of Charlotte; Mrs. J. J. Thomas, Mrs. R. B. Glenn, Mrs. Ernest Martin, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Alexander Field, Miss Mabel Royster, Mrs. Charlotte M. Willlamson, Mrs. J. Y. Joyner, Mrs. J. S. Wynne, Mrs. Pearce, Mrs. James Briggs, Jr., Mrs. Franklin McNeill, Mrs. William Crawford and Mrs. T. N. Ivey.

Mrs. A. H. Arrington entertained very charmingly the Bridge Whist Club Thursday afternoon of last week. After the game, which was a most exciting one, delicious refreshments were served. There were present: Mrs. C. W. Gold, Miss Pat Mordecal, Mrs. James McKlimmon, Miss Annie Hinsdale, Miss Irene Lacy, Miss Margaret Boylan, Miss Elsie Haywood, Mrs. Henry Litchford, Miss Mary Latta, Mrs. Haywood White, Mrs.

W. N. H. Smith, Miss Maud Arrington, Mrs. George Blacknall, Mrs. Rufus McAden, Miss Annie Duncan, Mrs. Mrs. George Folk. Mrs. Sunderland and Mrs. A. H. Ball. Mrs. R. M. Albright gave an enjoyable little bridge whist party Tuesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs.

S. L. Gilmer, and her niece, Miss Virginia Brown, both of Greensboro, H. Hillyer, Mrs. F. H. Busbee, Mrs. James H. Pou, Mrs. R. D. Gilmer, Mrs. Graham H. Andrews, Mrs. Watkins W. Robards, Mrs. P. D. Gold.

The Fortnightly Review Club was delightfully entertained Tuesday, afternoon by Mrs. George McGehee. The club is studying German literature and an interesting programme was presented. Mrs. J. R. Chamberlain read a "Kant," comprehensive paper on Mrs. Charles McKimmon gave short sketches of "Ludwig Tlech," "Werner" and "Sudurg Ultland." "The Current Topics" of the day were discussed by Mrs. McGehee. land."

Mrs. Palmer Jirman entertained in her usual charming manner about thirty of "The Younger Set" Tuesday night at a delightful euchre party in honor of her sister. Miss Petty, of Carthage, and Misz Ailston Dargan. Six-hand euchre was played, the ladies' prize being wen by Mise Kather-ine Mackay, the gentlemen's by Mr. Jim McKimmon and the consolution by Miss Allston Dargan. After the same delicious refreshments were scrved. Mrs. Jirman's guests were: Misses Louise Dixon, Mary Huli Me-Kimman, Caro Gray, Irene Lacy, Lilly Skinner, Rosa Skinner, Pattie Car-roll, Minnie Moring, Margaret Mar-kay, Katherine Mackay, Sydnor Wil-liams, Lucy Haywood, Emmie Hay-wood, Hannah Ashe, Rebecca Gienn and Messra W.- W. Vass, Albert L. Cox, Francis Cor, Willis Briggs, Des-isseaux Mackay, Jim McKimmon, Ce-brum Harris, John Andrews, A. B. Andrews, Jr., Wright Dixon, J. C. B. Chringhans, Baster Durham, Thomas were away. It is now an easy matter to direct strangers over the town. 'Tis true there is still some criticism of the system used, and perhaps "Tenth avenue and Eight street" are not as enphonious as "College and Spring streets," but they are much gasier ing the B. Code, N. C. Cordon, C. H. Hard-streets," but they are much easier found. Then the average village-dweller cannot quite see the beauty in numbering the houses in city style, a number for every twenty five feet. for "Hickory will never be built that close-" but who knows? When the writer moved to Hickory in the early seventies, every body that could possi-bly do so was buying a lot fronting the railroad. The one train west, and the one train east—a combination mail, passenger and freight, was an object of unfailing daily interest, and you could not have made any one be-lieve that the time would come when the desirable residence lots would be several blocks from the railroad, and the passing and shifting trains would come to be an amost unbearable nuisance, but the railroad was here first. So who can foretell what strides Hickory may make in the next Chaperones, Mesdames W. L. Laugh-inghouse, N. C. Cordon, C. H. Hard-ing, H. R. Bright and H. H. Car-row. Stags: E. H. Moore, J. D. Callis, F. H. Bryan, J. M. Saun-ders, Murray Jones, H. W. Ellison, H. V. Joslin, Dr. John Williams, Clifford Blakley, W. M. Blount, Jr., I. H. Hughes, I. F. Goddard and Paul Webb. Paul Webb. day.

Mrs. A. M. Dumay was "at home" last Thursday evening to a num-ber of friends at an informal hast Thursday evening to a num-ber of friends at an informal bridge whist party in honor of her friend, Mrs. S. S. Spruks, who is the guest of Mrs. George T. Leach, on Main street. The handsome residence on the corner of Main and Pierce streets was altractively decorated for Newbern. The wedding was a quiet the occasion and Mrs. Dumay sur-passed her former reputation as one most intimate friends of the bride beof Washington's most charming and ing present. The ceremony took place popular hostesses. The game was en-tered into with much spirit and zest parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Stimson, Fayetteville, Jan. 31.-Miss into dogwood—whereat this writer was much amused. There was an-other laugh when The Observer cor-respondent told of the dog wood pig also. Since our streets and avenues have been named and plainly marked, and the houses numbered, one of Hick-ory's reproaches has been taken away. It is now an easy matter to direct strangers over the town. Tist R. M. Worthington and Miss Cammie Short; M. Worthington and Miss Annie Julia VonEberstien; C. D. Parker and Miss May Rumley; E. A. Danlei, Jr., and Miss Hattle Jones; B. S. Shawboro; Evans Wharton and Miss the houses numbered, one of Hick-ory's reproaches has been taken away. It is now an easy matter to direct strangers over the town. Tist R. Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wade Phillips, J. T. Williamson, Jr., Mal Grimes and Gilliam Brown. Mal Grimes and Gilliam Brown. Miss Mamle Brinkley, of Greenville, salad course with coffee, beaten biscult, mints and candled dates. The > Phillips gives a large dance in the opera house. He has secured Richardson's Orchestra for the occasion. About 20 couples of the city's older society set will chaperone the dance Quite a large number will participate in the dancing. The german with handsome favors will be danced. At a late hour refreshments will be served.

STATESVILLE.

LEXINGTON.

FAYETTEVILLE.

.Fayetteville, Jan. 31 .- Miss Emma sinia Brown, both of Greensboro, There were three tables of enthusias-the busies numbering business. The Woren Web," given Monday right in the Academy of Music by the busies, Mrs. W. J. Warren. After the games a dainty luncheon in three courses was served. There were present: Mrs. E. H. Hillyer, Mrs. F. H. Busbee, Mrs. E.

and

