CHANGES AT FIRST NATIONAL

Mr. John F. Orr Made Cashier, Succeeding Mr. H. M. Victor, Who Resigned Several Weeks Ago—Other Changes.

Promotion all along the line came to the clerical staff of the First National Bank, resulting from a meeting of the board of directors yesterday. Mr. John F. Orr, who has been connected with this institution for about 30 years in various capacities, was given the place of cashier which was made vacant at the January meeting of the directors by the resignation of Mr. H. M. Victor. The action of the officials in thus recognizing Mr. Orr's genuine ability will be commended. He has done faithful service with the First National, and no matter in what capacity, he has displayed an aptitude and energy which merit recognition. Since Mr. Victor stepped out, Mr. Orr has been acting as cashier and filled this important position so ably that the directors had no hesitancy whatever in giving him the place permanently.

To succeed Mr. Orr as teller, the next man in line, Mr. Baxter Ross, was elected. He has also been connected with the institution for a number of years and is thoroughly acquainted with the details of the work.

Mr. Charles Adams was taken from the general ledger desk to fill the position of note clerk. Mr. R. C. Johnson was given the general book-keeper's desk. In turn, Mr. Ernest Ellison was promoted from collection clerk to the individual ledger desk, formerly held by Mr. Johnson. This leaves a vacancy on the collection desk, which will be filled as soon as possible.
