Any impression that our stock now consists of remnants and left overs is all wrong. We have put every article in our entire stock into this remodel sale, nothing escaping the reduced price, and the only way to really get in touch with the values we are offering is to personally visit our store, see the goods, but most important of all, the prices we have put on them. Our remodel sale is beyond question the greatest meney-saving sale that has been offered the public-in fact, our stock is marked to sell at such ridiculously low prices that one could well afford to anticipate their future needs.

Monday, the beginning of the third week of the remodeling sale, has much in store for the buying public in this section. Our experienced and capable force, larger now to properly care for the enlarged patronage, is always here and only too glad to give the customer the benefit of their knowledge and experience in the matter of harmonious fittings, selections, etc.

The items detailed in this advertisement are not an index to the vast stock in our store which are being sacrificed to secure the space absolutely necessary to carry on the remodeling of our building.
