SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. V. A. Crawford, of Franklin, arrived in the city Tuesday night to append several weeks visiting Rev. and Mrs. Frank Siler at the district par-sonage, No. 508 North Tryon street.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilder, of Birmingham, Ala., are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Wilder, on South Tryon street.

Mrs. J. M. Covington, of Wadesboro, is spending a few days in the city, the guest of Mrs. Charles W. Tillett, on North Tryon street.

Mrs. Charles Drake, who spent some time in the city with Mrs. R. J. Bre-vard, has gone to Lancaster, S. C., to visit her son, Mr. Stoney Drake.

Miss Ella Summey is expected home from the Whitehead-Stokes Sanato-rium, Salisbury, to-day. Her many friends will be glad to learn that she has almost entirely recovered from her recent illness.

Mrs. W. H. Thompson will leave in a few days for Birmingham, Ala., to visit relatives.

yesterday in the city. Among the guests at tht Buford yesterday were Messrs. Frost Tor-rence, W. W. Glenn and R. A. Love, Mrs. Frank Siler left yesterday for Louisville, Ky., to attend the annual meeting of the Woman's Board of of Gastonia. Home Missions of the Methodist Epis-

Col. W., E. Holt was registered among the guests at the Buford yescopal Church, South, which convenes there this week. Mrs. Siler will be absent from the city for about 10 terday from Lexington. Mr. D. M. Harshberger, of Ashe-ville, was registered among the guests at the Buford yesterday. Among the guests at the Buford days.

The indications are that Charlotte's representation abroad this summer were Messrs. W. S. Gladden. B. F. Ford and A. J. Pinkston, of Great will be unprecedentedly large. The week hardly passes but that an-nouncement is made of the intent of Falls, S. C. Mr. J. H Cannon, of Columbia, S several Charlotte people to cross the water. The latest recruits to the al-Mr. E. S. Rudd, of Greenville, S spent yesterday in the city on busiready large throng are Misses Ade-laide and Madeline Orr and Miss Nina Degs. Howell.

Miss Bessie May Thompson, of Birmingham, Ala., who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson at the Selwyn during the convention of the Kappa Delta sorority, will leave this morning for Concord to be the guest of Miss Jessie Coltrane.

Mrs. J. L. Sexton and mother, Mrs. H. M. Branch, left last night for Sa-vannah, Ga., to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Wheaton and daughter, of Chester, S. C., spent yesterday in the city, stopping at the Buford.

Miss Helen Rhyne, of Mount Hol-ly, was a Charlotte visitor yester-

The Dolly Madison Book Club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Walter Scott, at her home on North Tryon street

Miss Annie Louise Hutchison entertained the Spinsters at her home on West Trade street yesterday after-

Miss Mamie Blake, of Chatham, Va., and Mrs. Roy Cabbel and little daughter, of Franklin Junction, Va., are the guests of Mesdames O. O. Fogus and Star Neely, on North Poplar street.

Miss Grace Webber entertained a number of her friends last evening at cards in honor of Miss Sadie Gallagher, of Durham.

diss Mary Wilson, of Gastonia, has returned to the Presbyterian College, of which institution she is a student, after spending several weeks at home.

Canner, J. A. Bell and A. M. Whis nant. Scores of friends called between the hours of 4:30 and 6 o'clock and the afternoon was spent most delight-

The Movements of a Number of Peo-ple, Visitors and Others.

Mr. C. F. Geer, of Rutherfordion, as registered among the guests at the Buford yesterday. Mr. J. H. Sparger, of Greensboro, was a Charlotte visitor last night.

PERSONAL.

Mr. A. P. Rhyne, of Mount Holly, spent yesterday in the city on business.

Mr. Brooks Inman, of Yorkville, S. C., was a Charlotte visitor yesterday. Mr. L. A. Brown, of Concord, spent

C., was a Charlotte visitor yesterday.

Mr. W. R. Mills, of Statesville. was a visitor in the city yesterday, stop-ping at the Central.

Mr. R. E. Piper, of Durham, was a guest at the Central yesterday.

Mr. J. C. Fry, of Hickory, spent yesterday in the city. Mr. W. B. Thompson, of Chapel

Hill, was a visitor in the city yester

BRIEFS.

Few

at the Royal.

Minor Happenings in About the City.

-"Do It Now" and "Why the Acyesterday in the city with friends. Mr. D. Sam Cox, a prominent in-surance man of Columbia, S. C., spent yesterday in the city on busi-

Mr. David P. Stern, of the Greens boro bar, spent yesterday in the city on legal business.'

lowers.

Rev. Charles A. G. Thomas, of Monroe, was a visitor in the city for a few hours yesterday. Mr. R. S. Reinhardt, of Lincolnton, was registered among the guests at the Buford yesterday morning. Mr. W. H. Cook, of Hamlet, spent

"Diplomacy does it; diplotion to Teddy's blind side." "What's th' use of kickin' in the gate, when you know where a board is off th' fence?"

DAY EVENING POST, now on

At the News-stands, 5 cents. $1.50 the year by mail.

Mr. A. L. James, Jr., of Laurin-PHILADELPHIA burg, was registered among the guests at the Selwyn yesterday.

any address by CAMDEN

Street, Charlotte. tor Was Late" are amusing pictures -"'Macbeth," Shakespeare's great tragedy, is on exhibition at the Edi-sonia, being placed there yesterday. -The credit for the fine electrical display work in front of The Observer office is due to Mr. Charles Wills, of The Observer's power department. -The male quartette of the Second Presbyterian Sunday school will sing next Sunday at Belmont Presbyterian church at the morning service. -Considering the fact that Charlotte is crammed full of "editorial we's" to-day, it would be hard to figure on her population. -Rehearsals for "Isabella" will be held at the Colonial Club Friday from 4:30 to 6:30. A full dress rehearsal will be held at the Academy of Music 4:30 to 6:30. Saturday night at 8 o'clock. -The first of the bitulithic

and

Big Kelly

Alfred Henry Lewis reports a conversation, in substance and almost in phrase, that passed between a Tammany district leader, celebrated in his own circle for a philosophic depth, and certain of his fol-

It relates to the tactics of the Anti-Roosevelt forces and their lack of good strategy. Here are some extracts:

"Say, if you've got a ship to launch you don't sand th' ways; you slush 'em down with soft soap. An' that goes when it's a case of gettin' rid of a man." "Diplomacy is any move that lands th' trick - see?" "Also, it's exactly what them Wall Streeters ain't got."

macy, an' payin' strict atten-

Read "Big Kelly," in this week's issue of THE SATURsale.

THE CURTIS PUBLISHING COMPANY Our Boys Are Everywhere

Copies will be delivered to E. LYNCH, 221 East Trade

QUIET HOME WEDDING.

Mr. Julius Mullen, of Charlotte, and Miss Daisy Sloan, Married in the County-A Beautiful Wedding. An event of more than ordinary nterest was the marriage Tuesday afternoon of Miss Daisy Sloan, the eldest daughter of Mr. H. L. Sloan, to Mr. Julius Mullen, of this city. The marriage ceremony took place at VEY'S

5:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's father in the county. The room was simply but tasteful-ly decorated with ivy and flowers, and a beautiful wedding bell of white roses was suspended over the place where the bride and groom stood. The bridal party entered as follows: First the bridesmaids, Misses Jessie Mullen, a sister of the groom, and Myrtle

CHARLOTTE DAILY OBSERVER, APRIL 23, 1908.

This Very Popular Dress Fabric.

25c. COLORED LINENS A very desirable number for a pretty suit, all colors, 30 inches wide, at ·····. 25c. yd. 35c. MERCERIZED SUTTING

Beautiful, fine, soft Linen in the newest shades, Tan, Leather Browns, Pinks, Blues; also pretty

NATURAL LINEN SUITINGS

A fine variety of strong values at 15c., 18c., 20c. and 25c. yd.

LINEN LAWNS

36-inch All-Linen White Lawns for suits and waists, 25, 39 and 50c. yd. Also big line heavy White Linen for suits at saving prices worth 15c. a yard; for 10c. yd. Better line, finer and wider, both Bands and Edges that sell usually at 20 to 25c.; for 15c. yd.

OUR BIG SEMI-ANNUAL Domestic Sale SATURDAY AND MONDAY

This important event will be the season's opportunity, to make ready for the

1. 40. SUMMER CONVENTIONS.

Tremendously reduced prices on

SHEETS

PILLOW CASES

9-4 AND 10-4 SHEETINGS

PILLOW CASING

BLEACHED COTTONS

TOWELS

COUNTERPANES

40-INCH WHITE LAWN

In fact, everything in the Domestic line shall be cut. Read this space to-morrow for partial list of the good things.

BELK BROS.

Table of pretty designs, wide widths,

EMBROIDERY SPECIAL

Special Values and a Full Stock of Cards reading as follows were issued yesterday: Graduating Recital

Elizabeth College Conservatory of Music

Miss Berte Hutchings, Plano Miss Mary Blanche Roberts, Plano Monday evening, April twenty-seventh nineteen hundred and eight at half after eight o'clock

Charlotte, North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cannon and daughter, Miss Laura McGill Cannon, of Concord, were visitors in the city yesterday, stopping at the Solwyn.

The Bessie Dewey Club will meet with Mrs. W. B. Ryder at the residence of Mrs. George H. Brockenbrough to-morrow morning at 10:30

Miss Hattle Hammer, of Gastonia, is the guest of the Misses Yandle on East Fifth street.

The child's culture class of the Woman's Club will meet with Mrs. W. T. McCoy at her home on West Seventh street this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Sharon

unnecessary.

to the Lawyer's road.

Special to The Observer.

Mrs. C. K. Schwrar and children, of Rock Hill, S. C., are visiting at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. G. G. Scott, on Tenth avenue.

Mrs. E. W. Phifer delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon the members of the Wednesday After-noon Bridge Club at her home on North Graham street. The following guests were recipients of her hospiguests were recipients of her hospi-tality: Mesdames Joseph Ross, E. C. Dwelle, J. S. Watters, J. P. Du-rant, J. A. Houston, H. B. Fowler, J. W. Ferguson, Benjamin J. Smith, J. H. Ham, W. C. Maffitt, W. W. Phifer, W. A. Zweier, W. S. Lee, Jr., Charles E. Platt, H. A. Rose, W. A. Smith, Hugh Montgomery, and Misses Johnsie Dixon, Fannle Moore Bur-well and Julia Robertsho. well and Julia Robertson.

The Saturday Afternoon Tea Club, which has been observing Lent for the past couple of months, will meet Faturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Mrs. Walter Scott, on East Morehead street. In view of the fact that this is the first meeting in some time, all members are urged to attend.

An event of interest to many in the city and county will be the marriage this evening at 7 o'clock in St. Peter's Episconal church, of Miss Anna Lazetta Miller, daughter of Mrs. H. 7. Miller, to Mr.W. W. Washam, a well-known business man of Cornellus. The ceremony will be perform-ed by Rev. Harris Mallinckrodt, the rector.

The post-Lenten Dance of the Vir-rinia Club will be given to-night at the Selwyn. 'The music will be sup-plied by the Richardson Orchestra. A most delightful evening is being looked forward to by the members of the club and their friends.

One of the most delightful record tions ever given in the city was that yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. B. Tanner. No. 603 East Ave-nue, In honor of Mrs. Paul H. Allen. the hostesses being Mesdames S. B.

IT PATS TO HAVE IT. a will want for cream the first hot Have want grocer send you a hot-Blue Ribbon Vanilia. It's the best or cream.

1. 18

is being done on North Church street, at the Selwyn Hotel. The process is an interesting one and attracts the attention of numerous spectators. -The friends of Master James Mc-Callum will regret to know that while engaged in play at the South graded school yesterday he broke one of his He is getting along nicely. arms.

Fine Craig Meeting.

The meeting last night in Dilworth of white batiste and carried a showin the interest of the candidacy of er bouquet of bride's roses; the dame Locke Craig for Governor was altoor honor was attired in white batiste, gether successful, 100 new names beand carried pink carnations: the bridesmaids wore blue mull and caring added to the organization. This makes a total of 250 members in ried white carnations. Dilworth who expect to come en The array of costly and handsome masse to the meeting to-morrow night presents attested the popularity in the Academy of Music. Speeches were made last night by Messrs. T. C. Guthrie, John A. McRae, E. R. Presthese young people. ton and T. L. Kirkpatrick.

After receiving the congratulations of their friends the happy couple left for a Northern trip. Upon their

A Matter of the Right of Way, A difference of opinion which caussome talk early last night occurred at the corner of South Tryon and Fourth streets, between the Southern Express Office and the Johnston Block. The express wagon was be-road runs from Latta Park to the res-idence of Mr. J. Watt Kirkpatrick in Fourth street and Mr. Chase Brenizer The camp has been removed was driving in toward the west. Owing to the presence of rock in the street Mr. Brenizer's horse refused to go on. Mr. Brenizer claimed that go on. Mr. Brenizer claimed that his way was blocked and complaint Negro Killed in a Sawmill, was made to the police, but the warwas made to the police, but this mat-rant was later withdrawn. The mat-ter was finally decided by Mr. Breni-zer's buggy being turned back into Tryon street. In the meantime a Kinston April 22.-Eugene Hunter, colored employe of the Rutledge Saw Mill, on the Kinston-Carolina Railroad, was thrown on a slide saw and horribly mangled Tuesday after-noon and died two hours later. Huntlarge crowd had gathered. Vagrancy Laws, Good and Bad.

er had gotten down under the slide saw to adjust something that was out "This vagrancy law is a funny of order and while he was working there another colored hand, who was thing," said a thoughtful man "Th sum and substance of it is that you are prosecuted for being an undestrunconscious of the fact that a fellow workman was working on the 83.W able citizen in a negative sort of way started the machinery and turned the saw, which struck Hunter, cutting him in the side just above the left hip and up towards his heart. The machinery was stopped quickly, but Suppose a man is arrested and serves a sentence. Isn't he guilty of the same offense in a first second after he is released, if he hasn't reformed? Couldn't he be indicted and about 1,000 cases a day be made out not before Hunter was cut in two. It was purely an accident and no blame on him? I guess the law is all right, attaches to the negro that started the at any rate it is law, and no doubt it machinery. There were many wit-nesses to the accident. The coroner was notified, but deemed an inquest does make for the good of society, but I can't get it out of my head that it wouldn't stand testing in the highest ourts of the land."

gagements and if there were make the introductory speech.

would make no difference. Mr. Craig would make no dimerence. Mr. Craig is an engaging and interesting speak-er, and his address though on a high plane, will be none the less interest-ing. Mr. J. H. Weddington will bracing the Phalanz, Exceisior and Jopps lodges to-morrow night in the Masonic Temple. Addresses will be made by Rev. Plato Durham and Past Grand Master, W. S. Liddell, Refreshments will be served and music rendered. All Masons of Char-lotte are requested to be present and a cordial invitation is extended to all visiting brethren.

Joint Communication of Masons.

Michael Strogoff, a Courier of th ar, at The Casino To-Day.

isiting brethren.

A HINDU LEGEND. Advertising Mr. Craig's Speech. The friends of Craig are diligently

G. Hembert Wesley, in New York Sun. Twashtri had created Earth and all therein Everything save Woman, Her he did begin.

> Of the stars he borrowed Two to light her face. Of the mont'its rou Of the swan its grace,

Lightness of the willow, Softness of the flower, Frolic of the sunbeam, Teardrops of the shower, Crueity of the tiger, The peacock's vanity, Hardness of the diamor The wind's inconstancy.

Restlemments of ocean, Peacefulness of grove, Cackling of the parrot, Cooing of the dove.

ing these together at to his plan iltri, world cre

Announcement Sloan, a sister of the bride; the dame of honor, Mrs. G. E. Ford, also a sister of the bride, entered alone. Dr. Newton Craig begs to announce that he has opened offices at Nos. 25 and 26 Piedmont Building for the followed by the groom with his best man, Mr. G. E. Ford, of Gastonia, of Eye, Ear, Nose and practice Throat diseases.

UNNALLY'S DELICIOUS CANDIES fresh by express just received. The correct candy to give on all occasions. WOODALL & SHEPPARD, 21 S. Try-en. 'Phone 59

PERFUMES, FINE SOAPS, AND ALL toilet articles are here for the most fastidious. We handle an unusually fine line of these goods. JAS. P. STOWE & CO.

COLD ROLLED OX TONGUE IN glass. One whole ox tongue, roots and skin removed, neatly packed in a handsome glass bowl, costing you only Sec. Nothing nicer for lunch. MILLER VAN NESS CO., 27 N. Tryon.

NORTH CAROLINA HAMS ALL SIZES 16 2-3c, sugar cured 12%c, shoulders 11c. new crop roe herring 25c, butter 20c, bananas, large Jumbo 20c, BRIDGERS & CO., 203 West Trade street.

FOR RENT-401 WEST 11TH, MODERN 7-rooms; 908 N. Pine, modern 7 rooms; 811 E. 9th, 5 rooms. Other 8 and 4-room houses in all parts of city, 1 store room, 3 Pegram SL; 1 store room, 6 Belmont Ave: 2 new brick stores. Bel J. ARTHUR HENDERSON & BRO

NICE THINGS TO EAT-If you are look-ing for the season's best you should visit the Gem Dining Reom and the Gem Lunch Room. The most up-to-Cate -the most accommodating. advertising the engagement of ' the westerner to speak at the Academy of Music to-morrow night and the indi-cations are that he will have a fine hquse. There are no conflicting en

TO LET-ALL OF YOU WILL WANT that $20, 10th street cottage now, but it's rented, and you missed a burgain. 415 E. Oak, $11; 10 S. Myers, $20; 10 Worthinston Ave., Dilworth, $162.3; big hall over Mills' store, corner lith and Caldwell, $10; rooms in Sanders Huilding, $5 to $7. Houses for the col-ored from $1.35 up. E. L. KEESLER, 'Phone 344. There will be a joint communica-tion of the Masons of Charlotte, em-bracing the Phalanx. Excelsior and

TYPEWRITERS RENTED-100 reptal machines, all makes, ready for instant delivery. Every machine first-class in svery particular. J. E. Crayton & Co., 207 S. Tryon, 'Phone 304 STAR GROCERY COFFEE is the best 25c. goods on the arket. For sale by f. CROWELL cs 744 and 297.

Office Outfitters.

return they will make their home in Fine Road Completed. Charlotte. The Park road, which has just been completed, is said to be one of the best macadams ever put down in the county. The gang has been on this thoroupghfare for several months in charge of former Superintendent A. C. Welch and and Superintendent W. M. McLaughlin who is now serving. The