A most delightful German was that of the Nighthawk Cotton Club at the Selwyn last night. Everything conspired to make it enjoyable. Of the club members and invited guests there were just enough present to comfortably fill the hall; the music was exquisite and the figures were most capably directed by Mr. W. R. Robertson, the leader of the German. Those dancing were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Gans, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Vane, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. BRIEFS

A Few Minor Happenings in and About the City.

West Fourth was roped off yesterday, at Tryon, being entirely covered with rocks.

For the brief season of a day Chang the 1st Greenboro be the storm centre of something.

Mr. P. H. Reitzel, of Rhoda Island, will arrive to-morrow to join the Richardson Orchestra as a violinist.

Mr. E. L. Propst, who was recently operated on at St. Peter's Hospital, is sufficiently recovered to be removed to his home on West Fifth street.

The farmers are in the midst of a busy planting season. The work of putting cotton in the ground will be rounded up all over the county in a few days.

Cotton receipts yesterday at the Charlotte platform were 77 bales, the price being 19 cents. The record on last year's corresponding date was four bales at 11-1/2 cents.

I believe Union will divide about equally between the three candidates for Governor," remarked an attorney of that place yesterday. "The friends of all are hard at work."

Mr. Herbert Morrison, of the sales force of the Little-Long Company's Trade street department store, has been called home near Statesville by a violent illness of his mother, who has been sick for some time.

At a meeting to-morrow of the Dilworth Craig Club, Messrs. Crawford Bennett and Plummer Stewart, of the local bar, will make addresses. The place is in the hall over Sims' store, and the time is 8 o'clock. Music is on the programme.

The repairing of the Providence road from the city limits to the township line is about completed. The road has been materially widened and given a fine grade which makes it easily one of the most attractive roads leading out of Charlotte.

The Episcopal Association of Mission Workers of Charlotte will meet to-night at 8 o'clock at St. Mark's chapel, corner of Tenth and Davidson streets. Consequently the teachers' meeting at St. Peter's Episcopal church will not be held this week.

Ralph Bingham, the lecturer and humorist, will appear at the Selwyn Hotel to-night, under the auspices of the Crittenton Home. He has a fine reputation in Charlotte, as well as over the entire country. He will in all probability have an audience which will tax the capacity of the hall.

A POOR AUDIENCE

Second Night of the Presentation of "Isabella" Falls to Attract the Same Sized Crowd as the First—And a Fine Performance, Too.

It is no creditable commentary that the crowd last night at the Academy to witness the second presentation of the opera, "Isabella," was smaller than that of the first night, which was itself entirely too diminutive for the real worth of the performance. This is easily one of the finest presentations of its kind ever made in the city, and the management had a right to expect a much better attendance. The slight decrease in night was so scattered that some of the performers became discouraged and could not be induced to go upon the stage.

Feeling that other attractions had much to do with keeping people away, those who have the operatic charge have decided to offer a matinee performance Saturday to which an admission of 50 and 25 cents will be charged, children being admitted for the latter price.

ASHEVILLE'S HORSE SHOW.

Society People Turn Out in Great Numbers and See Some Good Exhibitions—Outlets for the Men Riders—Miss Rees Wins Vanderbilt Cup.

Special to the Observer. Asheville, April 28.—The first day's events of the 1908 meet of the Asheville Horse show Association drew a great crowd to Riverside Park. Society was there in full force. Practically all the parking spaces were taken while the exhibits were equal. If not the superior, to those of former shows. The features of this afternoon's events were the pair of roadsters in the class and the jumping class. In the roadster contest the fight was between Dr. C. Reynolds, of Asheville, winner of last year's blue ribbon, and William C. Colle, of Waynesville. Mr. Colle had perhaps the fastest pair of roadsters ever seen on the local track and won the blue ribbon amidst a burst of applause. Mr. Colle brought his entry here from Waynesville.

The jumping contest was really between Mrs. Bekman Lorillard and Miss Manco. Both ladies were exhibiting horsemen and handled their mounts in superb manner. Mrs. Lorillard had perhaps the best mount, a fiery steed that twice went against the bit and over the jumps in a manner that brought forth great applause.

Mrs. Lorillard won the blue ribbon and Miss Manco the red. The gentlemen riders were simply not in it. In many respects the show this afternoon was the best that has been held by the horse show association.

Miss Rees won the Mrs. George Vanderbilt cup in the ladies' single harness class, driving Zuleika, belonging to Mrs. D. C. Waddell, Jr. The attendance was large.

Minstrel Show at Baptist Church.

The expectations of the audience were more than met by the performance given by the Three B's Sunday school class at the First Baptist church last night. It was a minstrel show, participated in by quite a number of young people. It could hardly have been better. All were in costume and many feats of skill were performed, as well as many of a humorous nature which convulsed the crowd. There was a large attendance. The proceeds went to the class funds.

Episcopal Meeting To-Day.

Following services at 8 o'clock to-night at St. Martin's chapel there will be a meeting of the Association of Mission Workers of the City of Charlotte. At 8 o'clock this evening there will also be a meeting of the society of St. Peter's church, at which a large attendance is desired.

The Swine and the Flower

Oh me! I saw a huge and loathsome sty, Whence a drove of wallowing swine were bred, Whose banquet shocked the nostril and the eye. Then spoke a voice, "Behold the source of lord!" I fled, and saw a field that seemed at first One glistening mass of roses pure and white. With dewy buds 'mid dark green foliage nursed; The summer breeze, that cooled that Southern scene, that cooled that Whisp'ring, "Behold the source of COTTOLINE!"

He Speaks at Closing of Forbes School This County Address Also Made by Prof. E. C. Brooks.

Special to the Observer. Greenville, N. C., April 28.—Last night and to-day were held the closing exercises of Forbes School, three miles from Greenville, which is one of Pitt county's best rural schools. Professor E. C. Brooks, of Trinity College, delivered the address to-day, and another interesting feature was the presentation of a Bible and flag to the school by the Winterville Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics. The entire exercises were exceedingly interesting.

Mr. C. C. Moore, of Charlotte, candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture, was present and the opportunity was not missed to also have a school speech from him, in which he delighted the large audience.
