low. " Mr. Kitchin, although having driven to Rowland, a distance of sixteen miles, yesterday morning and there compelled by his frienda to make a epsech, showed little failgue in big address here. At times he was elo-quent and throughout his entire speech was entertaining to a very high degree. His discourse did not at any time approach politics, al-though his friends had hoped it would. though would.

though his friends had hoped to would. Arter finishing Professor Webb told the audience that the exercises prop-er were closed and that any who were alseepy might retire, (since there were a great many children in the audi-ence), but that those who wished to, please remain and hear Mr. Kitchin on the political issues. Mr. Kitchin promptly declined to talk politics on such an eccasion, saying if he should do so he wold be wrongly interpreted and criticised for taking advantage of the occasion to further his political ends, but thanked the audience for the opportunity offered him to do so. He has many supporters in this section and many warm personal friends.

REMEMBER THE UMPIRE

Citizens stop and reflect. You have witnessed a baseball game, but have you ever compared it with the real Game of Life?

YOU are playing this Game of Life every day against a formidable array of Diseases and Accidents-the basemen and fieldmen whose business it is to intercept your course.

Thus far you have won, but don't forget that the game is yet young and that sooner or later the inevitable must happen.

The Umpire who rides the White Steed neglects none, and some day he will stop at YOUR door.

The prudent man insures "Gate Receipts," A policy in the Greensboro Life Insurance Company will insure a continuance of your income when you are out of the game forever.

The library was patronized by practically all of the students, and about 6,400 volumes were taken out by readers. Total ex-penditures were $1,315, exclusive of ibrarian's salary.

PERQUIMANS CONVENTION LATE.

Delegates Will Probably Be Unin structed—Hertford News Notes. pecial to The Observer.

Hertford, May 23 .- Perquimans will have a late convention to select her delegates to the State convention at Charlotte. The call has been issued for Saturday, June 13th. As yet very little interest has been manyet very little interest has been man-ifested in the campaign for the gub-ernatorial nomination. Perquimans is not in the habit of instructing her delegates and they will very probably go to Charlotte with untied hands, so far as orders from home go. Among the candidates Mr Kitchin seems to be in the lead and ft is more than probable that the delegates selected will cast their votes for him. The prohibit are campaigning carnestly and have sent speakers to every part of the county. As yet the antis have not shown their hand. Mr. J. J. Firstwood and family have returned from South Carolina for the summer.

Examinations began at the graded school to-day. The exercises of commecement will begin the 29th. Mr. Claude Brinn will have the hon-or of being the first full graduate of the school.

Biggest Advance in Four Years. Wall Street Journal.

The stock market has had a prac ally uninterrupted rise of between and 18 points in the past nine ks.

There has been no price movement of like proportions in four years. The tast time that there was a movement of thus sustained character was in 1904, when petween May 16th and December 3d, a period of nearly sev-en months, the railroad average ad-vanced 25 points. That advance sig-malized the recovery from the depres-sion of 1903-04.

Entire Score Now Recorded on Disc Talking Machine Records—A Great Work in the Musical Education of the Masses is Being Accomplished. One of the most remarkable things the modern talking machine has accomplished is the reproduction of an entire opera. You can now sit at ease in your own home and hear a grand opera right through, from the opening scene to the finale-orchestra, chorus, concerted numbers and arias by the stars, all complete exactly as if you were sitting in a box in the "diamond horseshoe" at the Metropolitan or Manhattan Opera House in New York.

As you listen to one of these home opera performances, the voices and the orchestra and the whole musical effect are so true to life that with the mind's eye you seem to see the verit-able scene-the light and color and glitter and everything that gives grand opera by great singers its full dramat-With such artists as Caruso or Me
