

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Fay McKinley will entertain a few friends to-morrow night from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock at her home, No. 3 Jackson Terrace, in honor of her guest, Miss Mary Leeper, of Montreat.

Miss Mabel Nuttall will return to-day from Wadesboro, after a brief visit to friends here.

Miss Nan Wharton, of Columbia, Tenn., arrived here yesterday and will make a visit of some days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Wilcox. Miss Wharton has been teaching at the Southern Female College at Red Springs. Her father, Rev. Turner A. Wharton, was for several years pastor of the Steele Creek Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lumbeth are spending several days in the city, the guests of Mrs. S. B. Bispham on Park avenue.

Miss Nannie Rogers, of Raleigh, is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. B. Newell, on North Church street.

From 5 to 7 o'clock yesterday afternoon Miss Hannah Constable was a charming hostess at a porch party at her home on North Church street to which the following-named young ladies were invited: Miss Mary Hughes, of Newbern; Mary Shuford, of Hickory; Susie Russell, of Rockingham; Annie Morgan, of Murphy; Hannah Goddard, of Washington, D. C.; and Susie Thomas, Marie Thomas, Mary Morgan, Lillian Reid, Rose Walsh, Hannah Rodman, Margaret Ker, Shirley Ross, Kathryn Beattie, Lela Beattie, Margaret Haughton, Jean Dowd and Louise Thomas. Hearts was the predominating game played.

Miss Annie Cobb and her father, Mr. J. W. Cobb, passed through the city yesterday en route to their home at Greensboro from Belmont, where Miss Cobb, formerly a resident of Charlotte, was a student at Sacred Heart Academy. Miss Cobb won this year a gold medal given by Bishop Heid for the best work in art.

Miss Jessie Leimond leaves to-day for Spartanburg, S. C., to visit her brother, Mr. Baxter Leimond.

Miss May Oates left yesterday to spend several weeks at Flat Rock.

Miss Lucille Withers has returned from Raleigh and Thomasville where she spent several weeks with friends.

Mrs. J. A. Yarbrough and children have gone to Hiddendale to spend some time. While his family is out of the city, Mr. Yarbrough is taking his meals at the Central.

Miss Marguerite Thompson, of Baltimore; Miss Susan Bynum, of Lincolnton, and Miss Catherine Liddell, of New York, are visiting Miss Helen Liddell at her home on East avenue.

Misses Mary Shuford, of Hickory, and Mary Hughes, of Newbern, are the guests of the Misses Thomas on Elizabeth avenue.

Mrs. J. P. Woodall left last night for Tennessee where she will spend the summer.

Mrs. W. O. Nisbet and Miss Flora Johnson expect to leave to-morrow for Hiddendale to spend some time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dowd and Dr. H. H. Hutcheson will chaperone the B. B. B. Class of the First Baptist Sunday school to the river to-day.

What promises to be a delightful affair is the bridge party which Miss Lucy Oates will give this morning at her home on North Tryon street in honor of Miss Johnnie Dickson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. McGeachy and Mr. D. P. McGeachy, Jr., of Lenoir were registered among the guests at the Selwyn yesterday.

Mr. Baxter Ross entertained last night at a dining at the Selwyn in honor of the bride and groom at the Dickson-Goff marriage. Among the latest arrivals at the Selwyn is Miss Susie Hoffman, of Gaston, who was present last night. She is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weddington while in the city.

The young people of the Tenth Avenue Presbyterian church will serve cakes and ice cream next Thursday night at Dr. Bay's lawn on the corner of Poplar and Eighth streets and the hours will be from 8 to 10 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

PERSONAL

The Movements of a Number of People, Visitors and Others.

Mr. W. L. Seddon, chief engineer of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, with offices in Portsmouth, Va., spent a few hours in the city yesterday on business.

Mr. Henry Tatum, of the Ed Mellon Company, is spending a few days with friends in Georgia.

Mr. H. S. DuVal, commercial agent of the Southern, with headquarters in Augusta, Ga., is spending several days in the city, stopping at the Southern Manufacturers' Club.

Mr. L. C. Caldwell, a well-known attorney of Statesville, spent yesterday in the city on legal business.

Mr. S. J. Lowe, of Concord, was registered among the guests at the Central yesterday.

Mr. J. P. Caldwell left yesterday for Morganton, where he will attend an important meeting of the directors of the Western State Hospital.

Mr. W. F. Dowd returned yesterday from Hiddendale, where he spent Sunday with Mrs. Dowd.

Congressman R. N. Hackett, of North Wilkesboro, was registered among the guests at the Selwyn yesterday.

Mr. E. L. Thomas, of Greensboro, spent yesterday in the city.

Mr. Eugene Cannon, of Concord, spent yesterday in the city.

Mr. Thomas Barber, of Winston-Salem, was a Charlotte visitor yesterday.

Mr. Alexander Webb, of Raleigh, is spending a day or two in the city on business.

More Accommodations Needed For Big Convention.

Mr. Heriot Clarkson, chairman of the committee on the Democratic State convention, asks that all who can take boarders to notify Mr. W. T. Corwith, phone No. 1287. A committee will walk on the citizens of Charlotte this week to find who can help in this way. It is earnestly desired by the committee and all others who have the best interests of the city at heart that a liberal response be made to this call.

RAILWAY MEN MEET.

Interesting Gathering in This City Yesterday—Those in Attendance—Nothing of General Interest Transpired.

An interesting gathering of Southern Railway officials was held in this city yesterday. The sessions were secret, of course, and according to the statement of General Superintendent W. N. Foreacre nothing was done except such as is of interest only to the railway people themselves. Mr. E. H. Woodman, general manager, with headquarters in Washington, presided and there were present:

A. H. Westfall, general superintendent northern district, Greensboro.

W. N. Foreacre, general superintendent eastern district, Charlotte, Division superintendents:

B. G. Falls, Greenville, S. C.; H. A. Williams, Columbia, S. C.; H. L. Humberford, Charleston, S. C.; J. M. Bennett, Winston-Salem, N. C.

P. G. Walton, Greensboro, N. C.; G. V. Peyton, Alexandria, Va.; Mr. Casey, Richmond, Va.; J. H. Wassum, Spencer.

Superintendent motive power, J. Haines, Greensboro, N. C. Chief engineer maintenance of way, D. W. Lum, Washington, D. C. Engineer maintenance of way, Thomas Bernard, Greensboro, N. C.

Engineer maintenance of way, J. S. Lemond, Charlotte, N. C. J. W. Connelly, chief special agent, Washington, D. C.

E. H. Shaw, general freight agent, Charleston, S. C. George G. Thompson, general freight agent, Greensboro, N. C. J. H. Drake, general freight agent, Richmond, Va.

The roadmasters and special agents of the northern and eastern districts are also in attendance.

TWO CANDIDATES COMING.

Both Messrs. Craig and Kitchin Coming Here the Last of the Week to Do Some Personal Work—Will Make Speeches.

The campaign for the gubernatorial office will come to a garrison close in this county. Both Mr. W. W. Kitchin and Mr. Locke Craig are scheduled to come here the latter part of the week and remain until after the primary. Mr. Craig will speak in Vance Park Monday night if the weather is clear; otherwise the voters will be lured into the county court house where he will deliver his address. He is also booked for appearances at other places in the county after Friday, announcements to be made later.

Mr. Kitchin will spend Sunday here and will probably be given a chance also to wind up his campaign here on Tuesday. Arrangements are not quite perfected yet as to his engagements, but he will speak here some time before Tuesday. Friends of these two candidates realize the need of hard work in behalf of them and are ready and willing to do it.

Horne speaking is also being held every night in different parts of the city and the voters are being pointed out by well-known and forceful speakers the advantages of voting for him. The voters will hold up until the night before the primary.

There was a Craig speaking last night in Vance Park, Messrs. Cameron Morrison and C. D. Bennett doing the work. A good crowd was present, but not so large as it would have been if the first plans to hold the meeting at Kidd's store had been executed.

"The Two Orphans" at Latta Park.

A good-sized crowd witnessed the first performance of "The Two Orphans" at Latta Park Sunday night. The play, although one that has been seen by theatre-goers for years, appealed, as it has always done, to the masses. Deserving of special mention are Messrs. Earl McLellan and Lyn Osborne in the bill proper and the Sylvester Trio in the specialty acts. They were far and away above the extra artists who appear with popular shows. Little Laurie Sylvester, aged three years and two months and about as big as a pint of peanuts, sings and dances like an old-timer. The performance last evening was worth more than the price, and, in addition to those who are mentioned above, Mr. John Charles and Miss Mable Florence are deserving of special mention. Equally as good houses are expected to-night and to-morrow night.

Fined For Swearing at Policeman.

John Higgins, a colored hackman, was fined $20 for using language calculated to provoke a fight to the Latta House. The affair occurred a night or two ago and the trial was before the recorder yesterday morning. The policeman had called to the negro to stop to ask him some question about a dispute which a hack-driver and a white man had had a few minutes previously. The negro used some bad language to the patrolman and whipped up his "hoss." Then Mr. House followed on a run, firing into the air. The pursuer was cut off from pursued by intervening vehicles and the latter escaped. He was later recaptured and haled into court.

Mr. W. W. Hagood President.

The directors of the Jewel Cotton Mills, the new mill that is to be built here this summer to spin fine cotton yarns, held their first meeting yesterday afternoon in the office of Dr. H. C. Henderson and elected the following officers: Mr. W. W. Hagood, president; W. A. Watson, vice president, and T. J. Lillard, secretary and treasurer. As soon as a suitable site is decided on the management will be ready to place contracts and erect the mill building. Messrs. W. W. Hagood, W. A. Watson, H. C. Henderson, Paul Chatham and T. J. Lillard were appointed committee on selection of site.

Kitchin Meetings.

There was a Kitchin meeting at the North C. street bridge last night several speakers urging upon the voters the claims of their favorite. An open air meeting in the same interest will be held to-night at 9 o'clock in front of Coltharp's store at 1109 South Tryon street, the speakers being Messrs. Thad. A. Adams, A. H. Justice and F. H. McNinch. After this the Kitchin forces will run two meetings each night in different sections of the city.

Colonel Pearson Takes Charge of the Mint.

Col. W. S. Pearson, of Morganton, whose appointment as assayer of the United States mint here was confirmed some time ago, arrived in the city yesterday and assumed charge of the work here. He is stopping at the Buford. His family will arrive later and all will stop at the hotel for a time.

The board of public service met yesterday afternoon, but engaged itself in a discussion of only trivial matters.

HELEN VON HAGEN ON STAND.

Hitchcock Jury Completed Within Three Hours After Opening of Court and Young Helen Von Hagen Rehearses the Story of Her Alleged Wrongs—Mother of Girl Also on Stand.

New York, June 5.—The State's case against Raymond Hitchcock, the actor, now on trial charged with mistreating 15-year-old Helen von Hagen, moved with expedition to-day. When court was adjourned until to-morrow by Recorder Goff, a jury had been selected and the von Hagen girl had taken the stand and recited the story of her alleged wrongs, which led to the indictment of the comedian.

The jury box was filled within three hours after the opening of the day's proceedings and Assistant District Attorney Gary presided an outline of the prosecution's case in 10 minutes. After several witnesses had been examined, including Mrs. von Hagen, mother of Helen, who testified on examination that she had signed an affidavit in which she stated that her daughter had never been harmed by the defendant, Helen von Hagen took the stand to tell the story of her meetings with the actor and of the alleged occurrences in December, 1906, in a house on West Forty-first street. The girl rehearsed in detail the story she told when she appeared at the station with Hitchcock in his former trial on charges based on an alleged assault on Flora Whiston. The von Hagen girl told of their meetings with the actor and the visits with Elsie Voelck, a girl companion, to Hitchcock's house in Great Neck, L. I. The witness stated that her visits to Great Neck were without incident and that she was not until she and the Whiston girl met the actor at the house on West Forty-first street that she was mistreated, according to her testimony to-day. She further testified that the actor made an attempt to assault her and Elsie Voelck on a later visit to the same house.

Off to Attend Confederate Reunion.

A merry group gathered on Independence Square last night at 8 o'clock to catch a car for the Seaboard station, there to embark on a southbound passenger train for Birmingham, Ala., to attend the annual Confederate veterans' reunion. They will return about Saturday, although some will drift back before then. Among those who went from Charlotte were Messrs. John O. Alexander, Shakespeare Harris, S. H. Hilton and J. E. Baker, of Hickory Grove. About a dozen went.

Shot While Crawling Up Chimney.

Roanoke, Va., June 8.—A report reached here to-night of the accidental and mortal shooting in Buchanan county, Virginia, of R. V. Chambers, consul of New Garden district, Chambers, in seeing access to the home of Mrs. Coleman, where he was refused admittance, went down the chimney. Chambers found the bottom of the chimney closed and while making the return trip his pistol was discharged, the ball penetrating a vital spot.
