

THE LAWYERS UP IN ARMS

ought to go before the committee. He said the need for such a digest was urgent. The last Legislature passed a bill for it in the House at the special session, but it failed in the Senate. Mr. F. H. Busbee said the committee should consult with the Supreme Court before acting. He thought the very best might be done by one of the great digesting houses. A motion was adopted that this important matter be referred to the special committee.

DELAY IN PUBLISHING LAWS.

It was stated that there was also grave complaint as to delay in getting the printed acts of the Legislature. Mr. Haywood Parker declared that North Carolina was behind all other States in this particular, others having their public acts ready in thirty to ninety days, while her laws and citizens were being grossly imposed on by somebody, as these acts could not be procured in less than five to seven months. Mr. H. S. Ward said the delay in the appearance of the Supreme Court reports was rather singular and looked like a good thing for the West Publishing Company for a while, as the reports by the Supreme Court passed before the report was put in printed form. Judge Biggs said he wanted the Supreme Court given the power to have the printing done. Mr. Robert O. Strong, Supreme Court reporter, said the delay was entirely with the printer, for he himself always had his matter prepared long before it was printed.

President Moore appointed as a special committee Messrs. Haywood Parker, W. D. Pruden and Harry Skinner. The discussion revealed the fact that there is grave complaint all over the State because of delays in printing both the laws and the Supreme Court reports.

President Moore announced the following committee to nominate new officers: Clement Manly, chairman; Harry Skinner, Haywood Parker, W. S. O'Brien, Robinson, with W. B. Rodman secretary.

Secretary Thomas W. Davis is being aided in the preparation of the report of the work of the association by Messrs. Harris, of Wilmington.

AFTERNOON SPENT IN SPORT.

The association devoted this afternoon to fishing, sailing and surf bathing, assembling at 2:30 to hear the address by Judge Woods.

Practically all the members of the association will witness the presentation Friday of the silver service to the cruiser North Carolina, which is expected to arrive off the bar tomorrow morning and which will anchor about two miles from Fort Macon, and in about ten fathoms or sixty feet of water. Two revenue cutters are expected and the members of the association will probably be guests on one of these. Capt. Earl L. Brown, in charge of the river and harbor improvements in North Carolina, is here with his steamer Mercury and will take several prominent persons to witness the presentation.

ADDRESS OF JUSTICE WOODS OF MUCH INTEREST.

The address of Associate Justice C. A. Woods, of South Carolina, was a masterpiece and is declared to be of great national interest and importance that it is to be given to the press. His subject was deliberation and stoniness in public affairs. It was a plea for justice. He said as the North in 1865 failed to rise to the height of the situation and do justice to the South, it had conquered; there is no grave danger to the South that it will fall to do justice to the negro race, over which it has established supremacy. This declaration was greeted by a great outburst of applause, and a ringing vote of thanks on motion of Judge Biggs tendered Justice Woods. Judge Woods was given an ovation. His declaration that the South is deeply injuring itself by failing to participate in national affairs strikes the keynote of the situation.

President Moore appointed Messrs. R. C. Strudwick, R. C. Strong and E. W. Timberlake a committee to memorialize the Legislature to provide for a digest of the Supreme Court opinions.

Clement Manly, chairman of the committee, announced deaths since last meeting of the following members: S. H. MacRae, Fayetteville; H. H. Bunn, Nashville; Donnell Gilliam, Tarboro; Daniel L. Russell, Wilmington; F. P. Axley, Murphy. Memorials of these were read.

Mr. A. D. Ward introduced a resolution which was referred to the legislative committee declaring it to be the sense of the association that solicitors should be on a salary basis and not under the fee system. Mr. Ward then offered another resolution requesting the legislative committee to draft a law to increase the power of magistrates so they can try many matters now crowding out civil cases on the court dockets. Mr. H. S. Ward attacked this, saying he would deny jury trials to poor and ignorant petty defendants. He said the jury system was now being encroached upon. If such defendants are allowed to go to trial, it is a waste of money. The following lawyers arrived to-night: A. W. McLean, Lumberton; R. A. Nunn, Newbern; Stamps Howard, Tarboro; A. B. Andrews, Jr., Raleigh; F. Goldsboro; E. A. Woodard, Wilson; J. B. Smith, Lexington.

THE AIR IN DENVER.

Goals So Rapidly at Night That One Catch Cold Easily. Julius Chambers, in Brooklyn Eagle. Few people who visit Denver realize that it is located only a few feet short of a mile above the sea level. At such altitudes the climate is always treacherous. The midday sun may be broiling hot, but after dark the air is soon chilled and one is liable to contract a cold.

Several of the Spanish cities stand upon the crests of tall hills, where such climatic changes occur after nightfall. When as a boy at the grand opera, I saw Spaniards in "Carmen" or "The Barber of Seville" toss their long cloaks or capes about their faces, I assumed the act was intended to disguise them—do side their faces. Nothing of the sort. The Spaniard, like the Italian of the Alpine regions, always covers his mouth after sundown to minimize danger to his lungs from the night air.

Curiously the women haven't any fear of the chill that follows the darkness. They may be seen in low cut bodices at all hours of the evening, in the cafes, at balls, on the streets. The men, however, are in terror of cold night winds. Pneumonia and tuberculosis carry off a great many victims in Spain and northern Italy.

If you ever have passed a night at the Summit House (recently burned), atop Mount Washington, in the White Mountains, you ought to form a correct estimate of the climatic conditions at Denver. Those of you who have visited the New Hampshire peak in August, huddled about your fires after dinner and slept under double blankets, can readily comprehend what a shock to the system such sudden changes of temperature cause.

Barrier-Lewis Engagement Announced.

Special to The Observer. Salisbury, July 1.—The announcement of the engagement of Miss Mittle Pender Lewis, of Goldsboro, and Mr. Wade Barrier, of Knoxville, Tenn., made by Miss Eleanor Watson, the hostess of the Twin Seven Book Club at its meeting yesterday afternoon, is of unusual interest to the people of Salisbury. The marriage will be celebrated at Goldsboro on the 17th of August.

These two young people are very popular in Salisbury. Miss Lewis has been a teacher in the public schools here since 1903 until her resignation this spring, and Mr. Barrier was for a number of years connected with the First National Bank of Salisbury. Salisbury has never known a more efficient and popular teacher than Miss Lewis and she will be greatly missed in the school where she was. Her husband was always a great favorite. Their host of friends here regret that Salisbury cannot claim them longer. They will make their home in Knoxville, Tenn., where Mr. Barrier holds a position with the Wilson & Walton contracting firm.

Hanes-Chesman, at Pine Hill.

Special to The Observer. Winston-Salem, July 1.—At the beautiful colonial home of Mr. W. M. Chisman, of Pine Hill, yesterday morning, his beautiful and attractive daughter, Miss Pescud Chisman, was united in marriage to Dr. J. Lewis Hanes, of this city, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Mr. Marston, in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

Mr. George Hanes, of Pine Hill, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Miss Pattie Chisman, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, skillfully rendered by Miss Morrison, of Stateville. The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her away.

Dr. and Mrs. Hanes left on the afternoon train for Roanoke, thence to Norfolk, where they will take a boat for Boston, where they will spend their honeymoon.

The bride is an attractive and popular young lady and has a large number of friends. Dr. Hanes is one of the most prominent young physicians of the city and is very popular.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Col. and Mrs. W. A. Blair, Mrs. H. B. Ireland, Mrs. D. N. Dalton, Miss Ruth Hanes, Mr. Samuel Welfare, Mr. Miller Hineshaw, George F. Dwire, D. H. Blair, P. H. Hanes, Jr., Miss Wharton, Misses Fay and Celeste Huntley, of this city; Miss Auston, of Texas; Mrs. B. F. McKenzie, of South Dakota; Katherine Page, of Wake county; Mrs. Chisman, of Oklahoma; Mr. B. E. Barnes, of Maxton.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Richard Grogan, of Winston-Salem. Special to The Observer. Winston-Salem, July 1.—Mr. Richard Grogan died at his home in this city at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon after an illness of some time. The immediate cause of death was acute indigestion. He was 28 years old and leaves a mother and several brothers and sisters. The funeral services will be held Friday.

Progenitor of 220 Souls Dies at 94 Years of Age. Special to The Observer. Spartanburg, S. C., July 1.—Solomon Ballard, aged 94 years, the oldest man in the county, is dead at his home at Campobello. He was married only once and unto him were born twelve children, 90 grandchildren, 118 great-grandchildren and 12 great-great-grandchildren, making in all 220 souls that were given to him to the day of his death in all his house.

Austin Poplin, of Surry County. Special to The Observer. Elkin, July 1.—Mr. Austin Poplin died at the home of his son, J. S. Poplin, three miles west of here, last Friday morning and was buried in the family burying ground Saturday afternoon. Mr. Poplin lacked only a few months of being 95 years old and had been a man of an unusual strong constitution until he reached the age of 80, after which he began gradually to decline in strength until the final end came.

He leaves one daughter, two sons and a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren to mourn his departure.

Thomas J. McKenzie, of Salisbury. Special to The Observer. Salisbury, July 1.—Mr. Thomas Jethro McKenzie died of heart disease at his home on West Fulton street last night after an illness of six weeks. His many friends who had been anxiously watching him knew his condition was serious, but hoped his strong constitution might overcome the disease, but yesterday evening he began to sink and died at 10 o'clock. Mr. McKenzie was 37 years old and of splendid physique—a man of wonderful energy, hard working and industrious. His over-zealousness in the discharge of his duties, it is thought, hastened his untimely death. His big heart, generous nature and affable disposition made Tom McKenzie a friend of all who knew him.

Mr. McKenzie is survived by his mother, Mrs. Elsie McKenzie; his little daughter, Sallie, 11 years old; his two sisters, Miss Edith McKenzie, of Salisbury, and Mrs. C. W. Sumner, of Lincolnton; four brothers, Rev. B. F. McKenzie, of South Dakota; Mr. E. B. McKenzie, of Boston; Dr. W. W. McKenzie and Mr. Julian McKenzie, and Mr. James H. McKenzie, a half-brother, of Salisbury.

The funeral services will be held at the house to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. Dr. Murdock officiating. Interment will take place at the cemetery at St. Mary's Episcopal church, six miles from Salisbury, of which he was a devout member and vestryman for a number of years.
