MR. CLEVELAND IN WRATH.

Grover Cleveland maintained no Amnias Club. He was not almost constantly bawling with some one or other, nor did he shower heated allegations of invective right and left.

"Executive Mansion, Washington, Aug. 1st, 1892. Dear Sir: I have read your letter with amazement and indignation. There is one but one mitigation to the petty whine of your letter, and that is found in the fact you confess your share in it.

CONSTITUTIONALISM IN RUSSIA. The third Russian Duma closes its first session without having been dissolved like the two bodies of wild men which preceded it.

"A learned friend" (not The Observer, however) calls The Norfolk Landmark's attention to Acts XIX, wherein it is related that the multitude cheered Diana of the Ephesians for the space of two hours, the silver-smiths leading.

Dr. Oiler, now sixty years of age, serves as one of the best possible illustrations of the folly of his own and most other generalizations about things human.

THE PROBLEM OF VIVISECTION.

Recent agitation for anti-vivisection laws in New York and several other States has caused the arguments for and against scientific experiment upon living animals to be stated afresh.

By the use of a treatment learned through vivisection the city's mortality from cerebro-spinal meningitis has been enormously reduced. During the 1904-7 epidemic of this remarkably fatal disease the board of health appointed a commission to devise preventive and curative remedies.

It is a remarkable fact that the new 2 1/2 per cent. Irish land loan of $25,000,000, guaranteed by the British government and offered at 89 1/2, giving a net yield of only about 2 1/2 per cent., was subscribed no fewer than thirty-five times over.

"For our part," says The Washington Herald, "we have never doubted woman's right to wear anything she pleases."

TRYING TO ROB US SOME MORE.

Somebody ails. The Charleston News and Courier if it isn't afraid The Charlotte Observer "will claim that the battle of King's Mountain was fought in North Carolina, won entirely by North Carolinians, and that all the glory of this decisive victory belongs to the people of North Carolina and to them alone."

"I claim the battle of King's Mountain," Of course, he will, and everything else on this side of the line that is not nailed down.

THE BIRDS ARE ONN ROOT. Deeply sympathetic with The Charleston News and Courier in its frantic efforts to regain party standing by raising a Bryan campaign fund by contributions of one dollar each from the Bryanites of South Carolina, The Observer, though neither a Bryanite nor a South Carolinian, told its contemporary, Sunday, that of silver and gold it had neither but it wanted to do something and would be proud to send, collect, if acceptable, a large fat hen, or even a Hong Kong gander, either of which could no doubt be converted into cash on the Charleston market.

Popular Young Couple United in Marriage Last Night. A marriage of great interest among a number of Charlotte people was solemnized last night when Mr. Andrew C. Choate and Miss Male Glenn were united in marriage.

Unique Features Being Planned For Republican State Convention. A number of plans have been originated by the different committees which are working to make the Republican state convention a success in a public if not in a political way.

Col. John Temple Graves declares that Representative Hobson, who undertook to hand out to the Denver convention his usual line of Japanese war talk, was shamefully treated. He was indeed, colonel; but he abundantly deserved it.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Lutherans of North Carolina and Tennessee Synods Held Sessions at Concord—Rev. H. A. McCullough Elected President—First Day's Doings. Special to The Observer.

Concord, July 15.—The joint normal Sunday school convention embracing the Tennessee and North Carolina Synods of the Evangelical Lutheran Church convened at St. James Lutheran church, this city, this morning at 9 o'clock.

ANSWER TO ANOTHER QUESTION. If Mr. Bryan is Not Elected Will He Be a Candidate Again—His "Whining" Commented On. To the Editor of The Observer.

Mr. Bryan, in commenting upon his latest nomination, stated that in case he is elected he will not be a candidate for re-election. That is good. However, the thing that will knock down his hopes, and that is our minds is the persistent inquiry, "If Mr. Bryan is not elected this time, will he again be a candidate?"

CHOATE-GLENN MARRIAGE. Popular Young Couple United in Marriage Last Night.

Unique Features Being Planned For Republican State Convention. A number of plans have been originated by the different committees which are working to make the Republican state convention a success in a public if not in a political way.

At Latta Park. The play to-night at Latta Park is one that was played here three years ago, entitled "My Uncle." It is strictly a comedy in three acts, and is one of the most laughable of its kind ever written.

OUTCLASSED. S. E. Kiser in Chicago Record-Herald. They've made my pa a double L. D. And ma's as proud as she can be. And pa's kind of struts around. As though he hardly touched the ground. But Browns have bought a swit new car, 'Cause they're much richer than we are.

STORM IN M'DOWELL.

Much Damage Done in and Around Marion—Alleged Murderer Gives Himself Up to Officers—Fire Destroyed a Home—Married at Early Morn. Special to The Observer.

Marion, July 15.—One of the most terrific thunder storms experienced in this section for a long period passed over here Tuesday. The lightning struck several trees in different parts of the town. The barn of Rev. A. P. Sonels, who lives in the Buck Creek section of the county, about five miles from Marion, was struck by lightning during this storm and was destroyed.

Miss Toby Turner, of Statesville, is visiting Miss Marguerite Grant this week—Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Gilkey entertained, quite a large number of their young friends at their beautiful residence last night in honor of their guest, Miss Mattie Thomas, of Charleston, S. C.

FIREFMAN MEETS TRAGIC DEATH. Member of Asheville Fire Department and a Railroad Man Run Over by Switch Engine Last Evening—Two Versions as to How Accident Occurred. Special to The Observer.

Asheville, July 15.—Ross Anderson, assistant trainmaster on the Asheville division and a member of the Asheville fire department, met tragic death this evening about 6:30 o'clock on the local yards of the Southern by being run over by a switch engine.

AMEN! On this beautiful, sun-kissed, dew-spangled, zephyr-swept Sabbath morning, when the good Lord and all His angels are with us in Heavenly Boston—the City of Anthea—it is a sweetly solemn thought that, after wandering in the wilderness for years, the serene and saintly Democrats may now trudge up the purple slopes of Piggah and view the promised land where ripening post-offices, juicy collectibles, sebaceous consuls and other glorious fruits await the coming invasion.

Captain Dockery Much Improved. The information for the past few days as to the condition of Capt. O. H. Dockery, who is ill at Duluth, Minn., while more favorable than at first, has not been very encouraging until today, when Judge Platt D. Walker received a message stating that he was much improved.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Would Have Saved Him $100.00. "In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. S. Farrar, of Cat Island, L. I. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March 31st, 1907, I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of my kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill." Sold by R. H. Jordan & Co.
