THINK DR. MARR WILL ACCEPT

Trustees of Methodist Orphanage Believe Dr. T. F. Marr Will Accept Superintendency of This Institution.

The following from The Twin City Sentinel relative to Dr. T. F. Marr, who is so well known here and in Methodist circles all over the State, will be of interest:

"The trustees of the Methodist Orphanage to be established in this city express confidence in the belief that Dr. T. F. Marr, who was unanimously chosen superintendent of the institution, will accept, though, by his request, he was given thirty days to consider the matter. The trustees feel that a better equipped man for the important position could not be found."

"An executive committee was chosen by the trustees and it was authorized to proceed with the work preliminary to the erection of buildings. It will have the grounds cleared and gotten in shape and employ a landscape architect to properly survey and lay out the grounds and have everything in readiness for beginning the erection of the buildings by the time funds are available."

"The committee is composed of five members as follows: J. K. Norsett, chairman; C. H. Ireland, of Greensboro; Walter Thompson, Concord; P. H. Hanes and Mayor O. B. Eaton."

"Dr. G. H. Detweiler, of Greensboro, who at a former meeting of the trustees was elected acting superintendent, will visit the orphanage North with a view of getting the best points regarding plans of construction and management of such institutions."

Clinchfield, the Coal of Quality.

NOTABLE SOCIETY EVENT

COTTEN-HENDERSON WEDDING.

The charming and accomplished daughter of Hon. and Mrs. John S. Henderson, of Salisbury, became Bride of Lieutenant L. A. Cotten, U. S. Army, at the Episcopal Episcopal Church, Saturday Prominent Persons Attend the Ceremony—Bridal Party Given Reception by Bride's Parents After the Service—Home of the Couple Will Be in Newport, R. I., Where Lieutenant Cotten is Stationed For the Summer.

Special to The Observer. Salisbury, July 16.—Miss Elizabeth Browning Henderson, the charming and attractive daughter of Hon. and Mrs. John S. Henderson, was married to Lieutenant Lyman Atkinson Cotten, U. S. N., this evening in St. Luke's Episcopal church at 6 o'clock. They left on a late train for the North and after a trip of several weeks will make their home at Newport, R. I., where Lieutenant Cotten is stationed for the summer.

The bridal party reached the church several minutes before the appointed hour and promptly at 6 o'clock entered the church to the music of a special choir composed of the following persons: Soprano—Mrs. Fletcher F. Smith, Mrs. Robert F. Crawley, Mrs. John Whitcomb, and Miss White; alto—Mrs. A. H. Boyden, Mrs. Miller and Miss Brown; tenors—Messrs. Collins and Bell; basses—Messrs. Taylor and Rideout, with F. J. Murdock playing the organ.

The ushers entered at the front door of the church and marched down the aisle in the following order: Lieutenant Sweet with the lieutenant, Mr. Archibald Henderson with Mr. Burton Craig, Mr. John S. Henderson, Jr., with Mr. Julian Timberlake. They took their places at the outside of a semi-circle in the chancel.

Following these were the bridesmaids, Miss Susan Bynum with Miss Jennie Kluttz and Miss Corinne Moses with Miss Jane Boyden, wearing princely gowns of white and lace and with Corday hats of white net and laced with pale blue bows. They carried bouquets of pink Killarney roses tied with bows of pale blue ribbon.

The maid of honor, Miss Mary Henderson, sister of the bride, entered the church alone wearing a gown of white net trimmed with white satin, and a large picture hat of white chiffon. She carried a bouquet of white roses, and was followed by the bride leaning on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of white satin, made princess-empire, heavily embroidered in orange blossoms, and trimmed with point and duchesse lace. Her veil was of white tulle with a coronet of duchesse lace and orange blossoms, carrying a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The groom, Lieutenant Lyman Cotten, entered from the vestry with his best man, Mr. Preston Cotten, and met the bride-elect in front of the chancel, where the vows of matrimony were solemnized by Rev. F. Q. Murdock.

The church was beautifully decorated. As soon as the ceremony was over the bridal party drove to Blythe-wood, the home of Hon. and Mrs. John S. Henderson, where a beautiful reception was given them. The house and lawn were tastefully decorated and the guests were entertained in a most delightful manner in a home upholding the reputation of being among the most hospitable in North Carolina.

The bride is the most charming, attractive and highly accomplished woman of her generation in Salisbury. In North Carolina society no one has enjoyed more popularity; and she leaves a place in the social life of Salisbury that cannot be filled by any other. The only regret of this union is that she is to make her home in a distant State, and the greatest wish of the people of Salisbury is into the may bring as much happiness as she has enjoyed in her home here.

Lieutenant Cotten is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Cotten, of Cottendale. He is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy, at Annapolis, is a man of most agreeable manners, and has hosts of friends and admirers throughout the State.

This is the most notable social event of the season. The following are among the number of out-of-town guests who were present: Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Cotten, of Cottendale; Mrs. Joseph W. Gates, of Boston, Mass.; Misses Halstead, of Coolemeade; Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Henderson, and Miss Mary Curtis Henderson, of Chapel Hill; Mr. William Cain and Dr. Thomas of Chapel Hill; Mr. Peter W. Halston, of Coolemeade; Mr. and Mrs. H. Wellington Cobb, of New York; Mrs. R. A. Mayer, Mr. Robert Brem, Miss Helen Brem, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McAden, Mrs. Gillespie Sadler, and Miss Florence Thomas, of Charlotte; Dr. J. West of Raleigh; Mr. John Patterson of Chase Brenner, Mrs. Frederick Bain, Miss Charlotte Bain, Mr. Steelman Bain and Mrs. Nancy Eiting, of Philadelphia.

Special to The Observer. Durham, July 16.—Last night at 10 o'clock Register of Deeds Markham was called upon to issue license for the marriage of Mr. Dwight Massey, son of Mr. Patrick H. Massey, in the southern part of this county, and Miss Hallie Moore, daughter of Mr. J. A. Moore, of this city. Mr. Massey is a railroad man and will not be back in the city until Friday, when he will marry, and the license was secured last night in order to be in time. The marriage vows will be said at the home of the bride's people.

Special to The Observer. Wilmington, July 16.—The marriage of Miss Edith Wilson Butler, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Butler, and Mr. Harry F. Kydd, of Vancouver, B. C., which was celebrated last evening at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, was an event much interesting in a wide circle of friends here and elsewhere. The rites were performed by Rev. W. E. Cox, rector of St. John's parish, in the presence of a number of admirers of the bride and groom, a reception immediately following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Kydd left on the evening train for a bridal tour to New York, Niagara Falls, Canada and other places of interest, after which they will go to their home at Vancouver, where the groom is in the hardware business. They are both well-known and highly esteemed here, the groom having formerly been with the Armour Packing Company in Wilmington.

Special to The Observer. Durham, July 16.—Particulars of quite a romantic and surprise marriage that occurred five weeks ago in this city have just become known. The young groom, who returned to his home in Norfolk immediately after the vows were said, is still in the Virginia city and it is doubtful if he even knows as yet that his marriage has become known. In this event the contracting parties were Mr. Charles W. Chesnut, a young business man of Norfolk, Va., and Miss Julia Blalock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Blalock, who live near Bahama, this county. They were married June 8th at the parsonage of Trinity Methodist church, Rev. G. T. Adams, the pastor of that church officiating. There were but three parties besides the bride, groom and pastor present. One of these witnesses was Mrs. Adams, another a minister and the third a woman. The young people, for reasons best known to themselves, wanted to keep it secret and in this they were assisted by the minister, who did not divulge the secret that he learned by being called in his official capacity.

The license was secured on the morning of June 8th and in filling out the necessary affidavit the age of the groom was given as 29 and the bride 24 years.

Now that the secret is out arrangements will be made at once for the groom to come here and get his bride. They will go to house-keeping in Norfolk and will hold their honeymoon in the future. The bride belongs to a prominent and well-known family and is an exceedingly popular young woman.

Special to The Observer. Spray, July 16.—No more impressive or more beautiful wedding ever took place before the chancel of the Church of the Epiphany in Leaksville than that last evening, when Miss Laura G. John became the bride of Mr. J. Leslie Abbott, of Greensboro.

Before the altar banked with a variety of ferns and other graceful products of the garden and woodland a gentle shower of flowers and petals descended itself to the congregation of friends, relatives and acquaintances, when the bridal party formed and the rector, Rev. H. L. Hoover, came forward to unite the couple. To the right and left of the bride and groom stood the bridal chorists of twenty-four vestal singers. In their appointed places stood the bridesmaid, Miss Jennie Taylor, of Danville, Va.; the dame of honor, Mrs. B. Frank Mebane, of Spray; Dr. A. H. John, father of the bride, and the groomsmen, Mr. R. G. Douglas, of Greensboro, and Mr. J. M. Ellett, Jr., G. G. Grisom and W. Richardson. The effect was most impressive to the mental vision and was strengthened by the use of the ceremonial of the Church of the Epiphany with regret this fair and popular bride and will follow the happy couple with a generous share of good will and interest. Mr. Abbott is well known here, being an ex-resident of Spray and one of the pioneers of the finishing business of that town. His many friends here have extended to him their cordial regard and note with pleasure his successful career in the adjoining county of Guilford, where he holds the position of county auditor.

After the ceremony a reception was given at the home of Dr. A. B. John to the bridal party and from this juncture the public are uninformed as to the whereabouts of the bride and groom.

Mr. Bryan's Chances. Petersburg Index-appeal. Ah! So the chances of Mr. Bryan's election are not really so hopeless after all. The Charlotte Observer, anything but a worshiper of Mr. Bryan, has run upon the conclusion that the careful reader of metropolitan papers, Democratic and Republican, is daily surprised by expressions that indicate the belief that Mr. Bryan will be elected, though these expressions are generally the result of fear. Now, metropolitan newspapers don't generally fear without a reason, and there is every reason to believe that this is going to be a campaign of surprises.

Fuller Combing Gin Co.'s Chattanooga Plans.

The Tradesman. The plant of the Fuller Combing Gin Company, of Charlotte, N. C., will be removed to Chattanooga.

The matter of locating this plant in Chattanooga has been under consideration for several months. The low cost of raw material, the enormous amount of lumber available in the Chattanooga market and the availability of skilled labor, added to the fact of the city's splendid rail facilities, made it possible for Chattanooga to secure this plant.

Mr. Fuller is the inventor of the gin, and it is said to be the only one of its kind carrying the combing process. The new industry will represent a big investment and will give employment to several hundred men. It was secured mainly through the efforts of the chamber of commerce.

MUST BELIEVE IT

When Well-Known Charlotte People Tell It So Plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Charlotte the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony, every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

William H. Kidd, 316 Mint Street, Charlotte, N. C., says: "I am recommending Doan's Kidney Pills in the hope that others suffering from kidney trouble may see my statement and be benefited thereby. While a young man I received an injury which greatly affected my kidneys and of late years I suffered intensely from kidney trouble. I had much pain in my back and was bothered by the irregular action of the kidney secretions. Recently I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and procuring a box at R. H. Jordan & Co.'s drug store, I began their use according to directions. The results were very satisfactory. My kidneys were strengthened, the pain in my back disappeared and the kidney secretions were restored to a normal condition."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

BOILS

Some years ago I was afflicted with some blood impurity, which resulted in boils and sores on my body, and every year for five years I had to stop work and take to my room. This same trouble affected my general health. I began the use of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and after using it a short while—less than three bottles—I was completely cured and have not suffered any since. I have great faith in Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and desire that others afflicted with any blood impurities may read this and begin at once taking it. It will certainly effect a cure. Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy is the best I know.

Very respectfully, W. J. DUNNING, Aulander, N. C., October 14, 1909.
