The Sad Death of Dr. Darius Eastman. The Charlotte friends of the late Dr. Darius Eastman, formerly head of the department of pedagogy in Wake Forest College, were profoundly grieved yesterday to learn of his untimely death by drowning at his old home near Oxford Thursday. Dr. Eastman, as all Wake Forest men know, while the resident of the "hill," lived closer to the heart of the student body than any other member of the faculty. He was the leader of the Wake Forest Glee Club and was always first in all affairs pertaining to the welfare and benefit of the students. "He was every inch a man," and the news of his death brought sorrow to every Wake Forest man.

Dr. M. E. Stevens, of Asheville, Better. Dr. A. J. Crowell received a message from Mrs. M. L. Stevens, of Asheville, yesterday afternoon stating that Dr. Stevens, who has been so critically ill for some time with appendicitis, was much improved. Dr. Stevens is one of the most eminent tubercular specialists in America and his many friends in Charlotte and elsewhere in the State will rejoice to learn of his improved condition.

THEY ALWAYS PLEASE. No matter what kind you've been using. Blue Ribbon Lemon and Vanilla will please you better.

LOOKING TWO YEARS AHEAD.

Mr. C. O. Kuester Invites Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association to Meet Here in 1910.

Mr. Clarence O. Kuester, of the Kuester-Pharr Company, returned yesterday from Asheville, where he attended the annual meeting of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association.

Mr. Kuester made a great pull to bring the next convention to Charlotte but owing to the fact that this year's meeting was held in North Carolina and in view of the farther fact that Richmond, Va., Chattanooga, Tenn., and Hot Springs, Ark., had extended pressing invitations, it was decided to go to Hot Springs next year.

Mr. Kuester, when he saw the drift of the tide, gracefully withdrew, at the same time serving notice that Charlotte would expect to have the pleasure of entertaining the convention in 1910.

The meeting in Asheville, Mr. Kuester says, was a most successful one. Other Charlotte men present, traveling men not members, were Messrs. W. S. Dorr and J. G. Musgrove.

Mr. Kuester was accompanied home by Messrs. T. S. Southgate, of Norfolk, Va.; J. W. O'Neil, of Rock Hill, S. C.; A. F. Hartwell, of Concord, N. C.; Eaves, of New Orleans, La., all of whom, with his partner, Mr. J. M. Pharr, he entertained at lunch at the Selwyn yesterday.

REPUBLICANS TO MEET. County Convention This Afternoon - Full Ticket Likely to Be Named.

The "event of the day" - of the week for that matter - will be the county Republican convention at the court house this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The meeting is for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various county offices and for naming the delegates to the State convention which assembles here the 26th of next month. As to the county ticket, it is likely that there will be a man for every office so far but one is pre-empted and that is the office of coroner which will certainly go to I. K. Hirschberg unless present plans miscarry.

As to who will run for the Legislature and the several county offices, such as sheriff, register of deeds, treasurer, etc., cannot yet be given with any degree of exactness. It is expected that the convention will be a lively one.

Electric Machinery Installed. The motors which have been installed in the Louise Mill of this city by the Chadwick-Hoskins Company are among the best of the kind in the country, being of 750 horse-power capacity.

The electric equipment was supplied by the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company and the current will be secured under special contract from the Southern Power Company. As soon as the necessary arrangements can be made the electric drive will be installed in the Chadwick and Hoskins Mills also. This will be done very shortly.

Mr. Eugene Reilly Successful. The committee of the First Baptist church yesterday awarded the contract for the pews in the new church edifice to the American Seating Company, of which Mr. Eugene Reilly, of this city, is Southern manager. The award was made in competition with a number of other concerns and owing to its desirability was much sought-after. The pews contracted for are of the finest grade and will have a seating capacity of more than 1,000 persons.
