MARRIAGES.

McNeely-Abernothy, at Statesville,

Statesville, July 17.—There wa curch surprise among the friends of the young couple when it was an-neunced this morning that Miss Edna Abernethy and Mr. J. C. McNeely sere married last night. The marwere married last night. The mar-riage, which was truly a well-planned surprise, occurred about £:30 at the Race Street Methodist parsonage, Rev. H. H. Robbins officiating. Only three or four persons witnessed the personally, these having been made vise a short time before. The marriage was by no means a runaway. The young people left the home of the bride stating that they were going out for a stroll, and they strolled to the home of the minister, where they were met by two or three friends, and the ceremony was performed in short the ceremony was performed in short order. To-day the young couple are at home at the home of Mr. R. A. Miller and are receiving the congratulations of their friends.

The young bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Abernethy and is a young woman of real beauty. Her sweet disposition and fine traits of character have made her a favorite with the friends. The groom is a with her friends. The groom is a son of the late William McNeely, of Chambersburg township, but has made his home in Statesville with his brother-in-law, Mr. R. A. Miller, for years. He is a young man of character and stands well with his assoclates. He is employed at the city

Vice President H. B. Spencer, of the Southern, has given out a statement in Washington in which he stated that the report was unfounded He did not discuss the plans of the company as to when the work would be resumed. It is claimed by some that the road is not financially able to resume the work at an early date.

The rumor regarding the intention of the Southern probably originated from the fact that for several days a gang has been at work near flort a station south of Lynchhurg, a long track that was necessary.

Mayor O. B. Eaton resumed to the
