Wrightsville Beach, July 17 .- The Wrightsville Beach, July 17.-The spectations of the large crowds who aperly awaited the moonlight dance high took place at Lumina on Mon-hy evening of last week, were more han fulfilled, when the enormous as-mbly gathered to witness or partic-nate in the placeure afforded them Ipate in the pleasure afforded them by the Tide Water Fower Company. The beautiful decorations were a source of admiration to all who were present, the twenty-four windows be-ple sufficiently described with transig artistically decorated with transarancies of half moons and stars, hile one hundred pretty lanterns, representing the moon in all of its different phases, from the new moon to the full moon, were to be seen in every available place, not to mention number of other lanterns of fantastic shapes, and the many flags which were used in decorations. During the intermissions, the ball room verandas were brilliantly lighted, but while the dancing was going on, soft light of a large moon which was placed over the centre of the ball room, shed its glow over the dancers, while during many of the dances a spot light was effectively used, throwing vari-colored lights over the all room, making it appear veritable scene from fairy land. It was one of the most beautiful spectacular entertainments ever given in this State. Other beautiful fea-tures of the evening were the steriopticon views which were being exhibited while the dancing was progressing. and of the moon, gradually changing from the new moon to the full moon in all of its glory. The music was beautiful and appropriate, one of the nost popular airs being "Afraid to Go forme in the Dark." It is said that Home in the Dark." Durham, July 17 .- John Smith, col ored, escaped from the Durham road force late yesterday afternoon. The prisoners were at work on the Rigs-bes or upper Chapsi Hill read when Smith, who was one of a force assisting in moving a carload of lumbe from Durham to a point on the road where a bridge is to be built, slipped from his wagon and made his escape The guard had several other prison ers to watch and all he could do was to shoot at the fleeing prisoner as long as he sould see him. Since his escape Smith has not been heard from. He was sentenced for stealing from. He was sentenced for stealing from the store of M. Gladstein and had but two months to serve before he would have received his discharge. Reports have reached here of store breakings and burglaries that have been committed in the northern part of this county. This appears to be the same, kind of robbery that was carried on in the southern part of the county until the ring leader of the gang was captured and sent to the gang was captured and sent to jail in default of security in the sum of $500. The store of Bedford Hill, in the northern part, was robbed a few nights ago, the robber or robbers getting considerable goods. The next night the home of a colored family was burgiarized, the burgiars getting away with a pistol, gold watch and $5 in money. Several robberies of this kind have been reported here of hate. The officers are working on the cases but as yet no arrests have been made.

Revenue officers late yesterday af-ternoon arrived in the city from a successful raid that was made in the western part of this county or just over the line in Orange. The exact location is not known. The officers found a 75-gallon still that was captured and cut up, and about 500 gallons of beer was poured out. While the officers were waiting for the owners to put in an appearance the men came from the bushes but they quickly made their escape when they saw that they were likely to be pris-oners in a few minutes. No whiskey
