

DESPERADOES ON RAMPAGE

ELEVEN SHOT IN SCUFFLE. Two Men Who Held Up a Saloon in Jamaica Plain, Tuesday Night, Flee Two Miles Through a Thicket-Settled Community Firing Madly at Random and Finally Disappear in the Woods, But Not Until They Have Left a Number of Victims in Their Tracks—One of the Men Shot Will Die—Towards Shoot Innocent Woman Who Chanced to be Standing in Their Path With a Babe in Her Arms—Police Hot on the Trail. Boston, July 22.—Eleven persons were shot to-night, three of them probably fatally, by two desperadoes, who, on being pursued by policemen, and a crowd of citizens, fled for two miles through a thickly-settled district of Jamaica Plain, firing madly at random and finally disappearing in the woods near Franklin Park. The men are believed to be two of the gang of three who robbed a saloon in Jamaica Plain last night after shooting and killing one man and wounding two others. Herbert E. Knox, night watchman of the Forest Hills Cemetery, who was shot in the abdomen, died at Emerson Hospital late to-night.

ONE VICTIM WILL DIE. Edward McMahon, Dorchester patrolman, received a bullet in the abdomen and will probably die. The others injured are: John Nolan, shot in arm; Thomas Fleming, shot in hand; Thomas Moore, street car conductor, shot in leg; Officer Ingalls, bullet in leg; Officer Cox, shot in ankle; Patrick McGinn, shot in the side; Flynn, head grazed by bullet; Patrolman Thompson, shot in leg. It is believed that the desperadoes lay concealed in Calvary Cemetery to-day while the police were hunting for them on account of last night's hold-up and robbery. Being driven from their hiding place by hunger and fearing that they would be surrounded by the police who were searching the neighborhood, the two men appeared on Charles street, in Jamaica Plain, at about dusk and proceeded to "shoot up" the town.

LOOKED LIKE DAGOES. They looked like Italians and were roughly dressed. Some citizens who had been assisting in the hunt for the robbers, saw the men and tried to intercept them, whereupon the two began running and with a revolver in each hand fled along Charles, South, Lee and Keyes streets, firing at every person in their path. Throughout the residential district the front porches of the houses were thick with people enjoying the evening air, while the streets of the business section were filled with the usual throngs. The appearance of the two desperadoes shooting to each side as they ran and shouting as if crazy caused a general stampede for cover. Michael Flynn, stopped to pick up a stone as he ran and tried to throw toward him, and instantly one of them fired at him, the bullet grazing his ear. Another went through his hat. As the fugitives running along Keyes street, reached Washington street, a trolley car came along.

HOLD UP STREET CAR. "Hold up, you — — —" shouted one of the men waving his revolver above his head. The motorman set the brakes and the conductor, Thomas Moore, jumped off. Instantly he became a target and a bullet entered his leg. Across Washington street and along New Keyes street, the robbers fled, with hundreds of men pursuing, and soon disappeared in the dense woods. Park shooting down Officer Cox, who tried to intercept them, near the park gate. As soon as possible, a cordon of police heavily armed with rifles and revolvers, was thrown about the park, while thousands of citizens gathered in the vicinity. According to a small boy who saw the two men reloading their weapons in a sandhill near the park early in the evening, each man carried two revolvers. Patrolman McMahon and Patrolman Thompson sighted the supposed Italians in the neighborhood of the park late in the evening and went down before their well-directed fire.

Another Gotham Murder Mystery. New York, July 22.—Another murder mystery has been added to the long list of unsolved cases that are now baffling the police of New York and vicinity. Early to-day the body of a pretty young woman was found in a foot shed in Irvington Park, Williamsburg. She was shot through the breast and had been killed almost instantly. Although a policeman heard the shot and ran to the scene he was too late to catch sight of the murderer. This latest murder is far more puzzling than the Drew or Eberhard cases, for not even the identity of the victim is known. It is believed that the murdered woman lived near the scene of the crime, but there is no positive information on this point.

Atlantic Fleet Leaves Honolulu. Honolulu, July 22.—The Atlantic battleship fleet had made its last day to the hospitable shores of Hawaii and sailed to-night for Auckland, N. Z., the next point on its world itinerary, where it is due to arrive on August 15th. The Minnesota did not accompany the fleet to-night, but will remain in ports until the mail steamer from San Francisco arrives and then overtake the fleet before reaching Auckland. Rear Admiral Sperry to-day returned formal thanks to the people of Hawaii for their treatment of officers and men. The golfer Craighair, with goal for the fleet, arrived this morning from Norfolk, Va., too late to be of service here.

The Strike Situation in Alabama. Birmingham, Ala., July 22.—Yolande, the scene of last year's mine disaster appears to have been the only mining camp suffering violence to-day. Shortly before noon the non-union miners attempted to enter the creek about a mile from Yolande in an isolated spot, was set upon by four masked men and beaten into insensibility. To-night a heavy charge of dynamite was exploded under the house of Bob Carter, a negro, at Yolande, and while one man was injured, the property was badly damaged. Other camps in the county are quietly to-night. Several carloads of strikebreakers have been distributed during the day under military escort to various mines.

NOT IN NEED OF FUNDS.

Financial Plan Proposed For Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company is Abandoned. New York, July 22.—Contrary to expectations, no financial plan was submitted to the stockholders of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company at their annual meeting in Jersey City to-day. An official statement was adopted about a month ago that a plan was underway for a bond issue of approximately $15,000,000. One of the financiers identified with the company said to-day, however, that this entire plan had been abandoned by the directors. Officials have just returned from an inspection of the corporation's plants in the Southern States, and they express themselves very optimistically regarding its affairs and the future possibilities. In the circumstances, it was felt that the company did not require new funds, especially since a satisfactory price for bonds could scarcely be obtained in the present market.

GUFFEY THE LEADER. Pennsylvania Democracy Recognizes Guffey Despite the Denver Convention. Harrisburg, Pa., July 22.—The Democratic State committee to-day recognized Col. James M. Guffey, of Pittsburg, as the leader of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, in spite of the fact that he was ousted from the State chairmanship at Denver and while endorsing the candidates on the national ticket voted in strong terms disapproval of the unseating of Guffey by passing resolutions. The meeting was attended by 76 out of the 84 members of the committee and they not only proclaimed their fealty to Guffey by passing resolutions, but they also praised his work for the party and his leadership up to the point of his removal. A resolution intended to secure recognition for James Kerr, the sitting member of the national committee, was laughed at when presented by a delegate who was a personal friend of Kerr. The strength of the Kerr faction in the committee was insignificant and they did not attempt to oppose the re-election of Guffey. Chairman George M. Dimeling, a friend of Colonel Guffey, who was chosen to serve for a year from the first of next January.

Judge Taft Goes to Oyster Bay With His Speech. Hot Springs, Va., July 22.—Judge William H. Taft left here at 8:45 o'clock to-night for Oyster Bay to confer with President Roosevelt regarding his Cincinnati speech acceptance of the Republican presidential nomination. He will arrive at Sagamore Hill to-morrow afternoon, leaving the Chesapeake and Ohio train at Jersey City at 1 o'clock and making the trip across the State and into New York by automobile. Mr. Taft will doubtless be the guest of the President Thursday night. He has arranged to leave New York Friday afternoon for Cincinnati, where he will arrive Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. More Virginia Republicans arrived here to-day and Mr. Taft held an interview with the entire delegation, which represented every congressional district in the State. Representative Slump, who heads the delegation, says the railroads have offered a very satisfactory rate from all points in the State to Hot Springs for the intended rally in August.

Funeral of Bishop Henry C. Potter to Be Held Friday. Cooperstown, N. Y., July 22.—Private funeral services for the family of Bishop Henry C. Potter, of New York, will be held in this village next Friday morning. Archbishop Nelson, of New York; Bishop Charles A. Gilmore, of Utica, and the Rev. Ralph Birdsell, of Cooperstown, will officiate. The body will be taken to New York on a special train and placed in a receiving vault at Trinity Cemetery. Although there is to be a public funeral no date has been set for it. At the request of a committee from the Diocese of New York, the public funeral has been postponed until such time as prominent churchmen, who went to London to attend the pan-American convention, can return. There has been a veritable flood of telegrams and letters of sympathy at the Potter home to-day.

Prospect of a Contest Mark in Wisconsin Democratic Convention. Milwaukee, Wis., July 22.—Prospects of a contest entered into the gathering to-day of Democrats in State convention in the announcement of A. J. Schmitt, of Milwaukee, that he would try for the nomination for Governor in opposition to John A. Aylward, of Madison. The opposition to Mr. Aylward has had no candidate until it finally united on the Milwaukee man to-day. The opening session of the convention was a purely routine in character, and aside from the adoption of a resolution of sympathy for Col. William F. Vilas, of Madison, in his illness, the time was devoted to the appointment of committees and to the delivery of the keynote speech by Temporary Chairman Melvin A. Hoyt, of Milwaukee. Mr. Hoyt in his speech played all opposing parties without naming words.

Erroneous Report of Rojstevsky's Death is Embarrassing. Berlin, July 22.—In a despatch from St. Petersburg the correspondent of the Tagelblaet says the erroneous report of Admiral Rojstevsky's death had been made by the Russian Masses for the repose of the soul of the admiral were celebrated in many churches and preparations were made for other such ceremonies in many more churches. Telegrams of condolence poured in to the wife of the admiral. Emperor William directed the German naval attaché at St. Petersburg, Captain Hintze, to communicate the sorrow of his majesty. Admiral Nebagotoff and General Stoessel, both serving terms of imprisonment, were permitted to attend the mass celebrated at the cathedral. The admiral was on a holiday at an interior village of Germany enjoying good health.

Secretary Wright Plays War All Day and Then Banquets. Chattanooga, Tenn., July 22.—After a strenuous day spent in visiting the scenes in and around Chattanooga that he had not seen since he was in command of a company of gray-clad artillery and attempting to repel hosts of the boys in blue, Secretary of War Luke E. Wright attended a banquet in his honor at the Hotel Elgin to-night. General Franklin B. Hays, who was a guest, proposed a toast to President Roosevelt and Secretary Wright was warmly responded to amid great applause. Secretary Wright leaves Thursday morning for Texas, where he will inspect the army posts before returning to Washington. General Bell will accompany him.

HE DEFENDS THE PLATFORM

BRYAN MAKES A FEW REMARKS. The Democratic Candidate Talks to the Grocers and Butchers at Capital Beach and Later Makes a Brief Address to the Democratic Committee—Dwells on Monopolies in His Address to the Tradesmen, and Talks of Probable Success to the Committee—An Unusually Small Number of Visitors at Fairview, Most of Them Calling Out of Curiosity. Lincoln, Neb., July 22.—Honesty in business and a defense of the Denver platform, particularly with respect to publicity before elections of campaign contributions, formed the themes of two addresses made to-day by William J. Bryan. The first speech was at Capital Beach to the association of grocers and butchers of Lincoln and the second to the State Democratic committee. In his remarks to the grocers and butchers, Mr. Bryan dwelt on monopolies in certain products, but declared that merchandising was the last branch of business in which there will be a monopoly, because, he said, the moment such monopoly was established a competitor would present himself and the people would thereby be protected against extortion. To the State committee Mr. Bryan gave assurances that reports of Democratic success from different parts of the country were encouraging. He said in part: MR. BRYAN'S REMARKS. "The reports that we get from the country are very encouraging, and I believe that before elections of campaign contributions, that confidence would be quite generally followed. This is probably a response to the party's position in regard to publicity concerning campaign contributions and it verifies the hope of those who believed that if the party tarred itself upon the confidence of the masses of the people, if the party announced its determination to rely for its success of war upon contributions that would come from the body of the population, and receive no contribution that could not be made public, that confidence would be reciprocated and the people would respond. I believe there is evidence that we are going to have that response, and when the voters take upon themselves the burden of furnishing campaign contributions, the voters will have an interest in the government that they have not had heretofore. I think it is an earnest of what is to come. I think it is an auspicious beginning of the new era of politics."

PLATFORM COMMENDED. "I believe that the platform is the best that has ever been known for generations, that it especially sets forth the party's position. There is no trimming; there is no dodging; it is a frank, candid platform and the impression that it has made upon the people is one, and the Republicans are already in retreat on the subject. They turned down the plank in regard to publicity of campaign contributions by an overwhelming majority, and as soon as the Democratic party acted, they felt it necessary to act. Then we heard it announced that they were going to publish the statement after the election, and the first intimation was that they would get contributions wherever they could get them. The election, and after the Democratic national committee acted and put that platform pledge in effect, the Republican candidate announced that they would receive no contributions from corporations. They have even been very rapidly thus far, and I am prepared to tell you what they may do next."

It has been definitely determined that the notification of Mr. Bryan of his nomination shall occur "on the grounds surrounding the State capital. The exercises will begin at 2 o'clock on August 12th. There was an unusually small number of visitors at Fairview to-day, most of them calling out of mere curiosity. Negroes Attack the Dog-Catcher of Jacksonville. Jacksonville, Fla., July 22.—James Evans, city dog-catcher, while in the northwestern section of the city to-night attending to his duties, was attacked by a mob of about 200 negroes with pistols, knives, clubs and rocks, his clothes being literally cut into shreds. In the difficulty Evans drew his revolver and fired into the crowd, instantly killing Charles Crosby, a negro. This increased the anger of the mob and Evans was put to flight firing his revolver as he ran, but all shots went wild. The police were summoned and soon dispersed the mob and Evans was taken to police headquarters for protection. The trouble started when Evans, carrying out the orders of Mayor Seevering, captured a stray dog and turned it over to one of his men to be taken to the city dog pen.

Hottest Place on Earth. New York Press. Bahrain Island, in the Persian Gulf, is said to be the hottest place on the globe, far hotter than Tophet. The average temperature is about 141 degrees. On the coast, where the people live, there is no fresh water, but here and there in the harbor's bottom are streams of fresh water, and of purest water, rivaling that which flows down the sides of the mountains of Lebanon, flavored by the sap of healthy cedars. Divers equip themselves with bags made of skins and descend to the springs, where they fill the inverted receptacles with aqua pura. This water is cold enough to drink without the aid of ice, of which the islanders know nothing.

Fresh Air. Dr. J. H. Clarke in London Chronicle. I hold the maxim "Die and let die." If any one chooses the fresh-air method of departing this life, by all means let him take it, but let him respect the wishes of his family.

Pe-ru-na Tablets Handy

There is nothing like having things handy. Taking medicine is like everything else. It is easily procrastinated. A man has a slight cold or chronic catarrh. Or perhaps a slight cough. May be a little hoarseness. He knows he ought to take something for it. But going to a doctor for an examination and prescription takes time and money. It is easy to put it off. Going to the drug store and buying a bottle of medicine is often neglected. It takes time. Just here is where the Peruna Tablets come in very handy. A box of them can be carried in the pocket, like a card case, or a note book. No trouble whatever to take out the box and take a Tablet. The ever convenience of Tablets makes them a formidable rival to other catarrh medicines. In the summer time, as well as in the winter, slight colds are quite unavoidable. A Tablet or two taken just at the right time might ward off a cold effectually. Convenient! That is the beauty of Tablets. They are handy. One box of Tablets, costing 50c., contains as much real solid medicine as a bottle of medicine costing $1.00. Always worth while to have a box of them in the pocket.

the right of other people to choose their own method for themselves. Fresh air has its victims no less than foul. The tubercle bacillus does not enjoy fresh air. It is true, but there are plenty of other bacilli which rejoice in it. If consumptives thrive out of doors, the subjects of bronchitis are generally only safe when they stay in.
