HORNETS LOSE IN TWELFTH ROUND

Spartanburg, S. C., July 24.—It took twelve innings for the Spartans to win from the Hornets this afternoon in one of the best games that has been played on the local diamond. With one man down, Lanham went to the bat in the ast inning, made an infield hit and landed at first. Mo-Kenzie came to the bat and struck out, but while Finn was working the "rabbit foot" on him Lanham did some daring base running and scored on a passed ball.

The game was a pitchers' battle and many spectacular plays were pulled off by both teams. The work of Martin for the locals was simply great and Charlotte showed up strong in both the infield and outer sarden. Finn pitched his first game Spartanburg, S. C., July 24 .- It

Finn pitched his first game and did excellent work, holding the locals down to six hits.

The Spartans opened the run-get-ting by scoring in the fifth round. Jules Watson scored on a passed ball. The Hornets tied the score in the eighth inning. Sherrill got to first on McKenzie's error and went to second on a passed ball. Finn sacrificed and Sherrill scored on a bunt by Sned-den. It should have been 1 to 0 in favor of the lo cals, the winning run being the only feating Averett, whom Chester bought from the locals recently at a fancy figure.

To-morrow's will be the last game of the year here. The locals have three games scheduled with Sumter here and three in Sumter, but it has been decided to play all six in the shadow of the pennant, and as the locals can't win, they hope the rag will remain in Sumter for another year.
