ed books, (literary game); also, that he is prepared to fill orders for all the North Carolina histories and other books. Though this branch was established for North and South Carolina, Mr. Smith has shipped books to Boston and Canada. Besides selling many English books, he has many German, French, Italian, and Spanish works, and is prepared to furnish any foreign books on short notice. On the shelves are: "Century Diction-ary," "Standard Dictionary," "Interna-
