COTTON.

New York, July 29 .- The cotton market was very quiet to-day, sales being estimated at only 75,000 bales, fluctuations were narrow with the close steady, net 1 point higher to 3 points lower. The market opened steady at unchanged prices to an advance of 2 points, owing to rather better Liver-pool cables than expected, particularily as to the near months and during the early session the market sold about 4 to 5 points net higher on a scattering demand from shorts and net receipts 20,394; stock 7,397. some local buying which seemed to be actuated by expectations of bull support before the close. But this support was not forthcoming, the weather was excellent, the forecasts favorable, and, notwithstanding a private condition showing an improvement of only 1.2 per cent, for the month, when the trade has been talk- 7.796. ing a betterment of fully 3 per cent, the market eased off during the afternoon under selling from the South 838,626; continent 3,287,637; Japan 190,756; in small lots and liquidation by some Mexico 1,549. members of the New York cotton ex-change, with individual estimates ranging from 81.5 to 87 per cent/indicates an expectation that the government report at noon on Friday row but few local traders anticipate that either these reports or that of the govenment will exert much influence on prices. Receipts at the ports to-day 3.382 against 3.609 last week, and, 5.315 last year. For the week 25,000 against 23,160 last week and 10,245 last year. ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A BARGAIN?

Suppose you had $175, which you wished to invest safely for the benefit of your wife and daughter; and suppose some one offered you for that small sum an investment that would certainly yield a return of $5,000 within the year; wouldn't you snap it up?

Well, if you are not over 33 years of age, we can offer you a ninvestment that may yield that return within the year, and will certainly do so in 30 years (provided you agree that if the investment does not mature within the first year you will make a similar deposit annually thereafter)
