Mr. Girard Wittson, of New York, who has been ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Wittkowsky on North Graham street for a long time, is steadily improving. Mr. C. A. Pence, of Newmarket, Va., has been secured as the principal of the school at Centre church for the next term. He comes with fine recommendations as an instructor. The first of the county schools to begin work for the fall was Bain Academy, at Mint Hill, which opened yesterday. Prof. R. M. Grap is principal in charge. Mr. F. R. McNinch will enter the Presbyterian Hospital to-day to undergo an operation for appendicitis. While recuperating at Hiddenite he recently suffered a second attack and the physicians advised an operation. Bids have been submitted for the restaurant and billiard room which Gresham and Jamison are to erect in the rear of the Stonewall Hotel and facing the new Southern depot. The building will be of brick and will cost about $4,000. One Family Supplies Four Teachers. County Superintendent R. J. Cochran is close in touch with the educational work of the county—as he should be. In talking of teachers yesterday he mentioned the fact that one family, that of Mr. William Alexander, who lives near Huntersville, had furnished the county with four teachers, all of whom have done splendid work and given general satisfaction wherever they have taught. These are Messrs. S. I. and John Lee Alexander and Misses Jessie and Julia Alexander. The record is a notable one. Tat Jads German. White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Aug. 7.—Candidate Tatf to-day drove forty miles over the mountains of Virginia and West Virginia, lent himself as the chief feature of Greenbrier county's first horse show, and in the evening led the german at the famous old Greenbrier Hotel, where he will remain until Monday. Mr. Tatf made no speeches. Clinchfield is a fine Domestic Coal.

One of the Essentials of the happy homes of to-day is a vast fund of information as to the best methods of promoting health and happiness and right living and knowledge of the world's best products. Products of actual excellence and reasonable claims truthfully presented and which have attained to world-wide acceptance through the approval of the Well-Informed of the World; not of individuals only, but of the many who have the happy faculty of selecting and obtaining the best the world affords. One of the products of that class, of known component parts, an Ethical remedy, approved by physicians and commended by the Well-Informed of the World as a valuable and wholesome family laxative is the well-known Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. MRS. ELLEN C. SEXTON, Mother of Mr. J. L. Sexton, of This City, Who Passed Away Last Sunday, One of Milwaukee's Best-Known Women—A Frequent Visitor in Charlotte. The Observer last Monday morning contained a brief account of the death of Mrs. Ellen C. Sexton, mother of Mr. James L. Sexton, of this city, which occurred Sunday at a Battle Creek, Mich., sanatorium. The following from a Milwaukee paper will be read with interest by many Charlotte people, for Mrs. Sexton had often visited in this city and was highly esteemed here: "Mrs. Ellen C. Sexton, widow of James Lester Sexton, died Sunday at Battle Creek, Mich., where she had been taking sanatorium treatment for the past six weeks. She was 60 years of age. "Mrs. Sexton was a member of one of the oldest and best known families of early Milwaukee. Born in this city in 1847, she had lived here her days and had been since her girlhood an active factor in the social life of the city. Her father, Moses Kneeland, who died in the 70's, was a prominent business man and owned what was a large property for the early days. The boys of his family are long since dead. Of the three daughters, Frances, who became Mrs. J. G. Flint, Jr., was the most masterful. She was exceptionally clever and endowed with great financial ability. Her death by heart failure, which occurred a year or more ago, was brought on probably by close attendance upon her husband during his last sickness, in Mexico, where she was accompanied and assisted by Mrs. Sexton. "Like her sister, Mrs. Flint, Mrs. Sexton was educated, traveled and cultured. She was a member of the woman's club, the Athenaeum, the College Endowment Association and many other organizations devoted to patriotic, social or benevolent objects. Her gentle nature made her greatly beloved. No one ever heard her pass a harsh judgment. She was always ready to extend a helping hand and to find excuses for others. She was a loyal wife, an affectionate mother and a doting grandmother. "Mrs. Walter Chandler, her only surviving sister, has suffered several severe bereavements in recent years. One of her sons, Dr. Ralph Chandler, died suddenly after a surgical operation, about two years ago. Another son, Burr Kneeland Chandler, was fatally hurt in an automobile accident in Park Park. "Mrs. Sexton leaves three children and many grandchildren. In pleasant visits to whom she has spent much of her time during the last few years. Her daughters are Mrs. Henry Hulk, of Harvey, N. D., and Mrs. Stanton E. Taylor, of Winona, Minn. Her son, James Sexton, of Charlotte, N. C., is a man of efficient and superior nature. His mother was accustomed to spend the cold months under his roof, in happy accord with his wife, a daughter of the confederacy. This daughter-in-law ministered to Mrs. Sexton at Battle Creek during her last illness. "For ten years past Mrs. Sexton had made her home at the Plankinton House. Two years ago her health began to fail, and her decline had been steady since that time. The final summons came in the form of a paralytic stroke. "Mr. E. B. Alexander, of the Jerry McAuley Mission, New York, will speak at the First A. R. P. church to-morrow night 8:15 o'clock. Mrs. E. A. Cole will speak at the Young People's meeting at 7:15.

Don't let some one say behind your back, "Hasn't he got on a shabby looking suit." They won't tell you that, but we will. And the best thing you can do before you go any farther is to come and see us. You may need a new suit or an odd pair of Trousers might help you out. The best advice we can give you is to look up the word "hurry" in your pocket dictionary and make this store your destination

Above Everything Else in your purchase of Printing, Blank Books, and kindred supplies, should be considered the question of QUALITY. Quality does not mean ornate decoration or elaborate coloring, nor does it necessarily imply a "steep" price. Quality means taste, discrimination, harmony—in type, paper, and inks. Quality is just as important—the lack of it just as evident—in a notepad as in a catalog. We endeavor to give superior quality with every job we send out. It pays!—both you and us. If you want quality in Blank Books, Loose-Leaf Devices, Engraving, Lithographing, or Printing, send your next order to THE OBSERVER PRINTING HOUSE (Incorporated) (Where Quality is Supreme) CHARLOTTE, N. C.
