

COTTON MARKET.

New York, Aug. 10.—The cotton market was very weak and unsettied to-day with October contracts experiencing a sensa-tional decline under general liquidation and bear pressure. The close was easy at a net loss of 15 to 15 points. Sales were estimated at 250,000 bales. The market opened steady at an ad-vance of $ points on August which was influenced by a little covering in the absence of offerings but the general list was 2 to 4 points net lower owing to casy cables, good weather and favorable

It was the opening day of the week and the beginning of this period was marked by a volume of good crop reports from throughout the belt, which conformed with those of a New Orleans authority published this morning. The consequence was that the market started slowly on its downward course at the first call and continued to the very close which was quiet with the active months
