Mr. M. B. Nell, of Clover, S. C., was among the visitors in the city yesterday. The subject being "Christ and the Woman of Samaria at the Well." The figures are really larger than life size. It will indeed be a work of art when completed. The German artist who is executing the particular subject is second to none in this country. Just over the big organ in the rear of the pulpit is being treated a large arch of Grecian columns and capitals to also conform with the architectural features. All in all the interior will be completely changed in color scheme and treatment. The building committee of the church is to be congratulated for the manner in which it is doing everything; in fact, many surprises are in store for the members and friends.

And it is very gratifying to many that this old sacred edifice is retained in all the essentials in comfort, conveniences with new surroundings, it will be the same but newly transformed.

Mr. E. H. Jordan, of Newbern, was at the Selwyn Hotel yesterday.

Mr. W. H. Watson, of Columbia, S. C., was among those who spent yesterday in the city. He stopped at the Selwyn.

BRIEFS

A Few Minor Happenings in and About the City.

Mr. J. M. Williams, of King's Mountain, was at the Selwyn last night.

Tetty's tea and peanut sandwiches were served free to the many thrifty at the Little-Long store yesterday.

There are many Charlotte people at Atlantic City, said a returned Charlottean yesterday. "Everybody seemed to be having a good time. The season is in swing yet and the crowds are large."

The Salvation Army street meetings have taken on new life under the hand of Adjutant W. S. Quirk. The meeting last night was full of snap and ginger and an unusually large crowd was present.

The news of the fire at the Odell Mills aroused interest in Charlotte yesterday and bulletin boards were eagerly scanned. The enterprise threatened by the fire is closely identified with the industrial life of this section.

The Young People's Missionary Society of Tryon Street Methodist church will meet with the president, Mrs. E. A. Cole, Monday morning. All members and friends are invited. In case of rain the meeting will be postponed one week.

Mr. Louis Henderson is back from Hiddenite. While there Mr. Henderson and several other "Pern Mountain" geniuses composed a touching little song entitled "The Bear Went Over the Mountain." At the end of the fifth verse the bear was still "going over the mountain."

Thomas Caldwell, a young carpenter employed on a house in Heekin, fell from a scaffold Friday afternoon a distance of 10 or 12 feet and sustained a serious fracture of his skull. He is at the Presbyterian Hospital and his chances for recovery are regarded as good.

Mr. Webber Has Returned. Mr. John Webber has returned from Germany, where he spent two months. He gained twenty pounds in flesh and looks like a bloated bond holder. When asked by an Observer man if he had a good time he declared, joyfully, "Yes, mine got, dere is beer everywhere—on the streets, on the sidewalks—everywhere, I tell you, everywhere. Certainly 'man, I had one good time already yit."

To Be Married. Mr. John L. Wilkinson and Miss Louise Bradley are to be married this morning. They will drive to Pineville, where Rev. Mr. Bennett, pastor of the Pineville Methodist church, will perform the ceremony. Mr. Wilkinson works for J. W. Wadsworth's Sons.

About 300 Cases Docketed. The clerk of the court and his assistants have been busy the past week docketing the criminal cases that come up for disposition at the August session of Superior Court which opens to-morrow. There will be about 300 cases awaiting trial and some of them will require several days. In addition to the charge of murder against S. Q. Barnes, the alleged slayer of the late George Gifford, there are three negroes charged with a similar offense. There are other cases of more or less importance.

Will Be Fine Interior Tryon Street Methodist Church Being Renovated and Put in Superb Shape Within—Many Improvements.

The interior of Tryon Street Methodist church is now in the hands of the renovators and decorators. Many improvements are going on. Gas is being supplied by electric lights, the floors in all entries and vestibules, heating plant being overhauled; in fact, the church is undergoing thorough repairs and beautification. The interior walls are being frescoed in the newest up-to-date approved manner. The artists who have the contract for the decorations are the Reuben Rink Company, of Winston-Salem, and it is safe to say this will be one of the most beautiful churches in the State when everything is entirely completed. The walls of the interior will be rose in the architectural features. Mosaic and Gothic character to conform with the structural features. Just opposite the pulpit on the south wall is being painted a large mural painting, the subject being "Christ and the Woman of Samaria at the Well." The figures are really larger than life size. It will indeed be a work of art when completed. The German artist who is executing the particular subject is second to none in this country. Just over the big organ in the rear of the pulpit is being treated a large arch of Grecian columns and capitals to also conform with the architectural features. All in all the interior will be completely changed in color scheme and treatment. The building committee of the church is to be congratulated for the manner in which it is doing everything; in fact, many surprises are in store for the members and friends.

Above Everything Else in your purchase of Printing, Blank Books, and kindred supplies, should be considered the question of QUALITY. Quality does not mean ornate decoration or elaborate coloring, nor does it necessarily imply a "steep" price. Quality means taste, discrimination, harmony—in type, paper, and inks. Quality is just as important—the lack of it just as evident—in a notebook as in a catalog. We endeavor to give superior quality with every job we send out. It pays!—both you and us. If you want quality in Blank Books, Loose-Leaf Devices, Engraving, Lithographing, or Printing, send your next order to THE OBSERVER PRINTING HOUSE (Where Quality is Supreme) CHARLOTTE, N. C.
