To the woman away from home, a cake of Ivory Soap is a veritable boon.

With it, she can wash gloves, handkerchiefs, belts, underwaists, and the pretty shirt-waists in which most women look their best.

More than that; she is independent of laundress and cleaner to the benefit of her pocket-book and the longer life of the things she wears.

Ivory Soap 99 1/100 Per Cent. Pure.

BRIEFS

A Few Minor Happenings in and About the City.

"The Sheath Gown" is the name of a picture on exhibition at the Air Dome.

This is the day for the Sunday school picnic at Steele Creek Presbyterian church.

Regardless of the showers that come every afternoon the weather continues very warm.

The post-card window at Stone & Barringer's, showing views of Western North Carolina, is very attractive.

Mr. C. E. Mason, who is now living in the Baird house on South Tryon, has bought the Wood place on East Seventh street and will move into his new home about October 1st.

The Southern's excursion to Norfolk, which left the city at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, was well patronized by Charlotteans and night will be spent in Norfolk and two days.

The Charlotte University School, under the experienced charge of Mr. W. H. Glasgow, will open regularly September 1st. The rooms over the Southern Express Company's office on the corner of South Tryon and Fourth will be used.

Messrs. Robert and Lon Harris, of Fort Mill, S. C., were in town yesterday and brought with them three fresh water carp, weighing seven pounds and a half apiece. They sent these to Dr. W. O. Nisbet and Mr. Frank Skinner, who appreciated them highly.

Rev. Harry Wilson, a blind preacher from Madison, Wis., will lecture to-night in the North Charlotte Baptist church on "The Methods of Educating the Blind." All are invited to the lecture, which is free. He will preach for Rev. S. F. Conrad at the Sunday morning service.

RED MEN TO EXERCISE

Three Tribes Will Have Field Day at Electric Park Next Tuesday—Basket Picnic One of the Features of the Day's Amusement.

Field day exercises will be held at the Electric Park on Tuesday, the 25th, by the three tribes of Red Men who inhabit this community. These are Catawba No. 13, Pochonias and Tuckasegee. They number some three hundred and fifty members. There will be races, jumping contests and other events peculiar to such an occasion. A basket picnic will furnish the wherewithal for the noon meal. The public will not be excluded. Some of the contests will be open to them and others will be for the Red Men exclusively. Mr. F. L. Bunn, sachem of Catawba tribe, is chairman of the committee on arrangements, and has the general charge of the matter.

Father Pleads For Recreant Daughter

In tones that trembled with feeling, suppressed, the father of Miss Uiley, one of the girls about town who seems to be incorrigible, stood in the recorder's court yesterday and pleaded that his daughter be not locked up again with hardened criminals. "If she is," he said, "there will be no hope for my daughter in the world." The girl was turned over to her father, with the understanding that if she is guilty of any unseemly conduct or is found on the streets after 9 o'clock at night, she will be sent to jail for 30 days.

Milas and His Needles. Milas McLean, one of The Observer's colored employes, is a very cautious man and having heard in his youth that steel would attract lightning, he takes no chances. Monday evening, when Thor and his aerial allies were thundering and lightning, Milas became frightened. In his pocket he had a paper of sewing needles that he was taking to his wife. The storm caught him at the postoffice and he took out his needles and hid them in a crack where he could get them later. In another pocket Milas carried a penknife and a bunch of keys, these he kept on his person.
