

THE SPORTING WORLD

BASEBALL YESTERDAY

American League. Washington 4; Detroit 6. Boston 5; Chicago 7. New York 3; St. Louis postponed on account wet grounds. Philadelphia 1; Cleveland 4. National League. Chicago 1; Boston 2. Pittsburgh 1; Brooklyn 4 (7 innings). Cincinnati 1; New York 5. St. Louis 5; Philadelphia 4. Southern League. Savannah 5; Augusta 2. Jacksonville 1; Columbia 4. Charleston 3; Macon 1. Southern League. Montgomery 3; Atlanta 1. Second game. Montgomery 5; Atlanta 9 (called and 14th inning allow Montgomery catch train). Nashville 5; Birmingham 1. Second game. Birmingham 6; Nashville 9. Mobile 5; Memphis 6. Second game. Memphis 3; Mobile 2. No others scheduled.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS

Table with columns for National League, American League, and Southern League, listing teams and their records.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Table with columns for American League teams and their records.

SOUTHERN LEAGUE

Table with columns for Southern League teams and their records.

SOUTH ATLANTIC LEAGUE

Table with columns for South Atlantic League teams and their records.

VIRGINIA LEAGUE

Table with columns for Virginia League teams and their records.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Philadelphia, Aug. 22.—Cleveland won easily here today by lurching hits on Vickers and Dygert. Score: R. H. E. Cleveland 10; Philadelphia 1. Batteries: Cleveland, N. Clarke; Vickers, Dygert and Schreck. Time 1:50. Umpire, Sheridan and Evans.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Detroit batted Hughes out of the box in seven innings today and defeated Washington 5 to 4. Summers was effective, but wild, the locals punching two hits with a base on balls and a wild pitch in the second inning, scoring three of their four runs. Score: R. H. E. Washington 5; Detroit 4. Batteries: Hughes, Cates, Johnson and Street and Kahoe; Summers and Schmidt. Time 1:35. Umpire, Egan.

Boston, Aug. 22.—Hard hitting by the visitors and poor base running by the locals gave Chicago to-day's game 7 to 6. Young, Burchell and Smith were batted out of the box. Score: R. H. E. Chicago 7; Boston 6. Batteries: Smith, Walsh and Sullivan; Young, Burchell, Clotte and Criger and Carrigan. Time 3:04. Umpires, O'Loughlin and Hurst.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Chicago, Aug. 22.—The locals lost to Boston to-day in the fifteenth inning. Bates led off with his first hit. A sacrifice and two more singles followed, scoring two runs. The locals could do but very little off Tuckey with men on bases. Score: R. H. E. Boston 10; Chicago 9. Batteries: Brown and Kling; Tuckey and Graham. Time 2:40. Umpires, Rigler and Rudderham.

St. Louis, Aug. 22.—After errors had allowed the visitors to pile up four scores, St. Louis rallied in the ninth and won its third straight game from Philadelphia to-day, 5 to 4. Bebee was effective in the pinches, while Sparks was hit hard. Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 4; St. Louis 5. Batteries: Bebee and Ludwig; Sparks and Doolin. Time 1:55. Umpire, Emmie.

ON THE RACE TRACK

Pinkola Again Takes Big Stakes. Empire City, N. Y., Aug. 22.—Pinkola, and added to his record by J. Butler, won the $10,000 Empire City handicap, 1 1/2 miles at Empire City to-day, defeating a fine field of handicap horses. Frank Gill was second with King James third. The race was run over a muddy track and the time, 1:54 4/5, was very good. Summary: First race, setting, 6 furlongs; Ragman, 1 1/2 to 1; won; Arondack, even, place, second; Dander, 2 to 1, show, third. Time 1:25 1/5. Second race, handicap, mile; Magazina, 7 to 1; won; Tony Boner, 1 to 3, place, second; Firestone, out, show, third. Time 1:43 1/5. Fourth race, Empire City handicap, guaranteed, value $10,000, mile and an eighth; Pinkola, 5 to 1; won; Frank Gill, even, place, second; King James, even, show, third. Time 1:54 4/5. Fifth race, 5/12 furlongs; Wise Mason, 3 to 1; won; Personal, 7 to 1, place, second; W. W. Hayward, 8 to 1, show, third. Time 1:38 1/5. Sixth race, setting, mile and a sixteenth; Lord Stanhope, 7 to 1; won; Lad of Langdon, even, place, second; Lally, out, show, third. Time 1:52.

WHY JAMES LEE GOT WELL

Everybody in Zanesville, O., knows Mrs. Mary Lee, rural route 1. She writes: "My husband, James Lee, slowly believes he owes his life to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery. His lungs were so severely affected that consumption seemed inevitable, when a friend recommended New Discovery. We tried it, and its use has restored him to perfect health. Dr. King's New Discovery is the King's throat and lung remedy. For coughs and colds it has no equal. The first dose gives relief. Try it. Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

STINGS

Lindsay is proving that he never did have any business in this Carolina Association. Bob Carter heads the batting order for the Memphis team and is getting his hits with usual regularity. The talk of local fandom is now about the big leagues, and one by one the echoes of the Carolina League games are dying away.

SOUTHERN LEAGUE

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 22.—R. H. E. Score: Atlanta 10; Montgomery 7. Batteries: Vlahm and McMurray; Guse and Shannon. Time 1:30. Umpire, Pfenniger. Second game: Atlanta 10; Montgomery 7. Batteries: Rodabaugh and Smith; Live and Fisher. Time 1:30. Umpire, Pfenniger. (Called in eighth to allow Montgomery to catch train).

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 22.—New Orleans-Little Rock scheduled for to-day was played earlier in the season by agreement.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 22.—R. H. E. Score: Birmingham 10; Nashville 7. Batteries: Robertalle and Raub; Hunter, Perdue and Hardy. Time 1:30. Umpire, Umpires, Brown and Carpenter. Second game: Birmingham 10; Nashville 7. Batteries: Robertalle and Raub; Hunter, Perdue and Hardy. Time 1:30. Umpire, Umpires, Brown and Carpenter.

Mobile, Ala., Aug. 22.—R. H. E. Score: Memphis 9; Mobile 6. Batteries: Savidge and Owen; Fisher and Manning. Umpires, Wheeler and Moran. Second game: Memphis 9; Mobile 6. Batteries: Savidge and Owen; Fisher and Manning. Umpires, Wheeler and Moran.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 22.—The South Atlantic League closed here today, the locals losing to Columbia by the score of 5 to 1, mostly through loose fielding. Jacksonville wins the 1908 championship by a good margin over Savannah, their nearest opponent.

SOUTH ATLANTIC

Jays Drops Last Game of Season

Jacksonville, Fla., Aug. 22.—The South Atlantic League closed here today, the locals losing to Columbia by the score of 5 to 1, mostly through loose fielding. Jacksonville wins the 1908 championship by a good margin over Savannah, their nearest opponent.

Savannah Wins From Augusta

Savannah, Ga., Aug. 22.—The final game of the season went to the home team by the score of 5 to 3. The game was played on wet grounds and was a rather poor exhibition.

Charleston 3; Macon 1

Charleston, S. C., Aug. 22.—Charleston closed the season to-day by winning from Macon. Both pitchers were effective until the eighth inning, when Millirons weakened and gave up four hits, netting two runs, which decided the game.

Manager Fite is Anxious to Carry Away a Majority of Games to Be Played Here This Week

In order to add to the possibility of capturing a majority of the baseball games to be played here this week with the Gaffney and Wadesboro teams, Manager Fite, of the local independent aggregation, has signed Temple, the heavy pitcher of the South Carolina League last season. Manager Fite declares that with such an addition to his twirling staff, he is in good shape to go up against the heavy visiting teams, both of which have been making enviable records for some weeks.

Game at Statesville Prevented by Rain

Statesville, Aug. 22.—Rain again prevented the baseball game here to-day between Hickory and Statesville, as yesterday.

WHY JAMES LEE GOT WELL

Everybody in Zanesville, O., knows Mrs. Mary Lee, rural route 1. She writes: "My husband, James Lee, slowly believes he owes his life to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery. His lungs were so severely affected that consumption seemed inevitable, when a friend recommended New Discovery. We tried it, and its use has restored him to perfect health. Dr. King's New Discovery is the King's throat and lung remedy. For coughs and colds it has no equal. The first dose gives relief. Try it. Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

WILLIAM FIRTH, PRES.

Spinners will make good. All big league scouts who saw Jackson work predict that he will have no trouble in sticking. He is not as fast on his feet as he could be, but with a little training he will have good things of him. Barre may make good and then again he may be farmed to some organization in a Class B circuit. The Davidson athlete is not the hitter that Jackson is, but he plays a good fielding game and in the course of time is sure to stick in the majors if he does not this season. Both players have the best wishes of a mighty host of local fans. Greenville News.

Col. R. O. Colt Very Critically Ill

The condition of Col. R. O. Colt, who has been so critically ill at his home on South Tryon street for the past several days, was reported at 11 o'clock this morning to be unchanged. At one time it was reported that he was in extremis but he rallied. He was said to be holding his own at an early hour this morning.

FORSYTH CONVENTION LIVELY

Three Ballots Necessary to Settle Contest For Commissionerships—W. T. Brown, a Business Man, Named For Senate—Address by Mr. A. I. Brooks. Special to The Observer.

Winston-Salem, Aug. 22.—In an enthusiastic convention here this afternoon the Forsyth county Democrats nominated their candidates for county and legislative offices. Afterwards the convention was addressed by Mr. A. I. Brooks, candidate for Congress, and he made a fine impression.

There were thirteen candidates for the three county commissionerships and it took three ballots to settle the contest. M. D. Bailey, Sr., was re-elected on the first ballot almost unanimously. His confederates finally selected were John H. Cline and D. C. Moir.

The nomination of W. T. Brown, for the senatorship was an interesting event. Mr. Brown is a business man, president of the Union Guaranty Company, and largely interested in many other commercial enterprises. He is regarded as one of the most astute business men in the State and his industry will be felt at Raleigh. His opponent, F. T. Baldwin, got 37 votes to Brown's 58. Sheriff J. E. Ziegler, Register of Deeds R. E. Trask and Treasurer George L. Beck were nominated by acclamation. Representatives W. T. Carter and R. M. Cox were renominated. R. S. Galloway was chairman of the meeting.

Mr. Brooks in his address referred to this as his first opportunity to meet the voters of Forsyth. He was very cordial in his manner. He recited impressively Jefferson's epitome of the fundamentals of Democracy. He said he would make a wide campaign.

McDOWELL CONVENTION HELD

A Ticket That Will Make the County Fully Democratic Put Out—Eloquent Speech Made by Mr. Locke Craig. Special to The Observer.

Marion, Aug. 22.—The McDowell county Democratic convention was held here to-day for the nomination of county officers. It was the most harmonious convention held in this county for a decade. The result of the work of the convention will undoubtedly prove beneficial to the Democratic party and assure the complete return to the Democratic column of the county which has for several years been partly Republican. The election of the ticket nominated to-day is assured beyond a doubt.

The following ticket was nominated: For the House, B. B. Price; for sheriff, George C. Conley; for register of deeds, R. L. C. Gibson; for treasurer, F. E. Lytle; for coroner, Dr. D. M. McIntosh; for surveyor, L. A. Hanes; for commissioners, H. A. Tate, W. E. Brown and W. A. McLaughlin. A. H. Johnston was elected chairman of the executive committee and Hon. Lee S. Overman was endorsed for the Senate.

Before the convention was called to order Mr. Locke Craig made one of

FRANK B. COMINS, Vice Pres. and Treas.

AMERICAN MOISTENING COMPANY 79 Milk Street, Boston, Mass. J. S. COCHRAN, Southern Representative, 405 Trust Bldg., CHARLOTTE, N. C.

STOP UR KIKEN

About leaky roofs and use Rex Flintkote Roofing. For sale only by CHARLOTTE SUPPLY CO. We carry everything in Mill Furnishings.

Wadesboro Wins Double-Header From Salisbury

Salisbury, Aug. 22.—In both games of a double-header here this afternoon Wadesboro defeated Salisbury's crack team by the decisive scores of 15 to 1 and 6 to 0. In the first game Jordan, an old leaguer, was batted unmercifully. He was relieved by C. Doak in the fifth. Hauser for Wadesboro was in fine form, yielding but six hits.

RALLY AT BESSEMER CITY

Bessemer City, Aug. 22.—A rousing political rally and big barbecue were held here to-day with a large attendance of farmers and others, the crowd being estimated at three thousand people. Congressman E. Y. Webb, of Shelby, arrived at 11:30 and a long procession of carriages, headed by the Bessemer City Band, drove to the park about a half mile from the depot, where the speaking was held. Mr. Webb spoke from 12:30 till 2 and was given splendid attention by the crowd.

Congressman Webb Given Enthusiastic Reception and Delivers Address to a Large Crowd—Mr. J. M. Meekins, of Elizabeth City, Also Speaks—Barbecue Dinner Served. Special to The Observer.

At 2 p. m. the big barbecue dinner was served, and it was greatly enjoyed by all.

Mr. J. M. Meekins, a well-known Republican of Elizabeth City, was present and at 2 o'clock spoke. He made a very good speech and held the attention of his hearers. He spiced his remarks with a number of humorous anecdotes which carried well with the crowd.

Calhoun Primaries Held Yesterday

Special to The Observer. Concord, Aug. 22.—Democratic primaries were held throughout the county to-day. Returns do not indicate any nominations except for register of deeds, treasurer and surveyor. Earl B. Means and James F. Hurley get a pretty well-divided vote for the Senate, with Means in the lead. T. A. Moser also received a good vote in the county for the Senate. J. P. Allison led the ticket for the House of Representatives. The county convention will be held next Saturday.

Wilmington Turns Tables on Wilson

Special to The Observer. Wilmington, Aug. 22.—Wilmington turned the tables on Wilson this afternoon, winning the second of the series of games for the championship by the score of 3 to 1. The game was won in the first inning, when the Sailors got two men across the home plate. The last game on the local diamond will be played Monday afternoon.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Wilmington 3; Wilson 1. Batteries: Wilson, Ross; Ogilvie and Walsh. Two-base hit, Turner. Double plays, Rath to Hoey; Rath to Sharpe to Hoey. Bases on errors, Wilmington 6; Wilson 4. Left on bases, Wilmington 6; Wilson 5. Sacrifice hits, Wilmington 1. Struck out, by Ogilvie 3. Bases on balls, Off Leary 1; off Ogilvie 3. Stolen bases, Wilmington 1. Umpire, McLaughlin and Westervelt. Time, 1:40. Attendance, 3,000.

QUICK RESULTS

FOLLOW GOOD ADVERTISING. WRIGLEY ENGRAVING CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Get the Most Money Out of Your Lands

by making them yield the biggest possible crops. Grain must get the nourishment that makes it grow out of the soil—and the more plant food there is in the soil, the quicker and bigger and more plentifully the grain will grow. But you must first put the food into the soil by liberally using Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers.

Then a big bumper crop is assured, because these fertilizers contain the necessary elements required by the soil to properly and fully mature the grain. Farmers invariably find that the more Virginia-Carolina Fertilizer they use, the bigger is the crop, and the greater their profit.

Have you gotten the latest Virginia-Carolina Year Book or Almanac, the most useful and valuable book any farmer or grower can read? Get a copy from your fertilizer dealer, or write to our nearest sales office and one will be sent you free.

Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers

Virginia-Carolina Chemical Co. Richmond, Va. Norfolk, Va. Charlotte, N. C. Atlanta, Ga. Memphis, Tenn. Shreveport, La.

AMUSEMENTS

Under Southern Skies

assured than a score of playwrights rushed to the front with plays of New England rural life. Many of them were received with favor—one notable instance was a revival of a New England play which had been produced with a fine cast and had met with failure before the production of "Way Down East." Afterwards this same play was revived and with success. It would seem almost as if "Way Down East" re-created public interest in New England rural drama. The same thing seems to be repeating itself in regard to "Under Southern Skies." For some years the South had been almost abandoned as a field for drama, when Mrs. Parker launched "Under Southern Skies," a play of Southern life so original in treatment and so intensely interesting that it was at once accepted by the press

Under Southern Skies

and public of New York City and has been pronounced the most diverting and unhackneyed play of Southern life ever written. The play has now entered upon its seventh successful season and promises to live as long and as prosperously as "Way Down East." As in the case of the latter play, "Under Southern Skies" has caused a revival of Southern plays, now a large number of plays dealing with Southern subjects having been produced within the past year and announcements are made of others still to follow. None, however, up to the present writing approach in charm or popularity their forerunner, "Under Southern Skies." This wonderfully successful play will be seen here as the "opening" attraction at the Academy of Music, Wednesday, matinee and night.

AMUSEMENTS

Under Southern Skies

assured than a score of playwrights rushed to the front with plays of New England rural life. Many of them were received with favor—one notable instance was a revival of a New England play which had been produced with a fine cast and had met with failure before the production of "Way Down East." Afterwards this same play was revived and with success. It would seem almost as if "Way Down East" re-created public interest in New England rural drama. The same thing seems to be repeating itself in regard to "Under Southern Skies." For some years the South had been almost abandoned as a field for drama, when Mrs. Parker launched "Under Southern Skies," a play of Southern life so original in treatment and so intensely interesting that it was at once accepted by the press

Under Southern Skies

and public of New York City and has been pronounced the most diverting and unhackneyed play of Southern life ever written. The play has now entered upon its seventh successful season and promises to live as long and as prosperously as "Way Down East." As in the case of the latter play, "Under Southern Skies" has caused a revival of Southern plays, now a large number of plays dealing with Southern subjects having been produced within the past year and announcements are made of others still to follow. None, however, up to the present writing approach in charm or popularity their forerunner, "Under Southern Skies." This wonderfully successful play will be seen here as the "opening" attraction at the Academy of Music, Wednesday, matinee and night.

Under Southern Skies

assured than a score of playwrights rushed to the front with plays of New England rural life. Many of them were received with favor—one notable instance was a revival of a New England play which had been produced with a fine cast and had met with failure before the production of "Way Down East." Afterwards this same play was revived and with success. It would seem almost as if "Way Down East" re-created public interest in New England rural drama. The same thing seems to be repeating itself in regard to "Under Southern Skies." For some years the South had been almost abandoned as a field for drama, when Mrs. Parker launched "Under Southern Skies," a play of Southern life so original in treatment and so intensely interesting that it was at once accepted by the press

Under Southern Skies

assured than a score of playwrights rushed to the front with plays of New England rural life. Many of them were received with favor—one notable instance was a revival of a New England play which had been produced with a fine cast and had met with failure before the production of "Way Down East." Afterwards this same play was revived and with success. It would seem almost as if "Way Down East" re-created public interest in New England rural drama. The same thing seems to be repeating itself in regard to "Under Southern Skies." For some years the South had been almost abandoned as a field for drama, when Mrs. Parker launched "Under Southern Skies," a play of Southern life so original in treatment and so intensely interesting that it was at once accepted by the press

Under Southern Skies

assured than a score of playwrights rushed to the front with plays of New England rural life. Many of them were received with favor—one notable instance was a revival of a New England play which had been produced with a fine cast and had met with failure before the production of "Way Down East." Afterwards this same play was revived and with success. It would seem almost as if "Way Down East" re-created public interest in New England rural drama. The same thing seems to be repeating itself in regard to "Under Southern Skies." For some years the South had been almost abandoned as a field for drama, when Mrs. Parker launched "Under Southern Skies," a play of Southern life so original in treatment and so intensely interesting that it was at once accepted by the press

Under Southern Skies

assured than a score of playwrights rushed to the front with plays of New England rural life. Many of them were received with favor—one notable instance was a revival of a New England play which had been produced with a fine cast and had met with failure before the production of "Way Down East." Afterwards this same play was revived and with success. It would seem almost as if "Way Down East" re-created public interest in New England rural drama. The same thing seems to be repeating itself in regard to "Under Southern Skies." For some years the South had been almost abandoned as a field for drama, when Mrs. Parker launched "Under Southern Skies," a play of Southern life so original in treatment and so intensely interesting that it was at once accepted by the press

Under Southern Skies

assured than a score of playwrights rushed to the front with plays of New England rural life. Many of them were received with favor—one notable instance was a revival of a New England play which had been produced with a fine cast and had met with failure before the production of "Way Down East." Afterwards this same play was revived and with success. It would seem almost as if "Way Down East" re-created public interest in New England rural drama. The same thing seems to be repeating itself in regard to "Under Southern Skies." For some years the South had been almost abandoned as a field for drama, when Mrs. Parker launched "Under Southern Skies," a play of Southern life so original in treatment and so intensely interesting that it was at once accepted by the press

Under Southern Skies

assured than a score of playwrights rushed to the front with plays of New England rural life. Many of them were received with favor—one notable instance was a revival of a New England play which had been produced with a fine cast and had met with failure before the production of "Way Down East." Afterwards this same play was revived and with success. It would seem almost as if "Way Down East" re-created public interest in New England rural drama. The same thing seems to be repeating itself in regard to "Under Southern Skies." For some years the South had been almost abandoned as a field for drama, when Mrs. Parker launched "Under Southern Skies," a play of Southern life so original in treatment and so intensely interesting that it was at once accepted by the press

Under Southern Skies

assured than a score of playwrights rushed to the front with plays of New England rural life. Many of them were received with favor—one notable instance was a revival of a New England play which had been produced with a fine cast and had met with failure before the production of "Way Down East." Afterwards this same play was revived and with success. It would seem almost as if "Way Down East" re-created public interest in New England rural drama. The same thing seems to be repeating itself in regard to "Under Southern Skies." For some years the South had been almost abandoned as a field for drama, when Mrs. Parker launched "Under Southern Skies," a play of Southern life so original in treatment and so intensely interesting that it was at once accepted by the press

Under Southern Skies

assured than a score of playwrights rushed to the front with plays of New England rural life. Many of them were received with favor—one notable instance was a revival of a New England play which had been produced with a fine cast and had met with failure before the production of "Way Down East." Afterwards this same play was revived and with success. It would seem almost as if "Way Down East" re-created public interest in New England rural drama. The same thing seems to be repeating itself in regard to "Under Southern Skies." For some years the South had been almost abandoned as a field for drama, when Mrs. Parker launched "Under Southern Skies," a play of Southern life so original in treatment and so intensely interesting that it was at once accepted by the press