MARRIAGES

Miller-Johnson in Iredell. Special to the Observer. Statesville, Aug. 25.—Mr. Alvin R. Miller and Miss Zola I. Johnson, both of whom live in the upper edge of Shiloh township, were married yesterday afternoon at New Striving parsonage, Rev. J. Meek White officiating. Mr. Miller operates the new livery stable recently opened at Stony Point.

Fitzgerald-Bagley, at Salisbury. Special to the Observer. Salisbury, Aug. 28.—This afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of Rev. Dr. W. B. Butters, of the Reformed church, Mr. Alonzo E. Fitzgerald, of Pine Level, and Miss Lillie Bagley, of Bagley, were united in marriage, Rev. Shuford Peeler, pastor of the Reformed church of Greensboro, officiating. They left this afternoon for Greensboro. The marriage was a surprise affair. Mr. Fitzgerald is a mail clerk on the main-line of this southern.

Poore-Moore at Statesville. Special to the Observer. Statesville, Aug. 28.—A quiet marriage, which was somewhat a surprise to many of the friends of the contracting party, occurred Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Ethel Moore became the bride of Mr. H. C. Poore. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. F. Mitchner in the parlor of the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moore, on the Boulevard, in the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends. The couple will make their home with the bride's parents temporarily. Mr. Poore, who is a son of Mr. S. T. Poore, of Mount Airy, has made his home in Statesville about two years and has made quite a number of friends here. He is an expert spindle-carver and is employed by the Kingsid Furniture Company. His bride is a worthy young woman.

ROOSEVELT VERY ALERT

WILL RETURN TO WHITE HOUSE. Oyster Bay is Too Far Away in a Corner For the Strenuous President and on Washington, 29th. He will return to Washington so that He Can Command Attention—This Campaign Managers Have Not Forgotten the Long Island Home Enough to Suit Him—At the White House He Can "Summon" Them. The Programme is to Reorganize Today for the Rest in the East and Push His Name Forward in the Western States.

BY ZACH M'GHEE.

Observer Bureau. 12 Post Building, Washington, Aug. 27. Chafing under the inattention by the G. O. P. campaign managers and in order to block the carrying out of the programme to reorganize the big boss now at Oyster Bay to the rear, the said big boss is preparing to hurry back to his home in the East and get one more into the limelight. Oyster Bay is too far away in a corner, and it is not, moreover, the place of vantage as is the official abode of the Chief Executive. It has been the custom for President Roosevelt to remain at his summer home in the East in October, ordinarily, and even when four years ago he was the presidential candidate himself he did not return till after the first of October. This year, when there are no official duties to call him back, he has given orders to have everything ready at the White House for his return to Washington September 29th. What does this mean?

FEW VISITORS AT OYSTER BAY.

Once since the Chicago convention Mr. Taft, the Republican candidate, has been to Oyster Bay. That was to carry his speech of acceptance to the President's approval as to let the people all through the country understand that Taft was Roosevelt's man and that the issue in the campaign would be the sustaining of some wholly imaginary, but much bespoken, course of action in the campaign for the "Roosevelt policies." But you will observe that the Republican national chairman, Mr. Hitchcock, has not been using Oyster Bay so that you could notice it. He did go up there a short while ago, the only time he has been there; but that was only for the purpose of deciding on a candidate for Governor of New York. Mr. Hitchcock is not disposed to take his orders from anywhere, except possibly from those Wall Street fellows who are expected to put up the money for his campaign. But he does occasionally consult the candidate at Hot Springs. Both he and the other managers have not Oyster Bay in the itinerary. It is not in the nature of the friend of man to relish this, you know. Washington would be a better stand for him. The campaign managers come here now and then, anyway. But being in the White House he can "summon" them, as he has been wont to do. Not even he feels he can do that without the risk of a refusal so long as he remains up yonder in his out-of-the-way place on Long Island.

TO THE REAR IN THE EAST, TO THE FRONT IN THE WEST.

There can be little doubt that the present programme of the G. O. P. campaign is to reorganize Mr. Roosevelt to the rear as much as possible in the East, while, of course, holding him up before the public gaze on all occasions in the West. These managers, one would think, would have some difficulty in doing this, but they are going to do it anyway. They themselves know it is hard, but they also know that they are up against a hard proposition. It is roundly believed hereabouts that the ones who have been passing the plate around to the trust magnates, the Wall Street manipulators and the "malefactors of great wealth," generally have been given to understand that they are right; they are willing to Taft, but they just will not stand for Roosevelt any longer. They bought him in 1904, and while so far as their personal safety from prison is concerned, and so far as also concerns such "malefactors" as the steel trust, and other concerns and individuals who rob the people mainly through the Dingley tariff inquiry, he would not keep his mouth shut as to some other things.

"This man T. R. must be kept in the background," they say, "or we will not couch up for the campaign expenses." And so T. R. must be kept in the background in the East. In the West they need him, and that badly. All right, say the "malefactors," use him in the West—that is, use his name, if you must; fool the people all you can; for take them, all in all, they are an imbecile lot of fools; but remember you can't fool us. Roosevelt hasn't been doing anything to us, but he has been doing a deal of talking and we have enough of him. That we want Taft to understand full well. So keep Roosevelt out of it.

Depot and Car Thieves at Last Discovered.

Correspondence of the Observer. Kingston, Aug. 27.—For some time the Atlantic Coast Line has been troubled with petty thieving in and around its depot and out of seated cars. Detective McBrayde, of Norfolk, and Policeman Howard, of Kingston, got a clue yesterday and found that Fleet, colored, had been breaking in and doing the taking and Eless Watts, a colored groceryman, was retailing the stolen property. Quite a lot of cheese, sausage, etc., was found in Watts' store last night. Allen has not been found. Watts was tried this afternoon before the mayor and bound over to court. In default of bond he is in jail. The police are looking for John Henry.

Fifteen Years in the Pen For Burglary.

Special to the Observer. Fayetteville, Aug. 25.—Solomon Khoury, the Syrian youth who was convicted of burglary in the second degree yesterday in Superior Court here, was to-day sentenced to fifteen years in the penitentiary.

Thieves Get 300 Pennies From Poore.

Special to the Observer. Winston-Salem, Aug. 28.—Three hundred pennies were the fruits of the burglary of the store of Mr. H. P. Jones, of Walkerton, near here, last night. A horse was also stolen from Mr. David Jones. The thief rode it into the Twin City, apparently, and left it standing in a warehouse.

THE DEATH RECORD.

High Point Woman Drops Dead. Correspondence of the Observer. High Point, Aug. 27.—Mrs. Ruth Hampton, aged 47 years, dropped dead here to-day of heart disease. She complained of a headache before her death. She was found in the kitchen by her daughter.

Miss Alice Guthrie Formerly of Ruthertfordton. Correspondence of the Observer. Ruthertfordton, Aug. 27.—A telegram from Fort Worth, Tex., states that Miss Alice Guthrie formerly of this place, had died after an operation for appendicitis. Miss Guthrie was a sister of Mrs. R. B. Clark of this place, and a niece of Mrs. Alice Stinson and Mrs. R. L. Durham, of Charlotte, and has a host of friends here and elsewhere who will be shocked at her untimely demise. She was a most lovable young woman.

Death of an Infant. Special to the Observer. Salisbury, Aug. 28.—Mr. R. M. Ferguson, a foreman for the Atlantic Bitulithic Company, was called to Asheville in the afternoon of his infant's death which occurred there Wednesday. Mrs. Ferguson had taken the little one to Asheville hoping the change would do it good.

Death of an Infant. Special to the Observer. Statesville, Aug. 28.—A sad death occurred yesterday when little Myrtle Byers, the 16-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Byers, who live near Eufoia, passed into the great beyond as the result of burns received some days ago. On Wednesday, the 19th inst., the little girl was playing about the wash-pot in the yard and innocently stepped into a bed of hot coals around the pot. Her limbs were severely burned and she suffered much pain from the time of the accident until yesterday morning, when death relieved her of the suffering.

Rev. D. S. Lentz, of Altoona, Pa.

Special to the Observer. Statesville, Aug. 28.—Mr. J. C. Lentz has been advised of the death of his brother, Rev. David S. Lentz, which occurred Sunday at his home in Altoona, Pa. Rev. Mr. Lentz was a native of this country and was 62 years old. He was a Confederate veteran and during the war received injuries at the battle of Fredericksburg, from which he has suffered considerably. He was recently graduated from Gettysburg Pa., and entered the ministry of the Lutheran Church soon after the war, and had since made his home in the State of Pennsylvania. He had frequently visited his old home in this country, the last time being about five years ago. He is survived by his wife and three daughters. His death leaves Mr. J. C. Lentz the only surviving son of the late Henry Lentz.

BENEFITS OF STRETCHING.

Declared to Be a Splendid Exercise For All Men. New York Press.

Stretching is good exercise. When a man cannot walk up in the middle of the night or in the morning and take a good stretch he ought to kick himself into some sort of comprehensibility. A vigorous stretch in bed or out of it is calculated to excite all the nerves, motor veins and arteries of the entire system, thereby stimulating the heart action and enlivening the dormant brain. You may not know that the brain sleeps. It requires a stirring up. All the cords and tendons in the neck, the arms and the legs need awakening also. All the vitals need to be aroused. Stretching is a first rate rouser. Stretch—stretch—stretch!

I do not believe in strenuous exercise. It overstrains the ligaments. Besides, it is not needed by active men. Athletes are short-lived. They are so crazy to outdo each other in all sorts of foolish performances that their systems break down. Most of them drift into consumption. Look up the records! While Dr. Joseph Noyes King advocates the use of the horizontal bar, he is not too radical. His system is fitted with nicked bars at every door capable of sustaining a weight of 300 pounds. We are used to stretching; they hold up curtains and portieres. Every one in the house stretches. There is no such thing as walking under a bar without reaching up for a grasp and stretch. The immense power of the penis and, in fact, of the whole monkey tribe, is derived from the horizontal bar activities of the forest, swinging from branch to branch with one hand or both.

Some men are wondrous strong of arm. Others have supreme strength of back, others of neck, others of thigh, others of calf, etc. Some have muscles like knots, some have them long and stringy. Give me the long muscled man any time for sturdy endurance. The monkey is deficient in leg. He walks but little and seldom runs. He does most of his traveling by means of his arms and tail, the latter being his sixth sense. It is a billion pitiful man lost his prehensile appendage. It would aid him immensely as a strap-hanger. He could hold his newspaper in both hands while hanging by his tail, carry a lot of bundles in his feet and be semi-comfortable.

WEAK TICKET, SAYS GLENN.

The Governor Thinks the Democrats Will Have Easy Selling in Maintaining Former Majorities. Observer Bureau. The Holloman Building, Raleigh, Aug. 28.

"While a number of those on the state ticket named by the Republicans in Charlotte are unknown to me, others I do know," said Governor Glenn to-day. "They are men of good, clean, upright character, but from a political standpoint it is certainly the weakest ticket that has been named in years. Some are of the old Russell regime; others actively associated with trusts and monopolies, while still others have had little to do with the material, industrial and educational advancement of the State that they are actually unknown. The fact that two men on the ticket are from Mecklenburg and two from Rowan shows how hard pressed the convention was to get together a representative ticket. I think Democrats will have easy selling in maintaining former majorities."

When the stomach, heart or kidney nerves get weak, then these organs always fail. Don't drug the stomach, don't stimulate the kidney. That is simply a make-shift. Get a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is prescribed expressly for weak kidney nerves. WOMAN'S NIGHTMARE. No woman can be happy without children; it is her nature to love them as much so as it is the beautiful and pure. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass is so full of dread that the thought fills her with apprehension. There is no necessity for the reproduction of life to be either very painful or dangerous. The use of Mother's Friend prepares the system for the coming event, and it is passed without any danger. This remedy is applied externally, and has carried thousands of women through the crisis with but little suffering. It contains information of value to all expectant mothers mailed free. WORK OF PETTY THIEVES. Offices in Court House Entered But Nothing of Value Secured—The Boldness of the Would-Be Robbers. It is evident that there is a gang of sneak thieves operating in the city which has no respect whatever for the places where they work. Several days ago The Observer made mention of the fact that somebody had entered the Second Presbyterian church and had broken open the money drawer in the Sunday school room. This sanctuary was invaded as if it were nothing more than a country cross-roads store. Yesterday morning when Clerk of Court J. A. Russell entered his office in the court house he found his money drawer open and the contents of one of his desks scattered all over the room. The thieves had entered and ransacked the place but had secured nothing. They also entered the office, several doors below, of Tax Collector W. N. Peoples, but got nothing there save a few pencils and two big juicy red apples. A pair of new suspenders which were also in the drawer were thrown out but left untouched. If things continue as they are now Chief of Police Christenbury will either soon have his pockets picked or the till of the police station will be rifled directly under the eyes of the officers. There is no telling where the thing will stop.

ALMOST BENT DOUBLE. MAN'S NECK BADLY TWISTED. James W. Watts, of This City, Suffered Severely and Was Relieved With Deep Knowledge of Subject Drifted Into Consumption. Look up the records! While Dr. Joseph Noyes King advocates the use of the horizontal bar, he is not too radical. His system is fitted with nicked bars at every door capable of sustaining a weight of 300 pounds. We are used to stretching; they hold up curtains and portieres. Every one in the house stretches. There is no such thing as walking under a bar without reaching up for a grasp and stretch. The immense power of the penis and, in fact, of the whole monkey tribe, is derived from the horizontal bar activities of the forest, swinging from branch to branch with one hand or both. During the course of his remarks last night this interesting platform speaker displayed a thorough knowledge of theills and afflictions to which humanity is subject, and of the treatment of disease by the use of nature's herbal remedies, such as Dillingham's Plant Juice preparations. That this method is to-day proving one of nature's greatest boons to mankind is being daily demonstrated in Charlotte, as shown by the following statement of the relief obtained through the use of the Plant Juice remedies by James W. Watts: "I have been a great sufferer from lumbago and a rheumatic trouble, which affected my neck. The lumbago caused me to suffer pains which at times were more than I would be able to bear, while I was unable to hold my head straight on account of the rheumatism affecting the muscles of my neck. Nothing but these troubles appeared to do me the least good until I tried Plant Juice. When I listened to Colonel Dillingham's lecture talk on rheumatism I was convinced that he knew what he was talking about and gave the medicine a trial. I now have absolutely no pains at all in my joints or back and the pains in my neck have disappeared. I have also used two bottles of the Plant Juice Liniment, which was the means of enabling me to straighten my neck and back."

THE RAIN. The doors won't open and the fire won't burn. This rainy weather gives you room to complain, for the streets are muddy and the sidewalks, too; the street cars are cranky and so are you. Your clothes are soggy and out of shape. Your umbrella is missing and your overshoes leak. This rainy weather is much to blame for your sweet disposition going wrong again. Your Stieff piano is about the only thing that don't seem to care for incessant rain. THE VERDICT. is the same everywhere, every time. Mrs. Joe Person, Charlotte, N. C. Dear Mrs. Person: I have been intending to write to you for several months to thank you for your wonderful medicine. I had a little child, one year old last July, and he was taken sick in June with a stomach trouble, and I had two doctors to attend him and they did not do him any good. He was sick about three months and every one who saw him thought he would die. He was nothing but skin and bone. I quit the doctors' medicine and went to giving him your Remedy and he began to improve at once, and one and one-half bottles cured him sound and well. He is now nearly two years old and is fat and well. Every time my children get sick I give them your Remedy. I think it is the best medicine in the world to-day. May God bless you for the good you and your Remedy have done your fellow man. Yours truly, MRS. MINNIE DURHAM, Glencoe Mills, Burlington, N. C., April 24, 1907.
