

Social and Personal

Mrs. Don Richardson has returned from Gastonia, where she was the guest of Mrs. L. L. Jenkins. In spite of the numerous requests for dance last night at Dilworth Hall, it was thought best to postpone this event until Tuesday night of next week. Some unique features will be devised to add to the occasion peculiar pleasures, in addition to those which unforgettably characterize these dances. This will be the third of the season at Dilworth Hall.

FROM INDIANA IN WAGON. North Carolinian Returns to His Native State After Spending Three Years in the West. Mr. J. M. Stikeleather, formerly of this State, arrived here yesterday from Richmond, Ind., where he has lived for three years. He came all the way in a two-horse wagon and was accompanied by his wife and four children. On seeing the travel-stained wagon, horses and people an Observer man instituted an investigation and ascertained the foregoing facts. "When did you leave Indiana?" asked the reporter. "Seventeen days ago." "How far have you traveled?" "Nine hundred and sixty-eight miles." "Why did you return to this country?" "I like it here," said Mr. Stikeleather. "I am going to the Atherton Mill settlement, where most of my people live. I was born in Alexander county. My father was Frank Stikeleather. "We came all the way from Indiana without getting wet. We had a little rain four different days but not enough to hurt." By trade Mr. Stikeleather is a plumber and he will get employment here. His family and his horses are tired of the road.

Medical College Doing Well. The North Carolina Medical College has settled down to steady work. The few days which have elapsed since the opening have brought the customary number of students who do not matriculate on the first day and the prospects are very bright for a successful year's work. The faculty is stronger than ever, the students are enthusiastic and united and the entire institution is in shape to do effective and thorough work.

White Man Arrested on Twofold Charge. Will Braswell, a white man of the city, was arrested last night on a warrant charging him with beating a colored man, and with carrying a pistol. A second warrant was issued charging him with assaulting Mamie Baker with a deadly weapon, to-wit, a pistol. In default of bonds of $10 and $15 he spent the night in the station.

BRIEFS. A Few Minor Happenings in and About the City.

The Statesville Landmark avers that chinquapins are ripe. Rev. J. A. Baldwin will preach Sunday morning at Brevard Street Methodist church. Mr. Wesley Graham, a son of Mr. Robert Graham, of Sharon township, is extremely ill with typhoid fever. Mr. Charles Gorman, who has charge of the Selwyn barber shop, will also manage the shop in the new Stonevale Hotel. Mr. T. C. Toomey is resting well from an operation, which he underwent for appendicitis at the Mercy General Hospital. Dr. Myers G. Hunter was operated on for appendicitis yesterday morning at St. Peter's Hospital. He was getting along well last night. Children keep flooding to the city schools and when Superintendent Graham makes another count Monday he expects to find quite an addition to his tribe. Claybourne Mott, an escaped convict from Richmond, Va., was taken away from the local jail yesterday by an officer from that city. He was arrested this week at the home of Mr. Mott's mother in the local police yesterday amounted to 43 bales at 8.85. For the corresponding day of last year the record shows a marketing of 44 bales at 12.25. The friends of Misses Jessie and Letitia Willis will be glad to learn that they are improving. They have fever at their home on South Boulevard. D. R. Jenkins has sold to Mattie P. Dwyer a tract of 60 acres in Sharon township, adjoining the lands of W. W. Alexander. The consideration was $1,500. Mr. Julius Snipes, the popular Western Union messenger boy, is quite sick with fever in his room in a business block on Church street. He will probably be taken to a hospital to-day.

Elizabeth Opening Wednesday. The event of next week in educational Charlotte will be the opening of Elizabeth College Wednesday, the 16th. Preparations are now under way at the college for this event and everything is being put in ship-shape fashion for the reception of the scores of young ladies whom the incoming trains will unload at the Southern and Seaboard passenger stations during the first days of the coming week. Most of the faculty members have already arrived. An informal programme will be rendered on the opening day.

GAVE HUSBAND RAT POISON. Negro Woman Held on Charge of Murdering Her Husband in This Manner. Special to The Observer. Anderson, S. C., Sept. 11.—Eliza Moats, a negro woman 40 years old, was placed in jail here this afternoon charged with the murder of her husband. Evidence at the coroner's inquest held to-day was to the effect that she had administered rough-on-rats, mixing the poison with his food. Arsenic was found in the stomach after a chemical examination, made by Dr. J. C. Harris. The negroes lived on a farm seven miles northeast of Anderson. Moats worked hard in the field all day Wednesday and was apparently in good health, being of powerful build. After eating supper he became ill and Dr. Harris was called the following morning. He suspected that something was wrong, and as the negro died a few minutes after he arrived he removed the stomach and brought it here, where it was examined.

Mount Gilead Institute Opens. Special to The Observer. Mount Gilead, Sept. 11.—Mount Gilead Institute opened this week with bright prospects for a successful year. The new principal, Prof. R. C. Hard Times Not Affecting Colleges. "It is strange to me," said an observant citizen, "that there is so much talk of hard times in the country and yet what doors of the colleges are opened, record-breaking attendances are registered. The reports from the institutions so far are to the effect that there is not only no falling away in attendance, but many colleges have larger numbers of students than ever before."
