Tuesday and Wednesday nights the people of Raleigh greatly enjoyed the presentation of the popular extravaganza "Slumberland," as presented by a big company of amateur talent, the affair being for the benefit of the Old Ladies' Home, maintained by St. Luke's Circle King's Daughters. It was one of the presented amateur attractions Raieigh has enjoyed in a long while, and a goodly sum was netted for the Old Ladies' Home. Notable among the par-ticipants were Miss Mary Ray, Miss Bettle Russ, Miss Kathleen Sherwood, Mrs. Eamuel Young, Miss Annie Rogers, Miss Emms Jones, Dr. W. C. Horton, Dr. C. O. Abernathy, Mr. Walter Durham, Mr. Will Heller and Mr. O. H. Alford.

The Raleigh Philharmonic Orchestra which, in connection with the Raleigh Society, gave the most brilliant music festival in the history of Raleigh, was reorganized for the coming season Wednesday night with Prof. Gustaf Hagedorn as director, and rehearsals will be held regularly at the Baptist University. work of the Raleigh Choral Society will also be resumed very soon under the direction of Prof. Wade R. Brown, music director of the Baptist University. This organization comprises more than one hundred of the most talented vocalists

There was a pretty home wedding Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents when Miss Effe Lillian Davis became the bride of Mr. R. E. Williams, the ceremony being performed by Rev. L. B. Jones, pastor of Central Methodist Miss Edna Powell attended the chusch, Miss Edna Powers and Mr. Floyd brids as maid of honor and Mr. Floyd Hackney was best man. The bride and bridegroom are popular young people of this city.

Next Thursday in the First Baptist church, this city, there will be the mar-riage of Miss Bessie L. Goodno and Mr. William R. Kennette, conductor on the Seaboard Air Line, Raleigh to Richmond. The ceremony will be at 3:45 o'clock. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Charles Goodno, of this city.

Friday night at the Johnson Memorial chapel Miss Mattie Crawford, daughter of Mrs. N. H. Crawford, became the bride of Mr. J. W. Parrish, the ceremony being performed by Rev. R. S. Stevenson. Miss Mary Britt was maid of honor and Mr E E Lee best man

Friday the people of Raleigh were surprised to learn of the marriage of Mr. Harry Pool, of this city, and Miss Mary Allen, of Neuse, near Baleigh. The ceremony took place secretly at the residence of Rev. R. S. Stevenson in this city, They have now gone for a wedding trip

Miss Sadee W. Robbins was the hostess Thursday evening for a delightful little party in honor of her guest, Miss Evelyn Wood, of Jacksonville, Fla. The principal entertainment was progressive hearts. In the decorations and in the refreshments served the color scheme was pink and

The Raleigh Women's Christian Temperance Union met Thursday evening with Mrs. Swindell for the first time since early summer and considered the matter of delegates to the State convention to be held in Reidsville, October 7th to lith, but deferred final appointments until it can be ascertained just who can go. The union declared its purpose to strive for an effective enforcement of the prohibition law hereabouts.

The Johnston-Pettigrew Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, reorganized for the coming season Wednesday in a meeting at the Soldiers' Home, Mrs. Josephus Daniels being president. The chapter is to be made later.

Miss Mary Pruden has gone to Hender-Miss Mattle Shaw, of Shawboro, is here, the guest of Mrs. Gaston P. Folk, Mrs. R. B. Glenn and Miss Rebekah Glenn are spending some time at Atlantic City. They are accompanied by Miss Jean niece and ward of Governor Glenn.-Rev. I. McK. Pittinger, D. D., rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, has returned from Connecticut, where he spent several weeks on the shore of Long Island sound. He was ac-Skinner, and son, Mr. Paul Pittinger. Norwood G. Carrell and wife, Dr. Delia Dixon-Carroll, are at home again after a stay in Baltimore and at Atlantic City.-Miss Belle Andrews is at home again after visiting her sister, Mrs. Peron in Baltimore.-Mrs. E. C. Duncan has returned from a stay of several weeks mountains of western Carolina. Miss Christine Busbee has gone to South Orange, N. J., where she will spend the winter teaching.-Miss Flora Creech left this week for Asheville, where she will several days and then join a party for a trip across the continent.-Mrs. Leo D. Heartt is in Durham for a week with her daughters, Mrs. Graham and Mrs.

WINSTON-SALEM

Correspondence of The Observer. Winston-Salem, Sept. 10.—Mrs. James A. Gray entertained most charmingly Wednesday afternoon at home on Cherry street in honor of Mrs. Bowman Gray, of Bal-timore, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Gray for several weeks. Progressive dominoes was ok, who was given the first

The second prize was won by Erma Bailey and the third by
E. F. Gunu, of Orange, N. J.

A most enjoyable evening was spent Tuesday when Mrs. R. D. Jewett entertained in honor of her guest, Mrs. Lottle Glimore, of Rhode Island; Mrs. Smith Williams, of Panther Creek, and Miss E. F. Henry, of South Carolina. The invited guests were the members of Sorosis. Mrs. Jewett's book club, an organization of which she was a charter member. The she was a charter member. The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Frank Martin. The colors, white and blue, were tastefully used in the par-lor, where Dr. and Mrs. Jewett were assisted in receiving by the honor guests. Mrs. Gilmore and Miss Henry, also the officers of the Sorosia. Miss Adelaide Fries, Mrs. Garland Webb, Mrs. W. J. Conrad and Miss Minnie Collier. In the dining room Misses Mabel Ireland, Willie Edmunds. Charlotte Webb, Carroll Coleman, Eleanor Fries and Louise Bahn-son served delicious refreshments. A charming feature of the evening was the lovely vocal music rendered by Mrs. Gilmore, Mrs. T. F. Sprinkle and Mr. Joe Newton, and the instrunental numbers given by Misses Mary Critz, Louise Bahnson and Vivian Owens.

Mrs. T. S. Sprinkle entertained Wednesday afternoon at her at tractive studie a number of her pupils, former pupils and patrons. Misses Mary Cromer, Kate Jenkins and guest, Miss Bessie Steere, of Charlotte, greeted the guests in the hall. Receiving with Mrs. Sprinkle were Mrs. W. L. Terrell, Miss Mary Medearis and Miss Sallie Ogburn. A very attractive musical programme had been arranged and was greatly enjoyed by the guests.

HICKORY.

Correspondence of The Observer.

Hickory, Sept. 10 .- No surer sign of the approach of autumn can be found than the awakening to activity among the club women. The various book clubs have been busy for the past few weeks, making selections from recent publications. The only list at hand is the one made by the Round Dozen Book Club, which is as follows: "The Ancient Law." Glasgow ;"The Husbands of Edith," Mc-Cutcheon; "Mr. Crawe's Career," "The Firing Line," Chambers; "The Testing of Diana Mallory," Warl: "The Duke's Motto," MacCarthy; "The Post Girl," Booth; "The Vigil," Begbie; "The Dawn of a To-morrow," Burnett; "Fennel and Rue," Howells; "Somehow Good," De Morgan; "The Simple Case of Susan," Futrelle; "Bud," and "The "Halfway House," Hewlett.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hufham have purchased the handsome residence on Fifteenth avenue built by Rev. W. week.—Mr. Hugh D'Anna, been with the DuPont Powder Company, at Woodbury, N. J., arrived here yesterdsy and will enter Lenoir College.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Geitner left Thursday for a two weeks' visit North.—Messrs. Orin Sigweeks' visit North.—Messrs. Orin Siglast Durward Aberlast last P. Cline, and have moved into it this week to enter the A. and M. College in an individual color in Raleigh.—Miss Hazel Elliott left and while, which was beautiful; the dining room in crimson, which was as the fully entertained Wednesday afterent and Mrs. D. McIver of Ocala, Fla. are in green which is slaway refreshing, ham. The game of cards was very colleges. Mr. Gerald Johnson, to Mrs. D. McIver of Ocala. visiting friends here. was formerly Miss Justina McIntosh. of this place, and was very popular in social and musical circles.—Mrs. S. P. Withers of Virginia, is visiting Mrs. E. B. Jones on Ninth avenue.

Mr. C. C. Moore, of The Charlotte Observer, was in Hickory several days this week. In a pleasant conversation with him about that paper it was brought out that he is endeavoring to place The Observer in the homes of the people to be read there by the wives and daughters, as well as in the offices and places of business, where it is almost universally read and enjoyed by the husbands and sons. Why it should be considered fitting and proper for a man to and of no importance for a woman to be so informed, is one of the things past understanding. The writer ventured to say that in a woman's club where current news is given, she could lay her finger upon every member was a delightful tribute to the jurist who reads The Observer—so well do Those present were: Wr. John C.Kilgo, they keep in touch with the events of the day.

LEAKSVILLE.

Correspondence of The Observer

Leaksville, Sept. 10 .- Monday evenplanning most interesting special efforts ing Miss Iola Sweaney gave a most for the next few months, announcements delightful boat-ride on Lake Come to be made later. Across at Spray in honor of the Misses King's house party, Misses Ettle and Evelyn Aydlett, Margaret Taylor and son for a visit before returning to her Katharine Futrell. About sixty guests making a strike, won a dainty plece home in Edenton. She was the guest of were fortunate enough to receive invi-Mrs. Charles . Root while here the past tations to this, one of the most enjoyreek.-Rt. Rev. James Blount Cheshire, able affairs of the summer. Mr. and William H. Branson, Mrs. Joe Grabishop of the Diocese of North Carolina. Mrs. J. B. Taylor, Dr. and Mrs. and Mrs. Cheshire have returned from Sweaney and Dr. Mebane chaperoned England after attending the Anglican the party. Across the moonlit waters convention and Lambert conference. - floated the cheery voices of those who unknown. "The moonlight was a pleasing fever, the stars were ciphers, the flowers were letters and the stars were ciphers, Mrs. W. M. Fallon. Mrs. W. M. Fallon. the flowers were letters and the air buthrle, Mrs. Edward C. Murier, the flowers were letters and the boats B. U. Brooks, Mrs. C. W. Toms, Mrs. was coined into song," and the boats B. U. Brooks, Mrs. C. W. Toms, Mrs. W. J. Griswold, Mrs. J. C. Michie, Mrs. J. C. Michie, Mrs. Alphonsus Cobb, mand, as were the swings and the see saws, and the mineral spring hard by was a popular resort. Later on, decompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Leigh Miss Sweancy was a charming hostess lightful refreshments were served. and dispensed happiness wherever she wandered, and the occasion will be a bright spot on this "checkerboard of nights and days." Tuesday evening the young men gave an enjoyable dance to Misses Ettie and Evelyn Aydlett, at the home of Doctor Mehane, where the polished floor and the fine music made one feel that he was floating in a happy dream. The night was dedicated to joy and none in all that bevy had brought with her one care abroad. Refreshing potations were quaffed throughout the evening, and later an elegant collation was served.

Wednesday evening Polk Miller with his quartette was heard with pleasure at the institute auditorium.

Mrs. Flynn entertained Thursday afternoon the History Club, and an interesting programme was rendered, and the afternoon was successful as usual with this charming hostess.

Thursday evening Col. B. K. Terry entertained a select party in honor of the Misses King's house party; and the colonel, who had just arisen from an illness, was in good trim and was enthusiastically greeted by his many friends who ever delight to visit his hospitable bachelor home in the meadows. The place, the hour, the

Mrs. Gray was assisted by Mesdames R. F. Gray, Watt Martin and A. H. Galloway.

A most enjoyable evening was spent Tuesday when Mrs. R. D. Jewett entertained in honor of her guest, Mrs. Lottle Gilmore, of Rhode Island; Mrs. Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Phelps. Mr. and Mrs. McAlister, chaperoned Mr. and Mrs. McAlister, chaperoned the party. Hearty were the guests in their expressions of appreciation and pleasure of the occasion.

DURHAM.

Correspondence of The Observer. Durham, Sept. 10 .- At the home of the bride's parents Tuesday evening Miss Margaret Emma Brown was given in marriage to Mr. Elmer H. Dinkelbihler. The home was prettily decorated for the wedding, which was a very quiet one, few knowing anything about it till the license was issued. It is not known where Mr. issued. It is not known where Mr. and Mrs. Dinkelbrihler will live, as the groom's home is in Missouri. He is a traveling salesman and makes Durham his headquarters, so it is supposed when they return from their our they will live here for awhile

Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Wharton, missionaries to Cuba, who have been visiting in Durham and this State, have left for home. Rev. Mr. Wharton is missionary to Cuba for the Southern Presbyterian Church, and Dur-ham is particularly interested in him and his wife as they are really Durhanites. Mr. Wharton was at one time a member of the faculty of the school and his wife was Miss Annie Ramsey, daughter of the late Capt. N. A. Ramsey, They came home on a furlough from work in order to visit friends here and at other places. It is Mrs. Wharton's first visit since the death of her father.

Misses Katle and Mary Johnson, daughters of Dr. N. M. Johnson, who have been sightseeing in New York and other points, have returned, they were accompanied by their cousin, Blackwell Markham, who is a teacher in the metropolis.—Mrs. Octa D. Thomas, Miss Kate Durham and Miss Pearl Harward have returned from a trip to Baltimore. Mrs. Thomas went to New York.—Ten people from here left las week on the trip got up by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gattis. These are Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Moore, Miss Mattie Booth, Miss H. L. Adkinson, Miss Josephine Maynor, Mrs. J. W. Allen, Miss Lina Washington Cruso; Messrs. H. E. Seaman, T. E. Allen and E. C. Parrish.—Miss Kate Herndon, who has for some time been in Richmond at a house party, has returned -Miss Jean Venable has returned from Graham, where she was a member of the house patry given by Miss Ione Scott.—Mr. and Mrs. George L. Lyon are at home again from Ashville, where Mrs. Lyon and children spent the summer .- Mrs. P. Vaughan and daughter, Miss Lida Carr and Annie Louise, have returned from their summer trip to the moun tains in the western part of the

are | in green v little Miss Louise Cook, who in he dainty little white dress very prettily and gracefully received the cards at the door. Miss Kearney presided at the punch bowl. In the dining room Mrs. oseph Graham and Mrs. B. U. Booker received, assisted by Miss Genevia Cheatham, Miss Fannic Markham and Miss Carelyn Kearney, who served the refreshments which harmonized in color with the crimson decorations of the dining room.

Prof. and Mrs. Robert L. Flowers at their beautiful home at Trinity Park entertained at dinner last week in honor of Judge E. B. Jones, read and know the news of the day, was holding Durham court. The table and of no importance for a woman was a most beautiful sight, to say nothing of the many elegant things that were served. The party was that were served. composed mostly of Trinity people and more especially of law students. It was a delightful tribute to the jurist. Dean S. F. Mordecai, Dr. W. P. Mr. R. Percy Reade, Prof. A. C. Mc-Intosh, Col. G. W. Flowers,

> Mrs. James A. Robinson was hostess at a large bowling party Friday morning of last week, from 10:30 until 12, at Lakewood Park. There were gev-Mrs, J. C. Biggs receiving a pretty wa ter-colored landscape for the highest score. Everybody had one roll for the consolation and Mrs. J. S. Cobb, of china. Those present were: Mrs. H. Erwin, Mrs. J. C. Biggs, Mrs. ham, Mrs. Paul C. Graham, Mrs. Julia Sasser, Mrs. I. N. Carr, Mrs. J. E. Stagg, Mrs. George A. Carr, Mrs. Paul Taylor, Mrs. George Frappe, Miss Will Hundley, Mrs. J. T. Rose, Mrs. W. L. Wall, Mrs. Alphonsus Cobb, Mrs. Frank L. Fuller, Mrs. A. Cheatham, Mrs. Julius Duncan, Mrs. J. S. Manning, Mrs. J. S. Cobb, Mrs. T. M. Gorman, Mrs. Lewis O. Jones and Mrs. Walter Hale. A delightful course of ice cream and cake was served after the games were

Friday evening of last week Judge

The following card has been received by the friends of the couple. They are both Durhamites and their wed-ding will be a matter of general in-Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Whitaker equest the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Bessie Dixon ment.

Mr. Arthur Vance Cole Mr. Arthur Vance Cole

'ednesday evening the sixteenth of September
at nine-thirty o'clock
hundred and thirteen Broadway

ful climate and returned greatly re-freshed and rested.

Misses Bessie and Margaret Erwin at their beautiful home, "Hillcrest," in West Durham, entertained last Saturday night in honor of Miss Corrina Gant and her three brothers, of Burlington. The home, aiready very beautiful, was still more beautiful with flowers and lights. Eucre was with flowers and lights. Eucre was played to the delight of the young people, who are too full of fun and chatter to take any time in playing a "thinking" game. After spending some hours in this delightful manner, a course luncheon was served, arter which the guests bade their hostess

Those present were: Miss Corrina Gant, Miss Madge Mersshon, Miss Rebecca Michie, Miss Anna Branson, Miss Jean Venadle, Miss Placide Kramer, Miss Bessie Erwin, Miss Gertrude Winston and Miss Margret Erwin; the Messrs. Gant. Tom Worth, Frank Webb, R. H. Lewis, Jr., Wiff Minor, John Hall Manning, Orin Lloyd and Mr. Lawson.

This wedding card, issued Wesdes-day, will interest Durham people: Mr. and Mrs. Leonidas James the marriage of their daughter

Maude Estelle

Mr. Samuel Excell Lindsay on Wednesday afternoon, September the sixteenth, nintecen hundred and at four o'clock

Sherwood Heights, Durham, N.

The young people have lived here all their lives and are quite well known. There is a satisfaction in knowing they will continue to reside Miss Lila Wright has from a very extended visit to Nova Scotia and the atern coast of the country. Miss Wright has been gone four weeks, and had a most nearly delightful trip. She was joined in New York by her uncle, Mr. R. H.

OXFORD.

Wright.

Correspondence of The Observer. Oxford, Sept. 10 .- The opening the graded school was the special feature of interest this week. Promptly Monday morning at the ringing of the school bell, 291 scholars assembled in the chapel of the school where many patrons of the institution gathered. The exercises opened with singing, followed by prayer and short address by Rev. Mr. Massee, of the Methodist church. Superintendent J. R. Conley made a few remarks in taking charge of the school. The teachers in charge of the grades are: Prof. P. O. Bryant, Mrs. James Paris, Mrs. H. H. Fleming, Miss Jeannette Biggs, Miss Ada Gray,

The very cosy and attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. William Massemburg vas the scene of a charming tea party Tuesday evening, given complimentary to Miss Alleen Cooper, of Fayetteville, who is their guest for a few days. The invited guests were: Mr. Crawford of Ahoskie; Miss Julia Cooper, of Henderson: Miss Mary Cooper, Miss

The residence being erected on College street by Mr. Walter Starke is night for Boston, Mass., for a year's to be completed at an early day and study at the New England Conwill be occupied by his family as their future home.

Bishop J. M. Horner, of Asheville, is homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hicks have returned from an extended visit in New They were accompanied by York. Miss Aileen Minor, who is now in Raleigh at the Baptist University completing her studies.

The young men who leave for col-

Landis. At this meeting Mrs. W. H. o'clock and continued until 1, when it was White, president of the chapter, was with regret that adieus were said and a elected delegate to attend the annual very enjoyable occasion was at an end, convention at Goldsboro. The mem- The german was beautifully led by the bers of this chapter are making ear- regular club leader, Mr. S. F. Burbank, nest endeavor to complete the Con- Jr., who, taking as his partner, Miss federate monument and will in all Elizabeth Hill, introduced many new and probability be able to unveil the mon- beautiful figures. The following couples ument in the spring of 1909. A were on the floor: H. Phelps and Miss George C. Goodman returned Saturat Lakewood Park. There were several interesting and exciting games early date and promises to be an Annie Nicholson, F. S. Worthy and Miss after which trophies were awarded, amusing and very attractive occasion. May Belle Small, Murray Jones and Miss Invitations have been received here by many friends to the marriage of Macon, Ga., Pattle Baughm, James Ellison and Miss Miss Annie Lee Currin, of Macon, Ga., to Mr. Eugene M. Lewellyn. The bride-to-be is a granddaughter of Plymouth, and Miss Muse Blount, L. Rev. Dr. R. H. Marsh and a native of Oxford. She will be warmly welcomed by the people here. Mr. Lewellyn is a young business man of Oxford and most favorably regarded Mace, of Baltimore; C. R. Bright and in this community, being associated Miss Ella Mace, of Baltimore; Lindsay in business with his uncle, Mr. J. P. Warren and Miss Tillie Haughton, F. H. Edwards, who is justly regarded in Bryan and Miss Myers. Edmund Harding this community as one of "nature's and Miss Bessie Conally, E. A. Daniel noblemen.

A protracted meeting is going on the Methodist church here, In which the pastor, Rev. Mr. Massee, is assisted by Rev. L. B. Jones, pastor of Central Methodist church, Raleigh. These meetings are well attended and will do much good in the community

The family of Capt. J. T. Elmore is on a visit to Mr. Elmore's mother in Weldon. -Mrs. Walton, of Nor-Robert W. Winston gave a dinner party in honor of Judge E. B. Jones. A few friends at the bar were present and a delightfully informal affair it was. Judge Jones received the town's tributes in his first visit here and found a city of delightful entertainment. folk, is here with her friend, Mrs. C. visiting Mrs. J. S. Brown, -Mrs Emma Russell, of New York, so well known here in her youth as Miss of her sister, Miss E Emma Harris, is visiting friends and city for a few days. relatives in Granville.

CONCORD.

Correspondence of The Observer. Concord, Sept. 10.—September 4th, 1908, marked the passing of the tenth mile-post in the life of little Helen Elizabeth Marsh, and in commemoration of the event a number memoration of the event a number of her little friends spent the afterof her little friends spent the afternoon with her at her pretty home on South Union street. The usual games of "Drop the Handkerchief," "Ring William," etc., were played, after which a peanut hunt was enjoyed, Having secured the largest number of peanuts little Miss Alva Blackweider and Master Frank Caldwell were each presented with a box of Huyler's candy by their charming hostess. The time passed all too rapidly and the hour for leaving came all too soon for this happy crowd who had spent so delightful an afternoon. Most elegant refreshments of cream, cake and mints to commem

Monday afternoon Miss Margaret Bell, the attractive little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bell, was "at home" to a party of her friends, and again a most pleasant afternoon was spent. With the invitation came a request for each guest to bring his or her baby picture, for a guessing centest was to be one of the features of the afternoon. After the photos had been numbered and arranged in conspicuous places and each guest given a paper with pencil attached the guessing began in earnest. How eagerly they did scan the faces of the photos, trying to recognize whose they were. When time was called Miss Frances Ridenhour to have been the fortunate winner of the "box of sweets" which was in waiting for the successful one. Most tempting refreshments were served and thus closed another happy afternoon for the little folks.

Miss Naomi Lytch, of Laurinburg, is the guest of Mrs. R. A. Brower.—
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Craven, of Pittsburg. Pa., are guests of Mr. and Mrs.
K. L. Craven.—Miss Nan Cannon returned Tuesday after an absence several months abroad.—Mrs. H. Barrow is visiting relatives in King's Mountain.—Mrs. Julius McGrath and daughter, Miss Kathryn, and son, Master Tom, of Oxford, Ga., are visiting at the home of Rev. T. W. Smith. — Miss Shirley Montgomery and little Miss Lucy Richmond Lentz spent several days in Charlotte last last Thursday for Lenoir College .-Mrs. John B. Sherrill left Tuesday for Miss Sadie Belk, of Monroe, who has been the guest of Miss Myrtle Pemberton for a week, returned home Thursday.—Mrs. R. A. Brown and daughters, Misses Maud and Grace, are visiting in Asheville.

THOMASVILLE.

Correspondence of The Observer. Thomasville, Sept. 10.-The Ladies'

Tuesday Afternoon Book Club held its initial meeting for the new year last Tuesday afternoon at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Johnson, their daughter, Miss Mary, being the charming hostess. The subject for study was Samuel Clemens (Mark Twain), and a very interest-ing and comprehensive paper on the subject was prepared by Mrs. J. T. of services. Cramer and read in her most excellent style. Mrs. Edgar Dixon tead a very choice and amusing selection Miss Jeannette Biggs, Miss Aua White, Miss Annie Crews, Miss May White, from Mark Twain, which was miss Lucy Webb, Miss Fleming, Miss cr.joyed. The musical features, consisting of a very fine 'inst'uniental duet by Mrs. J. L. Armileld and Mrs. The D. Myers and also some plano John R. Myers, and also some plane soles by Miss Mary Johnson, were de-lightful. Besides the members present the guests were: Miss Brown, C.; Miss Jennie L. Sumof Aiken, S. ner, of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Bryant and Mrs. Hoye, of the city. Delicious refreshments were at the close of this delightful meet-

Miss Ella Lambeth left Thursday sorvatory of Music. She was ac-companied by her brother, James E. Lambeth, and also Miss Elizabeth Atkins of Weaverville, who will also Lambeth, and also Miss Elizabeth Atkins, of Weaverville, who will also went by water from Norfolk to New Julian and Miss Perry Griffith to the E. W. Brawley. Presbyterian College at Charlotte Miss Annie Thomas and Allen Thompcon to Salem, Miss Annabel Lambeth to Trinity College, and a number of others.

WASHINGTON.

Cannady and Marshall Pinnix to Cannady and Marshall Pinnix to Chapel Hill, Bert Tayor to Oak Ridge.

James Buchanan to Wake Forest, Willie Alston to A. and M. College to Willie Alston to A. and M. College to Parke special course in electrical work.

Washington, N. C., Sept. 10.—2 delightful subscription dance was given Tuesday evening in the pariors of the Elks Club by the young men of the city complimentation. The September meeting of the "Granvifle Grays" chapter, U. D. C., was held at the elegant home, just completed, of Mr. and Mrs. William William E. Smith. Dancing began at 10 Cathrine Small, D. M. Carter, Jr., and Miss Cadie Fowle, J. D. Calais and Miss Haines, of Winston-Salem; Dr. Disoway, Rev. Dr. R. H. Marsh and a native Bell, of Shawboro, and Miss Claudia Simmons, Baxter Bell, of Shawboro, and Miss Carrie Simmons, J. M. Robinson and Miss Hatte Jones, C. L. Payne and Miss and Miss Norfleet Bryant, E. H. Moore and Miss Moore, of Norfolk, Va.: J. G. Bragaw, Jr., and Miss Willie Hargrove, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Cooke. Chaperones: Mes E. Leahy. O. W. Blakely and Miss Julia Hoyt. Stags: Walter Windley, C. Blakely, Joe Bell and Joe Morgan, of Shawbore; W. H. Ellison, Murray Short, John Bonner, Ben Dawson and Clark, of Tarboro. Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Packard and D. B.

Packard, Jr., are visiting relatives in Philadelphia.—Mrs. F. H. Short has returned home after a visit of several weeks to Buffalo Lithia Springs.—Misa Margaret Boyd. of Reidsville, is the guest of her sister, Miss Ressie Boyd, in this

LEXINGTON.

Correspondence of The Observer. Lexington, Sept. 10.—The Round Dozen Club met with Miss Veigh Hutchison last Friday afternoon for the first time since the adjournment of the club in the spring. The event proved a most enjoyable one and in the contest of the game of nations, Mrs. Joe H. Thompson won the prize, a gold stickpin. After the game Miss Hutchison served delightful refresh-

The Sewing Club held a most de-lightful meeting last week with Mis-

Very pretty and effective invita-tions on thin sheets of wood have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. James Houston Alexander to an at home Wednesday evening, September 18th.

norate the fifth anniversary of their marriage

Master Alexander Springs celebrat ed his fourth anniversary last Friday afternoon, at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Samuel W. Finch, by entertaining about twenty-five of his little friends. The weather was ideal and as the little tots romped and played on the little tots romped and played. on the spacious green lawn they made a very beautiful picture, one which grown-ups linger long to look at, the play of innocent childhood. The heart of the little host was made very happy by each guest bearing a birth-day gift. Mrs. Finch was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. D. S. Yates and Mrs. R. C. Springs. Following were the invited guests: Masters David and William Yates, Frank Deadrick, Eugene Raper, Joe Walser, Hall Phillips, Jacob Leonard. Robert Humphreys, James Alexander; Misses Katherine Walker, Christine McCrary, Mary Hargrave, Elma Hege, Frances Holt Montcastle, Dorothy Mendenhall, Grace Phillips, Alice Virginia Trice, Anna, Eliza and Mabel Grimes, Mary Mildred Hill, Doris Humphreys, Emily Hill, Elizabeth Watts, Carrie Springs, Mildred Walser and Frances Walser.

The Presbyterian Sunday school will have a picuic Thursday afternoon at the beautiful farm of Mr. Z. Walser two miles south of town. very happy time is anticipated by the entire school.

Mrs. J. M. Vanhoy, who has been week.—Miss Ada Winslow, of Brook-spending some time in Albemarie, has lyn, N. Y., arrived Thursday to visit returned to Lexington.—Miss Gerspending some time in Albemarle, has Miss Jenn Coltrane. From here she goes to Lynchburg, Va., where she enters Randolph-Macon Woman's College.—Miss Maggie Hendrix left Annia McIver, daughter of Judge Mc-Iver, of Carthage, is the guest of Mrs. Mrs. John B. Sherrill left Tuesday for M. B. Brown.—Miss Kate Malone and Hiddenite to spend several days.— Mrs. W. M. Decker, of Augusta, Ga., have been the guests of Mrs. S. E. McCrary,-Miss Mary Blount, of Arkansas, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Deadrick en route to Danville, Va., where she will teach in Roanoke College.-Miss Caldwell, of Pine Bluff, Ark., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. E. Holt, Jr. She is on her way to Agnes Scott School Atlanta.—The many friends of Capt. F. C. Robbins who has been undergoing treatment at the Presbyterian Hospital, Charlotte, are glad to know that he will soon return restored to health,-Mrs. C. A. Hunt and Miss Camille Hunt have returned home from the mountains in western North Carolina .- Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Watts have gone to London, Ky., where Mr. Watts will assist in a series

MOORESVILLE.

Correspondence of The Observer. W. L. Matheson, who received a specified as five cents.

Pennington to A. & M., Miss Helen will hold its next meeting with Mrs. for granted that this company a number of their friends in honor a measure the Southern Pow of Miss Millie Johnston, who is visiting their sister, Miss Belle McNeely.

Mr. Paul Gilbert, of Durham, spent Wednesday in town, the guest of Dr. -Mr. Harry Wylle, Jr., Heathman. of Rock Hill, S. C., spent several days here this week on business. -Miss Julia Johnston, of Davidson, visited her sister. Mrs. J. F. Brawley, this week. -Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Deaton left Wednesday for Lynchburg. Va. where they will visit relatives for several weeks. -Mr. and Mrs. J. where they will spend some time visiting relatives. -Mr. Moses White left Monday for Trinity College. -Mr. R. C. Johnston, of Statesville, was a visitor here Sunday. -Miss Fannie Walters has returned home from her trip to the Northern markets. -Mrs. day night from a trip to the mountains. -Mr. Z. V. Turlington spent Monday in Statesville, -Mr. Moore Pharr, of Charlotte, spent Tuesday and Wednesday here visiting friends. -Mr. Davidson Pharr left Wednesday for western North Carolina, where he will stay some time for his health. -Mr. McAuley, of South Carolina, in visiting his sister, Mrs. Jim Grey, this week. -Mr. Stanley Davis, of Charlotte, was a visitor in town this

CREATES BIG STIE

In exama cases, posiam stops the ing with first application and proceed heal, curing chronic cases in two In minor skin troubles, results shoter an overnight application. For experimental sample, write direct in the control of the week. -Mr. J. P. Brawley returned home Thursday from Baltimore

Monday morning the Mooresville graded school opened for the fall The following teachers term. have charge of the different grades;
Mr. Curly, principal: Misses Maud
Lentz, Camille McKorkle, Mary McNeely, Beulah Johnston, Hattle Willlams, Bettie Grey; Mesdames Morter
McNight and Lula Rodgers. McNight and Lula Rodgers.

Communion services will be held at the Associate Reformed Presby-terian church the third Sabbath in September. Preparatory services will begin next Thursday evening. Mr. Davidson will be assisted by Rev. R. E. Hough, of Charlotte,

"Damon and Pythias," which was given here by the Knights of Pythias Friday night under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. D'Oize was indeed success. The work of the local talent was exceptionally good. Those who took part in the play were: Dr. L. Frontis, Miss Camille McCorkle, Mr. T. N. Hall, A. C. Kerley, G. L. Mc-Knight, James Steele, D. W. Creswell and little Allen Miller.

STREET CARS FOR GASTONIA.

Aldermen Grant Franchise For $200. 000 Concern to Begin Work Not Later Than January 1st, 1910-Southern Power Company to Furnish the "Juice." Gastonia Gazette.

At a meeting of the city council held yesterday afternoon at the city hall a franchise was granted Mr. W. S. Lee and Mr. L. C. Harrison to build and operate within the city limits of Gastonia an electric street car system. According to the terms Mooresville, Sept. 10.-Wednesday of the franchise work on the system afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock the is to begin on or before January 1st. Pleasure Club was delightfully en- 1910, and cars are to be in operation tertained by Misses Nona and Jett on or before July 1st, 1916. The fran-Brawley at their home on Main street. chise grants these gentlemen the privilege of constructing lines on any of the streets of the town all necessity. was played, and after a very absorb-sary pole lines, bridges and other ing contest it was found that Mes- necessary articles of equipment, this dames George Jones and W. L. work to be done under supervision of the city in conjunction with the employes of the franchise holders. which, being drawn for, fell to Mrs. The fare within the city limits is

It is understood that it is the pur-Bishop J. M. Horner, of Asheville, is a likins, of Weaverville, who will also fell to Mrs. Brawley. After this a visiting his mother at the Horner went by water from Norfolk to New water from Norfolk hostesses. Those present were: Mes- tric line from Mount Holly to King's dames W. D. Templeton, C. E. Haw-thorn, George Jones, J. P. and DeWitt Mills, J. F. and T. O. Brawley, W. L. Lowell, Gastonia, Bessemer City and the home of Miss Maud Partor the city are off for the different Matheson, J. D. Heathman; J. W. Lowell, Gastonia, Bessemer City and Colleges, Mr. Gerald Johnson, to Matheson, J. D. Heathman; J. W. possibly other towns in the county. Make Forest, where he entered the Brawley, of Greensboro; E. W. Braw-Mr. Lee is vice president and general In green, which is always refreshing. ham. The game of cards was yet, Those receiving in the different rooms were gowned according to the color. Were beautifully served. The weather were gowned according to the color. Were beautifully served. The weather was ideal and every detail went to Finch to Trinity College, Mr. Austin Grey. Kate Templeton, Mary Mc. Was ideal and every detail went to Finch to Trinity College, Mr. Casper Neely and Ruth Culbertson. The club son is also an officer, and it is taken furnish power for the system. In fact, though the franchise is granted Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Turner gave to these two men as individuals, the a charming tea Thursday evening to supposition is that they represent in pany. The capitalization of the street car company is to be $300,000 and it is understood that as soon as this is subscribed the actual work of construction will begin. Mr. Lee stated that they hoped to have the system, at least in Gastonia, 'n operation before the time set in the franchise.

> A SURE-ENOUGH KNOCKER J. C. Goodwin, of Reidaville, N. C., says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve is a sure-snough knocker for ulcers, A bad one came on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Bailey Robinson and little son, Pal-mer, left Thursday for Wilmington. Sc. at all drug stores, burns, etc.

and nervous exhaustion, brain fag, etc. At all Druggists, 10c, 25c and 50c TRY A CENT BOTTLE

Dainty Silks Carefully Dry Cleaned

If you have a silk waist or a gown that has become solled or stained by wear-send it to us. Our French Dry Cleaning process makes soiled silks like new again. 'Phone us and we will send a wagon. Correspondence solicited.

CHARLOTTE STEAM LAUNDRY

