NORTHEY-CULPEPPER.

Quiet Wedding Last Night at 7 O'clock

—Miss Elsie D. Culpepper Weds Mr.

In the presence of only relatives and a few most intimate friends, Miss Elsie D. Culpepper and Mr. James Northey were quietly married last night at 7 o'clook. The scene of the suptial celebration was the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Culpepper, No. 306 West Fifth street. Rev. Herman H. Hulten, pastor of the First Baptist church, ten, pastor of the First Baptist church, was the officiating minister. There were no attendants, the service being purposely made as simple as possible. Immediately after the weddins Mr. and Mrs. Northey left on a northound train for a bridal tour. They will spend their honeymoon in Washington, New York and other cities in that section. Returning they will make their home in Charlotte at Mr. Northey's residence on South Church street.

Mr. Northey is now district com-mercial manager, and has been for years the manager of the Charlotte department of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company. Miss Culpepper had for a number of years held the position of cashier in the office of the same corporation. Thus of the same corporation. Thus it was that their marriage was the culmination of several years of close friendship, which ripened into the closer and more hallowed bond. The bride, who is accomplished and charming, and the bridegroom, who is closely identified with the solid buginess interests of Charlotte, have hundreds of friends who wish for them the most of happiness.

The horse was ridden by Mr. Anderson Hege, a young man, who has a farm near Harmony Grove church. When services at the church were Mrs. Ketner, with friends, were walking home in the roadway, when Mr. Hege came along. He was riding fast, it is said, and the roadway was in shadow at the spot display in the Millinery room. where the fatality occurred, so that the young man did not see the pedestrians until he was almost upon them. They made a scramble for safety at the side of the road, but Mrs. Ketner was too late.

The horse's hoofs struck her down and she lay senseless in the road, with wounds on the head. Horrified, those of the party who had escaped, rushed to her side and Mr. Hege, who had succeeded in stopping the frightened horse a short distance away, came to her assistance. He was grief stricken at the tragedy, which he said

SPLIT IN HEARST PARTY.

Georgia State Chairman and National Committeeman Clapp Disagree Over the Question of Putting Out Electoral Ticket.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 17.—A serious split developed in the Independence party of Georgia to-day when Chairman Sutler, of the State executive committee, announced that no electoral ticket would be put in the field At the same time National Commit-teeman Clapp, of the party, filed with the Secretary of State a complete list of State electors.

Following a meeting of the State executive committee an official statement was given out by Chairman Bernard Sutler declaring that it was more important to wage a State campaign for Governor than to put an electoral ticket in the field. Commenting on to-day's action he

'The action of our executive committee means that our candidate, Mr. Carter, will support Bryan and Kern in the national election. It means further that Mr. Carter is an Independent Democratic candidate for Governor.'
