FURNISHING CONTRACTS LET.

Parker-Gardner Company Will Sup-ply the Farnishings Proper—Other

Contracts. The contract for the furniture for the new home for the Young Men's Christian Association was let yes-terday to the local firm of Parker-Gardner Company. Work building is being pushed and the furniture will be installed as soon as possible. That this is no small-sized task and no minfature contract will be realized by any one who has peeped within the widely separate walls of this, the finest Young Men's Christian ssociation building in this section of the Southern States. There are five recens, for instance, whose dimensions are 45x90 feet. Then there are fiftyfive dormitories which will be handly and completely furnished, so that the occupants will want for nothing and have nothing to do except turn over the cash to the business department once a month. Over $7,000 will be spent in the furnishing of the building alone.
