Happenings of Yesterday Told in Paragraphs.

John Foss, of Lewiston, Maine, has come to Southern Pines to visit Dr. Foss, editor of The Tourist. Mr. Foss is 84 years old.

On Sunday, October 11th, Piedmont Camp No. 52, Woodmen of the World, of High Point, will unveil the W. R. Taylor monument.

Col. J. R. Lane, of the immortal Twenty-sixth North Carolina Regiment, is desperately ill at his home in western Chatham. He has pneumonia with some other complications.

The Warsaw graded school and county high school has closed the first month of the current term with the largest enrollment and the best average attendance of any month in the history of the schools.

Mr. A. H. Slocumb, of Fayetteville, who was nominated for governor by the Republicans of the sixth district and who at first declined the nomination, has decided to accept the honor and will make a canvass of the district. He intimates that he would not run from a contest with Mr. Godwin, the Democratic nominee.

Saturday, October 24, will be a big day in the history of Thomasville. A grand firemen's tournament has been arranged, an interesting programme will be carried out. It is the intention to make the day brim full of excitement from early in the morning to very late at night. The programme has been arranged for the benefit of the Thomasville fire department.

Miss Anna T. Jones, who for the past four years taught in the High Point public school, has resigned. Miss Jones has been voluntarily engaged as a foreign missionary and will go to East Africa in November. Miss Mary Meggett, of Charleston, S. C., takes her place as teacher of the first grade at the Elm street school. She is a graduate of the Mount Airy Normal College at Charleston and has taught in this State in the Mount Airy graded schools.

While attending recently the convention of the Atlantic City, Mr. Charles R. Thomas, of Thomasville, entered the contest in the exhibit hall for the identification of 50 specimens of botanical drugs mentioned in the United States Pharmacopoeia and Saturday he was notified that he had won third prize and would receive it in a few days. This contest was entered into by druggists from all parts of the United States.

The superintendent of the Southern Railway and the High Point street committee of this city are to have a conference soon. The matter under discussion is the street between the station and Mrs. Jarrell's property. The city claims that the railroad company has built the depot four feet over in the road. Mrs. Jarrell also has a contract with the city that a 10-foot sidewalk shall be maintained on the south side of the street. If this is the very little space will be left on the street. The meeting is to see if the matter can be adjusted.

ALLENS ASK CITIZENSHIP.

Two Foreigners at Winston-Salem Apply For Naturalization Papers, a Rare Procedure in This State. Special to The Observer.

Winston-Salem, Sept. 27.—Foreigners desiring to become American citizens are a rarity in North Carolina, but yesterday two aliens applied to the clerk of the superior court of Forsyth county for naturalization papers. They are the only ones who have made such application here in several years and are the very first to come in under the procedure of the new naturalization laws. Freedman, a native of Russia, and Raphael Furman, an Austrian, the former being 23 years of age and the latter 35. They came here direct from New York about two weeks ago and have secured employment here. They have been in America about eight years, but speak very imperfect English. They give an interesting reason for this. They claim that the only way to get citizenship in New York where it is not at all requisite that the English language be known. Here in North Carolina, however, they will be compelled to apply themselves more closely to native speech and customs, and they appear pleased at the prospect.

The red tape of the naturalization laws is exhausting the young men have to give their personal histories in great detail and swear to all manner of things. A copy is sent to the Department of the Interior at Washington and an investigation is made to see if their statements are correct. Not for two years can they get their citizenship papers, but they say they are willing to wait.

YADKIN VALLEY FAIR.

Numerous Attractions Being Booked and a Fine Show is in Prospect—The Racing Programme. Special to The Observer.

Salisbury, Sept. 27.—The Yadkin Valley Fair, commencing Tuesday, October 13th, and continuing for five days, promises to be the big event of the year here. Numerous attractions are being booked daily, over one hundred horses having been entered for the $4,500 which the association offers for races. Farmers are making numerous inquiries and a large number of entries has been made competing in the seventeen departments which involves $3,500.
