BRIEFS

A Few Minor Happenings in and About the City.

The condition of Mrs. W. A. Graham continues to improve.

There will be a rehearsal of the festival chorus at 8:30 o'clock to-night at the Second Presbyterian church.

Yesterday's rain made manifest the need either of bitulith or macadam for the streets of Dilworth, as well as other sections of the city.

The store of the Parker-Gardner Company on West Trade street will have one of the improvements now under way finished.

All members of the September, October and November circles of the Church Improvement Society of Tryon Street Methodist church are urged to attend the meeting in the church parlors this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Charlotte National Bank Building which towers over Independence Square is a thing of beauty. The walls have been practically finished and the work hereafter will be largely interior. Several of the rooms have already been plastered.

Rev. Harris Mallinckrodt, who was painfully hurt by an automobile Wednesday night, is not yet able to be out but can sit up some. His pulpit at St. Peter's Episcopal church was filled yesterday morning and last night by Rev. R. P. Eubanks, whose sermons were much enjoyed.

An unbroken period of fair weather gave yesterday to a drizzling unpleasant rain calculated to put the world in anything but a religious frame of mind. Many who took the chance in the morning were caught at church without umbrellas. In the afternoon the downpour became steady and continual.

The theatrical event of events of the coming week in Charlotte will be the triple appearance of "The Merry Widow" at the New York and European Grand. The advance sale of seats indicate that the company will play to capacity houses Friday night, Saturday afternoon and Saturday night. Scores of people coming from out-of-town points, some from as far as Wilmington.

Recital Wednesday Evening.

Miss Esther Miller, Assisted by Mr. Cyril Baxstreser to Give Recital Wednesday Evening at Home of Mrs. A. D. Glascock.

Mrs. A. D. Glascock presents her pupil, Miss Esther Bernhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Bernhardt, in Dilworth in a piano recital to be given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Glascock, Carnegie court, Wednesday evening, September 30th at 8:30 o'clock to an audience of invited guests. Miss Bernhardt will be assisted by Mr. Cyril Baxstreser, tenor.

Miss Esther is a talented young musician and her friends will be interested in the following programme:

Piano Duet, Canzonetta from the Raymond Overture Ambrose Thomas Miss Bernhardt and Mrs. Glascock.

2. Piano Solo, Tarentelle, Heller; Gondolo and "Consolation" (from Mendelssohn's songs without words).

3. Tenor solo, "The Message"—Adolph Freyer, Mr. Baxstreser.

4. "Gavotte," Solos; Concert waltz (Durand) Miss Bernhardt.

5. Piano Duet, Norwegian Dance No. 2—(Grieg) Mrs. Glascock and Miss Bernhardt.

6. "Press thy cheek against thine own," A. Jensen; "Two Eyes of Brown," C. B. Hawley. Mr. Baxstreser.

7. Sous in Fuelle, Papillons Roses (Thomas) Miss Bernhardt.

8. "The Lotus Flower"—Schuman—Mr. Baxstreser.

9. Fanfare from William Tell overture, Rossini; Miss Bernhardt and Mrs. Glascock.

PICKS DUNHAM AS THE MAN.

California Officer Identifies Sherman, Texas, Prisoner As One Wanted in San Jose For Murder of Six Persons Twelve Years Ago.

Sherman, Tex., Sept. 27.—Deputy Sheriff Howard Buffington, of San Jose, Cal., who accompanied Sheriff Arthur Langford to Sherman for the purpose of identifying, if possible, the man held here charged with being the James S. Dunham, wanted for the murder of six persons in San Jose twelve years ago, to-day, picked the man out of a crowd of 40 prisoners.

When asked if he positively identified Held as Dunham, Deputy Buffington said:

"I do not care to answer that question until I have heard from some messages which we sent to California this afternoon."

Requestion papers for the return of Dunham to California have been secured from Governor Campbell. Dunham has an attorney who is trying to find evidence upon which to fight the return of Dunham.

Dunham is alleged, killed his wife, his wife's parents, a woman employe of the household and two other men twelve years ago in San Jose. He escaped and has not been heard from since. Hatfield, who came to this section three months ago and married a rich widow, stoutly denies that he has ever been in California.

JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS COMING.

Mississippi Senator-Elect, Congressman Clayton and Senator Bacon Booked For Political Speechings in the State.

Special to The Observer.

Winston-Salem, Sept. 27.—Chairman A. E. Eller, of the State Democratic executive committee, is here to-day from Raleigh and, in an interview, said that John Sharp Williams, Democratic leader in the House, Representative Clayton, of Alabama, and Senator Bacon, of Georgia, would be among the speakers who will be heard in North Carolina during the campaign. Their dates will be announced within a few days.

Mr. Eller's optimism for the success of the national Democratic ticket increased. He said: "While an occasional Democrat might be soiled by the corrupting touch of the Standard Oil, the world knows that Mr. Bryan is clean."

The demand for Mr. Cyrus B. Watson to speak throughout the State is insistent. If possible Mr. Watson may fill a few engagements in various cities.

Dr. Kilgo Preaches Opening Sermon to Trinity Students.

Special to The Observer.

Durham, Sept. 27.—Despite the threatening weather this morning a large audience was present in Craven Memorial Hall to hear President John C. Kilgo in his opening sermon to the Trinity College community. Many students, members of the faculty and a large number of people from the city were present. The sermon was an unusually strong one and President Kilgo delivered an effective message. Special music was arranged for the occasion and the service was a good one in all respects. Dr. Kilgo used as a basis of his discourse John 17:4. "I have finished the work Thou gavest me to do."

Miss Elizabeth Walker, who has been ill with typhoid fever for the past ten weeks, is steadily improving.

Blue Ribbon Quality Popular for 11 years and the sale of Blue Ribbon Extraordinary increases. It is here to specify Blue Ribbon Vanilla.

Use Ivory Soap for dish washing and it will cost you perhaps, two cents a week more than if you used ordinary laundry soap.

But what does that amount to, as compared with the satisfaction that comes from scrupulously clean dishes; from the improved appearance of your hands; and from the knowledge that every ingredient in Ivory Soap is sweet and clean and pure?

Ivory Soap 99 4/100 Per Cent. Pure.

THE INFLUENCE OF COLORS.

Representative of Ringling Bros.' Circus Talks of the Effect of Colors on Animals—Interior of All Cages White.

"Of the great mass of human beings who each year fill the coffers of circuses, but few can tell why it is that blue is so liberally employed for painting the seats, poles and properties," said a representative of Ringling Bros. "World's Greatest Shows," which are to exhibit here Thursday, October 15th. "Were you to ask one hundred people why the interior of animal cages is painted white, you would get a hundred different answers. Some would say that white is a color that is pleasing to the eye. It is an old saying among performers that blue inspires approbation, and many stars prefer it to any other for ring attire. It is also cooling."

"Yellow is a malignant color, bringing out the bad qualities. Animals that bear coats of the darker shade are worth keeping in the circus. The blending of yellow and brown, such as covers the tiger, is a placard of treachery and revenge, the only exception being in the giraffe."

"White promotes activity in animal life, therefore its usage for finishing cage interiors has proved to be of great value. It also suggests harmony. At the winter quarters all rooms in which the animals are kept are whipped into shape are finished in white, while the floors are covered with a spotless canvas. This carpeting is treated each evening with a white preparation, thus dispelling the dampness of usage. The elephant barns, also those in which the equines are trained, are calcimined with the same immaculate color."

Big Cotton Convention This Week.

Mr. D. A. Tompkins and Mr. W. S. Lee, the latter vice president and chief engineer of the Southern Power Company, a corporation supplying power for 1,500,000 spindles in Piedmont Carolina, are attending the meeting this week in Saratoga, N. Y., of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers.

Mr. Tompkins is in the North on business and is attending this meeting incidentally, while Mr. Lee is on the programme for an address on the subject of "The Importance of Cotton to the Preservation of Manufacturers."

Said to Have Swiped Package on Car.

The negligence of a young white boy Saturday in leaving a package of medicine on a Charlotte street car is responsible for an indictment against Marcellus Davis, colored, charged with larceny. The negro rode a bit further on the car after the small boy left, secured the package and "skidded." At least he would have done that a year or so ago. It has about gone out of fashion to "skiddo." But he was nabbed.

Bazaar For St. Peter's Hospital.

The preparations for the bazaar for St. Peter's Hospital are progressing nicely. The collections of pretty things for the fancy tables and useful articles for the country store promise to be large and unique. The decorations are being planned and prepared by skilful workers. Chrysanthemums will be exhibited from numerous growers and the lovely prizes straight from Chrysanthemum Land will be well worth competing for.
